PROXY STATEMENT OF INSIGHT BANK

PROSPECTUS OF First Financial Bancorp.

Merger Proposal – Your Vote Is Important

DEAR Insight SHAREHOLDERS:

You are cordially invited to attend a special meeting of shareholders of Insight Bank (“Insight”) which will be held on May 28, 2014, at 3:00 p.m., local time, at the offices of Insight, 150 W. Wilson Bridge Road, Worthington, Ohio 43085.

At the meeting, you will be asked to adopt an agreement and plan of merger (the “Merger Agreement”) by and among Insight, First Financial Bancorp. (“Parent”) and First Financial Bank, National Association, a national banking association and a wholly owned subsidiary of Parent (“First Financial”), that provides for First Financial’s acquisition of Insight through the merger of Insight with and into First Financial (the “Merger”). Pursuant to the Merger, Insight shareholders will, in the aggregate, receive total merger consideration in the amount of $33,415,000 at the closing in exchange for outstanding shares of Insight common stock. Each share of common stock of Insight, par value $1.00 per share, that you own will be converted into a combination of cash and shares of common stock of Parent, without par value. In addition, all outstanding stock options of Insight will be cashed out at the closing of the Merger. Including payment to be made for cancelling the stock options, the fully diluted total merger consideration is valued at approximately $36.6 million as of December 19, 2013.

The number of outstanding shares of Insight common stock will change to the extent that outstanding options to acquire Insight common stock are exercised prior to the effective time of the Merger. Assuming the 1,630,000 shares of Insight common stock outstanding as of December 19, 2013 remain unchanged at the closing, for each of your shares of Insight common stock, you will receive the per share merger consideration equal to $20.50 in the form of a combination of cash and shares of Parent common stock to be calculated as set forth in the Merger Agreement. Of such per share merger consideration, 20%, or $4.10, will be paid in cash and 80%, or $16.40, will be paid in Parent common stock (including cash to be paid in lieu of any fractional shares), subject to certain adjustments depending upon changes in the market price of Parent common stock. The exchange ratio used to determine the number of shares of Parent common stock that you will be entitled to receive for each share of Insight common stock will be determined based on the average closing price (the “Parent Share Average Closing Price”) on the NASDAQ Global Select Market (“NASDAQ”) for the twenty trading days ending on the third business day prior to the effective time of the Merger, subject to a minimum and maximum price equal to $13.86 and $18.76, respectively, and certain further adjustments. The per share merger consideration will not be determined until after the date of the special meeting. Therefore, at the time of the special meeting, you will not know the precise amount of cash or number of shares of Parent common stock you may receive on the date the Merger is completed. Moreover, as a result of the Collar Restriction (as defined herein) and potential exercise of Insight stock options, the actual value of the per share merger consideration received by Insight shareholders could be significantly less than $20.50 if no outstanding Insight stock options are exercised or $17.24 if all outstanding Insight stock options are exercised. Insight’s board of directors has determined that, under certain circumstances where Insight is entitled to terminate the Merger Agreement upon the occurrence of either a Double Trigger (as defined herein) or a material adverse change with respect to Parent, Insight will not waive its termination right and proceed with the Merger without first obtaining the consent of the Insight shareholders in the event the actual value of total per share merger consideration as calculated based on the Parent Share Average Closing Price and including the effect of the exercise of Insight stock options, if any, would be less than $10.00. See “Description of the Merger Agreement – Consideration to be received in the Merger—Minimum Merger Consideration If the Merger Is Completed” on page 49.

Assuming the 1,630,000 shares of Insight common stock outstanding remain unchanged at the closing, based on a Parent Share Average Closing Price of $17.57, which is equal to the Parent Share Average Closing Price if it were calculated as if the closing date was April 28, 2014, the latest practicable date prior to the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, the merger consideration that an Insight common shareholder would be entitled to receive for each share of Insight common stock is $4.10 in cash and 0.9334 shares of Parent common stock. If the Parent Share Average Closing Price were equal to the minimum of $13.86, each share of Insight common stock would instead be entitled to $4.10 in cash and 1.1833 shares of Parent common stock; if the Parent Share Average Closing Price were equal to the maximum of $18.76, each share of Insight common stock would be entitled to $4.10 in cash and 0.8742 shares of Parent common stock.

Parent common stock is traded on NASDAQ under the symbol "FFBC." The closing price of Parent common stock on April 28, 2014 was $16.46 per share.

The Merger cannot be completed unless the holders of at least two-thirds of the voting power of the outstanding shares of Insight capital stock vote in favor of the Merger Agreement. Accordingly, our board of directors has unanimously approved the Merger Agreement and recommends that you vote "FOR" the adoption of the Merger Agreement at the special meeting. Our board of directors also unanimously recommends that you vote "FOR" the approval to adjourn the special meeting to permit further solicitation in the event that an insufficient number of shares are present in person or by proxy to adopt the Merger Agreement and the transactions it contemplates and "FOR" the authorization of the proxies named in the proxy form to vote on such other matters as may properly come before the special meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof.

Additional information regarding the Merger, the Merger Agreement, Insight, First Financial and Parent is set forth in the attached proxy statement/prospectus. This document also serves as the prospectus for up to 1,928,715 shares of Parent common stock that may be issued by Parent in connection with the Merger. We urge you to read this entire document carefully, including the section entitled "Risk Factors" beginning on page 16.

Sincerely,

Harvey L. Glick
President and Chief Executive Officer

TO INSIGHT BANK SHAREHOLDERS:

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that Insight Bank (“Insight”) will hold a special meeting of shareholders on May 28, 2014 at the offices of Insight, 150 W. Wilson Bridge Road, Worthington, Ohio 43085 at 3:00 p.m., local time. The purpose of the meeting is to consider and vote on the following matters:

a proposal to adopt the Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “Merger Agreement”), dated as of December 19, 2013, by and among First Financial Bancorp., First Financial Bank, National Association, and Insight. A copy of the Merger Agreement is included as Annex A to the proxy statement/prospectus accompanying this notice;

the approval to adjourn the special meeting to permit further solicitation in the event that there are not sufficient votes FOR adoption, for any reason, of the Merger Agreement and the transactions it contemplates at the time of the special meeting; and to transact any other business that properly comes before the special meeting, or any adjournments or postponements thereof.

Holders of record of Insight common stock at the close of business on April 24, 2014 are entitled to receive this notice and to vote at the special meeting and any adjournments or postponements thereof. Under the federal law applicable to mergers of state banks into national banks, the Merger Agreement must be ratified and confirmed by the affirmative vote of Insight shareholders owning at least two-thirds of its capital stock outstanding. Approval of the proposal to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate to solicit additional proxies, requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of Insight common stock having voting power present in person or by proxy, whether or not there is a quorum.

Shareholders of Insight have the right to dissent from the merger contemplated by the Merger Agreement and obtain payment in cash of the appraised fair value of their shares of Insight common stock under applicable provisions of federal law and the Ohio Revised Code (“ORC”). In order for such a shareholder of Insight to perfect his or her right to dissent, the shareholder must carefully follow the procedures set forth under federal law and the ORC. A copy of the applicable federal statutory provisions and provisions of the ORC is included as Annex B to the accompanying proxy statement/prospectus and a summary of these provisions can be found under the caption “The Merger Agreement—Insight shareholder appraisal rights.”

The board of directors of Insight unanimously recommends that you vote “FOR” adoption of the Merger Agreement. The board of directors also unanimously recommends that you vote “FOR” approval to adjourn the special meeting to permit further solicitation in the event that there are not sufficient votes FOR adoption, for any reason, of the Merger Agreement and the transactions it contemplates at the time of the special meeting.

Your vote is important. To ensure that your shares are voted at the special meeting, please promptly complete, sign and return the proxy form in the enclosed, postage-prepaid envelope whether or not you plan to attend the meeting in person. If you attend the special meeting, you may revoke your proxy and vote in person, if you so desire.

questions and answers about the Merger

Q: What am I being asked to vote on? What is the proposed transaction?

You are being asked to vote on the adoption of a merger agreement (the “Merger Agreement”) that provides for the acquisition by First Financial Bank, National Association (“First Financial”), of Insight Bank (“Insight”) through the merger (the “Merger”) of Insight with and into First Financial, which is a national banking association and a wholly owned subsidiary of First Financial Bancorp. (“Parent”). You will become a shareholder of Parent as a result of the Merger.

Q: What will Insight shareholders be entitled to receive in the Merger?

If the Merger is completed, Insight shareholders will, in the aggregate, receive total merger consideration in the amount of $33,415,000. Each share of Insight common stock that you own immediately before the completion of the Merger will be converted into the right to receive a combination of cash and shares of Parent common stock. In addition, all outstanding stock options of Insight will be cashed out at the closing of the Merger. Including payment to be made for cancelling the stock options, the fully diluted total merger consideration is valued at approximately $36.6 million as of December 19, 2013.

The number of outstanding shares of Insight common stock will change to the extent that outstanding options to acquire Insight common stock are exercised prior to the effective time of the Merger. Assuming the 1,630,000 shares of Insight common stock outstanding as of December 19, 2013 remain unchanged at the closing, for each of your shares of Insight common stock, you will receive the per share merger consideration equal to $20.50 in the form of a combination of cash and shares of Parent common stock to be calculated as set forth in the Merger Agreement. Of such per share merger consideration, 20%, or $4.10, will be paid in cash and 80%, or $16.40, will be paid in Parent common stock (including cash to be paid in lieu of any fractional shares), subject to certain adjustments depending upon changes in the market price of Parent common stock. The exchange ratio used to determine the number of shares of Parent common stock that you will be entitled to receive for each share of Insight common stock will be determined based on the average closing price on the NASDAQ Global Select Market (“NASDAQ”) for the twenty trading days ending on the third business day prior to the effective time of the Merger (the “Parent Share Average Closing Price”), subject to a minimum and maximum price equal to $13.86 and $18.76, respectively, and certain further adjustments.

Assuming the 1,630,000 shares of Insight common stock outstanding remain unchanged at the closing, based on a Parent Share Average Closing Price of $17.57, which is equal to the Parent Share Average Closing Price if it were calculated as if the closing date was April 28, 2014, the latest practicable date prior to the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, the merger consideration that an Insight common shareholder would be entitled to receive for each share of Insight common stock is $4.10 in cash and 0.9334 shares of Parent common stock. If the Parent Share Average Closing Price were equal to the minimum of $13.86, each share of Insight common stock would instead be entitled to $4.10 in cash and 1.1833 shares of Parent common stock; if the Parent Share Average Closing Price were equal to the maximum of $18.76, each share of Insight common stock would be entitled to $4.10 in cash and 0.8742 shares of Parent common stock. For a description of how the merger consideration will be calculated, see “Description of the Merger Agreement—Consideration to be received in the Merger” on page 47.

In addition, the ratio of the stock component of the merger consideration may be adjusted if the Parent Share Average Closing Price is less than $13.86 or more than $18.76. For a description of the possible adjustment of the merger consideration, see “Description of the Merger Agreement—Consideration to be received in the Merger—Stock Consideration Ratio Adjustment,” “—Tax Adjustment” and “—Kill or Fill Adjustment” beginning on page 49.

Q: Can I make an election to select the form of merger consideration I desire to receive?

A: No. Each share of Insight common stock will be exchanged for the same combination of cash and shares of Parent common stock if the Merger closes.

Q: Why do Insight and Parent want to engage in the transaction?

Insight believes that the Merger will provide Insight shareholders and its customers with substantial benefits, including the opportunity to participate in a larger and more diversified organization, and Parent believes that the Merger will provide a platform for its continued strategic growth by entering the Columbus market. As a larger company, First Financial can provide Insight's associates with an expanded product set to serve commercial and consumer clients as well as adding wealth management capabilities to further enhance customer relationships. To review the reasons for the Merger in more detail, see "The Merger—Parent's reasons for the Merger" on page 27 and "The Merger—Recommendation of Insight's board of directors and its reasons for the Merger" on page 25.

Q: What does Insight's board of directors recommend?

A: Insight's board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote "FOR" adoption of the Merger Agreement and "FOR" the approval to adjourn the special meeting to permit further solicitation in the event that there are not sufficient votes FOR adoption, for any reason, of the Merger Agreement and the transactions it contemplates at the time of the special meeting. Insight's board of directors has determined that the Merger Agreement and the Merger are in the best interests of Insight and its shareholders. To review the background and reasons for the Merger in greater detail, see pages 23 to 27.

Q: What vote is required to adopt the Merger Agreement?

A: Under the federal law applicable to mergers of state banks into national banks, the Merger Agreement must be ratified and confirmed by the affirmative vote of Insight shareholders owning at least two-thirds of its capital stock outstanding. Abstentions and broker non-votes have the effect of votes against the adoption of the Merger Agreement. Certain Insight directors who own shares of Insight common stock and certain other shareholders have agreed to vote their shares in favor of the Merger at the special meeting. These shareholders owned 155,524 shares of Insight common stock, or approximately 9.5% of Insight common stock outstanding as of December 19, 2013. Parent's shareholders will not be voting on the Merger Agreement. See "The Merger—Interests of certain persons in the Merger" on page 41 and "The Merger—Voting agreement" on page 45.

Q: What vote is required to approve the proposal to adjourn the special meeting to permit further solicitation in the event that an insufficient number of shares of Insight common stock are present in person or by proxy to adopt the Merger Agreement and the transactions it contemplates?

Approval of the proposal to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate to solicit additional proxies, requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of Insight common stock having voting power present in person or by proxy, whether or not there is a quorum.

Q: Why is my vote important?

Insight shareholders are being asked to adopt the Merger Agreement and thereby approve the Merger. If you do not submit your proxy by mail or vote in person at the special meeting, it will be more difficult for Insight to obtain the necessary quorum to hold the special meeting. In addition, your failure to submit your proxy or attend the special meeting will have the same effect as a vote against the Merger Agreement and make it more difficult to obtain adoption of the Merger Agreement.

Q: What do I need to do now? How do I vote?

You may vote at the special meeting if you own shares of Insight common stock of record at the close of business on the record date for the special meeting, April 24, 2014. After you have carefully read and considered the information contained in this proxy statement/prospectus, please complete, sign, date and mail your proxy form in the enclosed, postage-prepaid return envelope as soon as possible. This will enable your shares to be represented at the special meeting. You may also vote in person at the special meeting. If you do not return a properly executed proxy form and do not vote at the special meeting, this will have the same effect as a vote against the adoption of the Merger Agreement.

Q: How will my proxy be voted?

If you complete, sign, date and mail your proxy form, your proxy will be voted in accordance with your instructions. If you sign, date and send in your proxy form, but you do not indicate how you want to vote, your proxy will be voted FOR adoption of the Merger Agreement and the other proposals in the notice.

Q: Can I revoke my proxy and change my vote?

A: You may change your vote or revoke your proxy prior to the special meeting by filing with the secretary of Insight a duly executed revocation of proxy or submitting a new proxy form with a later date. You may also revoke a prior proxy by voting in person at the special meeting.

Q: What if I oppose the Merger? Do I have appraisal rights?

A: Insight shareholders who do not vote in favor of adoption of the Merger Agreement and otherwise comply with all of the procedures of 12 U.S.C. Section 215a and Sections 1115.19 and 1701.85 of the Ohio Revised Code (the "ORC") will be entitled to receive payment in cash of the fair value of their shares of Insight common stock as ultimately determined under the statutory process. A copy of those sections of the federal statute and the ORC is attached as Annex B to this document. This value could be more than the merger consideration but could also be less.

Q: What are the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger to me?

A: The Merger is intended to qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"). As a condition to the completion of the Merger, Vorys, Sater, Seymour and Pease LLP, tax counsel to Insight, must deliver an opinion to Insight, dated as of the closing date and based on facts, representations and assumptions described in such opinion, to the effect that the Merger will be treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. In addition, in connection with the filing of the registration statement of which this document is a part, Vorys, Sater, Seymour and Pease LLP has delivered an opinion to Insight to the same effect as the opinion described above. Accordingly, the conversion of your shares of Insight common stock into shares of Parent common stock in the Merger will be tax-free for U.S. federal income tax purposes. However, you generally will recognize gain (but not loss) in an amount not to exceed the amount of cash you receive in the Merger (other than any cash you receive in lieu of a fractional share of Parent common stock). You should consult with your tax advisor for the specific tax consequences of the Merger to you. For a more-detailed discussion of the material U.S. federal income tax consequences to you of the Merger, see "The Merger—Material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger" on page 37.

Q: When and where is the special meeting?

A: The Insight special meeting will take place on May 28, 2014, at 3:00 p.m., local time, at the offices of Insight, located at 150 W. Wilson Bridge Road, Worthington, Ohio 43085.

Q: Who may attend the meeting?

A:

Only Insight shareholders on the record date may attend the special meeting. If you are a shareholder of record, you will need to present the proxy form that you received or a valid proof of identification to be admitted into the meeting.

Q: Should I send in my stock certificates now?

A: No. Either at the time of closing or shortly after the Merger is completed, the exchange agent for the Merger will send you a letter of transmittal with instructions informing you how to send in your stock certificates to the exchange agent. You should use the letter of transmittal to exchange your Insight stock certificates for the merger consideration. Do not send in your stock certificates with your proxy form or your stock election form.

Q: When is the Merger expected to be completed?

A: We will try to complete the Merger as soon as reasonably possible. Before that happens, the Merger and the Merger Agreement must be approved and adopted by Insight common shareholders and we must obtain the necessary regulatory approvals. Assuming Insight common shareholders vote to approve the Merger and adopt the Merger Agreement and we obtain the other necessary approvals and satisfaction or waiver of the other conditions to the closing described in the Merger Agreement, we expect to complete the Merger in the first half of 2014. See “Description of the Merger Agreement—Conditions to completion of the Merger” on page 56.

Q: Is completion of the Merger subject to any conditions besides shareholder approval?

A: Yes. The transaction must receive the required regulatory approvals, and there are other closing conditions that must be satisfied. See “Description of the Merger Agreement—Conditions to completion of the Merger” on page 56.

Q: Are there risks I should consider in deciding to vote on the adoption of the Merger Agreement?

A: Yes, in evaluating the Merger Agreement, you should read this proxy statement/prospectus carefully, including the factors discussed in the section entitled “Risk Factors” beginning on page 16.

Q: Who can answer my other questions?

If you have more questions about the Merger or how to submit your proxy, or if you need additional copies of this A: proxy statement/prospectus or the enclosed proxy form, you should contact Harvey Glick, Insight’s President and Chief Executive Officer, at (614) 431-9401.

In addition, all outstanding stock options of Insight will be cashed out at the closing of the Merger. Including payment to be made for cancelling the stock options, the fully diluted total Merger consideration is valued at approximately $36.6 million as of December 19, 2013.

The number of outstanding shares of Insight common stock will change to the extent that outstanding options to acquire Insight common stock are exercised prior to the effective time of the Merger. Assuming the 1,630,000 shares of Insight common stock outstanding as of December 19, 2013 remain unchanged at the closing, for each of your shares of Insight common stock, you will receive the per share Merger consideration equal to $20.50 in the form of a combination of cash and shares of Parent common stock to be calculated as set forth in the Merger Agreement. Of such per share merger consideration, 20%, or $4.10, will be paid in cash and 80%, or $16.40, will be paid in Parent common stock (including cash to be paid in lieu of any fractional shares), subject to certain adjustments depending upon changes in the market price of Parent common stock. The exchange ratio used to determine the number of shares of Parent common stock that you will be entitled to receive for each share of Insight common stock will be determined based on the average closing price on NASDAQ for the twenty trading days ending on the third business day prior to the effective time of the Merger (the "Parent Share Average Closing Price"), subject to a minimum and maximum price equal to $13.86 and $18.76 (the "Collar Restriction"), respectively, and certain further adjustments.

Assuming the 1,630,000 shares of Insight common stock outstanding remain unchanged at the closing, based on a Parent Share Average Closing Price of $17.57, which is equal to the Parent Share Average Closing Price if it were calculated as if the closing date was April 28, 2014, the latest practicable date prior to the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, the merger consideration that an Insight common shareholder would be entitled to receive for each share of Insight common stock is $4.10 in cash and 0.9334 shares of Parent common stock. If the Parent Share Average Closing Price were equal to the minimum of $13.86, each share of Insight common stock would instead be entitled to $4.10 in cash and 1.1833 shares of Parent common stock; if the Parent Share Average Closing Price were equal to the maximum of $18.76, each share of Insight common stock would be entitled to $4.10 in cash and 0.8742 shares of Parent common stock. For a description of how the merger consideration will be calculated, see “Description of the Merger Agreement—Consideration to be received in the Merger” on page 47.

If the Parent Share Average Closing Price has declined by more than 25% from the average closing price on NASDAQ for the twenty trading days ending on the third business day prior to the date of the Merger Agreement, which is $16.31, and the Parent common stock underperforms the KBW Regional Banking Index by more than 25% during such period, Insight may terminate the Merger Agreement unless Parent removes the Collar Restriction in calculating the exchange ratio for the stock component of the merger consideration.

If the Parent Share Average Closing Price is less than $13.86, Insight may reduce the ratio of the stock component of the merger consideration from 80% to no less than 75%. On the other hand, if the Parent Share Average Closing Price is more than $18.76, First Financial may reduce the ratio of the stock component of the merger consideration from 80% to no less than 75%. However, no such reduction is permitted if it would result in a failure of the Merger to be a tax-free reorganization for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

In addition, in order to preserve the qualification of the Merger as a tax-free reorganization for U.S. federal income tax purposes, if the aggregate value of the shares of Parent common stock to be issued in connection with the Merger (excluding the value of fractional shares for which cash is to be paid) based upon the closing price of the Parent common stock as reported on NASDAQ on the trading day immediately preceding the closing date of the Merger (the “Tax-Adjuster Stock Consideration”) would be less than 40% of the sum of the Tax-Adjuster Cash Consideration (as defined below) and the Tax-Adjuster Stock Consideration, then the exchange ratio for the stock component of the merger consideration will be adjusted, with a corresponding decrease of the total cash consideration, so that the Tax-Adjuster Stock Consideration is equal to 40% of the sum of the Tax-Adjuster Stock Consideration and the Tax-Adjuster Cash Consideration without changing the value of the total merger consideration. For purposes of the above, “Tax-Adjuster Cash Consideration” means the sum of (i) the aggregate cash consideration to be paid in exchange for the Insight common stock (including, without limitation, the amount of cash to be paid for appraisal shares), (ii) the aggregate cash consideration to be paid in lieu of fractional shares of Parent common stock, and (iii) the aggregate cash consideration to be paid in connection with the redemption, cancellation or other transaction that results in Insight’s Senior Non-Cumulative Perpetual Preferred Shares, Series A, par value $1.00 per share (“Insight Series A Preferred Stock”), no longer being issued or outstanding as a result of the Merger. For example, if the 1,630,000 shares of Insight common stock outstanding remain unchanged at the closing and the Parent Share Average Closing Price is equal to or less than $13.86, each share of Insight common stock would be entitled to $4.10 in cash and 1.1833 shares of Parent common stock, assuming no adjustment needs to be made for the above tax purposes; however, if the closing price of the Parent common stock as reported on NASDAQ on the trading day immediately preceding the closing date of the Merger falls below $3.78, adjustment will be made to preserve the qualification of the Merger as a tax-free reorganization (assuming $4,250,000 to be paid for the redemption of Insight Series A Preferred Stock, no cash paid for appraisal shares and no other adjustment made by the parties, and disregarding the effect of cash consideration to be paid in lieu of fractional shares of Parent common stock, for purpose of illustration). Under these assumptions, if the above-referenced closing price of the Parent common stock falls to $3.00, each share of Insight common stock would be entitled to $3.06 in cash and 1.2586 shares of Parent common stock (with any small variance due to rounding).

