Item 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure.

On January 23, 2017, senior management of Sanchez Energy Corporation (the Company or Sanchez Energy) will host an Analyst Day (the Analyst Day) in New York City with analysts and investors to discuss the Company's current operations, future plans and operational outlook. For the benefit of all investors, the slide presentation to be delivered at the Analyst Day is furnished as Exhibit 99.1 to this current report and will be posted along with a webcast of the Analyst Day presentation on the Company's website, www.sanchezenergycorp.com, under the section entitled "Investors." A replay of the webcast will also be available under the aforementioned section on the Company's website until April 23, 2017.

The Analyst Day presentation contains, and the Company's officers and representatives may from time to time make, forward-looking statements within the meaning of the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. All statements, other than statements of historical facts, included in the Analyst Day presentation that address activities, events, conditions or developments that Sanchez Energy expects, estimates, believes or anticipates will or may occur or exist in the future are forward-looking statements. These statements are based on certain assumptions made by the Company based on management's experience, perception of historical trends and technical analyses, current conditions, anticipated future developments and other factors believed to be appropriate and reasonable by management. When used in this presentation, words such as will, potential, believe, estimate, intend, expect, may, should, anticipate, could, plan, predict, strategy, future or their negatives or the statements that include these words or other words that convey the uncertainty of future events or outcomes, are intended to identify forward-looking statements, although not all forward-looking statements contain such identifying words. In particular, statements, express or implied, concerning Sanchez Energy's future operating results and returns, Sanchez Energy's strategy and plans or view of the market, or Sanchez Energy's ability to replace or increase reserves, increase production, generate income or cash flows, and reduce leverage ratios are forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements are not guarantees of performance. Such statements are subject to a number of assumptions, risks and uncertainties, many of which are beyond our control. Although Sanchez Energy believes that the expectations reflected in its forward-looking statements are reasonable and are based on reasonable assumptions, no assurance can be given that these assumptions are accurate or that any of these expectations will be achieved (in full or at all) or will prove to have been correct. Important factors that could cause Sanchez Energy's actual results to differ materially from the expectations reflected in its forward-looking statements include, among others:

- Sanchez Energy's ability to successfully execute its business and financial strategies;

Edgar Filing: Sanchez Energy Corp - Form 8-K

- the timing and extent of changes in prices for, and demand for, crude oil and condensate, natural gas liquids, natural gas and related commodities;
- Sanchez Energy's ability to utilize the services personnel and other assets of Sanchez Oil and Gas pursuant to existing services agreements;
- Sanchez Energy's ability to replace the reserves it produces through drilling and property acquisitions;
- Sanchez Energy's ability to successfully close the Comanche asset acquisition referred to in the Analyst Day presentation;
- the realized benefits of Sanchez Energy's various acquisitions and the liabilities assumed in connection with these acquisitions, including the Comanche asset acquisition referred to in the Analyst Day presentation;
- the realized benefits of Sanchez Energy's ventures;
- the realized benefits of Sanchez Energy's transactions with Sanchez Production Partners LP;
- the realized benefits of Sanchez Energy's partnership with Blackstone referred to in the Analyst Day presentation;
- the extent to which Sanchez Energy's drilling plans are successful in economically developing its acreage in, and to produce reserves and achieve anticipated production levels from, its existing and future projects;
- the accuracy of reserve estimates, which by their nature involve the exercise of professional judgment and may therefore be imprecise;
- the extent to which Sanchez Energy can optimize reserve recovery and economically develop its plays utilizing horizontal and vertical drilling, advanced completion technologies and hydraulic fracturing;

- Sanchez Energy's ability to successfully execute its hedging strategy and the resulting realized prices therefrom;
- the credit worthiness and performance of our counterparts including financial institutions, operating partners and other parties;
- competition in the oil and gas exploration and production industry for employees and other personnel, equipment, materials and services and, related thereto, the availability and cost of employees and other personnel, equipment, materials and services;

Edgar Filing: Sanchez Energy Corp - Form 8-K

- Sanchez Energy's ability to access the credit and capital markets to obtain financing on terms it deems acceptable, if at all, and to otherwise satisfy its capital expenditure requirements;
- the availability, proximity and capacity of, and costs associated with, gathering, processing, compression and transportation facilities;
- Sanchez Energy's ability to compete with other companies in the oil and natural gas industry;
- the impact of, and changes in, government policies, laws and regulations, including tax laws and regulations, environmental laws and regulations relating to air emissions, waste disposal, hydraulic fracturing and access to and use of water, laws and regulations imposing conditions and restrictions on drilling and completion operations and laws and regulations with respect to derivatives and hedging activities;
- developments in oil-producing and natural-gas producing countries, the actions of the Organization of Petroleum Exporting Countries and other factors affecting the supply of oil and natural gas;
- Sanchez Energy's ability to effectively integrate acquired crude oil and natural gas properties into its operations, fully identify existing and potential problems with respect to such properties and accurately estimate reserves, production and costs with respect to such properties;
- unexpected results of litigation filed against Sanchez Energy;
- the extent to which Sanchez Energy's crude oil and natural gas properties operated by others are operated successfully and economically;
- the use of competing energy sources and the development of alternative energy sources;
- the extent to which Sanchez Energy incurs uninsured losses and liabilities or losses and liabilities in excess of its insurance coverage; and

Edgar Filing: Sanchez Energy Corp - Form 8-K

- the other factors described under ITEM 1A, Risk Factors, in Sanchez Energy's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2015 and any updates to those factors set forth in its subsequent Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q or Current Reports on Form 8-K.

In accordance with General Instruction B.2 of Form 8-K, the information in this Item 7.01 (including Exhibit 99.1 incorporated herein by reference) is deemed to be furnished and shall not be deemed filed for the purpose of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act), or otherwise subject to the liabilities of that section, nor shall such information and Exhibit be deemed incorporated by reference into any filing under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Exchange Act.
