Item 5. Other Events and Regulation FD Disclosure.

CyberCare, Inc. (the "Registrant") has ceased the operation of its subsidiary Physical Therapy and Rehabilitation, Inc, a Florida corporation ("PTR"). The Registrant began to cease PTR's operations over the past several months gradually closing PTR facilities due to PTR's continued operating losses and negative cash flow.

In addition, in view of continued losses and a lack of sufficient working capital, the Registrant has determined to close its pharmacy operations. The Registrant intends to concentrate on collecting its accounts receivable and selling assets which are no longer utilized.

On February 5, 2003, three of the Registrant's four independent directors John St. Genis, Paul M. Weiseneck and Thomas B. Andres resigned from the Registrant's Board of Directors. On February 7, 2003, Rodney Barrington resigned from the Registrant's Board of Directors. The Directors' decisions to resign from the Board were based upon the Company's inability to continue to pay for Officers and Directors liability insurance policy, which expired as of February 6, 2003.

The Registrant will continue to seek financing and purchasers, such that it can continue to operate its technology division while mitigating the Registrant's financial issues in order to attempt to protect its shareholders and its creditors.