Insight common shareholders will not receive fractional shares of Parent common stock. Instead, they will receive cash payments for any fractional shares based on the Parent Share Average Closing Price (as it may be adjusted).

Exchange of Insight common stock (See page 50)

Once the Merger is complete, U.S. Bank National Association, as exchange agent, will mail you transmittal materials and instructions for exchanging your Insight stock certificates for shares of Parent common stock to be issued by book-entry transfer.

Material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger (See page 37)

The Merger is intended to qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. As a condition to the completion of the Merger, Vorys, Sater, Seymour and Pease LLP, tax counsel to Insight, must deliver an opinion to Insight, dated as of the closing date and based on facts, representations and assumptions described in such opinion, to the effect that the Merger will be treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. Assuming the Merger qualifies as a tax-free reorganization, subject to the limitations and more-detailed discussion set forth below in the section entitled “The Merger—Material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger,” an Insight common shareholder that is a U.S. holder (defined below in the section entitled “The Merger—Material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger”) and that exchanges all of such shareholder’s shares of Insight common stock for shares of Parent common stock and cash pursuant to the Merger will recognize gain (but not loss) in an amount not to exceed the amount of cash received in the Merger (other than any cash received in lieu of a fractional share of Parent common stock).

Tax matters are complicated, and the tax consequences of the Merger to any particular Insight common shareholder will depend on that shareholder's particular facts and circumstances. Accordingly, you are urged to consult your tax advisor to determine the tax consequences of the Merger to you. For a more detailed discussion of the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger, see "The Merger—Material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger" on page 37.

Reasons for the Merger (See page 25)

Insight's board of directors believes that the Merger is in the best interests of Insight and its shareholders, has unanimously adopted the Merger Agreement, and unanimously recommends that its shareholders vote "FOR" the adoption of the Merger Agreement.

In its deliberations and in making its determination, Insight's board of directors considered numerous factors, including the following:

- its knowledge of Insight's, First Financial's and Parent's businesses;
- its knowledge of the current environment in the financial services industry;

its belief that combining the companies would create a larger and more diversified financial institution that is both better equipped to respond to economic and industry developments and better positioned to develop and build on its strong market share in Ohio;

- the complementary aspects of Insight's and First Financial's businesses;

the potential expense-saving and revenue-enhancing opportunities in connection with the Merger, the related potential impact on the surviving bank's earnings and the fact that the nature of the merger consideration would give former Insight shareholders the opportunity to participate as Parent shareholders in the benefits of such savings opportunities and the future performance of the surviving bank;

its assessment of the likelihood that the Merger would be completed in a timely manner and that the management team of the surviving bank would be able to successfully integrate and operate the businesses of the surviving bank after the Merger;

the financial analyses presented by KBW to Insight's board of directors, and the opinion dated as of December 18, 2013, delivered to Insight by KBW;

the financial terms of the Merger, including the fact that, based on Parent common stock's average closing price of $16.31 per share over the 20 consecutive trading day period ending on December 16, 2013 (the third business day prior to the execution of the Merger Agreement), the per share merger consideration represented a multiple to normalized tangible book value per share of 166%, a multiple to Insight's trailing 12 months earnings per share of 19.05 times, and a premium to core deposits of 20.1%;

the structure of the Merger and the terms of the Merger Agreement, including the ability of Insight's board of directors, under certain circumstances, to withdraw or adversely modify its recommendation to Insight shareholders, and to terminate the Merger Agreement in order to enter into a definitive agreement with respect to a superior proposal;

- the expectation that the Merger would qualify as a tax-free reorganization for U.S. federal income tax purposes;

the likelihood that regulatory approvals would be received in a timely manner and without unacceptable conditions;

- the fact that the approval of Parent shareholders would not be required for the transaction; and the belief that the Parent offer was the best offer that could be obtained at this time and was better than the stand-alone prospects for Insight.

The Insight board of directors also considered potential risks and a variety of potentially negative factors in connection with its deliberations concerning the Merger Agreement and the Merger, including the following material factors:

the potential risk of diverting management focus and resources from other strategic opportunities and from operational matters while working to implement the Merger;

the fact that the interests of some of the directors and officers of Insight may be different from those of Insight shareholders;

the fact that the Merger Agreement provides that Insight may be required to pay a termination fee and expenses to First Financial;

- the fact that the Merger Agreement prohibits Insight from soliciting other acquisition proposals;

the fact that there can be no assurance that all conditions to the parties' obligations to complete the Merger will be satisfied;

the risk that the anticipated benefits of the Merger may not be realized or may take longer than expected to be realized;

- the restrictions on the conduct of Insight's business prior to the completion of the Merger; and the possible effects of the pendency or consummation of the transaction contemplated by the Merger Agreement, including any suit, action or proceeding initiated in respect of the Merger.

Opinion of Insight's Financial Advisor (see page 28 and Annex C)

On December 18, 2013, Keefe, Bruyette & Woods, Inc. ("KBW") rendered to Insight's board of directors KBW's opinion with respect to the fairness of the merger consideration to be received by Insight common shareholders, from a financial point of view.

KBW's opinion is directed to Insight's board of directors and relates only to the fairness of the merger consideration to be received by Insight shareholders, from a financial point of view. KBW's opinion does not address any other aspect of the Merger and is not a recommendation to any Insight common shareholder as to how such shareholder should vote at the special meeting.

The full text of KBW's December 18, 2013 opinion is included as Annex C to this proxy statement/prospectus and is incorporated by reference herein. The opinion outlines the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered, and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by KBW in rendering its opinion. The description of the opinion set forth below is qualified in its entirety by reference to the opinion. Insight common shareholders are urged to read the entire opinion carefully in connection with their consideration of the Merger Agreement.

Board recommendation to Insight shareholders (See page 25)

Insight's board of directors believes that the Merger of Insight with First Financial is in the best interests of Insight and its shareholders. Insight's board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote "FOR" the Merger.

Interests of officers and directors of Insight in the Merger may be different from, or in addition to, yours (See page 41)

When you consider Insight's board of directors' recommendation to vote in favor of the adoption of the Merger Agreement, you should be aware that some of Insight's directors and officers have interests in the Merger that are different from, or in addition to, your interests as shareholders. Insight's board of directors was aware of these interests and took them into account in approving the Merger. These interests include, among others, proposed employee benefits for those Insight employees who become employees of First Financial after the Merger, severance benefits for those Insight employees who are not covered by an employment agreement and do not become employees of First Financial after the Merger, retention bonuses for certain employees who remain in the employ of First Financial for a designated transition period, the appointment of one Insight director to serve on the boards of directors of First Financial and Parent (subject to the approval of Parent's Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee), the appointment of certain Insight director or directors to the Columbus advisory board of Parent, lump sum cash payments in exchange for the cancellation of outstanding Insight stock options, and an employment agreement that provide for payments and benefits in addition to the merger consideration.

First Financial has agreed to maintain in effect the current directors' and officers' liability insurance policies maintained by Insight or otherwise provide insurance policies of at least the same coverage, subject to limits on availability and cost, for six years. During the same period, First Financial and Parent have also agreed to indemnify and hold harmless the current and former directors, officers and employees of Insight and its subsidiaries for all actions taken by them in such capacities prior to the effective time of the Merger to the fullest extent permitted by law, and assume all obligations of Insight to such directors, officers and employees in respect of indemnification and exculpation from liabilities for acts or omissions occurring at or prior to the effective time as provided in Insight's charter documents.

Insight common shareholders will have appraisal rights in connection with the Merger (See page 45)

Insight common shareholders may dissent from the Merger and upon complying with the requirements of 12 U.S.C. Section 215a and Sections 1115.9 and 1701.85 of the ORC will be entitled to receive the fair cash value of their shares instead of the merger consideration.

A copy of the sections of the federal statute and the ORC pertaining to appraisal rights is attached as Annex B to this proxy statement/prospectus. You should read the statutes carefully and consult with your legal counsel if you intend to exercise these rights.

The Merger and the performance of the surviving bank are subject to a number of risks (See page 16)

There are a number of risks relating to the Merger and to the businesses of First Financial, Insight and the surviving bank following the Merger. See “Risk Factors” beginning on page 16 of this proxy statement/prospectus for a discussion of these and other risks and see also the documents that Parent has filed with the SEC and which we have incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus.

Approval of Insight common shareholders will be required to complete the Merger and other transactions set forth in the notice (See page 20)

Under the federal law applicable to mergers of state banks into national banks, the Merger Agreement must be ratified and confirmed by the affirmative vote of Insight shareholders owning at least two-thirds of its capital stock outstanding. Approval of the proposal to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate to solicit additional proxies, requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of Insight common stock having voting power present in person or by proxy, whether or not there is a quorum. To satisfy the quorum requirements set forth in Insight’s regulations, shareholders holding at least a majority of the voting power of the outstanding shares of Insight common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting must be present in person or by proxy at the special meeting. Shareholders may vote their shares in person at the special meeting or by signing and returning the enclosed proxy form.

Certain shareholders of Insight have committed to vote their shares of Insight common stock in favor of the Merger. As of December 19, 2013, these shareholders owned 155,524 shares, constituting approximately 9.5% of the shares then outstanding. See “The Merger—Voting agreement” on page 45.

The special meeting of Insight common shareholders will be held at the offices of Insight, located at 150 W. Wilson Bridge Road, Worthington, Ohio 43085 on May 28, 2014 at 3:00 p.m., local time. Insight's board of directors is soliciting proxies for use at the special meeting. At the special meeting, Insight shareholders will be asked to vote on a proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement.

Record date for the special meeting; revocability of proxies (See pages 20 and 21)

You may vote at the special meeting if you own shares of Insight common stock of record at the close of business on April 24, 2014. You will have one vote for each share of Insight common stock you owned on that date. You may change your vote or revoke your proxy prior to the special meeting by filing with the secretary of Insight a duly executed revocation of proxy or submitting a new proxy form with a later date. You may also vote in person at the special meeting.

Completion of the Merger is subject to regulatory approvals (See page 41)

The Merger cannot be completed until First Financial receives the necessary regulatory approval of the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (the "OCC"). First Financial submitted an application with the OCC on February 3, 2014. The Merger is also subject to the United States Department of Justice's competitive review process.

Conditions to the Merger (See page 56)

Closing Conditions for the Benefit of All Parties. Each of Parent, First Financial and Insight's obligations are subject to fulfillment of certain conditions, including:

no applicable law or order by governmental authority making illegal or preventing or prohibiting the consummation of the Merger;

receipt of all regulatory approvals containing no unduly burdensome conditions and expiration of all statutory waiting periods;

· all required consents, authorizations, waivers or approvals having been obtained; and the registration statement having been declared effective by the SEC and continuing to be effective, and all necessary approvals under securities laws relating to the issuance of the shares of Parent common stock pursuant to the Merger having been received.

Closing Conditions for the Benefit of Parent and First Financial. Parent and First Financial's obligations are subject to fulfillment of certain conditions, including:

accuracy of representations and warranties of Insight in the Merger Agreement as of the closing date, except as otherwise set forth in the Merger Agreement;

· performance by Insight in all material respects of its agreements under the Merger Agreement;

adoption of the Merger Agreement at the special meeting by Insight shareholders holding the requisite voting power under its charter documents and applicable law;

delivery by Insight of a duly executed exchange agent agreement, option cash-out agreements, certificates and documents as provided in the Merger Agreement;

· Insight being well-capitalized;

no new proceedings initiated against Insight since the execution of the Merger Agreement that, in the aggregate, would reasonably be expected to result in liabilities exceeding $500,000;

no new enforcement actions initiated against Insight by any regulatory agency which, individually or in the aggregate, would reasonably be expected to materially affect Insight's ability to conduct its business as currently being conducted;

holders of no more than 5% of the Insight common stock having taken the actions required under the ORC to qualify their Insight common stock as appraisal shares;

Insight having duly entered into option cash-out agreements with all holders of Insight stock options to cash out such stock options; and Insight having duly redeemed all of its Series A Preferred Stock, except under certain circumstances set forth in the Merger Agreement.

Closing Conditions for the Benefit of Insight. Insight's obligations are subject to fulfillment of certain conditions, including:

accuracy of representations and warranties of Parent in the Merger Agreement as of the closing date, except as otherwise set forth in the Merger Agreement;

performance by Parent in all material respects of its agreements under the Merger Agreement; approval of the listing of the shares of Parent common stock issuable pursuant to the Merger Agreement on NASDAQ; receipt by Insight of an opinion of Vorys, Sater, Seymour and Pease LLP, tax counsel to Insight, to the effect that the Merger will be treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code;

no new enforcement action initiated by any regulatory agency which would reasonably be expected to materially affect First Financial's ability to conduct its business as currently being conducted; and delivery by First Financial of evidence of the payment of the merger consideration to the exchange agent, a duly executed exchange agent agreement, certificates and such other documents as provided in the Merger Agreement.

How the Merger Agreement may be terminated by Parent, First Financial and Insight (See page 57)

First Financial and Insight may mutually agree to terminate the Merger Agreement and abandon the Merger at any time. Subject to conditions and circumstances described in the Merger Agreement, Parent or First Financial, on the one hand, or Insight, on the other hand, as the case may be, may terminate the Merger Agreement as follows:

· by either party if the Merger is not completed by September 30, 2014;

by either party in the event of a material breach by the other party of its representations or warranties or obligations contained in the Merger Agreement, which breach cannot be or has not been cured within 30 days after the giving of written notice to the breaching party of such breach, and which breach or breaches would result in a failure to satisfy any applicable closing condition;

by either party if final action has been taken by a regulatory agency whose approval is required for the Merger, which final action has become final and nonappealable and does not approve the Merger;

by either party if any governmental authority has enacted, issued, promulgated, enforced or entered any law, or final nonappealable judgment which has the effect of making illegal the consummation of the Merger;

by Insight if the Parent Share Average Closing Price has declined by more than 25% from the average closing price on NASDAQ for the twenty trading days ending on the third business day prior to the date of the Merger Agreement, which is $16.31, and the Parent common stock underperforms the KBW Regional Banking Index by more than 25% during such period, unless Parent removes the Collar Restriction in calculating the exchange ratio for the stock component of the merger consideration;

by First Financial if the board of directors of Insight fails to make recommendation to Insight shareholders to adopt the Merger Agreement, or Insight has materially breached its covenant not to solicit alternative acquisition proposals;

in certain circumstances, by either party if Insight has received and would accept a superior acquisition proposal from a third party; or if the Insight common shareholders fail to adopt the Merger Agreement.

Termination fees and expenses may be payable under some circumstances (See page 58)

If the Merger Agreement is terminated (i) by First Financial because the board of directors of Insight fails to make a recommendation to Insight shareholders to adopt the Merger Agreement, or Insight has materially breached its covenant not to solicit alternative acquisition proposals, or (ii) by either party if Insight has received and would accept a superior alternative proposal from a third party, First Financial may be owed a termination fee from Insight equal to 5% of the sum of the total merger consideration and total cash consideration for cashing out Insight's stock options.

If the Merger Agreement is terminated by either party because Insight shareholders fail to adopt the Merger Agreement, Insight will reimburse First Financial for its out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with the proposed Merger. See "Description of the Merger Agreement—Termination fee" on page 58.

Voting agreement (See page 45)

Certain shareholders of Insight have agreed to vote all of their shares of Insight common stock in favor of the Merger Agreement at the special meeting. The voting agreement covers approximately 9.5% of Insight's outstanding shares of common stock as of December 19, 2013. The voting agreement will terminate if the Merger Agreement is terminated or the Merger becomes effective, whichever is earlier, in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement.

Accounting treatment of the Merger

The Merger will be accounted for as a purchase transaction in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States.

Certain differences in Parent shareholder rights and Insight shareholder rights (See page 61)

Parent is an Ohio corporation and a bank holding company registered under the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, as amended, while Insight is an Ohio state-chartered bank. Although the rights of the holders of Parent common shares and those of holders of Insight common shares are similar in many respects, there are some differences. These differences relate to differences between the provisions of Ohio law governing corporations and the provisions of Ohio law governing state-chartered banks, as well as differences between provisions of Parent's articles of incorporation and regulations and Insight's articles of incorporation and regulations. Certain of these differences are described in detail in the section entitled "Comparison of rights of Parent shareholders and Insight shareholders" beginning on page 61. After completion of the Merger, Insight shareholders who receive shares of Parent common stock in exchange for their shares of Insight common stock will become Parent shareholders and their rights will be governed by Parent's articles of incorporation and regulations, in addition to laws and requirements that apply to public companies.

Parent shares will be listed on NASDAQ (See page 59)

The shares of Parent common stock to be issued pursuant to the Merger will be listed on NASDAQ under the symbol "FFBC."

RISK FACTORS

In addition to the other information contained in or incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus, including the matters addressed under the caption “Special Notes Concerning Forward-Looking Statements” on page 18, you should consider the following risk factors carefully in deciding whether to vote for the adoption of the Merger Agreement. Additional risks and uncertainties not presently known to Parent and Insight or that are not currently believed to be important to you, if they materialize, also may adversely affect the Merger and Parent and First Financial as a surviving bank.

In addition, Parent’s and Insight’s respective businesses are subject to numerous risks and uncertainties, including the risks and uncertainties described, in the case of Parent, in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2013, which are incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus.

Risks relating to the Merger

Because the number of shares of Insight common stock will change if Insight stock options are exercised before closing and the market price of Parent common stock may fluctuate, you cannot be certain of the precise value of the per share merger consideration you may receive in the Merger.

At the time the Merger is completed, Insight shareholders will, in the aggregate, receive total merger consideration in the amount of $33,415,000. Each issued and outstanding share of Insight common stock (other than shares owned by Insight, Parent, First Financial or any of their subsidiaries and shares of Insight common stock in respect of which appraisal rights have been properly exercised and perfected) will be converted into the right to receive consideration in the form of a combination of Parent common stock and cash, subject to certain adjustments. The number of shares of Insight common stock will change if Insight stock options are exercised before closing. In addition, the exchange ratio for the Parent common stock with respect to the stock component of the merger consideration, as calculated in accordance with the formula set forth in the Merger Agreement, may fluctuate depending on the market price of Parent common stock during a reference period prior to the closing.

There will be a time lapse between each of the date on which Insight common shareholders vote to approve the Merger and the Merger Agreement at the special meeting, the date on which the number of shares of Insight common stock at closing is determined, the date on which the exchange ratio with respect to the stock component of the merger consideration is determined, and the date on which Insight common shareholders entitled to receive shares of Parent common stock actually receive such shares. The number of shares of Insight common stock may change and the market value of Parent common stock may fluctuate during these periods. Consequently, at the time Insight shareholders must decide whether to approve the Merger and the Merger Agreement, they will not know the precise or actual value of the merger consideration they will receive when the Merger is completed. In particular, the actual value of the shares of Parent common stock received by the Insight shareholders will depend on the market value of shares of Parent common stock on that date. This market value may be less than the value used to determine the exchange ratio, as that determination will be made with respect to a reference period occurring prior to the consummation of the Merger.

Because there is no public market for the Insight common stock, it is difficult to determine how the fair value of Insight common stock compares with the merger consideration.

The outstanding shares of Insight common stock are privately held and are not traded in any public market. This lack of a public market makes it difficult to determine the fair value of Insight. Because the merger consideration was determined based on negotiations between the parties, it may not be indicative of the fair value of the shares of Insight common stock.

The opinion that Insight has obtained from Keefe, Bruyette & Woods, Inc. has not been, and is not expected to be, updated to reflect any changes in circumstances that may have occurred since the signing of the Merger Agreement.

The opinion issued to Insight's board of directors by Keefe, Bruyette & Woods, Inc. ("KBW"), financial advisor to Insight, with respect to the fairness of the merger consideration to be received by Insight common shareholders, from a financial point of view, speaks only as of December 18, 2013. Changes in the operations and prospects of Parent or Insight, general market and economic conditions and other factors which may be beyond the control of Parent and Insight, and on which the opinion was based, may have altered the value of Parent or Insight or the sale prices of shares of Parent common stock as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, or may alter such values and sale prices by the time the Merger is completed. KBW does not have any obligation to update, revise or reaffirm its opinion to reflect subsequent developments and has not done so. Because Insight does not currently anticipate asking KBW to update its opinion, the opinion will not address the fairness of the merger consideration from a financial point of view at the time the Merger is completed. The Insight board of directors' recommendation that Insight common shareholders vote "FOR" approval of the Merger Agreement, however, is made as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus. See "The Merger — Opinion of Insight's Financial Advisor" on page 28 and Appendix C to this proxy statement/prospectus.

First Financial may be unable to successfully integrate Insight's operations and may not realize the anticipated benefits of acquiring Insight.

Parent, First Financial, and Insight entered into the Merger Agreement with the expectation that First Financial would be able to successfully integrate Insight's operations and that the Merger would result in various benefits, including, among other things, enhanced revenues and revenue synergies, an expanded market reach and operating efficiencies. Achieving the anticipated benefits of the Merger is subject to a number of uncertainties, including whether First Financial is able to integrate and operate Insight in an efficient and effective manner, and general competitive factors in the market place. The process of integrating operations could cause an interruption of, or loss of momentum in, the activities of one or more of the surviving bank's businesses or the loss of key personnel. The diversion of management's attention and any delays or difficulties encountered in connection with the Merger and the integration of the two banks' operations could have an adverse effect on the business, financial condition, operating results, and prospects of the surviving bank after the Merger. Failure to achieve these anticipated benefits could result in increased costs, decreases in the amount of expected revenues, and diversion of management's time and energy, and could have an adverse effect on the surviving bank's business, financial condition, operating results and prospects.

Among the factors considered by the boards of directors of Parent, First Financial, and Insight in connection with their respective approvals of the Merger Agreement were the benefits that could result from the Merger. We cannot give any assurance that these benefits will be realized within the time periods contemplated or even that they will be realized at all.

Insight will be subject to business uncertainties while the Merger is pending, which could adversely affect its business.

Uncertainty about the effect of the Merger on employees and customers may have an adverse effect on Insight, and, consequently, the surviving bank. Although Insight intends to take steps to reduce any adverse effects, these uncertainties may impair Insight's ability to attract, retain, and motivate key personnel until the Merger is consummated and for a period of time thereafter, and could cause customers and others that deal with Insight to seek to change their existing business relationships with Insight. Employee retention at Insight may be particularly challenging during the pendency of the Merger, as employees may experience uncertainty about their roles with the surviving bank following the Merger.

Risks relating to the businesses of Parent and the surviving bank Insight shareholders will not control Parent's future operations.

Currently, Insight shareholders own 100% of Insight and have the power to approve or reject any matters requiring shareholder approval under Ohio law and Insight's articles of incorporation and code of regulations. After the Merger, absent any adjustment made to the ratio of the stock component of the merger consideration, Insight shareholders are expected to become owners of less than 4% of the outstanding shares of Parent common stock. Even if all former Insight common shareholders voted together on all matters presented to Parent's shareholders, from time to time, the former Insight common shareholders most likely would not have a significant impact on the approval or rejection of future Parent proposals submitted to a shareholder vote.

