Knauf USG Customer Letter

SUBJECT: A message to Knauf customers from [INSERT]

June [●], 2018

Dear Valued Knauf Customer,

I am writing to share exciting news: Knauf has entered into an agreement to acquire USG, an industry-leading manufacturer of building products and innovative solutions. As some of you may know, the Knauf group has been a supportive investor in USG for almost 20 years. During that time, Knauf has been convinced of the strategic merits of a combination with USG as it will enhance our presence in North American wallboard and ceilings as well as our position as a leading global building materials company.

As a family-owned company with a long-term focused business outlook, we believe that Knauf is the ideal partner for USG and we intend to make significant investments in USG's operations to your benefit. By combining our complementary business, products, and global footprint we will create a company that will be better positioned to meet the needs of both companies' end-market customers.

Today's announcement is just the first step in a combination between Knauf and USG. We expect to complete the transaction by early 2019, subject to customary closing conditions, including regulatory approval and approval by USG shareholders. Until the transaction closes, Knauf and USG will continue to operate as separate companies.

Further, let me assure you that there will be no immediate changes in either companies' business. Ultimately, this transaction will allow the combined company to serve you even better.

We expect this transition to be smooth for you and all our customers. Following the close of the transaction, we will share details about the combined product portfolio and the even greater innovation and value we expect to deliver. For any questions, please reach out to your regular representative at Knauf.

Thank you for your continued support and business.

Sincerely,

Alexander Knauf
General Partner

Knauf USG Employee Letter

SUBJECT: A message from Alexander Knauf and Manfred Grundke

June [●], 2018

Dear USG Employees,

On behalf of Knauf, we wanted to take this opportunity to share with you the enthusiasm we have for USG, its talented employees and what we will be able to accomplish together.

For those of you who don't know Knauf, we are an international family-owned business, headquartered in Iphofen, Germany, with a global footprint in more than 70 countries and approximately 27,000 employees. Knauf has a long-term focused business outlook and we intend to make significant investments in USG that we expect will benefit all of USG's stakeholders, especially you.

Knauf has been a supportive investor in USG for almost 20 years. We have long admired USG and its strong brand and leading market positions in North American wallboard and ceilings, and we have always been convinced of the compelling strategic merits of combining our two companies.

Together with you, we share a clear objective: USG's long-term success. Knauf is committed to USG continuing to grow the strength of its brands and its presence in North America. Our highly complementary businesses, products, and global footprint will ensure the combined company is better positioned to meet the needs of both companies' end-market customers.

Bringing USG and Knauf together offers a compelling value proposition for both companies' customers, but most importantly it will lead to new opportunities for career growth and professional development for USG employees. Following the close of the transaction, Knauf intends to maintain USG's existing corporate headquarters in Chicago and its facilities in North America. Those facilities will be managed locally.

In the days ahead, members of senior management from Knauf will be visiting USG's headquarters in Chicago. We look forward to speaking with and getting to know many of you. We are excited to be part of your success going forward and accomplishing great things together.

Sincerely,

Alexander Knauf
General Partner

Knauf Transaction Employee Letter

SUBJECT: A message from [Alexander Knauf and Manfred Grundke / Christopher Griffin]

June [●], 2018

Dear [Knauf Employees / INSERT CUSTOMARY GREETING],

We are writing to share exciting news: Knauf has entered into an agreement to acquire USG, an industry-leading manufacturer of building products and innovative solutions. As some of you may know, Knauf has been a supportive investor in USG for almost 20 years. During that time, we have greatly admired USG's strong brands and leading market positions in North American wallboard and ceilings as well as its talented employees, and we have always been convinced of the compelling strategic merits of combining our two companies.

We want to share a bit more about the combination and what it means for all of us. The combined company will be a global building materials industry leader that maximizes Knauf and USG's highly-complementary businesses, products and worldwide footprint to better meet the needs of both companies' end-market customers.

We believe Knauf is the ideal partner for USG's business and we intend to make significant investments in USG's operations and its people. Our long-term investments will benefit all of our stakeholders, including employees, customers and suppliers, and we look forward to building on USG's strong presence in North America. Most important, we share a clear objective to ensure Knauf and USG's long-term success.

Today's announcement is just the first step in the process to combine our two companies. The transaction is expected to close in early 2019, subject to customary closing conditions, including regulatory approval and approval by USG shareholders. Until that time, Knauf and USG will remain separate companies. Following the close of the transaction, Knauf intends to maintain USG's existing corporate headquarters in Chicago and its facilities in North America. Those facilities will be managed locally.

Importantly, this transaction will have no impact on the Knauf Insulation business or our corporate office, which will continue to be operated from our Shelbyville headquarters. We will keep you updated at relevant points throughout the process.

All of you should be tremendously proud of your contributions to Knauf's strong global position in the building materials industry. This transaction is the next chapter in our storied history.

Thank you all for your hard work and continued commitment to our company. We are excited about our future and the opportunities that lie ahead.

Sincerely,

[Alexander Knauf
General Partner]