SPECIAL NOTES CONCERNING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This document contains, and the documents into which it may be incorporated by reference may contain, forward-looking statements within the meaning of federal securities laws. Examples of forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, projections of revenues, income or loss, earnings or loss per share, the payment or non-payment of dividends, capital structure and other financial items, statements of plans and objectives of First Financial or its management or board of directors and statements of future economic performances and statements of assumptions underlying such statements. Words such as “believes,” “anticipates,” “likely,” “expected,” “intends,” and other similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements but are not the exclusive means of identifying such statements. Forward-looking statements and information are not historical facts, are premised on many factors and assumptions, and represent only management’s expectations, estimates and projections regarding future events. Similarly, these statements are not guarantees of future performance and involve certain risks and uncertainties that are difficult to predict, which may include, but are not limited to, those listed below and the Risk Factors discussed under Item 1A of Parent’s 2013 Annual Report on Form 10-K and in any of Parent’s subsequent SEC filings. Parent intends such forward-looking statements to be covered by the safe harbor provisions for forward-looking statements contained in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, and is including this statement for purposes of invoking these safe harbor provisions. Management’s analysis contains forward-looking statements that are provided to assist in the understanding of anticipated future financial performance. However, such performance involves risks and uncertainties that may cause actual results to differ materially. Factors that could cause actual results to differ from those discussed in the forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to:

management's ability to effectively execute its business plan;

the risk that the strength of the United States economy in general and the strength of the local economies in which we conduct operations may continue to deteriorate resulting in, among other things, a further deterioration in credit quality or a reduced demand for credit, including the resultant effect on our loan portfolio, allowance for loan and lease losses and overall financial performance;

U.S. fiscal debt and budget matters;

the ability of financial institutions to access sources of liquidity at a reasonable cost;

the impact of recent upheaval in the financial markets and the effectiveness of domestic and international governmental actions taken in response, and the effect of such governmental actions on us, our competitors and counterparties, financial markets generally and availability of credit specifically, and the U.S. and international economies, including potentially higher FDIC premiums arising from increased payments from FDIC insurance funds as a result of depository institution failures;

the effect of and changes in policies and laws or regulatory agencies (notably the recently enacted Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act and the new capital rules promulgated by federal banking regulators);

the effect of the current low interest rate environment or changes in interest rates on our net interest margin and our loan originations and securities holdings;

our ability to keep up with technological changes;

failure or breach of our operational or security systems or infrastructure, or those of our third-party vendors or other service providers;

our ability to comply with the terms of loss sharing agreements with the FDIC;

the expiration of loss sharing agreements with the FDIC;

mergers and acquisitions (including the acquisition of Insight pursuant to the Merger Agreement), including costs or difficulties related to the integration of acquired companies and the wind-down of non-strategic operations that may be greater than expected;

the risk that exploring merger and acquisition opportunities may detract from management's time and ability to successfully manage our business;

expected cost savings in connection with the consolidation of recent acquisitions may not be fully realized or realized within the expected time frames, and deposit attrition, customer loss, and revenue loss following completed acquisitions may be greater than expected;

our ability to increase market share and control expenses;

the effect of changes in accounting policies and practices, as may be adopted by the regulatory agencies as well as the Financial Accounting Standards Board and the SEC;

adverse changes in the creditworthiness of our borrowers and lessees, collateral values, the value of investment securities, and asset recovery values, including the value of the FDIC indemnification asset and related assets covered by FDIC loss sharing agreements;

adverse changes in the securities, debt and/or derivatives markets;

our success in recruiting and retaining the necessary personnel to support business growth and expansion and maintain sufficient expertise to support increasingly complex products and services;

monetary and fiscal policies of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (Federal Reserve) and the U.S. government and other governmental initiatives affecting the financial services industry;

unpredictable natural or other disasters could have an adverse effect on us in that such events could materially disrupt our operations or our vendors' operations or willingness of our customers to access the financial services we offer;

our ability to manage loan delinquency and charge-off rates and changes in estimation of the adequacy of the allowance for loan and lease losses; and

· the costs and effects of litigation and of unexpected or adverse outcomes in such litigation.

Therefore, there can be no assurances that future actual results will correspond to these forward-looking statements. The reader is cautioned not to place undue reliance on any forward-looking statement made by Parent. Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date they are made, and Parent undertakes no obligation to update any forward-looking statement to reflect the impact of circumstances or events that arise after the date the forward-looking statement was made. Persons are advised, however, to consult further disclosures management makes on related subjects in its reports filed with the SEC and in its press releases.

INFORMATION ABOUT THE SPECIAL MEETING OF Insight SHAREHOLDERS

Insight's board of directors is using this proxy statement/prospectus to solicit proxies from the holders of Insight common stock for use at the special meeting of Insight common shareholders.

Date, time and place of the special meeting

The special meeting will be held at the offices of Insight, located at 150 W. Wilson Bridge Road, Worthington, Ohio 43085 on May 28, 2014 at 3:00 p.m., local time.

Purpose of the special meeting

At the special meeting, Insight's board of directors will ask you to vote upon the following:

- a proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement and thereby approve the Merger;
- a proposal to approve an adjournment of the special meeting to permit further solicitation in the event that there are not sufficient votes FOR adoption, for any reason, of the Merger Agreement and the transactions it contemplates at the time of the special meeting; and
- any other business that properly comes before the special meeting and any adjournment or postponement thereof.

Record date and voting rights for the special meeting

Insight has set the close of business on April 24, 2014, as the record date for determining the holders of its common stock entitled to notice of and to vote at the special meeting. Only Insight shareholders at the close of business on the record date are entitled to notice of and to vote at the special meeting. As of the record date, there were 1,630,000 shares of Insight common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the special meeting. Insight intends to redeem all of its outstanding Insight Series A Preferred Stock in advance of the special meeting. As soon as Insight Series A Preferred Stock is redeemed, the shares will be retired by Insight and will no longer be issued and outstanding. Assuming the redemption of outstanding Insight Series A Preferred Stock is completed in advance of the special meeting, as planned, no shares of Insight Series A Preferred Stock will exist for purposes of voting on the Merger Agreement.

Quorum

The presence in person or by proxy of at least a majority of Insight common shares issued and outstanding and entitled to vote at the special meeting is required for a quorum to be present at the special meeting. Abstentions and broker non-votes will count toward the establishment of a quorum.

Vote required

Under the federal law applicable to mergers of state banks into national banks, the Merger Agreement must be ratified and confirmed by the affirmative vote of Insight shareholders owning at least two-thirds of its capital stock outstanding. Approval of the proposal to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate to solicit additional proxies, requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of Insight common stock having voting power present in person or by proxy, whether or not there is a quorum.

The failure of an Insight common shareholder to vote or to instruct his or her broker, bank or nominee to vote if his or her shares are held in "street name", which we refer to as a broker non-vote, will have the same effect as voting against the proposals to adopt the Merger Agreement and the meeting adjournment proposal. For purposes of the shareholder vote, an abstention, which occurs when a shareholder attends a meeting, either in person or by proxy, but abstains from voting, will have the same effect as voting against the proposals to adopt the Merger Agreement and to adjourn the special meeting.

Shares held by Insight directors; voting agreements

Certain Insight directors who own shares of Insight common stock and certain other shareholders of Insight, whose aggregate ownership represents approximately 9.5% of the outstanding shares of Insight common stock as of December 19, 2013, have committed to vote their shares in favor of the Merger. Parent does not own any shares of Insight common stock. See “The Merger—Voting agreement” on page 45 for a description of the provisions of the voting agreement.

How to vote

You may vote in person at the special meeting or by proxy. To ensure your representation at the special meeting, we recommend you vote by proxy even if you plan to attend the special meeting. You can change your vote at the special meeting if you so desire.

Voting instructions are included on your proxy form, which should be returned in the enclosed, postage-prepaid envelope. If you properly complete and timely submit your proxy, your shares will be voted as you have directed. You may vote for, against, or abstain with respect to the approval of the Merger and the other proposals. If you are the record holder of your shares and submit your proxy without specifying a voting instruction, your shares will be voted as Insight’s board of directors recommends and will be voted “FOR” adoption of the Merger Agreement and “FOR” the adjournment of the special meeting to permit further solicitation in the event that an insufficient number of shares are present in person or by proxy to adopt the Merger Agreement and the transactions it contemplates.

Revocability of proxies

You may revoke your proxy at any time before it is voted by:

· filing with Insight’s secretary a duly executed revocation of proxy;

· submitting a new proxy with a later date; or

· voting in person at the special meeting.

Attendance at the special meeting will not, in and of itself, constitute a revocation of a proxy. All written notices of revocation and other communication with respect to the revocation of proxies should be addressed to: Insight Bank, 150 W. Wilson Bridge Road, Worthington, Ohio 43085, Attention: Harvey Glick, President and Chief Executive Officer.

Proxy solicitation

In addition to this mailing, proxies may be solicited by directors, officers or employees of Insight in person or by telephone or electronic transmission. None of such directors, officers or employees will be directly compensated for such services. Insight will pay the costs associated with the solicitation of proxies for the special meeting.

Other business; adjournments

Insight is not currently aware of any other business to be acted upon at the Insight special meeting. If, however, other matters are properly brought before the special meeting, or any adjournment or postponement thereof, your proxy includes discretionary authority on the part of the individuals appointed to vote your shares to act on those matters according to their best judgment.

Adjournments may be made for the purpose of, among other things, soliciting additional proxies. Any adjournment may be made from time to time by the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of Insight common stock having voting power present in person or by proxy, whether or not there is a quorum, without further notice other than by announcement at the special meeting.

THE MERGER

This section of the proxy statement/prospectus describes the material aspects of the Merger. While Parent and Insight believe that the description covers the material terms of the Merger and the related transactions, this summary may not contain all of the information that is important to you. You should carefully read this entire proxy statement/prospectus, the attached Annexes, and the other documents to which this proxy statement/prospectus refers for a more complete understanding of the Merger. The Merger Agreement attached hereto as Annex A, not this summary, is the legal document which governs the Merger.

General

The Insight board of directors is using this proxy statement/prospectus to solicit proxies from the holders of Insight common stock for use at the Insight special meeting, at which Insight common shareholders will be asked to vote on the adoption of the Merger Agreement and thereby approve the Merger. When the Merger is consummated, Insight will merge with and into First Financial and will cease to exist. First Financial will survive the Merger and remain a wholly owned subsidiary of Parent. At the effective time of the Merger, holders of Insight common stock will exchange their shares for a combination of cash and shares of Parent common stock, subject to certain adjustments depending upon changes in the market price of Parent common stock. Each share of Insight common stock will be exchanged for the per share merger consideration, the stock component of which cannot be determined until the third business day prior to the effective time of the Merger. See “Description of the Merger Agreement—Consideration to be received in the Merger” on page 47 for a detailed description of the method for determining the per share merger consideration.

Only whole shares of Parent common stock will be issued in the Merger. As a result, cash will be paid instead of any fractional shares based on the Parent Share Average Closing Price of Parent common stock, which will be calculated by reference to the twenty trading days ending on the third business day prior to the effective time of the Merger. Shares of Insight common stock held by Insight shareholders who elect to exercise their appraisal rights will not be converted into merger consideration.

Insight's proposals

At the Insight special meeting, holders of shares of Insight common stock will be asked to vote on the adoption of the Merger Agreement and thereby approve the Merger. The Merger will not be completed unless Insight shareholders adopt the Merger Agreement and thereby approve the Merger.

Background of the Merger

Management of Insight has from time to time explored and assessed, and has discussed with Insight's board of directors, various strategic options potentially available to Insight. These strategic discussions have focused on, among other things, the business environment facing financial institutions in general and Insight in particular, as well as conditions and ongoing consolidation in the financial services industry and ways in which to enhance Insight's competitive position, including through the possible acquisition of another financial institution.

Since completing its second capital raise of $3,990,000 in 2010, Insight has embarked on a process to deploy the capital successfully through strategic growth and dividends.

In December 2010, the Small Business Lending Fund (“SBLF”) was introduced by the U.S. Treasury. The SBLF program allowed Insight to issue Insight Series A Preferred Stock to the U.S. Treasury, adding $4,250,000 in capital in July 2011. The plan of the board and management was to replace this capital no later than the first quarter of 2016. Insight’s present intention is to redeem Insight Series A Preferred Stock prior to the date of the special meeting of Insight shareholders on the Merger. The parties of the Merger presently intend for First Financial to fund the redemption. Insight and First Financial anticipate entering into a reimbursement agreement pursuant to which Insight will be obligated to reimburse First Financial for such redemption funds if the Merger Agreement is terminated. Insight will pay First Financial a market rate of interest on funds used to redeem Insight Series A Preferred Stock if the Merger Agreement is terminated. Insight believes it would continue to be well-capitalized in the event it reimbursed First Financial for the funds used to redeem Insight Series A Preferred Stock.

As the sluggish economy continued into 2012, and faced with the prospect of increasing costs in order to comply with regulatory reform, Insight’s board of directors considered the outlook for long-term organic growth and acquisition strategies for Insight. In August 2012, in anticipation of raising additional capital to fund future growth opportunities, Harvey Glick, Insight’s President and Chief Executive Officer, contacted the investment banking firm of KBW to secure advice with regard to potential pricing of a capital issue by Insight. On August 29, 2012, Mr. Glick and Peter Geier, Chairman of the Board of Insight, met with a representative of KBW and reviewed a peer valuation of Insight as prepared by KBW as well as merger and acquisition activity in the marketplace. The KBW representative also indicated that certain institutions may be interested in the Columbus, Ohio, market, and suggested that Messrs. Geier and Glick consider meeting with them.

From August 2012 to November 2012, meetings were held with various parties that had expressed an interest in a potential strategic combination with Insight.

KBW and Insight continued discussions regarding strategic alternatives into 2013, and met various times from February through March of 2013. In March 2013, KBW had discussions with various other financial institutions with an interest in entering the Columbus, Ohio market, including through a possible combination with Insight, and in August 2013, KBW received an unsolicited indication of interest from a party that had previously expressed an interest in Insight in the range of $13.00 per share, which was rejected.

Later that month, KBW met with Insight to discuss the potential value of Insight to prospective acquirers and to identify potential strategic partners for Insight. Those conversations continued into September 2013.

On September 24, 2013, Messrs. Glick and Geier met with Messrs. Claude Davis and Anthony Stollings, President and Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, respectively, of First Financial, as well as other representatives of First Financial and of KBW, and discussed their respective institutions and future plans, including First Financial's interest in a banking presence in the Columbus, Ohio market. Over the next several weeks it became clear through a number of conversations that First Financial was interested in further discussions with Insight, and Messrs. Geier and Glick discussed the interest of First Financial with the Executive Committee of Insight's board of directors, composed of Messrs. Peter Geier, Harvey Glick, Donald Kenney, Sr., Donald Shackelford and Randy Wilcox. The Executive Committee authorized and directed Messrs. Geier and Glick to proceed with informal discussions with First Financial, and to enter into a confidentiality agreement with First Financial in order for the parties to share information of interest.

On October 10, 2013, First Financial and Insight entered into a confidentiality agreement and began the process of sharing information. On October 30, 2013, Messrs. Kenney and Wilcox met with Messrs. Davis and Stollings together with a representative of KBW, and later certain other members of the Executive Committee of Insight's board of directors joined the meeting. First Financial expressed a strong interest in a strategic combination with Insight, and the parties decided to explore matters further.

In October and November, First Financial and Parent performed preliminary due diligence to determine the terms it would offer in its non-binding indication of interest to Insight.

On November 7, 2013, the Executive Committee of Insight's board of directors met again with Messrs. Davis and Stollings as well as a representative of KBW and outlined the terms of a potential transaction. Also discussed was a potential non-binding indication of interest to permit the parties to proceed with further conversations to narrow the terms of a proposed combination. The Executive Committee met on November 11, 2013 and on November 12, 2013, to discuss a response to the indication of interest by First Financial. Various drafts of an indication of interest were exchanged between Insight and First Financial during the period ending November 21, 2013, at which time the full board of directors of Insight was presented with detailed information concerning the proposal. The board of directors of Insight then authorized management of Insight to pursue and to negotiate a further non-binding indication of interest with First Financial.

In November 2013, First Financial and Insight continued negotiations and increased the price range of a potential transaction from approximately $19.50 to $20.50 per common share. On November 18, 2013, KBW contacted various potential acquirers to perform a limited “market check” on a confidential basis to ascertain any interest in a possible transaction with Insight.

At a meeting of the full board of directors of Insight held on November 21, 2013, Messrs. Geier and Glick and a representative from KBW reviewed the activities of KBW with Insight since 2012, including a recent “market check” and its results. At that meeting, KBW advised the board that a market check of other potential acquirers indicated that there was not an interest in a potential combination with Insight by other likely potential acquirers, and that the proposal by First Financial would provide a very attractive opportunity for Insight shareholders. Upon the recommendations of management of Insight and KBW, the board of directors unanimously authorized management to execute and deliver a nonbinding indication of interest as presented to the meeting, and further authorized the Executive Committee to pursue further negotiations with First Financial toward a potential definitive agreement.

From December 5, 2013 through December 18, 2013, Insight's management, KBW and Insight's legal counsel, Vorys, Sater, Seymour and Pease LLP, conducted due diligence of Parent and First Financial, including both external and on-site due diligence. First Financial and Parent conducted further due diligence on Insight in November and December 2013. The parties concurrently worked to finalize the drafting of the definitive merger agreement in December 2013.

Negotiations continued between management of Insight and First Financial and legal counsel for the respective organizations, and a proposed definitive agreement was presented to the full board of directors of Insight at a meeting held on December 18, 2013. Legal counsel for Insight as well as representatives of KBW attended that meeting, and KBW indicated that it was prepared to provide a fairness opinion with regard to the agreement as proposed. During the meeting, legal counsel for Insight discussed the board's fiduciary obligations in considering the proposal both with the whole board and in executive session, and KBW provided a comprehensive review of the performance of Parent stock as well as pro forma projections and anticipated values and expense reductions as a result of the proposed transaction. KBW further provided a detailed review of the consideration formula for the transaction and the impact of the cuffs and collars provided by the formula. KBW also reviewed other recently completed transactions of similar size and consideration of other potential acquirers of Insight. Management of Insight as well as KBW and Insight's legal counsel also reviewed the results of due diligence performed on First Financial and Parent to date and responded to questions with regard to various terms of the proposed agreement, including those related to the price as well as the termination fee in the event that the agreement was terminated by Insight as the result of a subsequent offer.

The board of directors of Insight authorized management to proceed with execution and delivery of the Merger Agreement. The board of directors also agreed to recommend to the shareholders of Insight that they approve and adopt the Merger Agreement at a meeting to be held at a time to be determined.

Recommendation of Insight's board of directors and its reasons for the Merger

In reaching its decision to adopt and approve the Merger Agreement and recommend that Insight shareholders approve the Merger Agreement, Insight's board of directors consulted with Insight's management, as well as its legal and financial advisors, and considered a number of factors, including:

its knowledge of Insight's business, operations, financial condition, asset quality, earnings and prospects, and of First Financial and Parent's business, operations, financial condition, asset quality, earnings and prospects, taking into account the presentations made by the officers of First Financial and Parent, the results of Insight's due diligence review of First Financial and Parent, and information provided by Insight's financial advisor;

its knowledge of the current environment in the financial services industry, including national, regional and local economic conditions and the interest rate environment, continued consolidation, increased operating costs resulting from regulatory initiatives and compliance mandates, increasing competition, the current environment for community banks and current financial market conditions and the likely effects of these factors on the companies' potential growth, development, productivity and strategic options;

its belief that combining the companies would create a larger and more diversified financial institution that is both better equipped to respond to economic and industry developments and better positioned to develop and build on its strong market share in Ohio;

the complementary aspects of Insight's and First Financial's businesses, including customer focus, geographic coverage and business orientation;

the potential expense-saving and revenue-enhancing opportunities in connection with the Merger, the related potential impact on the surviving bank's earnings and the fact that the nature of the merger consideration would give former Insight shareholders the opportunity to participate as Parent shareholders in the benefits of such savings opportunities and the future performance of the surviving bank;

its assessment of the likelihood that the Merger would be completed in a timely manner and that the management team of the surviving bank would be able to successfully integrate and operate the businesses of the surviving bank after the Merger;

the financial analyses presented by KBW to Insight's board of directors, and the opinion dated as of December 18, 2013, delivered to Insight by KBW to the effect that, as of that date, and subject to and based on the qualifications and assumptions set forth in the opinion, the consideration to be received by the Insight shareholders in the Merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to such shareholders;

the financial terms of the Merger, including the fact that, based on Parent common stock's average closing price of $16.31 per share over the 20 consecutive trading day period ending on December 16, 2013 (the third business day prior to the execution of the Merger Agreement), the per share merger consideration represented a multiple to normalized tangible book value per share of 166%, a multiple to Insight's trailing 12 months earnings per share of 19.05 times, and a premium to core deposits of 20.1%;

the structure of the Merger and the terms of the Merger Agreement, including the no-solicitation and shareholder approval covenants, the termination fee provisions, and the ability of Insight's board of directors, under certain circumstances, to withdraw or adversely modify its recommendation to Insight shareholders, and to terminate the Merger Agreement in order to enter into a definitive agreement with respect to a superior proposal (subject to payment of a termination fee plus an amount equal to First Financial's out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with the proposed Merger);

- the expectation that the Merger would qualify as a tax-free reorganization for U.S. federal income tax purposes;

the regulatory and other approvals required in connection with the Merger and the likelihood that such approvals would be received in a timely manner and without unacceptable conditions;

- the fact that the approval of Parent shareholders would not be required for the transaction; and the belief that the Parent offer was the best offer that could be obtained at this time and was better than the stand-alone prospects for Insight.

The Insight board of directors also considered potential risks and a variety of potentially negative factors in connection with its deliberations concerning the Merger Agreement and the Merger, including the following material factors:

the potential risk of diverting management focus and resources from other strategic opportunities and from operational matters while working to implement the Merger;

the fact that the interests of some of the directors and officers of Insight may be different from those of Insight shareholders, and directors and officers of Insight may be participants in arrangements that are different from, or are in addition to, those of Insight shareholders;

the fact that the Merger Agreement provides that Insight may be required to pay a termination fee to First Financial plus an amount equal to First Financial's out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with the proposed Merger;

- the fact that the Merger Agreement prohibits Insight and its officers, directors, agents, advisors and affiliates from soliciting acquisition proposals or, subject to certain exceptions, engaging in negotiations concerning or providing nonpublic information to any person relating to an acquisition proposal;

- 26 -

the fact that there can be no assurance that all conditions to the parties' obligations to complete the Merger will be satisfied, including the risk that certain requisite regulatory approvals might not be obtained, and, as a result, the Merger may not be consummated, or that governmental entities may impose conditions on the granting of such approvals that could have the effect of delaying completion of the Merger or imposing additional costs or limiting the revenues of the surviving bank following the Merger;

the risk that the anticipated benefits of the Merger may not be realized or may take longer than expected to be realized;

the restrictions on the conduct of Insight's business prior to the completion of the Merger, which, subject to specific exceptions, could delay or prevent Insight from undertaking business opportunities that may arise or from taking other actions it would otherwise take with respect to the operations of Insight absent the pending completion of the Merger; and the possible effects of the pendency or consummation of the transaction contemplated by the Merger Agreement, including any suit, action or proceeding initiated in respect of the Merger.

The foregoing discussion of the factors considered by Insight's board of directors is not intended to be exhaustive, but, rather, includes the material factors considered by Insight's board of directors. In reaching its decision to adopt and approve the Merger Agreement, and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, Insight's board of directors did not quantify or assign any relative weights to the factors considered, and individual directors may have given different weights to different factors. The Insight board of directors considered all these factors as a whole, including discussions with, and questioning of, Insight management and Insight's financial and legal advisors, and overall considered the factors to be favorable to, and to support, its determination. The Insight board of directors also relied on the experience of KBW, its financial advisor, for analyses of the financial terms of the Merger and for its opinion as to the fairness from a financial point of view of the consideration in the Merger to Insight common shareholders.

For the reasons set forth above, Insight's board of directors unanimously determined that the Merger, the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement are advisable and in the best interests of Insight and its shareholders, and unanimously approved and adopted the Merger Agreement. The Insight board of directors unanimously recommends that the Insight shareholders vote "FOR" the approval of the Merger Agreement.

Insight's board of directors believes that the Merger is fair to, and in the best interests of, Insight and its shareholders. Insight's board of directors unanimously approved the Merger Agreement and recommends that shareholders vote "FOR" adoption of the Merger Agreement.

Certain directors and officers of Insight have interests in the Merger different from or in addition to their interests as shareholders generally. You may wish to consider these interests in evaluating Insight's board of directors' recommendation that you vote in favor of the Merger. See "The Merger—Interests of certain persons in the Merger" on page 41. Certain Insight directors who own shares of Insight common stock have agreed to vote their shares in favor of the Merger at the special meeting.

Parent's reasons for the Merger

Parent's board of directors believes that the Merger is in the best interests of Parent and its shareholders. In deciding to approve the Merger, Parent's board of directors considered a number of factors, including:

management's view that the acquisition of Insight by First Financial provides a strong entrance to the attractive Columbus, Ohio market;

Insight's successful and profitable operations with values and a client-focused approach similar to First Financial's, as well as strong asset generation capabilities with a platform for deposit growth;

- 27 -

efficiencies to come from integrating Insight's operations into First Financial's existing operations, including the potential to leverage First Financial's brand, product set and capabilities to accelerate growth;

Insight's straight-forward community bank operations, solid asset quality profiles and credit discipline, strong management team and scale of operations, which, together with continued director participation, would result in low operational risk after the completion of the Merger;

Parent management's review of Insight's business, operations, earnings and financial condition, including its management, capital levels and asset quality;

a review of the demographic, economic and financial characteristics of the markets in which Insight operates, including existing and potential competition and history of the market areas with respect to financial institutions; and the likelihood that the Merger will be approved by the relevant bank regulatory authorities without undue burden and in a timely manner.

The above discussion of the information and factors considered by Parent's board of directors is not intended to be exhaustive, but includes a description of all material factors considered by Parent's board. In view of the wide variety of factors considered by Parent's board of directors in connection with its evaluation of the Merger, Parent's board did not consider it practical to, nor did it attempt to, quantify, rank or otherwise assign relative weights to the specific factors that it considered. In considering the factors described above, individual directors may have given differing weights to different factors. Parent's board of directors collectively made its determination with respect to the Merger based on the conclusion reached by its members, based on the factors that each of them considered appropriate, that the Merger is in the best interests of Parent's shareholders.

Opinion of Insight's Financial Advisor

Insight engaged Keefe, Bruyette & Woods, Inc. ("KBW") to render an opinion to Insight's board of directors as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the shareholders of Insight of the merger consideration in the proposed Merger of Insight with and into First Financial, a wholly owned subsidiary of Parent. Insight selected KBW because KBW is a nationally recognized investment banking firm with substantial experience in transactions similar to the Merger and is familiar with Insight and its business. As part of its investment banking business, KBW is continually engaged in the valuation of financial businesses and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions.

As part of its engagement, representatives of KBW attended the meeting of Insight's board of directors held on December 18, 2013, at which Insight's board of directors evaluated the proposed Merger. At this meeting, KBW reviewed the financial aspects of the proposed Merger and rendered an opinion to the effect that, as of such date and subject to the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered, and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by KBW set forth in such opinion, the merger consideration in the proposed Merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to the shareholders of Insight. For purposes of KBW's opinion and with the consent of Insight's board of directors, the merger consideration was assumed to be equal to $20.50 per share of Insight common stock. The Insight board of directors unanimously approved the Merger Agreement at this meeting.

The description of the opinion set forth herein is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinion, which is attached as Annex C to this document and is incorporated herein by reference, and describes the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered, and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by KBW in preparing the opinion.

KBW's opinion speaks only as of the date of the opinion. The opinion was for the information of, and was directed to, Insight's board of directors (in its capacity as such) in connection with its consideration of the financial terms of the Merger. The opinion addressed only the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the merger consideration in the Merger to the shareholders of Insight. It did not address the underlying business decision to proceed with the Merger or constitute a recommendation to Insight's board of directors in connection with the Merger, and it does not constitute a recommendation to any Insight shareholder as to how such shareholder should vote at the Insight special meeting on the Merger or on any related matter.

KBW's opinion was reviewed and approved by KBW's Fairness Opinion Committee in conformity with its policies and procedures established under the requirements of Rule 5150 of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority.

In rendering its opinion, KBW reviewed, among other things:

- a draft, dated December 17, 2013, of the Merger Agreement (the most recent draft made available to KBW);

- the quarterly call reports for the last three years ended September 30, 2013 for both Insight and Parent;

the audited financial statements and annual reports for the three years ended December 31, 2012 of Insight and Parent;

- the 2013 quarterly reports on Form 10-Q for the quarters ended March 31, June 30, and September 30 of Parent;

certain other interim reports to shareholders and other communications from Insight and Parent to their respective shareholders; and other financial information concerning the businesses and operations of Insight, First Financial and Parent furnished to KBW by Insight and Parent.

KBW's consideration of financial information and other factors that it deemed appropriate under the circumstances or relevant to its analyses included, among others, the following:

- the historical and current financial position and results of operations of Insight and Parent;

the assets and liabilities of Insight and Parent;

the nature and terms of certain other merger transactions and business combinations in the banking industry;

a comparison of certain financial information for Insight and financial and stock market information for Parent with similar information for certain other publicly traded companies; financial and operating forecasts and projections of Insight that were prepared and provided by Insight management; and publicly available consensus “street estimates” of Parent and estimates regarding certain pro forma financial effects of the Merger on First Financial and Parent that were prepared and provided by management of Parent and discussed with KBW.

KBW also performed such other studies and analyses as it considered appropriate and took into account its assessment of general economic, market and financial conditions and its experience in other transactions, as well as its experience in securities valuation and knowledge of the banking industry generally. KBW also held discussions with senior management of Insight and Parent regarding the past and current business operations, regulatory relations, financial condition and future prospects of their respective companies and such other matters that KBW deemed relevant to its inquiry.

In conducting its review and arriving at its opinion, KBW relied upon and assumed the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information provided to it or publicly available and it did not independently verify the accuracy or completeness of any such information or assume any responsibility or liability for such verification, accuracy or completeness. KBW relied upon the management of Insight as to the reasonableness and achievability of the financial and operating forecasts and projections of Insight (and the assumptions and bases therefor) that were prepared and provided by such management, and KBW assumed, at the direction of Insight, that such forecasts and projections were reasonably prepared on a basis reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of such management and that such forecasts and projections will be realized in the amounts and in the time periods currently estimated by such management. KBW further relied upon management of Parent as to the reasonableness and achievability of the estimates regarding certain pro forma financial effects of the Merger on Parent prepared and provided by management of Parent (and the assumptions and bases therefor), and KBW assumed that such estimates were reasonably prepared on a basis reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of such management and that such estimates will be realized in the amounts and in the time periods currently estimated by such management.

It is understood that such forecasts, projections and estimates provided to KBW by the respective managements of Insight and Parent, as the case may be, were not prepared with the expectation of public disclosure, that all such projected financial information is based on numerous variables and assumptions that are inherently uncertain, including, without limitation, factors related to general economic and competitive conditions and that, accordingly, actual results could vary significantly from those set forth in such forecasts, projections and estimates. KBW assumed, based on discussions with the respective managements of Insight and Parent, that such forecasts, projections and estimates, as well as publicly available consensus “street estimates” of Parent referred to above, provided a reasonable basis upon which KBW could form its opinion, and KBW expressed no view as to any such information or the assumptions or bases therefor. The forecasts, projections and estimates of Parent did not reflect First Financial’s pending acquisition of The First Bexley Bank (“First Bexley”) that was publicly announced on December 18, 2013, and based on discussions with management of Parent and with the consent of Insight’s board of directors, KBW assumed that such acquisition, if consummated, would not have an impact on such forecasts, projections and estimates of Parent in any respect that would be material to KBW’s analyses or opinion. KBW relied on the foregoing information without independent verification or analysis and therefore did not in any respect assume any responsibility or liability for the accuracy or completeness thereof. KBW further assumed, with the consent of Insight’s board of directors, that the actual value of the consideration to be received by the holders of Insight common stock in the Merger will not differ from that assumed by KBW in any respect that would be material to KBW’s analyses or opinion.

KBW assumed that there were no material changes in the assets, liabilities, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects of either Insight or Parent since the date of the last financial statements of each such entity that were made available to KBW. KBW is not an expert in the independent verification of the adequacy of allowances for loan and lease losses and it assumed, without independent verification and with Insight’s consent, that the aggregate allowances for loan and lease losses for Insight and Parent were adequate to cover such losses. In rendering its opinion, KBW did not make or obtain any evaluations or appraisals or physical inspection of the property, assets or liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of Insight or Parent, the collateral securing any of such assets or liabilities, or the collectability of any such assets, nor did KBW examine any individual loan or credit files, nor did it evaluate the solvency, financial capability or fair value of Insight or Parent under any state or federal laws, including those relating to bankruptcy, insolvency or other matters. Estimates of values of companies and assets do not purport to be appraisals or necessarily reflect the prices at which companies or assets may actually be sold. Because such estimates are inherently subject to uncertainty, KBW assumed no responsibility or liability for their accuracy.

For purposes of rendering its opinion, KBW assumed that, in all respects material to its analysis:

the Merger and related transactions described in or contemplated by the Merger Agreement would be completed substantially in accordance with the terms set forth in the Merger Agreement (the final terms of which will not differ in any respect material to KBW's analyses from the draft reviewed) with no additional payments or adjustments to the merger consideration; the representations and warranties of each party in the Merger Agreement and in all related documents and instruments referred to in the Merger Agreement are true and correct;

- 30 -

each party to the Merger Agreement and all related documents would perform all of the covenants and agreements required to be performed by such party under such documents;

there are no factors that would delay or subject to any adverse conditions, any necessary regulatory or governmental approval for the Merger and that all conditions to the completion of the Merger would be satisfied without any waivers or modifications to the Merger Agreement; and in the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory, contractual, or other consents or approvals for the Merger, no restrictions, including any divestiture requirements, termination or other payments or amendments or modifications, would be imposed that would have a material adverse effect on the future results of operations or financial condition of the combined entity or the contemplated benefits of the Merger.

KBW further assumed that the Merger would be consummated in a manner that complies with the applicable provisions of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and all other applicable federal and state statutes, rules and regulations. KBW further assumed that Insight relied upon the advice of its counsel, independent accountants and other advisors (other than KBW) as to all legal, financial reporting, tax, accounting and regulatory matters with respect to Insight, First Financial, Parent, the Merger or any other transaction (including a contemplated redemption of outstanding Insight preferred stock) and the Merger Agreement. KBW did not provide advice with respect to any such matters.

KBW's opinion addressed only the fairness, from a financial point of view, as of December 18, 2013, of the merger consideration in the Merger to the common shareholders of Insight. KBW expressed no view or opinion as to any terms or other aspects of the Merger or any related transaction, including without limitation, the form or structure of the Merger, any consequences of the Merger to Insight, its shareholders, creditors or otherwise, or any terms, aspects or implications of any other transaction or any voting, support, shareholder or other agreements, arrangements or understandings contemplated or entered into in connection with the Merger or otherwise. KBW expressed no view or opinion in any respect as to the pending acquisition of First Bexley or any terms, aspects, implications or direct or indirect consequences thereof or, alternatively, the failure to consummate such acquisition. KBW's opinion was necessarily based upon conditions as they existed and could be evaluated on the date of such opinion and the information made available to KBW through such date. It is understood that subsequent developments may affect the conclusion reached in KBW's opinion and that KBW does not have an obligation to update, revise or reaffirm its opinion. KBW's opinion did not address, and it expressed no view or opinion with respect to:

- the underlying business decision of Insight to engage in the Merger or enter into the Merger Agreement;

the relative merits of the Merger as compared to any strategic alternatives that are, have been or may be available to or contemplated by Insight or Insight's board of directors;

the fairness of the amount or nature of any compensation to any of Insight's officers, directors or employees, or any class of such persons, relative to any compensation to the holders of Insight common stock;

the effect of the Merger on, or the fairness of the consideration to be received by, holders of any class of securities of Insight other than the common stock, or any class of securities of any other party to any transaction contemplated by the Merger Agreement;

- 31 -

whether First Financial has sufficient cash, available lines of credit or other sources of funds to enable it to pay the aggregate cash consideration in the Merger to the holders of Insight common stock at the closing of the Merger;

the merits or implications of the redemption of Insight preferred stock (including the timing or amounts paid in respect thereof), or whether Insight has sufficient cash, available lines of credit or other sources of funds to fund such redemption;

the actual value of the Parent common stock to be issued in the Merger, or the prices, trading range or volume at which Parent common stock will trade following the public announcement or consummation of the Merger;

any advice or opinions provided by any other advisor to any of the parties to the Merger or any other transaction contemplated by the Merger Agreement; or any legal, regulatory, accounting, tax or similar matters relating to Insight, First Financial, Parent, their respective shareholders, or relating to or arising out of or as a consequence of the Merger, including whether or not the Merger would qualify as a tax-free reorganization for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

In performing its analyses, KBW made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business, economic, market and financial conditions and other matters, which are beyond the control of KBW, Insight, First Financial and Parent. Any estimates contained in the analyses performed by KBW are not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by these analyses. Additionally, estimates of the value of businesses or securities do not purport to be appraisals or to reflect the prices at which such businesses or securities might actually be sold. Accordingly, these analyses and estimates are inherently subject to substantial uncertainty. In addition, the KBW opinion was among several factors taken into consideration by Insight's board of directors in making its determination to approve the Merger Agreement and the Merger. Consequently, the analyses described below should not be viewed as determinative of the decision of Insight's board of directors with respect to the fairness of the merger consideration. The type and amount of consideration payable in the Merger were determined through negotiation between Insight and First Financial and the decision to enter into the Merger Agreement was solely that of Insight's board of directors.

The following is a summary of the material financial analyses presented by KBW to Insight's board of directors on December 18, 2013, in connection with its fairness opinion. The summary is not a complete description of the financial analyses underlying the KBW opinion or the presentation made by KBW to Insight's board of directors, but summarizes the material analyses performed and presented in connection with such opinion. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex analytic process involving various determinations as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances. Therefore, a fairness opinion is not readily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. In arriving at its opinion, KBW did not attribute any particular weight to any analysis or factor that it considered, but rather made qualitative judgments as to the significance and relevance of each analysis and factor. The financial analyses summarized below include information presented in tabular format. Accordingly, KBW believes that its analyses and the summary of its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of its analyses and factors or focusing on the information presented below in tabular format, without considering all analyses and factors or the full narrative description of the financial analyses, including the methodologies and assumptions underlying the analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the process underlying its analyses and opinion. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the financial analyses. For purposes of the financial analyses described below, KBW utilized an implied value of the merger consideration of $20.50 per share of Insight common stock (consisting of (i) $4.10 in cash and (ii) an ascribed value of $16.40 to the shares of Parent common stock to be issued in the Merger for each share of Insight).

Transaction multiples for the Merger are based on merger consideration of $20.50 per common share for Insight. For each precedent transaction, KBW derived and compared the merger consideration value per common share paid for the acquired company to:

- last twelve months earnings per share (“LTM EPS”) based on the latest publicly available financial statements of the acquired company prior to the announcement of the acquisition;
- tangible book value per share of the acquired company based on the latest publicly available financial statements of the company available prior to the announcement of the acquisition; and
- tangible equity premium to core deposits (total deposits less time deposits greater than $100,000) based on the latest publicly available financial statements of the company available prior to the announcement of the acquisition.

The results of the analysis are set forth in the following table:

No company or transaction used as a comparison in the above analysis is identical to Insight, Parent or the Merger. Accordingly, an analysis of these results is not mathematical. Rather, it involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of the companies involved.

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis. KBW performed a discounted cash flow analysis to estimate a range for the implied equity value of Insight. In this analysis, KBW assumed discount rates ranging from 14.0% to 16.0% to derive (i) the present value of the estimated free cash flows that Insight could generate over a five year period, as a standalone company, and (ii) the present value of Insight's terminal value at the end of year five. Terminal values for Insight were calculated based on a range of 12.0x to 14.0x estimated 2019 net income. In performing this analysis, KBW used estimates for Insight provided by Insight's management. KBW assumed that Insight would maintain a tangible common equity / tangible asset ratio of 9.00% and would retain sufficient earnings to maintain that level.

Based on these assumptions, KBW derived a range of implied aggregate value per share of Insight of $10.69 per common share to $12.99 per common share.

The discounted cash flow analysis is a widely used valuation methodology, but the results of such methodology are highly dependent on the assumptions that must be made, including asset and earnings growth rates, terminal values, dividend payout rates, and discount rates. The analysis did not purport to be indicative of the actual values or expected values of Insight.

Forecasted Pro Forma Financial Analysis. KBW analyzed the estimated financial impact of the Merger on Parent's 2014 estimated earnings per share and Parent's tangible book value per share as of June 30, 2014. Based on its analysis, KBW determined that the Merger would be accretive to Parent's estimated GAAP earnings per share in 2014, assuming a full year impact, but dilutive to Parent's tangible book value per share.

Furthermore, the analysis indicated that Parent's Leverage Ratio, Tier 1 Risk-Based Capital Ratio and Total Risk Based Capital Ratio would all remain "well capitalized" by regulatory standards. For all of the above analysis, the actual results achieved by Parent following the Merger may vary from the projected results, and the variations may be material.

Miscellaneous. KBW acted as financial advisor to Insight and did not act as an advisor to or agent of any other person. As part of its investment banking business, KBW is continually engaged in the valuation of bank and bank holding company securities in connection with acquisitions, negotiated underwritings, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements and valuations for various other purposes. As specialists in the securities of banking companies, KBW has experience in, and knowledge of, the valuation of banking enterprises. In the ordinary course of its business as a broker-dealer, KBW may, from time to time, purchase securities from, or sell securities to, Insight, First Financial and Parent. As a market maker in securities, KBW may from time to time have a long or short position in, and buy or sell, debt or equity securities of Insight and Parent for its own account and for the accounts of its customers. To the extent KBW held any such positions as of the date of its opinion, it was disclosed to Insight's board of directors.

Pursuant to the KBW engagement agreement, Insight agreed to pay KBW a cash fee of $100,000 concurrently with the rendering of its opinion and a cash fee, upon closing of the Merger, equal to $550,000 plus 10% of the actual aggregate merger consideration in excess of $36,563,343. In addition, Insight agreed to reimburse KBW for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses and disbursements incurred in connection with its retention and to indemnify KBW against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the federal securities laws. During the two years preceding the date of its opinion, KBW did not provide investment banking and financial advisory services to Insight, First Financial or Parent. KBW may in the future provide investment banking and financial advisory services to Insight, First Financial, or Parent and receive compensation for such services.

Material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger

This section describes the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger to U.S. holders (as defined below) of Insight common stock who exchange shares of Insight common stock for shares of Parent common stock and cash pursuant to the Merger.

For purposes of this discussion, a “U.S. holder” is a beneficial owner of Insight common stock who for U.S. federal income tax purposes is:

a citizen or resident of the United States;

a corporation, or an entity treated as a corporation, created or organized in or under the laws of the United States or any state or political subdivision thereof;

a trust that (1) is subject to (A) the primary supervision of a court within the United States and (B) the authority of one or more United States persons to control all substantial decisions of the trust or (2) has a valid election in effect under applicable U.S. Department of Treasury regulations to be treated as a United States person; or an estate that is subject to U.S. federal income tax on its income regardless of its source.

If a partnership (including for this purpose any entity treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes) holds shares of Insight common stock, the tax treatment of a partner generally will depend on the status of the partner and the activities of the partnership. If you are a partner of a partnership holding shares of Insight common stock, you should consult your tax advisor.

This discussion addresses only those Insight common shareholders who hold their shares of Insight common stock as a capital asset within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Code, and does not address all of the U.S. federal income tax consequences that may be relevant to particular Insight common shareholders in light of their individual circumstances or to Insight common shareholders who are subject to special rules, such as:

financial institutions;

pass-through entities and investors in those entities;

retirement plans;

insurance companies;

tax-exempt organizations;

- dealers in securities or foreign currencies;
- traders in securities who elect to use a mark-to-market method of accounting;
- persons who exercise dissenters' rights;
- persons who hold Insight common stock as part of a straddle, hedge, constructive sale, conversion transaction or other risk management transaction;
- regulated investment companies;
- real estate investment trusts;
- expatriates or persons who have a functional currency other than the U.S. dollar;
- persons who are not U.S. holders; and holders who acquired their shares of Insight common stock through the exercise of an employee stock option or otherwise as compensation or through a tax-qualified retirement plan, or through exercise of warrants.

In addition, the discussion does not address any alternative minimum tax, U.S. federal estate or gift tax or any state, local or foreign tax consequences of the Merger, nor does it address any tax consequences arising under the unearned income Medicare contribution tax pursuant to the Health Care and Education Reconciliation Act of 2010.

The following discussion is based on the Code, its legislative history, existing and proposed regulations thereunder and published rulings and decisions, all as currently in effect as of the date hereof, and all of which are subject to change, possibly with retroactive effect. Any such change could affect the continuing validity of this discussion.

Insight, First Financial and Parent have structured the Merger to qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. The obligation of Insight to complete the Merger is conditioned upon the receipt of an opinion of Vorys, Sater, Seymour and Pease LLP, tax counsel to Insight, dated as of the closing date and based on facts, representations and assumptions described in such opinion, to the effect that the Merger will be treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. In addition, in connection with the filing of the registration statement of which this document is a part, Vorys, Sater, Seymour and Pease LLP has delivered an opinion to Insight to the same effect as the opinion described above. These opinions will be based on assumptions, representations, warranties and covenants, including those contained in the Merger Agreement and in tax representation letters provided by Parent and Insight. The accuracy of such assumptions, representations and warranties, and compliance with such covenants, could affect the conclusions set forth in such opinions. These opinions are not binding on the Internal Revenue Service or the courts. Insight, First Financial and Parent have not requested and do not intend to request any ruling from the Internal Revenue Service as to the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger. Accordingly, each Insight common shareholder should consult its tax advisor with respect to the particular tax consequences of the Merger to such shareholder.

Tax Consequences of the Merger Generally to Insight Common Shareholders. If the Merger is treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code and based on the opinion delivered herewith, the tax consequences are as follows:

gain (but not loss) will be recognized by Insight common shareholders who receive shares of Parent common stock and cash in exchange for shares of Insight common stock pursuant to the Merger, in an amount equal to the lesser of (1) the amount by which the sum of the fair market value of the shares of Parent common stock and the amount of cash received by an Insight common shareholder exceeds such shareholder's basis in its shares of Insight common stock, and (2) the amount of cash received by such shareholder (other than any cash received in lieu of a fractional share of Parent common stock, as discussed below under “—Cash Received in Lieu of a Fractional Share of Parent Common Stock”);

the aggregate basis of the shares of Parent common stock received by an Insight common shareholder in the Merger (including any fractional share of Parent common stock deemed to be received and exchanged as discussed below under “—Cash Received in Lieu of a Fractional Share of Parent Common Stock”) will be the same as such shareholder’s aggregate basis in the shares of Insight common stock for which they are exchanged, decreased by the amount of cash received by such shareholder in the Merger (other than any cash received in lieu of a fractional share of Parent common stock), and increased by the amount of gain recognized by such shareholder in the Merger (regardless of whether such gain is classified as capital gain or as ordinary dividend income, as discussed below under “—Potential Recharacterization of Gain as a Dividend,” but excluding any gain or loss resulting from the deemed receipt and exchange of a fractional share of Parent common stock); and the holding period of the shares of Parent common stock received by an Insight common shareholder in the Merger (including any fractional share of Parent common stock deemed to be received and exchanged as discussed below under “—Cash Received in Lieu of a Fractional Share of Parent Common Stock”) will include such shareholder’s holding period in the shares of Insight common stock for which they are exchanged.

If an Insight common shareholder acquired different blocks of shares of Insight common stock at different times or at different prices, any gain or loss will be determined separately with respect to each block of shares of Insight common stock. In computing the amount of gain recognized, if any, an Insight common shareholder may not offset a loss realized on one block of stock against the gain realized on another block of stock. Insight common shareholders should consult their tax advisors regarding the manner in which shares of Parent common stock and cash received in the Merger should be allocated among different blocks of shares of Insight common stock and regarding their bases and holding periods in the particular shares of Parent common stock received in the Merger.

Taxation of Capital Gain. Except as discussed below under “—Potential Recharacterization of Gain as a Dividend,” gain that Insight common shareholders recognize in connection with the Merger generally will constitute capital gain and will constitute long-term capital gain if such shareholders have held (or are treated as having held) their shares of Insight common stock for more than one year as of the date of the Merger. Long-term capital gain of non-corporate Insight common shareholders generally will be taxed at preferential rates.

Potential Recharacterization of Gain as a Dividend. In some cases, if an Insight common shareholder actually or constructively owns shares of Parent common stock other than the shares of Parent common stock received pursuant to the Merger, the gain recognized by such shareholder could be treated as having the effect of the distribution of a dividend under the tests set forth in Section 302 of the Code, in which case such gain would be treated as dividend income. Because the possibility of dividend treatment depends primarily upon each Insight common shareholder’s particular circumstances, including the application of certain constructive ownership rules, Insight common shareholders should consult their tax advisors regarding the application of the foregoing rules to their particular circumstances.

Cash Received in Lieu of a Fractional Share of Parent Common Stock. An Insight common shareholder who receives cash in lieu of a fractional share of Parent common stock will be treated as having received the fractional share pursuant to the Merger and then as having exchanged the fractional share for cash in a redemption by Parent. As a result, an Insight common shareholder generally will recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash received in lieu of a fractional share and such shareholder’s basis in the fractional share as set forth above. Except as described above under “—Potential Recharacterization of Gain as a Dividend,” this gain or loss generally will be capital gain or loss, and will be long-term capital gain or loss if, as of the effective date of the Merger, such shareholder’s holding period in the fractional share is greater than one year. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations.

Reporting Requirements. An Insight common shareholder owning at least 1% (by vote or value) of the outstanding shares of Insight common stock or having a basis of $1,000,000 or more in shares of Insight common stock, immediately before the Merger, is required to file a statement with such shareholder’s U.S. federal income tax return setting forth such shareholder’s tax basis in and the fair market value of shares of Insight common stock exchanged by such shareholder pursuant to the Merger. In addition, all Insight common shareholders will be required to retain records pertaining to the Merger.

Backup Withholding and Information Reporting. Payments of cash to an Insight common shareholder may, under certain circumstances, be subject to information reporting and backup withholding (currently at a rate of 28%), unless the shareholder provides proof of an applicable exemption satisfactory to Parent and the exchange agent or furnishes its taxpayer identification number, and otherwise complies with all applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules. Any amounts withheld from payments to a shareholder under the backup withholding rules are not an additional tax and will be allowed as a refund or credit against the shareholder's U.S. federal income tax liability, provided that the required information is timely furnished to the Internal Revenue Service.

The preceding discussion is intended only as a summary of material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger. It is not a complete analysis or discussion of all potential tax effects that may be important to you. Thus, you are strongly encouraged to consult your tax advisor as to your specific tax consequences resulting from the Merger, including tax return reporting requirements, the applicability and effect of federal, state, local and other tax laws and the effect of any proposed changes in the tax laws.

Regulatory approvals

The Merger cannot proceed without obtaining all requisite regulatory approvals. Parent, First Financial and Insight have agreed to take all appropriate actions necessary to obtain the required approvals.

The Merger of First Financial and Insight is subject to prior approval of the OCC. First Financial submitted an application with the OCC on February 3, 2014 seeking the necessary approval.

The Merger may not be consummated until 30 days, which may be shortened to 15 days by the OCC, after receipt of OCC approval, during which time the United States Department of Justice may challenge the Merger on antitrust grounds. The commencement of an antitrust action would stay the effectiveness of the OCC's approval, unless a court specifically orders otherwise.

The OCC approval of the Merger, if granted, (i) reflects only its view that the transaction does not contravene standards imposed by law and is consistent with regulatory policies relating to the safety and soundness of financial institutions; (ii) is not an OCC opinion that the proposed combination is financially favorable to Insight shareholders or that the OCC has considered the adequacy of the terms of the transaction; and (iii) is not an endorsement of, or a recommendation for, the combination of Insight and First Financial.

Interests of certain persons in the Merger

General. Some members of the board of directors and executive officers of Insight have interests in the Merger that are different from, or are in addition to, the interests of Insight shareholders generally. These interests include, among others, (i) proposed employee benefits for Insight employees who become employees of First Financial after the Merger, retention bonuses for employees who remain in the employ of First Financial for a designated transition period and severance benefits for Insight employees who are not covered by an employment agreement and do not become employees of First Financial after the Merger, (ii) the appointment of one Insight director to serve on the boards of directors of First Financial and Parent (subject to the approval of Parent's Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee), (iii) the appointment of certain Insight director or directors to the Columbus advisory board of Parent, (iv) lump sum cash payments in exchange for the cancellation of outstanding Insight stock options, (v) indemnification and insurance coverage for Insight's directors and officers, (vi) the continuation of indemnification (for officers, directors and employees) and insurance coverage (for officers and directors) provided by First Financial for six years after the Merger, and (vii) in the case of certain officers and directors of Insight who are covered by a separate employment agreement, payments and benefits under that employment agreement upon termination of employment in addition to the merger consideration, as described below.

The Insight board of directors was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, in approving the Merger Agreement and determining to recommend to Insight common shareholders to vote for adoption of the Merger Agreement. As of April 24, 2014, Insight's directors and executive officers beneficially owned, in the aggregate, 525,955 outstanding shares of Insight common stock (excluding the shares subject to the exercise of Insight stock options), representing approximately 32.27% of Insight's outstanding shares of common stock. For more information, see "Security Ownership of Certain Beneficial Owners and Management of Insight" on page 60.

Employee Benefits. As described below under the caption "Description of the Merger Agreement—Employee benefit matters," the Merger Agreement generally provides that each employee who, in Parent and First Financial's sole discretion, continues employment with the surviving bank will be provided wages or salaries and employee benefits (excluding equity plans) that in the aggregate are substantially comparable to what he or she receives at Insight immediately prior to the closing date. Each employee of Insight who is not covered by an employment agreement and does not continue employment with the surviving bank will be provided with severance benefits under First Financial's existing severance practices or pursuant to the terms of any applicable employment agreement with Insight in existence as of the date of the Merger Agreement, credited with his or her years of service with Insight.

Description of Mr. Glick's Employment Agreement. As a result of the Merger, First Financial, as the surviving bank, will continue to be obligated to Harvey Glick under his employment agreement with Insight. The employment agreement contains confidentiality restrictions with respect to certain confidential information and a covenant not to compete with Insight (or First Financial as Insight's successor) while employed by Insight (or First Financial as Insight's successor) until the expiration of one year following the date on which Mr. Glick is last employed by Insight or First Financial. The employment agreement also provides that Mr. Glick will not solicit any customer or employee of Insight (or First Financial as Insight's successor) for a competing business until the expiration of one year following the date on which Mr. Glick is last employed by Insight or First Financial.

Pursuant to his employment agreement, upon the termination of Mr. Glick's employment, he will be entitled to a special annual retirement benefit equal to the greater of $135,000 or 50% of his average annual gross compensation during the three years preceding the "triggering event," which is the later of Mr. Glick's attainment of age 65 or the termination of his employment. If his employment is terminated in connection with a change in control, then his special retirement benefit will equal 75% of the average annual total compensation during the three most recent fiscal years. The special retirement benefit payments commence at the later of the date Mr. Glick attains age 65 or terminates employment, and will continue to be paid in monthly installments until his death.

In addition, under his employment agreement, if Mr. Glick is terminated without cause or if he elects to terminate his employment for good reason during the term of the agreement, he will be entitled to receive a lump-sum severance payment equal to 2.99 times his base amount, as defined in Section 280G of the Code.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the amounts payable under the employment agreement in connection with a change in control, alone or in combination with any other compensation, would result in the loss of a tax deduction under Section 280G of the Code, the payments under the employment agreement are reduced to the maximum amount that may be paid under Section 280G of the Code without exceeding such limits. It is expected that the enhanced special retirement benefit (the extra 25%) will be significantly reduced or entirely eliminated under this provision.

Cash-Out of Stock Options. As described below under the caption "Description of the Merger Agreement—Cash-Out of Stock Options," at the effective time, all rights with respect to Insight common stock pursuant to stock options granted by Insight will be converted into the right to receive cash only. The Merger Agreement requires Insight to enter into option cash-out agreements with all of its stock option holders to ensure that, immediately prior to the effective time, each Insight stock option, whether or not then exercisable, will be cancelled at the effective time and only entitle the holders to receive a cash amount. Such cash amount will be equal to the difference between the exercise price for the stock option and the value of the merger consideration to which the applicable underlying stock would otherwise be entitled, less applicable taxes required to be withheld with respect to such payment. Each share of Insight common stock issued pursuant to Insight stock options (which have, or will have, vested in the ordinary course and been properly exercised prior to the effective time of the Merger) will be counted in determining, and entitled to receive, per share merger consideration on the same terms as all other Insight common shares. See "Description of the Merger Agreement—Cash-Out of Stock Options" beginning on page 50.

The following table sets forth, based on outstanding awards under Insight equity plans as of March 1, 2014, (i) the number of vested stock options, (ii) the number of unvested stock options held by each Insight executive officer and director, and (iii) the estimated net proceeds (determined prior to reduction for applicable tax withholdings) such officers and directors will receive in connection with Merger as a result of the cash-out of such stock options as described above.

Summary of Golden Parachute Arrangements. The following table sets forth the aggregate dollar value of the various elements of compensation that each senior executive officer of Insight would receive that is based on or otherwise relates to the Merger, assuming the following:

the Merger closed on March 1, 2014, the last practicable date prior to the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, and the employment of the executive officers is terminated without cause immediately following the closing of the Merger on March 1, 2014.

The dates and share prices used to quantify these interests have been selected based upon applicable disclosure requirements and are for illustrative purposes only. They do not necessarily reflect the dates on which certain events will occur and do not represent a projection about the future value of Insight common stock.

Any changes in these assumptions or estimates would affect the amounts shown in the following table.

(1) The amounts in this column reflect the value of the vesting of the executive officers' unvested equity awards that would occur at the effective time of the Merger. For purposes of calculating these amounts, the Merger is assumed to take place on March 1, 2014. The unvested equity awards consist of unvested options. The unvested stock options are based on the difference between the exercise price for the stock option and the merger consideration to which the applicable underlying stock would otherwise be entitled. See "Description of the Merger Agreement—Cash-Out of Stock Options" on page 50.

(2) This amount reflects the lump-sum severance benefit described above under "Description of Mr. Glick's Employment Agreement."

(3) Mr. Glick is entitled to receive the 50% special retirement benefit described above under "Description of Mr. Glick's Employment Agreement" without regard to the change in control. Mr. Glick is not expected to receive the extra 25% special retirement benefit because of the reduction to avoid penalties under Section 280G of the Code.

(4) This amount reflects a retention bonus payable at a certain period shortly after data conversion so long as the employee remains employed on that date. The employee is not expected to be eligible for a severance benefit.

(5) This amount reflects the severance benefit for Insight employees who are not covered by an employment agreement and a retention bonus payable at a certain period shortly after data conversion so long as the employee remains employed on that date.

Appointments in Connection with the Merger. As described below under the caption "Description of the Merger Agreement—Management of Parent, First Financial and Insight after the Merger," at or promptly following the effective time of the Merger, (i) First Financial and Parent will appoint one qualified, independent director designated by Insight to serve on Parent's board of directors (subject to the approval of Parent's Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee), and (ii) Parent will create a Columbus advisory board and appoint certain director or directors from the current board of directors of Insight, as agreed among Parent, First Financial and Insight, to serve on the Columbus advisory board.

Continued Director and Officer Liability Coverage. Pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, First Financial will, for six years after the effective time of the Merger, maintain in effect the current directors' and officers' liability insurance policies maintained by Insight with respect to matters occurring prior to the effective time or, alternatively, substitute policies of at least the same coverage and amounts. However, First Financial is not required to expend more than an amount per year equal to 200% of current annual premiums paid by Insight for such insurance.

In addition, First Financial and Parent have agreed to, for six years after the effective time of the Merger, (i) indemnify and hold harmless the current and former directors, officers and employees of Insight and its subsidiaries for all actions taken by them in such capacities prior to the effective time and (ii) assume all obligations of Insight to such directors, officers and employees in respect of indemnification and exculpation from liabilities for acts or omissions occurring at or prior to the effective time as provided in Insight's charter documents.

Voting agreement

Certain directors of Insight who own shares of Insight common stock and certain other shareholders of Insight have entered into a voting agreement with First Financial. Under this agreement, these shareholders have each agreed, among other things, to vote their respective shares of Insight common stock: (i) in favor of the adoption of the Merger Agreement; (ii) against approval of any proposal made in opposition to, or in competition with, the Merger; and (iii) against certain other actions that would impede, interfere with, delay, postpone, discourage or adversely affect the Merger.

The shares subject to the voting agreement represent approximately 9.5% of Insight's outstanding shares of common stock as of December 19, 2013. The voting agreement will terminate if the Merger Agreement is terminated or the Merger becomes effective, whichever is earlier, in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement.

Restrictions on resale of Parent common stock

The shares of Parent common stock to be issued in connection with the Merger will be registered under the Securities Act and will be freely transferable, except for shares issued to any shareholder who may be deemed to be an "affiliate" of Parent for purposes of Rule 144 under the Securities Act. Persons who may be deemed to be affiliates of Parent include individuals or entities that control, are controlled by, or are under common control with, Parent and may include the executive officers, directors and significant shareholders of Parent.

Insight shareholder appraisal rights

The following is a summary of the steps that you must take if you wish to exercise dissenters' rights with respect to the Merger. This description is not complete. You should read the provisions of 12 U.S.C. Section 215a(b) through (d) and Sections 1115.19 and 1701.85 of the ORC, which are set forth in Annex B to this prospectus/proxy statement, for a more complete discussion of the procedures. If you fail to take any one of the required steps set forth in these provisions, your dissenters' rights may be terminated. If you are considering dissenting, you should consult your own legal advisor.

To exercise dissenters' rights, you must:

either (a) vote “Against” the adoption of the Merger Agreement and approval of the Merger at the special meeting of Insight shareholders or (b) deliver a written notice to Insight Bank, 150 W. Wilson Bridge Road, Worthington, Ohio 43085, Attention: Harvey Glick, President and Chief Executive Officer, at or prior to the special meeting stating that you dissent from the proposed Merger in accordance with 12 U.S.C. Section 215a(b); and deliver to First Financial Bank, National Association, c/o First Financial Bancorp., 255 East Fifth Street, Suite 2900, Cincinnati, Ohio 45202, Attention: Chief Legal Officer, as successor by Merger to Insight, a written request for payment of the fair cash value of your Insight common shares before 30 days after the consummation of the Merger. The written request must include your name and address, the number of dissenting shares and the amount you claim as the fair cash value of those dissenting shares in accordance with Sections 1115.19 and 1701.85 of the Ohio Revised Code.

If you properly exercise dissenters’ rights pursuant to 12 U.S.C. Section 215a(b), the “fair cash value” of your Insight common shares will be determined in accordance with Sections 1115.19 and 1701.85 of the ORC. The “fair cash value” is the amount that a willing seller, who is under no compulsion to sell, would be willing to accept, and that a willing buyer, under no compulsion to purchase, would be willing to pay. Fair cash value is determined as of the day before the special meeting, excluding any appreciation or depreciation in market value of your Insight common shares resulting from the Merger. The fair cash value of your Insight common shares may be higher, the same as, or lower than the market value of Insight common shares on the date of the Merger. In no event will the fair cash value be in excess of the amount specified in the dissenting shareholder’s request for payment of the fair cash value.

If you do not reach an agreement as to the fair cash value of your Insight common shares with First Financial, as successor by Merger to Insight, you may file a complaint with the Court of Common Pleas of Franklin County, Ohio, for a determination of the fair cash value of the dissenting shares within three months after service of your written request to Insight for payment of the fair cash value. The court will then determine the fair cash value per share, and the costs of the proceeding, including reasonable compensation to appraisers, will be assessed as the court considers equitable in accordance with Sections 1115.19 and 1701.85 of the ORC.

Your right to receive the fair cash value of your dissenting shares will terminate if:

- the Merger does not become effective;

you fail to either (a) vote “Against” the adoption of the Merger Agreement and approval of the Merger at the special meeting of Insight shareholders or (b) deliver a written notice to Insight at or prior to the special meeting stating that you dissent from the proposed Merger;

you fail to deliver to First Financial, as successor by Merger to Insight, a proper written request for payment of the fair cash value of your Insight common shares within 30 days after the consummation of the Merger; or if Insight and you have not come to an agreement as to the fair cash value of the dissenting shares, you do not timely file a complaint with the Court of Common Pleas of Franklin County, Ohio, for a determination of the fair cash value of the dissenting shares.

DESCRIPTION OF THE MERGER AGREEMENT

The following is a summary of the material terms of the Merger Agreement. This summary does not purport to describe all the terms of the Merger Agreement and is qualified by reference to the complete text of the Merger Agreement, which is attached as Annex A to this proxy statement/prospectus and is incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus. You should read the Merger Agreement completely and carefully as it, rather than this description, is the legal document that governs the Merger.

The text of the Merger Agreement has been included to provide you with information regarding its terms. The terms of the Merger Agreement (such as the representations and warranties) are intended to govern the contractual rights and relationships, and allocate risks, between the parties in relation to the Merger. The Merger Agreement contains representations and warranties Parent and First Financial, on the one hand, and Insight, on the other hand, made to each other as of specific dates. The representations and warranties were negotiated between the parties with the principal purpose of setting forth their respective rights with respect to their obligations to complete the Merger. The statements embodied in those representations and warranties may be subject to important limitations and qualifications as set forth therein, including a contractual standard of materiality different from that generally applicable under federal securities laws.

General

The Merger Agreement provides for the Merger of Insight with and into First Financial, with First Financial continuing as the surviving bank. After the consummation of the Merger, First Financial will continue to be a wholly owned subsidiary of Parent.

Closing and effective time

Closing. The closing of the Merger will take place on a date, to be specified by the parties, no later than the first Friday that is also a business day after satisfaction or waiver of the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, or at another time agreed to in writing by all the parties. See “— Conditions to completion of the Merger” below for a more complete description of the conditions that must be satisfied prior to closing. The completion of the Merger sometimes is referred to in this proxy statement/prospectus as the closing date.

Completion of the Merger. The Merger will become effective upon the filing of the certificate of merger with the Ohio Secretary of State, or such time thereafter as agreed to in writing by Parent and First Financial and so provided in the certificate of merger. The time at which the Merger becomes effective is sometimes referred to in this proxy statement/prospectus as the effective time.

Consideration to be received in the Merger

Insight Common Stock and Cash Consideration. If the Merger is completed, Insight shareholders will, in the aggregate, receive total merger consideration in the amount of $33,415,000. Each share of Insight common stock that you own immediately before the completion of the Merger will be converted into the right to receive a combination of cash and shares of Parent common stock. In addition, all outstanding stock options of Insight will be cashed out at the closing of the Merger. Including payment to be made for cancelling the stock options, the expanded total merger consideration is valued at approximately $36.6 million as of December 19, 2013.

The number of outstanding shares of Insight common stock will change to the extent that outstanding options to acquire Insight common stock are exercised prior to the effective time of the Merger. Assuming the 1,630,000 shares of Insight common stock outstanding as of December 19, 2013 remain unchanged at the closing, for each of your shares of Insight common stock, you will receive the per share merger consideration equal to $20.50 in the form of a combination of cash and shares of Parent common stock to be calculated as set forth in the Merger Agreement. Of such per share merger consideration, 20%, or $4.10, will be paid in cash and 80%, or $16.40, will be paid in Parent common stock (including cash to be paid in lieu of any fractional shares), subject to certain adjustments depending upon changes in the market price of Parent common stock. The exchange ratio used to determine the number of shares of Parent common stock that you will be entitled to receive for each share of Insight common stock will be determined based on the average closing price on NASDAQ for the twenty trading days ending on the third business day prior to the effective time of the Merger (the "Parent Share Average Closing Price"), subject to a minimum and maximum price equal to $13.86 and $18.76, respectively, and certain further adjustments.

Assuming the 1,630,000 shares of Insight common stock outstanding remain unchanged at the closing, based on a Parent Share Average Closing Price of $17.57, which is equal to the Parent Share Average Closing Price if it were calculated as if the closing date was April 28, 2014, the latest practicable date prior to the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, the merger consideration that an Insight shareholder would be entitled to receive for each share of Insight common stock is $4.10 in cash and 0.9334 shares of Parent common stock. If the Parent Share Average Closing Price were equal to the minimum of $13.86, each share of Insight common stock would instead be entitled to $4.10 in cash and 1.1833 shares of Parent common stock; if the Parent Share Average Closing Price were equal to the maximum of $18.76, each share of Insight common stock would be entitled to $4.10 in cash and 0.8742 shares of Parent common stock.

The following table illustrates the per share value of merger consideration that Insight common shareholders will receive in the Merger based on a range of Parent Share Average Closing Prices, assuming the 1,630,000 shares of Insight common stock outstanding as of December 19, 2013 remain unchanged immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger. The table is for illustrative purposes only. The actual prices at which Parent common stock trades during the twenty trading days ending on the third business day prior to the effective time of the Merger will establish the actual Parent Share Average Closing Prices and therefore the actual exchange ratio for the stock component of the merger consideration. The actual trading price of Parent common stock is subject to market fluctuations.

(1) The numbers in this column represent the number of the shares of Parent common stock which you will receive for each share of Insight common stock that you own.

Assuming no adjustment to the ratio of the stock component of the merger consideration is made by First Financial.

Assuming (i) no adjustment to the ratio of the stock component of the merger consideration is made by Insight, (ii) no adjustment needs to be made to preserve the qualification of the Merger as a tax-free reorganization for U.S. federal income tax purposes in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement, and (iii) even if the Parent (3) Share Average Closing Price has declined to less than $12.23, or by more than 25% from the average closing price on NASDAQ for the twenty trading days ending on the third business day prior to the date of the Merger Agreement, which is $16.31, the Parent common stock does not underperform the KBW Regional Banking Index by more than 25% during such period.

- 48 -

Stock Consideration Ratio Adjustment. If the Parent Share Average Closing Price is less than $13.86, Insight may reduce the ratio of the stock component of the merger consideration from 80% to no less than 75%. On the other hand, if the Parent Share Average Closing Price is more than $18.76, First Financial may reduce the ratio of the stock component of the merger consideration from 80% to no less than 75%. No such reduction is permitted if it would result in a failure of the Merger to be a tax-free reorganization for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

Tax Adjustment. In order to preserve the qualification of the Merger as a tax-free reorganization for U.S. federal income tax purposes, if the aggregate value of the shares of Parent common stock to be issued in connection with the Merger (excluding the value of fractional shares for which cash is to be paid) based upon the closing price of the Parent common stock as reported on NASDAQ on the trading day immediately preceding the closing date of the Merger (the “Tax-Adjuster Stock Consideration”) would be less than 40% of the sum of the Tax-Adjuster Cash Consideration (as defined below) and the Tax-Adjuster Stock Consideration, then the exchange ratio for the stock component of the merger consideration will be adjusted, with a corresponding decrease of the total cash consideration, so that the Tax-Adjuster Stock Consideration is equal to 40% of the sum of the Tax-Adjuster Stock Consideration and the Tax-Adjuster Cash Consideration without changing the value of the total merger consideration. For purposes of the above, “Tax-Adjuster Cash Consideration” means the sum of (i) the aggregate cash consideration to be paid in exchange for the Insight common stock (including, without limitation, the amount of cash to be paid for appraisal shares), (ii) the aggregate cash consideration to be paid in lieu of fractional shares of Parent common stock, and (iii) the aggregate cash consideration to be paid in connection with the redemption, cancellation or other transaction that results in Insight Series A Preferred Stock no longer being issued or outstanding as a result of the Merger. For example, if the 1,630,000 shares of Insight common stock outstanding remain unchanged at the closing and the Parent Share Average Closing Price is equal to or less than $13.86, each share of Insight common stock would be entitled to $4.10 in cash and 1.1833 shares of Parent common stock, assuming no adjustment needs to be made for the above tax purposes; however, if the closing price of the Parent common stock as reported on NASDAQ on the trading day immediately preceding the closing date of the Merger falls below $3.78, adjustment will be made to preserve the qualification of the Merger as a tax-free reorganization (assuming $4,250,000 to be paid for the redemption of Insight Series A Preferred Stock, no cash paid for appraisal shares and no other adjustment made by the parties, and disregarding the effect of cash consideration to be paid in lieu of fractional shares of Parent common stock, for purpose of illustration). Under these assumptions, if the above-referenced closing price of the Parent common stock falls to $3.00, each share of Insight common stock would be entitled to $3.06 in cash and 1.2586 shares of Parent common stock (with any small variance due to rounding).

Kill or Fill Adjustment. If the Parent Share Average Closing Price has declined by more than 25% from the average closing price on NASDAQ for the twenty trading days ending on the third business day prior to the date of the Merger Agreement, which is $16.31, and the Parent common stock underperforms the KBW Regional Banking Index by more than 25% during such period, Insight may terminate the Merger Agreement unless Parent removes the Collar Restriction in calculating the exchange ratio for the stock component of the merger consideration.

Minimum Merger Consideration If the Merger Is Completed. Under the Merger Agreement, Insight shareholders will, in the aggregate, receive total merger consideration in the amount of $33,415,000. Additionally, holders of outstanding Insight stock options are entitled to receive cash payments from Parent representing the fair market value of such stock options in return for the cancellation of such stock options. Insight shareholders will receive per share merger consideration equal to (i) $20.50, assuming no outstanding Insight stock options are exercised by holders of such stock options, or (ii) $17.24, assuming all outstanding Insight stock options are exercised prior to closing. Merger consideration will be paid in the form of a combination of cash and shares of Parent common stock, subject to certain restrictions and adjustments. Due to the effect of the Collar Restriction, Parent common stock will not be valued at less than $13.86 per share, even if the Parent Share Average Closing Price drops below such amount. As a result of the Collar Restriction and potential exercise of Insight stock options, the actual value of the per share merger consideration received by Insight shareholders, based on the sum of its cash component and its stock component as measured by the Parent Share Average Closing Price, could be significantly less than $20.50 if no outstanding Insight stock options are exercised or $17.24 if all outstanding Insight stock options are exercised.

However, Insight may terminate the Merger Agreement if the Parent Share Average Closing Price falls below $12.23 and the Parent common stock underperforms the KBW Regional Banking Index by more than 25% (the “Double Trigger”) unless Parent elects to remove the Collar Restriction and increase the per share merger consideration to its full actual value (which would be $20.50 assuming no outstanding Insight stock options are exercised and $17.24 assuming all outstanding stock options are exercised prior to closing). Insight’s board of directors has determined that if a Double Trigger occurs and if Parent does not elect to remove the Collar Restriction and increase the total per share merger consideration to its full actual value, Insight will not waive its termination right and proceed with the Merger without first obtaining the consent of the Insight shareholders in the event the total per share merger consideration to be received by Insight shareholders would be less than $10.00 as calculated based on the Parent Share Average Closing Price and including the effect of the exercise of Insight stock options, if any.

Moreover, if the total per share merger consideration that would be payable to Insight shareholders would be less than $10.00 as a result of the Collar Restriction and the exercise of Insight stock options described above, a “material adverse change” may have occurred with respect to Parent, which may give Insight the right to terminate the Merger Agreement. Insight would not waive any such right to terminate the Merger Agreement in such circumstances without first obtaining the consent of the Insight shareholders.

In deciding whether to terminate the Merger Agreement or proceed with the Merger where the total per share merger consideration is less than $10.00, Insight’s board of directors would consider all relevant facts and circumstances that exist at the time and would consult with its financial advisor and legal counsel. Among other things, Insight’s board of directors would consider whether the then-trading price of Parent common stock reflected Insight’s board of directors’ view of Parent’s intrinsic value; the total value of the merger consideration, including after giving effect to any adjustments; whether and the extent to which Insight’s board of directors believed shares of Parent common stock would increase in value after the completion of the Merger; the surviving bank’s prospects generally; Insight’s prospects on a stand-alone basis compared to the aggregate value of the merger consideration; and various macro-economic conditions and factors.

Fractional shares

No fractional shares of Parent common stock will be issued in the Merger. Instead, Parent will pay to each Insight common shareholder who would otherwise be entitled to receive a fraction of a share of Parent common stock an amount of cash (without interest) rounded to the nearest whole cent, determined by multiplying the Parent Share Average Closing Price (as it may be adjusted) by such fraction of a share of Parent common stock to which such Insight common shareholder would otherwise be entitled.

Cash-Out of Stock Options

At the effective time, all rights with respect to the underlying Insight common stock of the stock options granted by Insight will be converted into the rights to receive cash only. The Merger Agreement requires Insight to enter into option cash-out agreements with all its stock option holders to ensure that, immediately prior to the effective time, each Insight stock option, whether or not then exercisable, be cancelled at the effective time and only entitle the holders to receive a cash amount. Such cash amount will be equal to the difference between the exercise price for the stock option and the value of the merger consideration to which the applicable underlying stock would otherwise be entitled, less applicable taxes required to be withheld with respect to such payment. Each share of Insight common stock issued pursuant to Insight stock options (which have, or will have, vested in the ordinary course and been properly exercised prior to the effective time of the Merger) will be counted in determining, and entitled to receive, per share merger consideration on the same terms as all other Insight common shares. At the effective time of the Merger, each option to purchase a share of Insight common stock whether or not then exercisable shall terminate and be of no further effect and any rights thereunder to purchase shares of Insight Common Stock shall also terminate and be of no further force or effect.

Exchange of certificates

First Financial will engage U.S. Bank National Association to act as its exchange agent to handle the exchange of Insight common stock for the Merger consideration and the payment of cash for any fractional share interest. As promptly as practicable after the effective time, the exchange agent will send to each Insight shareholder a letter of transmittal for use in the exchange with instructions explaining how to surrender Insight common stock certificates to the exchange agent. Insight common shareholders that surrender their certificates to the exchange agent, together with a properly completed letter of transmittal, will receive the merger consideration. Insight common shareholders that do not exchange their Insight common stock will not be entitled to receive the merger consideration or any dividends or other distributions by Parent until their certificates are surrendered. After surrender of the certificates representing Insight common shares, any unpaid dividends or distributions with respect to the Parent common stock represented by the certificates will be paid without interest.

Conduct of business pending the Merger and certain covenants

Under the Merger Agreement, Insight has agreed to certain restrictions on its activities and the activities of its subsidiaries until the Merger is completed or the Merger Agreement is terminated. take any action that (A) would adversely affect or materially delay any necessary regulatory approvals for the Merger or (B) constitute a material violation of any provision of the Merger Agreement; or make any commitments to take any of the actions described above.

Parent has also agreed to certain restrictions on its activities and the activities of its subsidiaries until the Merger is completed or the Merger Agreement is terminated. Subject to the exceptions set forth in the Merger Agreement, Parent will not, and will cause its subsidiaries not to, without Insight's prior written consent:

take or fail to take any action that could reasonably be expected to cause the representations and warranties made in the Merger Agreement to be inaccurate in any material respect;

take any action that would result in any of the closing conditions not being satisfied or prevent or materially delay the consummation of the Merger;

take any action that (A) would adversely affect or materially delay any necessary regulatory approvals for the Merger or (B) constitute a material violation of any provision of the Merger Agreement; or make any commitments to take any of the actions described above.

Insight, Parent and First Financial have each agreed to use its reasonable best efforts to take all actions and to do all things necessary, proper or advisable to fulfill all closing conditions applicable to such party pursuant to the Merger Agreement and to complete the Merger in the most expeditious manner practicable, including:

obtaining all regulatory approvals from governmental authorities, making all necessary, proper or advisable registrations, filings and notices, and taking all steps as may be necessary to obtain an approval, waiver or exemption from any governmental authority, but (A) no party is required to take any action that would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on such party, and (B) Parent and First Financial are not required to accept any terms of or conditions to a regulatory approval that are, in their reasonable discretion, not acceptable;

obtaining all necessary, proper or advisable consents, qualifications, approvals, waivers or exemptions from nongovernmental persons; and executing and delivering any additional documents or instruments necessary, proper or advisable to consummate the Merger.

Insight, on the one side, and Parent and First Financial, on the other side, have agreed:

to consult with each other before issuing any press release or otherwise making any public statements or filings with respect to the Merger and not to issue any such press release or make any such public statement without the prior written consent of the other party, subject to certain exceptions;

to promptly advise the other party of any change or event that, individually or in the aggregate, would reasonably be expected to cause or constitute a breach in any material respect of any of its representations, warranties or covenants contained in the Merger Agreement;

to take any action that is required to cause the Merger to qualify, and not to take any actions or cause any actions to be taken which could reasonably be likely to prevent the Merger from qualifying, as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code;

to provide certain certificates to their respective tax counsel in connection with delivery of tax opinions in accordance with the Merger Agreement;

that neither will intentionally act in a manner that would cause a breach of the Merger Agreement or that would cause a representation made in the Merger Agreement to become untrue; and to coordinate publicity of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement to the media.

Insight has also agreed to:

permit Parent and First Financial to access Insight's books and records and telecommunications and electronic data processing systems, facilities and personnel, subject to certain restrictions and exceptions;

make reasonable efforts to cause its telecommunications and data processing service providers to assist Parent and First Financial in connection with preparation for an electronic and systematic conversion of all applicable data;

provide to Parent and First Financial (i) the monthly unaudited financial statements of Insight as provided to Insight's management and (ii) certain updated unaudited financial statements prior to closing; and promptly notify each other of any proceeding or potential proceeding against such party that is reasonably likely to result in a material adverse change, question the validity of the Merger, or seeks to enjoin or otherwise restrain the Merger.

The Merger Agreement also contains certain covenants relating to employee benefits and other matters pertaining to officers and directors. See “—Employee benefit matters” below and “The Merger—Interests of certain persons in the Merger.” Concurrent with the execution of the Merger Agreement, certain shareholders of Insight have entered into a non-competition and non-solicitation agreement, effective upon the closing of the Merger, and a voting agreement with First Financial.

No solicitation of transaction or change of recommendation

No solicitation. The Merger Agreement contains provisions prohibiting Insight from seeking or discussing an alternative acquisition proposal to the Merger. Insight has agreed that it will not, and will use reasonable best effort to cause its representatives not to, directly or indirectly, (i) solicit, initiate, encourage or knowingly facilitate any alternative acquisition proposal, (ii) discuss or negotiate any alternative acquisition proposal or give any other person any information of Insight relating to an alternative acquisition proposal, (iii) approve, endorse or recommend any alternative acquisition proposal, or (iv) enter into any agreement relating to an alternative acquisition proposal. Upon execution of the Merger Agreement, Insight is required to immediately cease any communications with any party with respect to any alternative acquisition proposal, but is not prohibited from contacting any party solely for the purpose of complying with the above requirements or to enforce the provisions of any confidentiality agreement with respect to an alternative acquisition proposal.

Notwithstanding the restrictions described above, the Merger Agreement provides that Insight may discuss or negotiate an alternative acquisition proposal or give other persons information of Insight relating to an alternative acquisition proposal if, but only if, (i) Insight has received a bona fide unsolicited written alternative acquisition proposal prior to the special meeting of Insight shareholders; (ii) Insight's board of directors determines that such alternative acquisition proposal constitutes a superior proposal as compared with the Merger; (iii) Insight has provided First Financial with at least five business days' prior notice of such determination; (iv) prior to furnishing or affording access to any information of Insight relating to an alternative acquisition proposal, Insight receives from such person certain confidentiality agreements; and (v) the failure of Insight's board of directors to furnish such information or enter into discussions or negotiations would violate its fiduciary duties to Insight shareholders. Insight is required to promptly notify First Financial if any proposals are received by, any information is requested from, or any negotiations are sought from, Insight in connection with any alternative acquisition proposal. Insight is also required to promptly provide to First Financial any information it provides to any other that was not previously provided to First Financial.

No change of recommendation. The Merger Agreement requires Insight's board of directors to use reasonable best efforts to seek Insight common shareholders' approval of the Merger, but Insight's board of directors may change its recommendation for shareholders' approval of the Merger if, and only if, (i) based upon the written advice of its outside legal counsel and independent financial advisor, the board has received a superior proposal; (ii) based upon the written advice of such outside legal counsel, a failure to accept such superior proposal would result in the board breaching its fiduciary duties to Insight and its shareholders; (iii) the board notifies First Financial in advance of its intent to change its recommendation and the terms of the superior proposal; and (iv) after providing First Financial a reasonable opportunity to renegotiate and adjust the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, the board again determines, based upon the written advice of its outside legal counsel and such independent financial advisor, that such alternative acquisition proposal nonetheless continues to constitute a superior proposal and that failure to change its recommendation would violate its fiduciary duties to Insight and Insight shareholders. However, Insight's board of directors is prohibited from changing its recommendation if First Financial has offered to modify the terms of the Merger Agreement to provide for substantially identical terms and conditions as superior proposal.

As used above, “superior proposal” refers to any bona fide written acquisition proposal made by a third party, which, as determined by Insight’s board of directors determines in its good faith judgment, based upon the written advice of its outside legal counsel and an independent financial advisor, (i) would result in the acquisition of all of the Insight common stock or all, or substantially all, of the assets of Insight; (ii) would result in a transaction that (A) involves consideration to the holders of Insight common stock that is more favorable, from a financial point of view, than the consideration to be paid to Insight common shareholders pursuant to the Merger Agreement, considering, among other things, the nature of the consideration being offered and any material regulatory approvals or other risks associated with the timing of the proposed transaction beyond or in addition to those specifically contemplated hereby, and (B) is, in light of the other terms of such proposal, more favorable to Insight common shareholders than the Merger; and (iii) is reasonably likely to be completed.

Termination

First Financial and Insight may mutually agree to terminate the Merger Agreement and abandon the Merger at any time. Subject to conditions and circumstances described in the Merger Agreement, Parent or First Financial, on the one hand, or Insight, on the other hand, as the case may be, may terminate the Merger Agreement as follows:

by either party if the Merger is not completed by September 30, 2014;

by either party in the event of a material breach by the other party of its representations or warranties or obligations contained in the Merger Agreement, which breach cannot be or has not been cured within 30 days after the giving of written notice to the breaching party of such breach, and which breach or breaches would result in a failure to satisfy any applicable closing condition;

by either party if final action has been taken by a regulatory agency whose approval is required for the Merger, which final action has become final and nonappealable and does not approve the Merger;

by either party if any governmental authority has enacted, issued, promulgated, enforced or entered any law, or final nonappealable judgment which has the effect of making illegal the consummation of the Merger;

by Insight if the Parent Share Average Closing Price has declined by more than 25% from the average closing price on NASDAQ for the twenty trading days ending on the third business day prior to the date of the Merger Agreement, which is $16.31, and the Parent common stock underperforms the KBW Regional Banking Index by more than 25% during such period, unless Parent removes the Collar Restriction in calculating the exchange ratio for the stock component of the merger consideration;

by First Financial if the board of directors of Insight fails to make recommendation to Insight common shareholders to adopt the Merger Agreement, or Insight has materially breached its covenant not to solicit alternative acquisition proposals;

in certain circumstances, by either party if Insight has received and would accept a superior acquisition proposal from a third party; or

Termination of the Merger Agreement will not relieve any party from liability for damages resulting from fraud or the breach of any of its representations, covenants or agreements set forth in the Merger Agreement.

Termination fee

Insight has agreed to pay First Financial a termination fee equal to 5% of the sum of the total merger consideration and total cash consideration for cashing out Insight's stock options, if the Merger Agreement is terminated under the following circumstances:

by First Financial because the board of directors of Insight fails to make a recommendation to Insight common shareholders to adopt the Merger Agreement, or Insight has materially breached its covenant not to solicit alternative acquisition proposals, or by either First Financial or Insight if Insight has received a superior proposal, and the board of directors of Insight has notified First Financial of its intention to change its recommendation to Insight shareholders and also made such change.

Insight has also agreed to pay First Financial for its out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with the proposed Merger if the Merger Agreement is terminated by any party because the Insight common shareholders fail to adopt the Merger Agreement.

Management of Parent, First Financial and Insight after the Merger

After the Merger, First Financial's board of directors will continue to serve as the directors of the surviving bank. At or promptly following the effective time of the Merger, First Financial and Parent will appoint one Insight director to serve on the boards of directors of First Financial and Parent.

In addition, at or promptly following the effective time, Parent will create a Columbus advisory board and appoint certain director or directors from the current board of directors of Insight, as agreed among Parent, First Financial and Insight, to serve on the Columbus advisory board.

Employee benefit matters

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, Parent and First Financial have the sole discretion in determining which employees of Insight will continue employment with the surviving bank following the closing date. Each continuing employee will be provided wages or salaries and employee benefits (excluding equity plans) that in the aggregate are substantially comparable to what he or she receives at Insight immediately prior to the closing date.

Parent and First Financial will provide each employee of Insight who does not continue employment with the surviving bank with severance benefits under First Financial's existing severance practices or pursuant to the terms of any applicable employment agreement with Insight in existence as of the date of the Merger Agreement. For purposes of determining seniority as it relates to First Financial's severance practices, each discontinued employee will be credited with his or her years of service with Insight.

Expenses

Each party to this Agreement will bear its own expenses incurred in connection with the Merger Agreement. As more fully described above under "—Termination fee," Insight has also agreed to reimburse First Financial for certain out-of-pocket expenses in the event the Merger is terminated for certain specified reasons.

NASDAQ stock listing

Parent common stock currently is listed on NASDAQ under the symbol "FFBC." The shares to be issued to Insight shareholders as merger consideration also will be eligible for trading on NASDAQ. Parent will use its reasonable best efforts to (i) list, prior to the effective time if such listing is required to be made prior to the effective time under NASDAQ rules, the shares of Parent common stock to be issued pursuant to the Merger, or (ii) make such post-closing filings with NASDAQ as may be required by the applicable NASDAQ rules.

Amendment

COMPARISON OF RIGHTS OF PARENT SHAREHOLDERS AND Insight SHAREHOLDERS

General

Insight common shareholders who receive Parent common shares as consideration in the Merger will become shareholders of Parent at the effective time of the Merger. Parent is an Ohio corporation and a bank holding company registered under the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, as amended, while Insight is an Ohio state-chartered commercial bank. Although the rights of the holders of Parent common shares and those of holders of Insight common shares are similar in many respects, there are some differences. These differences relate to differences between the provisions of Ohio law governing corporations and the provisions of Ohio law governing state-chartered banks, as well as differences between provisions of Parent’s articles of incorporation and regulations and the Insight’s articles of incorporation and code of regulations.

Set forth below is a summary of the material differences between the rights of Parent common shareholders and the rights of Insight common shareholders. This description is not intended to be a complete statement of the differences affecting the rights of Insight common shareholders, but rather describes the more-significant differences affecting the rights of Insight common shareholders and certain important similarities. This description is qualified in its entirety by reference to the relevant provisions of Ohio law and the articles of incorporation and regulations of each of Insight and Parent.

	Parent Shareholder Rights	Insight Shareholder Rights
Authorized Capital Stock:	Parent is authorized to issue 160 million shares of common stock, without par value, and 80,000 shares of preferred stock, without par value per share.	Insight is authorized to issue 1,956,000 common shares, $1.00 par value per share, and 200,000 preferred shares, $1.00 par value per share.

On February 24, 2014, Parent had 57,510,991 shares of common stock outstanding and no shares of preferred stock outstanding. Parent common stock is listed on NASDAQ under the symbol “FFBC.”

Parent’s board of directors is authorized, by filing articles of amendment, to provide for the issuance of preferred stock in series pursuant to, and only pursuant to, the terms of any capital purchase program(s) authorized by the Emergency Economic Stabilization Act of 2008 (“EESA”) and implemented by the United

On February 24, 2014, Insight had 1,630,000 common shares outstanding. Insight’s board of directors is authorized, by filing articles of amendment, to provide for the issuance of preferred shares in series and to fix the designations, powers, preferences and rights thereof to the fullest extent permitted by the ORC. The board has filed such articles of amendment, establishing the Senior Non-Cumulative Perpetual Preferred Shares, Series A, par value $1.00 per share, of which 4,250 shares are outstanding.

States Department of the Treasury (the “Treasury”), and to fix the designations, powers, preferences and rights thereof in compliance with any EESA program. Subject to the above limitations, Parent’s board of directors has the authority to determine and fix any express terms with respect to each series to the fullest extent permitted by the ORC. Neither Insight common shares nor preferred shares are listed on any exchange or market.

Parent Shareholder Rights

Subject to any rights of holders of Parent preferred stock, the holders of Parent common stock are entitled to receive dividends, if and when declared payable from time to time by Parent’s board of directors, from any funds legally available therefor.

Insight Shareholder Rights

Subject to any rights of holders of Insight preferred shares, the holders of Insight common shares are entitled to receive dividends, if and when declared payable from time to time by Insight’s board of directors, from any funds legally available for dividend payments; provided, however that Insight must obtain the approval of the Ohio Division of Financial Institutions before declaring and paying a dividend if a dividend in any year would cause the total dividends for that year to exceed the sum of Insight’s current year’s net income and the retained net income for the preceding two years.

Dividends:

However, the Federal Reserve Board expects Parent, as a bank holding company, to serve as a source of strength to its subsidiary banks, which may require Parent to retain capital for further investments in its subsidiary banks, rather than for dividends for its shareholders.

Number of Directors, Classification:

Parent’s board of directors currently consists of 12 members. Parent’s regulations provide, however, that the number may be increased or decreased (provided the number is never less than nine or more than 25) by resolution of the board of directors (by vote of two-thirds of the whole authorized number of directors) or by resolution of the shareholders at a meeting of shareholders for electing directors (by vote of two-thirds of the outstanding voting power). Following the Merger, the number of directors of Parent will be increased by one for a new director to be designated by Insight.

Insight’s board of directors currently consists of 13 members. Insight’s regulations provide, however, that the number may be increased or decreased (provided that the number is never less than five nor more than 15) by resolution of the board of directors or by resolution of the shareholders by a vote of a majority of the outstanding voting power. The directors cannot change the number of directors by more than two from the number last fixed by the shareholders.

Insight’s board of directors is divided into three classes.

Parent’s board of directors consists of a single class of directors.

Election of Directors; Vacancies:

Director nominees who receive the greatest number of shareholder votes are automatically elected to the board, but Parent has adopted a policy requiring nominees who receive a greater number of votes “withheld” from his or her election than votes “for” his or her election to tender written resignation to the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee for consideration.

Director nominees who receive the greatest number of shareholder votes are automatically elected to the board.

Insight’s articles of incorporation provide that shareholders shall not have the right to vote cumulatively in the election of directors.

Parent's articles of incorporation provide that shareholders shall not have the right to vote cumulatively in the election of directors.

The directors are elected at a meeting of shareholders, except that a majority of the directors in office at any time, though less than a majority of the whole authorized number of directors, may, by the vote of a majority of their number, fill any director's office that is created by an increase in the number of directors or by a vacancy. However, in any period between annual meetings of shareholders, the directors cannot increase the number of directors by more than three.

Parent's articles of incorporation provide that each person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation will be indemnified by Parent to the full extent permitted by the ORC against any liability, cost or expense incurred in such capacity, or arising out of such status. Parent may, but is not obligated to, maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any such person against any such liability, cost or expense.

Insight's regulations provide generally that Insight shall indemnify any present or former director or officer against any expenses and liabilities incurred because such director or officer provided services at the request of Insight to the full extent permitted by the ORC; provided, however, that Insight shall not indemnify any officer, employee or director for liability for certain specified damages caused to Insight or its shareholders or certain penalties and expenses arising from actions taken by regulatory authorities.

Parent's regulations provide that Parent shall, to the full extent permitted by law, indemnify all persons whom it may indemnify.

Call of Special Meetings of Shareholders:

Parent's regulations provide that special meetings of shareholders may be called by the Chairman of the Board, the President, the Vice President authorized to exercise the authority of the President in the President's absence, by resolution of the directors or by the holders of not less than one-half of the outstanding voting power.

Insight's regulations provide that special meetings of shareholders may be called by the Chairman of the Board, the President, the Vice President authorized to exercise the authority of the President in the President's absence, the Secretary, the directors by action at a meeting, a majority of the directors acting without a meeting or the holders of at least 50% of all outstanding shares entitled to vote at the meeting.

Insight Shareholder Rights

Insight's regulations provide that nomination for election of directors may be made by any shareholder by delivering written notice to the President of Insight not less than 50 days nor more than 60 days prior to any shareholder meeting called for the purpose of electing directors; provided, however, that if less than 21 days' notice of the meeting is given to the shareholders, notice may be provided up until the seventh day following the day on which notice of the meeting was mailed.

The notice shall set forth the information about the nominee specified in Parent's regulations. Parent may also require any proposed nominee to furnish other information reasonably required by Parent to determine the proposed nominee's eligibility to serve as a director.

The notice shall set forth the information about the nominee and the nominating shareholder as specified in Insight's regulations.

Under the ORC, unless a corporation's articles of incorporation or regulations prohibit action by shareholders without a meeting, shareholders may act without a meeting on any action required or permitted to be taken at a shareholder meeting, provided that all shareholders entitled to notice of the meeting sign a writing authorizing the action, and the shareholders file the writing with the records of the corporation.

Except for amendments to the regulations, any action that may be taken at a meeting of shareholders may be taken in writing without a meeting with the affirmative vote of all of the shareholders who would be entitled to notice of a meeting of shareholders for that purpose.

Required Vote for Certain Transactions:

Parent’s articles of incorporation and regulations do not specifically discuss transactions involving merger, consolidation, or sale, lease or exchange of all or substantially all of the property or assets of the corporation.

If recommended by two-thirds of the whole authorized number of directors, a majority of Insight’s voting power (unless expressly otherwise provided by the ORC), or otherwise, the affirmative vote of the holders of shares entitling them to exercise not less than 80% of the voting power of Insight entitled to vote on the matter shall be required to adopt: (i) a merger or consolidation of Insight; (ii) a proposed combination or majority share acquisition involving the issuance of Insight shares and requiring shareholder approval; (iii) a sale, lease or exchange of all or substantially all of the property and assets of Insight; or (iv) a dissolution of Insight.

Parent’s articles of incorporation do not specifically provide for its amendment and, therefore, may be amended in accordance with the ORC.

Unless two-thirds of Insight’s authorized number of directors recommend approval, Insight’s articles of incorporation may be amended only by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the voting power of Insight entitled to vote on the matter.

Amendment to Articles of Incorporation and Regulations:

Parent’s regulations provide that the regulations may be amended only by the vote of the holders of two-thirds of the outstanding voting power of Parent voting as a single class at a meeting of shareholders called for such purpose, unless such amendment is recommended by the vote of two-thirds of the whole authorized number of directors, in which case the regulations may be amended by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding voting power voting as a single class at a meeting of shareholders called for such purpose.

Insight’s regulations provide that the regulations may be amended only by a vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding voting power of Insight voting at a meeting of the shareholders or by the written consents of the shareholders of record entitled to exercise two-thirds of the voting power of Insight.

Certain anti-takeover effects of Parent’s articles of incorporation and regulations

Certain provisions of Parent’s articles of incorporation and regulations may have the effect of impeding the acquisition of control of Parent by means of a tender offer, a proxy fight, open-market purchases or otherwise in a transaction not approved by Parent’s board of directors.

These provisions may have the effect of discouraging a future takeover attempt which is not approved by Parent's board of directors but which individual Parent shareholders may deem to be in their best interests or in which Parent shareholders may receive a substantial premium for their shares over then-current market prices. As a result, shareholders who might desire to participate in such a transaction may not have an opportunity to do so. Such provisions will also render the removal of Parent's current board of directors or management more difficult.

These provisions of Parent's articles of incorporation and by-laws include the following:

- Parent's articles of incorporation do not allow cumulative voting for election of directors;

- 65 -

if a special shareholders meeting of Parent is called by shareholders, it must be called by holders of not less than one-half of the outstanding voting power of Parent;

nomination of candidates for election to Parent's board of directors requires advance notice containing certain information of the nominee. Parent may also require any proposed nominee to furnish other information reasonably required by Parent to determine the proposed nominee's eligibility to serve as a director; and

Parent's regulations may be amended only by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding voting power of Parent, unless such amendment is recommended by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the whole authorized number of directors, in which case the regulations may be amended by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding voting power of Parent.

The provisions described above are intended to reduce Parent's vulnerability to takeover attempts and certain other transactions which have not been negotiated with and approved by members of Parent's board of directors.

Anti-takeover statutes

Certain state laws make a change in control of an Ohio corporation more difficult, even if desired by the holders of a majority of the corporation's shares. Provided below is a summary of the Ohio anti-takeover statutes.

Ohio Control Share Acquisition Statute. Section 1701.831 of the ORC, known as the "Ohio Control Share Acquisition Statute," provides that specified notice and informational filings and special shareholder meetings and voting procedures must occur before consummation of a proposed "control share acquisition." A control share acquisition is defined as any acquisition of shares of an "issuing public corporation" that would entitle the acquirer, directly or indirectly, alone or with others, to exercise or direct the exercise of the voting power of the issuing public corporation in the election of directors within any of the following ranges:

- one-fifth or more but less than one-third of the voting power;
- one-third or more but less than a majority of the voting power; or
- a majority or more of the voting power.

An "issuing public corporation" is an Ohio corporation with 50 or more shareholders that has its principal place of business, principal executive offices, assets having substantial value, or a substantial percentage of its assets within the State of Ohio, and as to which no valid close corporation agreement exists. Assuming compliance with the notice and informational filing requirements prescribed by the Ohio Control Share Acquisition Statute, the proposed control share acquisition may take place only if, at a duly convened special meeting of shareholders, the acquisition is approved by both:

a majority of the voting power of the corporation in the election of directors represented in person or by proxy at the meeting; and

- a majority of the voting power at the meeting exercised by shareholders, excluding:
 - the acquiring shareholder,
- officers of the corporation elected or appointed by the directors of the corporation,
- employees of the corporation who are also directors of the corporation, and persons who acquire specified amounts of shares after the first public disclosure of the proposed control share acquisition.

The Ohio Control Share Acquisition Statute permits a corporation to opt out of the application of the statute in its articles of incorporation or regulations. Neither Parent nor Insight has opted out of the application of the Ohio Control Share Acquisition Statute in their respective articles of incorporation or regulations.

Ohio Merger Moratorium Statute. Chapter 1704 of the ORC, known as the “Ohio Merger Moratorium Statute,” prohibits specified business combinations and transactions between an issuing public corporation and a beneficial owner of shares representing 10% or more of the voting power of the corporation in the election of directors (an “interested shareholder”) for at least three years after the interested shareholder became such, unless the board of directors of the issuing public corporation approves either (1) the transaction or (2) the acquisition of the corporation’s shares that resulted in the person becoming an interested shareholder, in each case before the interested shareholder became such.

For three years after a person becomes an interested shareholder, the following transactions between the corporation and the interested shareholder (or persons related to the interested shareholder) are prohibited:

- the sale or acquisition of an interest in assets meeting thresholds specified in the statute;
 - mergers and similar transactions;
 - a voluntary dissolution;

the issuance or transfer of shares or any rights to acquire shares having a fair market value at least equal to 5% of the aggregate fair market value of the corporation’s outstanding shares;

- a transaction that increases the interested shareholder’s proportionate ownership of the corporation; and
 - any other benefit that is not shared proportionately by all shareholders.

After the three-year period, transactions between the corporation and the interested shareholder are permitted if:

- the transaction is approved by the holders of shares with at least two-thirds of the voting power of the corporation in the election of directors (or a different proportion specified in the corporation’s articles of incorporation), including at least a majority of the outstanding shares after excluding shares controlled by the interested shareholder; or the business combination results in shareholders, other than the interested shareholder, receiving a “fair market value” for their shares determined by the method described in the statute.

A corporation may elect not to be covered by the provisions of the Ohio Merger Moratorium Statute by the adoption of an appropriate amendment to its articles of incorporation. Neither Parent nor Insight has opted out of the Ohio Merger Moratorium Statute. However, the Ohio Merger Moratorium Statute does not apply to the Merger because Insight (1) is not an interested shareholder of Parent, and (2) is not an affiliate or associate of an interested shareholder and will not be an affiliate or associate after the Merger, as such terms are defined in the Ohio Merger Moratorium Statute.

Any interest and other income resulting from such investments shall be paid to First Financial. Except as contemplated by this Agreement and the Exchange Agent Agreement, the Exchange Fund shall not be used for any other purpose.

(b) Exchange Procedures. As promptly as practicable after the Effective Time, First Financial shall instruct the Exchange Agent to mail to each record holder, as of the Effective Time, of an outstanding Certificate or Book Entry Share that immediately prior to the Effective Time represented shares of Insight Common Stock (i) a letter of transmittal (which shall specify that delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title to the shares of Insight Common Stock shall pass, only upon proper delivery of the corresponding certificates (the “Certificates”) representing such shares to the Exchange Agent, and shall be in customary form as directed by First Financial and reasonably acceptable to Insight), and (ii) instructions for use in effecting the surrender of the Certificates in exchange for the Merger Consideration payable in respect of the shares of Insight Common Stock represented thereby. Promptly after the Effective Time, upon surrender of Certificates for cancellation to the Exchange Agent together with such letters of transmittal, properly completed and duly executed, and such other documents as may be required pursuant to such instructions, the holders of such Certificates shall be entitled to receive in exchange therefor, upon completion of the calculations required by Section 2.7, (A) shares of Parent Common Stock representing, in the aggregate, the whole number of shares of Parent Common Stock that such holder has the right to receive pursuant to Section 2.7 and (B) a check in the amount equal to the aggregate amount of cash that such holder has the right to receive pursuant to Section 2.7, dividends and other distributions pursuant to Section 2.9(c) and cash payable in lieu of any fractional shares of Parent Common Stock pursuant to Section 2.9(e). No interest shall be paid or accrued on any Merger Consideration. In the event of a transfer of ownership of shares of Insight Common Stock which is not registered in the transfer records of Insight, the Merger Consideration payable in respect of such shares of Insight Common Stock may be paid to a transferee if the Certificate representing such shares of Insight Common Stock is presented to the Exchange Agent, accompanied by all documents required to evidence and effect such transfer and the Person requesting such exchange shall pay to the Exchange Agent in advance any transfer or other Taxes required by reason of the delivery of the Merger Consideration in any name other than that of the registered holder of the Certificate surrendered, or shall establish to the satisfaction of the Exchange Agent that such Taxes have been paid or are not payable.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, each holder of shares of Insight Common Stock exchanged in the Merger who would otherwise have been entitled to receive a fraction of a share of Parent Common Stock (after taking into account all Certificates delivered by such holder) shall receive, in lieu thereof, cash (without interest) in an amount, rounded to the nearest whole cent, equal to the product of (i) the Parent Share Value and (ii) the fraction of a share of Parent Common Stock that such holder would otherwise be entitled to receive pursuant to Section 2.7 hereof.
- (f) Termination of Exchange Fund. Any portion of the Exchange Fund that remains undistributed to the holders of Insight Common Stock after one hundred eighty (180) days following the Effective Time shall be delivered to First Financial upon demand and, from and after such delivery to First Financial, any former holders of Insight Common Stock (other than Appraisal Shares) who have not theretofore complied with this ARTICLE II shall thereafter look only to First Financial for the Merger Consideration payable in respect of such shares of Insight Common Stock. Any amounts remaining unclaimed by holders of shares of Insight Common Stock immediately prior to such time as such amounts would otherwise escheat to or become the property of any Governmental Authority shall, to the extent permitted by Applicable Law, thereupon become the property of First Financial free and clear of any Liens, claims or interest of any Person previously entitled thereto.
- (g) No Liability. Neither Parent, First Financial, Insight nor Surviving Bank shall be liable to any holder of shares of Insight Common Stock for any shares of Parent Common Stock (or dividends or distributions with respect thereto) or cash from the Exchange Fund delivered to a public official or Governmental Authority in the reasonable belief that such delivery was required pursuant to any abandoned property, escheat or similar law.
- (h) Lost Certificates. If any Certificate shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the Person claiming such Certificate to be lost, stolen or destroyed in form and substance acceptable to First Financial and, if required by First Financial, the posting by such Person of a bond, in such reasonable amount as First Financial may direct, as indemnity against any claim that may be made against it with respect to such Certificate, the Exchange Agent shall pay in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed Certificate the Merger Consideration payable in respect of the shares of Insight Common Stock represented by such Certificate.

(i) Withholding. Each of Parent, Surviving Bank and the Exchange Agent shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from the consideration otherwise payable pursuant to this Agreement to any holder of Insight Common Stock or Insight Stock Options such amounts as Parent, Surviving Bank or the Exchange Agent is required to deduct and withhold under the Code or any provision of state, local, or foreign Tax law, with respect to the making of such payment. To the extent that amounts are so withheld by Parent, Surviving Bank or the Exchange Agent, such withheld amounts shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the holder of Insight Common Stock or Insight Stock Options in respect of whom such deduction and withholding was made by Parent, the Surviving Bank or the Exchange Agent, as the case may be.

(j) Book Entry. All shares of Parent Common Stock to be issued in the Merger shall be issued in book entry form, without physical certificates; provided that Parent may issue any of such shares in physical form at its sole discretion.

2.10 Certain Adjustments. If, after the date of this Agreement and at or prior to the Effective Time, the outstanding shares of Parent Common Stock or Insight Common Stock are changed into a different number of shares or type of securities by reason of any reclassification, recapitalization, split-up, stock split, subdivision, combination or exchange of shares, or any dividend payable in stock or other securities is declared thereon or rights issued in respect thereof with a record date within such period, or any similar event occurs, the portion of the Expanded Total Merger Consideration that is allocable to each share of Insight Common Stock and each Insight Stock Option will be adjusted accordingly to provide to the holders thereof the same economic effect as contemplated by this Agreement prior to such adjustment event.

2.11 Transfer Books: No Further Ownership Rights in Insight Common Stock. At the Closing Date, the stock transfer books of Insight shall be closed and thereafter there shall be no further registration of transfers of shares of Insight Common Stock on the records of Insight, except for the cancellation of such shares in connection with the Merger. From and after the Effective Time, the holders of Certificates that evidenced ownership of shares of Insight Common Stock outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall cease to have any rights with respect to such shares, except as otherwise provided for herein or by applicable Law. If, after the Effective Time, bona fide Certificates are presented to Surviving Corporation for any reason, they shall be canceled and exchanged as provided in this ARTICLE II.

At the Effective Time, all Appraisal Shares shall no longer be outstanding and shall automatically be canceled and cease to exist. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if any such holder (A) fails to perfect or otherwise shall waive, withdraw or lose the right to appraisal under the ORC, (B) fails to establish his entitlement to appraisal rights as provided in the ORC, or (C) fails to take any action the consequence of which is that such holder is not entitled to payment for his shares under the ORC or a court of competent jurisdiction shall determine that such holder is not entitled to the relief provided by the ORC, then the right of such holder to be paid the fair value of such holder's Appraisal Shares under the ORC shall be forfeited and cease and if such forfeiture shall occur following the Closing Date, each of such holder's Appraisal Shares shall be deemed to have been converted at the Effective Time into, and shall have become, the right to receive, without interest thereon, the Merger Consideration pursuant to Section 2.7. Insight shall deliver prompt notice to First Financial of any demands for appraisal of any shares of Insight Common Stock and provide First Financial with the opportunity to participate in all negotiations and proceedings with respect to demands for appraisal under the ORC. Prior to the Effective Time, Insight shall not, without the prior written consent of First Financial, voluntarily make any payment with respect to, or settle or offer to settle, any such demands, or agree to do any of the foregoing.

Each of Parent and Insight shall use reasonable best efforts to have the Registration Statement declared effective under the Securities Act as promptly as reasonably practicable after such filing and to keep the Registration Statement effective as long as necessary to consummate the Merger and the other transactions contemplated hereby. Parent shall also take any action required to be taken under any applicable state securities laws in connection with the issuance and reservation of Parent Common Stock in the Merger, and Insight shall furnish all information concerning Insight and the holders of Insight Common Stock, or holders of a beneficial interest therein, as may be reasonably requested in connection with any such action. Parent will advise Insight promptly after it receives oral or written notice of the time when the Registration Statement has become effective or any supplement or amendment has been filed, the issuance of any stop order, the suspension of the qualification of Parent Common Stock issuable in connection with the Merger for offering or sale in any jurisdiction, or any oral or written request by the SEC for amendment of the Proxy Statement/Prospectus or the Registration Statement or comments thereon and responses thereto or requests by the SEC for additional information, and will promptly provide the other with copies of any written communication from the SEC or any state securities commission. Insight shall, acting through its Board of Directors, (x) recommend that Insight Shareholders adopt this Agreement (the "Insight Recommendation") and (y) use reasonable best efforts to solicit from Insight Shareholders proxies in favor of the adoption of this Agreement and to take all other action necessary or advisable to secure the vote or consent of Insight Shareholders required by Applicable Law to obtain such approvals, except to the extent Insight's Board of Directors has made an Adverse Recommendation Change (as defined below) in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

(b) Neither Insight's Board of Directors nor any committee thereof shall, except as expressly permitted by this Section, (x) withdraw, qualify or modify, or propose to withdraw, qualify or modify, in a manner adverse to Parent or First Financial, the Insight Recommendation or (y) approve or recommend, or propose to approve or recommend, any Acquisition Proposal (each, an "Adverse Recommendation Change"). Notwithstanding the foregoing, Insight's Board of Directors may make an Adverse Recommendation Change if and only if:

(i) Insight's Board of Directors determines in good faith, based upon the advice of its outside legal counsel and independent financial advisor, that it has received an Acquisition Proposal (that did not result from a breach of Section 5.9) that is a Superior Proposal;

(ii) Insight's Board of Directors determines in good faith, based upon the advice of such outside legal counsel, that a failure to accept such Superior Proposal would result in Insight's Board of Directors breaching its fiduciary duties to Insight and its Shareholders under Applicable Law;

(iii) Insight's Board of Directors provides written notice (a "Notice of Recommendation Change") to First Financial of its receipt of the Superior Proposal and its intent to make an Adverse Recommendation Change on the fifth Business Day following delivery of such notice, which notice shall specify the material terms and conditions of the Superior Proposal (and include a copy thereof with all accompanying documentation) and identifying the Person or Persons making such Superior Proposal (it being understood that any amendment to any material term of such Acquisition Proposal shall require a new Notice of Recommendation Change, except that, in such case, the five Business Day period referred to in this clause (iii) and in clauses (iv) and (v) shall be reduced to three Business Days following the giving of such new Notice of Recommendation Change);

(iv) after providing such Notice of Recommendation Change, Insight shall negotiate in good faith with First Financial (if requested by First Financial) and provide First Financial reasonable opportunity during the subsequent five (or three, as applicable) Business Day period to make such adjustments in the terms and conditions of this Agreement as would enable Insight's Board of Directors to proceed without an Adverse Recommendation Change; provided, however, that (a) First Financial shall not be required to propose any such adjustments, and (ii) no Adverse Recommendation Change shall be made by Insight's Board of Directors nor any committee thereof if First Financial shall have offered to adjust, modify or amend the terms of this Agreement to provide for substantially identical terms and conditions as Superior Proposal; and

(v) Insight's Board of Directors, following such five (or three, as applicable) Business Day period, again determines in good faith, based upon the written advice of such outside legal counsel and such independent financial advisor, that such Acquisition Proposal nonetheless continues to constitute a Superior Proposal and that failure to take such action would violate their fiduciary duties to Insight and the Insight Shareholders under Applicable Law.

2.15 Closing Deliveries by Insight. At the Closing, Insight shall deliver or cause to be delivered to First Financial:

(a) a certificate of the Secretary of Insight, dated as of the Closing Date, certifying to: (i) the charter documents of Insight; (ii) resolutions of the board of directors of Insight approving the Merger and the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement; and (iii) action by Insight Shareholders holding the requisite voting power under its Charter Documents and Applicable Law approving the Merger and the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement;

(b) a certificate, dated as of the Closing Date and signed by a duly authorized officer of Insight, certifying that each of the conditions set forth in Sections 6.2(a) and 6.2(b) have been satisfied;

(c) the Exchange Agent Agreement duly executed by the Exchange Agent;

(d) a certificate that satisfies the requirements of Treasury Regulations Section 1.1445-2(c)(3), duly executed by an authorized officer of Insight, confirming that Insight is not and has never been a United States real property holding corporation;

(e) Each Option Cash-Out Agreement duly executed by Insight and the holder of the applicable Insight Stock Options; and

(f) such other documents as First Financial reasonably deems necessary or appropriate to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

2.16 Closing Deliveries by First Financial. At the Closing, First Financial shall deliver or cause to be delivered to Insight:

- (a) evidence reasonably satisfactory to Insight of the payment of the Merger Consideration to the Exchange Agent;
- (b) a certificate of the Secretary of each of Parent and First Financial, dated as of the Closing Date, certifying the: (i) resolutions of the board of directors of Parent and First Financial, as applicable, approving the Merger and the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement; and (ii) incumbency and signatures of the officers of Parent and First Financial executing this Agreement and any other certificate or document delivered by Parent and First Financial in connection with this Agreement;
- (c) a certificate, dated as of the Closing Date and signed by a duly authorized officer of each of Parent and First Financial, that each of the conditions set forth in Sections 6.3(a) and 6.3(b) have been satisfied;
- (d) the Exchange Agent Agreement duly executed by First Financial and the Exchange Agent; and
- (e) such other documents as Insight reasonably deems necessary or appropriate to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

2.17 Tax Adjustment. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, to preserve the Tax-Free Reorganization, if the aggregate value of the shares of Parent Common Stock to be issued in connection with the Merger (excluding the value of fractional shares for which cash is to be paid pursuant to Section 2.9(e)) based upon the closing price of the Parent Common Stock as reported on the NASDAQ on the trading day immediately preceding the Closing Date (the "Tax Adjuster Stock Consideration") would be less than 40% of the sum of the Tax-Adjuster Cash Consideration (as defined below) and the Tax-Adjuster Stock Consideration, then the Exchange Ratio will be increased with a corresponding decrease to the Total Cash Consideration so that the Tax-Adjuster Stock Consideration is equal to 40% of the sum of the Tax-Adjuster Stock Consideration and the Tax-Adjuster Cash Consideration without changing the value of the Total Merger Consideration. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Tax Adjuster Cash Consideration" shall mean the sum of (i) the aggregate cash consideration to be paid in exchange for the Insight Common Stock (including, without limitation, the Appraisal Cash Amount), (ii) the aggregate cash consideration to be paid in lieu of fractional shares of Insight Common Stock pursuant to Section 2.9(e), and (iii) the aggregate cash consideration to be paid in connection with the redemption, cancellation or other transaction that results in the Series A Preferred Stock no longer being issued or outstanding as of the Effective Time.

ARTICLE III
REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF Insight

Insight hereby makes the following representations and warranties to Parent and First Financial, as of the date of this Agreement and as of the Closing (except to the extent made only as of a specified date, in which case as of such date), except as set forth in the written Disclosure Schedule delivered by Insight to Parent. Such Insight Disclosure Schedule shall be arranged in sections corresponding to the numbered and lettered sections and subsections contained in this ARTICLE III, and the disclosures in any section or subsection of the Insight Disclosure Schedule shall qualify other sections and subsections in this ARTICLE III to the extent such other sections and subsections are specifically referenced or cross-referenced and to the extent that it is reasonably apparent from the face of such disclosure (notwithstanding the absence of a specific cross reference) that such disclosure relates to another section of the Disclosure Schedules.

3.1 Organization.

(a) Insight is an Ohio state-chartered bank (i) duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the State of Ohio, (ii) with all requisite power and authority to own and operate its properties and to carry on its business as presently conducted, and (iii) duly qualified and in good standing in each jurisdiction in which the nature of its activities or the character of the properties it owns or leases make such qualification necessary, except in such cases where the lack of said authorization or qualification has not had and would not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect. True, complete and correct copies of the Charter Documents of Insight, as in effect as of the date of this Agreement, have previously been made available to the Parent and First Financial.

3.2 Authority; Binding Nature.

(a) Insight has all requisite power and authority to enter into this Agreement, to perform its obligations hereunder and to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, subject to the Insight Shareholders' approval as contemplated by Section 6.2(c). The execution, delivery and performance by Insight of this Agreement and the consummation by Insight of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, have been duly and validly approved by the board of directors of Insight. Subject to the Insight Shareholders' approval as contemplated by Section 6.2(c), no other corporate proceedings on the part of Insight are necessary to authorize this Agreement or to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby. This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by Insight and constitutes (assuming due authorization, execution and delivery by Parent and First Financial) the legal, valid and binding obligations of Insight enforceable against Insight in accordance with its terms, except as such enforceability may be limited by applicable laws related to safety and soundness of insured depository institutions as set forth in 12 U.S.C. §1818(b), the appointment of a conservator or receiver, bankruptcy, insolvency, fraudulent transfer, reorganization, moratorium or similar laws affecting creditors' rights and remedies generally and general principles of equity (regardless of whether enforcement is sought in a proceeding at law or in equity).

(b) Insight has taken all reasonable actions in order to exempt this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby from the requirements of any "moratorium," "control share," "fair price," "affiliate transaction," "anti-greenmail," "business combination" or other antitakeover Laws of the State of Ohio. Insight has taken all action required to be taken by it in order to make this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby comply with, and the transactions contemplated hereby do comply with, the requirements of any provisions of their respective Charter Documents concerning "business combination," "fair price," "voting requirement," "constituency requirement" or other related provisions.

3.3 No Conflicts. The execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement by Insight, and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, do not and will not (a) conflict with, or result in a breach or violation of or default under, any terms or conditions of the Charter Documents of Insight, or (b) assuming that the consents and approvals referred to in Section 3.4 hereof are duly obtained, (x) conflict with or violate in any material respect any Applicable Law as to Insight, (y) result in any material breach of, or constitute a material default (or event which with the giving of notice or lapse of time, or both, would become a material default) under, or give to others any rights of termination, amendment, acceleration or cancellation pursuant to any Material Contract, or (z) result in the creation or imposition of any Lien on any of the assets of Insight.

3.4 Consents and Approvals. Other than the Regulatory Approvals and such other filings, authorizations, consents, notices or approvals as may be set forth on Schedule 3.4, no consents, approvals, authorizations or other actions by, or filings with or notifications to, any Person or any Governmental Authority on the part of Insight are required in connection with the execution, delivery and performance by Insight of this Agreement, and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby.

3.5 Regulatory Matters. Insight has timely filed all material reports, registrations and statements, together with any amendments required to be made with respect thereto, that it was required to file since January 1, 2010 with (i) the FDIC; (ii) the Ohio Division of Financial Institutions (“ODFI”) and any predecessor agency; and (iii) any other applicable bank regulatory agencies (collectively, “Regulatory Agencies”) and has paid all applicable fees, premiums and assessments due and payable thereto. Each such report, registration and statement, including financial statements, exhibits and schedules thereto, complied, in all material respects, with Applicable Law. Except as set forth in Schedule 3.5, Insight is not subject to any cease-and-desist or other order issued by, is not a party to any written agreement, consent agreement or memorandum of understanding with, is not a party to any commitment letter or similar undertaking to, and is not a recipient of any extraordinary supervisory letter from, or subject to any order or directive by, and has not adopted any board resolutions at the request of any Governmental Authority that restricts, or by its terms will in the future restrict, the conduct of its business in any material respect. Except as set forth in Schedule 3.5, there is no unresolved written violation, criticism, comment or exception by any Regulatory Agency or other governmental Authority with respect to the business operations of Insight that is material to the business operations of Insight.

3.6 Capitalization.

(a) As of the date of this Agreement, the authorized capital stock of Insight consists of (i) 1,956,000 shares of Insight Common Stock, of which 1,630,000 shares are issued and outstanding, and none of which are held in treasury, and (ii) 200,000 shares of preferred stock, of which 4,250 shares of Senior Non-Cumulative Perpetual Preferred Stock, Series A (the “Insight Series A Preferred Stock”), are issued and outstanding. The above Insight Common Stock and Insight Series A Preferred Stock (the “Shares”) constitute all of the issued and outstanding capital stock of Insight. The Shares have been duly authorized, validly issued and are fully paid and nonassessable. None of the Shares have been issued or disposed of in violation of any preemptive rights of any Person. As of the date of this Agreement, 306,259 Shares of Insight Common Stock were reserved for issuance upon the exercise of outstanding Insight Stock Options and 19,741 Shares of Insight Common Stock were available for future grants of stock options under the Insight Stock Option Plan. Insight has furnished to First Financial a true, complete copy of the Insight Stock Option Plan, and Schedule 3.6(a) sets forth a list of all participants in the Insight Stock Option Plan as of the date hereof and identifies the number of Shares subject to Insight Stock Options held by each participant therein, the exercise price or prices of such Insight Stock Options and the dates each Insight Stock Option was granted, becomes exercisable and expires.

(b) Except as disclosed in Schedule 3.6(b), there are no outstanding (i) rights, plans, options, warrants, calls, conversion rights or any agreements, arrangements or commitments of any kind or character (either firm or conditional) obligating Insight or any of its Affiliates to issue, deliver or sell, or cause to be delivered or sold, any capital stock of Insight, or any securities exchangeable for or convertible into the capital stock of Insight, (ii) contractual obligations of Insight or any of its Affiliates, or rights of a Person, to repurchase, redeem or otherwise acquire any shares of capital stock of Insight, or (iii) proxies, voting agreements, voting trusts, preemptive rights, rights of first refusal, rights of first offer, rights of co-sale or tag-along rights, shareholder agreements or other rights, understandings or arrangements regarding the voting or disposition of the Shares. No bonds, debentures, notes or other indebtedness having the right to vote on any matters on which the holders of capital stock may vote have been issued by Insight and are outstanding.

3.7 Deposits. The deposit accounts of Insight are insured by the FDIC to the fullest extent permitted by Applicable Law, and all premiums and assessments required to be paid in connection therewith have been duly, timely and fully paid. All interest has been properly accrued on the deposit accounts of Insight, and Insight’s records accurately reflect such accrual of interest. Except as disclosed on Schedule 3.7, the deposit accounts of Insight have been originated and administered in accordance with the terms of the respective governing documents and in compliance with all Applicable Laws. Insight has not received written notice of any loss or potential loss of any material business or customers related to the deposit accounts of Insight. To Insight’s Knowledge, there is no action by the FDIC to terminate Insight’s deposit insurance and Insight has not received any written claim or notice threatening action alleging any of the foregoing.

3.8 Subsidiaries.

- (a) Insight does not have and has never had any Subsidiaries.

- (b) Other than as set forth on Schedule 3.8(b), there are no corporations, partnerships, limited liability companies, associations or other entities in which Insight owns any equity or other interest.

3.9 Financial Information.

(a) Copies of (i) Insight's consolidated audited financial statements including the financial information of Insight as of December 31, 2012, 2011 and 2010 and the related statements of operations and changes in shareholders' equity and cash flows for the years then ended (the "Audited Financial Statements"), and unaudited financial statements including the balance sheet of Insight as of September 30, 2013 and the related statements of operations and changes in shareholders' equity and cash flows for the nine month period then ended (the "Interim Financial Statements") and (ii) the Consolidated Reports of Condition and Income of Insight that were filed by Insight in 2013 and 2012 (such reports, the "Call Reports") that are publicly available ((i) and (ii) collectively, the "Financial Statements") have previously been made available to Parent and First Financial. The balance sheet of Insight as of December 31, 2012 is referred to herein as the "Balance Sheet" and the date thereof as the "Balance Sheet Date." The balance sheet of Insight as of September 30, 2013 is referred to herein as the "Interim Balance Sheet" and the date thereof as the "Interim Balance Sheet Date."

(b) Subject to the assumptions and qualifications set forth therein, the Financial Statements, when read together, present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Insight, at their dates and the results of operations and changes in shareholders' equity of Insight for the periods indicated, and have been prepared in accordance with GAAP applied on a consistent basis throughout the periods covered thereby.

(c) Except as set forth in the Financial Statements or on any Schedules hereto, Insight is not liable upon or with respect to, or obligated in any other way to provide funds in respect of or to guarantee or assume in any manner, any debt, obligation or dividend of any Person (other than debts or obligations of Insight). Insight is not currently liable for, or obligated to pay, any deferred purchase price amount arising from the acquisition of the equity or assets of a Person.

(d) The records, systems, controls, data and information of Insight are recorded, stored, maintained and operated under means (including any electronic, mechanical or photographic process, whether computerized or not) that are under the exclusive ownership and control of Insight or its accountants (including all means of access thereto and therefrom). Insight has established and maintained a system of internal accounting controls sufficient to provide reasonable assurances that (i) transactions are executed in accordance with its management's general or specific authorizations and (ii) transactions are recorded in conformity with GAAP and Applicable Law.

(e) All obligations, if any, for special retirement benefits owing pursuant to employment agreements described in Schedule 1.1(kkk) ("SRB Obligations") have been accrued for and reflected in each of the Financial Statements in accordance with the GAAP.

3.10 Disclosure. No representation or warranty contained in this Agreement, and no statement contained in any certificate, list or other writing, including but not necessarily limited to Insight's disclosure schedule furnished to First Financial pursuant to the provisions hereof, contains or will contain on the Closing Date any untrue statement of a material fact or omits or will omit to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements herein or therein, in light of the circumstances under which such statements were made, not misleading.

3.11 Ordinary Course; Lack of Material Adverse Change. From the Balance Sheet Date through the Closing Date, except as (i) reflected in the Interim Financial Statements, (ii) set forth in Schedule 3.11, or (iii) as may be appropriate to comply with the terms of this Agreement and prepare for the transactions contemplated hereby, Insight has operated only in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice, and there has not been any Material Adverse Change.

3.12 No Undisclosed Liabilities. Insight does not have any liability or obligation (whether absolute, accrued, contingent or otherwise), except for (i) those liabilities that are reflected or reserved against on the Financial Statements (including any notes thereto), (ii) those liabilities incurred in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice from the Balance Sheet Date through the date of this Agreement, (iii) those liabilities incurred in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby and (iv) those liabilities and obligations, if any, set forth in Schedule 3.12.

3.13 Taxes.

(a) (i) All federal and state Tax Returns and all other material Tax Returns that were or are required to be filed on or before the Closing Date by Insight have been or will be timely filed on or before the Closing Date, and all such Tax Returns are or will be true, correct and complete in all respects and were prepared in substantial compliance with all Applicable Laws; (ii) all Taxes due and owing by Insight (whether or not shown on the Tax Returns referred to in clause (i)) prior to the Closing Date have been or will be timely paid in full on or before the Closing Date; (iii) all deficiencies asserted in writing or assessments made in writing by the relevant taxing authority in connection with any of the Tax Returns referred to in clause (i) have been or will be timely paid in full on or before the Closing Date (or are being contested in good faith and adequately reserved for in the Financial Statements); and (iv) no issues that have been raised in writing by the relevant taxing authority in connection with any of the Tax Returns referred to in clause (i) are pending as of the date of this Agreement, or, if pending, have been specifically identified by Insight to Parent and First Financial and adequately reserved for in the Financial Statements. Insight is not currently the beneficiary of any extension of time within which to file any Tax Return.

(b) Insight does not expect any authority to assess any additional Taxes for any periods for which a Tax Return has been filed. No federal, state, local or non-U.S. tax audits or administrative or judicial Tax proceedings are pending or being conducted with respect to Insight. Insight has not received from any federal, state, local or non-U.S. taxing authority (including jurisdictions where Insight has not filed Tax Returns) any (i) written notice indicating an intent to open an audit or other review; (ii) request for information related to Tax matters; or (iii) notice of deficiency or proposed adjustment for any amount of Tax proposed, asserted or assessed by any taxing authority against Insight. Schedule 3.13(b) lists all Tax Returns filed by Insight for taxable periods ended on or after December 31, 2011, indicates those Tax Returns that have been audited and indicates those Tax Returns that currently are the subject of audit. Parent and First Financial have received correct and complete copies of all federal and state Tax Returns filed by Insight for taxable periods ended on or after December 31, 2011 and all examination reports and statements of deficiencies related to federal and state income Tax assessed against or agreed to by Insight with respect to those taxable periods.

(e) Insight has withheld and paid all Taxes required to have been withheld and paid in connection with any amounts paid or owing to any employee, independent contractor, creditor, shareholder or other third party.

(f) Except as listed on Schedule 3.13(f), Insight is not (and has not been) a party to any Tax allocation or sharing agreement. Insight: (A) has not been a member of an Affiliated Group filing a consolidated federal Tax Return (other than a group the common parent of which was Insight); or (B) does not have any liability for Taxes of any Person (other than Insight) under Treasury Regulations Section 1.1502-6 (or any similar provision of state, local, or non-U.S. law) as a transferee, successor, by contract or otherwise. Any Tax allocation or sharing agreement that is listed on Schedule 3.13(f) will be terminated as of the Closing Date and will have no further effect for any taxable year (whether the current year, a future year or a past year). As of the Closing Date, Insight shall have no further liability or claim under such Tax allocation or sharing agreements.

(g) Except as listed on Schedule 3.13(g), there are no joint ventures, partnerships, limited liability companies, or other arrangements or contracts to which Insight is a party and that could be treated as a partnership for federal income Tax purposes.

(h) Insight does not have nor has it ever had, a "permanent establishment" in any foreign country, as such term is defined in any applicable Tax treaty or convention between the United States and such foreign country, nor has it otherwise taken steps that have exposed, or will expose, it to the taxing jurisdiction of a foreign country.

(i) No claim has been made in the last five (5) years by a taxing authority in a jurisdiction where Insight does not file Tax Returns that Insight is or may be subject to taxation by that jurisdiction nor is there any factual or legal basis for any such claim.

(j) Insight has not distributed stock of another corporation, or had its stock distributed by another corporation, in a transaction that was purported or intended to be governed in whole or in part by Section 355 or 361 of the Code.

(k) Insight is not and has not been a United States real property holding corporation (as defined in Section 897(c)(2) of the Code) during the applicable period specified in Section 897(c)(1)(A)(ii) of the Code.

- (l) Insight does not participate in or cooperate with (and has not at any time participated in or cooperated with) an international boycott within the meaning of Section 999 of the Code.
- (m) Insight has not engaged in any transaction that, as of the date hereof, is a “listed transaction” under Treasury Regulations Section 1.6011-4(b)(2). Insight has disclosed in its Tax Returns all information required by the provisions of the Treasury Regulations issued under Section 6011 of the Code with respect to any “reportable transaction” as that term is defined in Section 6707A(c) of the Code.
- (n) No gain recognition agreements have been entered into by Insight and, except as listed on Schedule 3.13(n), Insight has not obtained a private letter ruling or closing agreements from the Internal Revenue Service (or any comparable ruling from any other taxing authority).
- (o) Insight is not and has not at any time been (A) a “controlled foreign corporation” as defined by Section 957 of the Code; (B) a “personal holding company” as that term has been defined from time to time in Section 542 of the Code; or (C) a “passive foreign investment company” nor has Insight at any time held directly, indirectly, or constructively shares of any “passive foreign investment company” as that term has been defined from time to time in Section 1296 or 1297 of the Code.
- (p) Insight is in full compliance with all the terms and conditions of any Tax exemption or other Tax reduction agreement or order of a foreign or state government and the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement will not have any adverse effect on the continued validity and effectiveness of any such Tax exemption or other Tax reduction agreement or order.
- (q) Except as listed on Schedule 3.13(q), there is no agreement, contract or arrangement to which Insight is a party that could, individually or collectively, result in the payment of any amount that would not be deductible by reason of Sections 280G (as determined without regard to Section 280G(b)(4) (or any corresponding provision of state, local or non-U.S. Tax law), 162 (other than 162(a)), or 404 of the Code.
- (r) Insight has not been and will not be, required to include any item of income in, or exclude any item of deduction from, taxable income for any Tax period (or portion thereof) ending after the Closing Date (i) pursuant to Section 481 or 263A of the Code or any comparable provision under state or foreign Tax Laws as a result of transactions, events, or accounting methods employed prior to the transactions contemplated hereby, (ii) as a result of any installment sale or open transaction disposition made on or prior to the Closing Date, or (iii) as a result of any prepaid amount received on or prior to the Closing Date; (iv) as a result of an election under Section 108(i) of the Code; or (v) intercompany transaction or excess loss account described in Treasury Regulations under Section 1502 of the Code (or any corresponding or similar provision of state, local or non-U.S. income Tax law).

(s) Insight has complied in all material respects with all unclaimed property Applicable Laws. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Insight has established and followed procedures to identify any unclaimed property and, to the extent required by Applicable Law, remit such unclaimed property to the applicable Governmental Authority. Insight's records are adequate to permit a Governmental Authority or other outside auditor to confirm the foregoing representations.

(t) All transactions for taxable years for which the statute of limitations is still open (including but not limited to sales of goods, loans, and provision of services) between Insight and any other Person that is controlled directly or indirectly by Insight (within the meaning of Section 482 of the Code) were effected on arms'-length terms and for fair market value consideration.

(u) The unpaid Taxes of Insight (a) did not, as of September 30, 2013, exceed the reserve for Tax liability (other than any reserve for deferred Taxes established to reflect timing differences between book and Tax income) set forth on the face of the Interim Balance Sheet (rather than in any notes thereto) and (b) will not exceed that reserve as adjusted for the passage of time through the Closing Date in accordance with the past custom and practice of Insight in filing its Tax Returns. Since the date of the Interim Balance Sheet, Insight has not incurred any liability for Taxes arising from extraordinary gains or losses, as that term is used in GAAP, outside the ordinary course of business consistent with past custom and practice.

(v) Insight operates at least one significant historic business line, or owns at least a significant portion of its historic business assets, in each case within the meaning of Treasury Regulations Section 1.368-1(d).

(w) Insight has provided to the Parent all of Insight's books and records with respect to Tax matters pertinent to Insight relating to any Tax periods commencing on or before the Closing Date including but not limited to all Tax opinions relating to and in the audit files of Insight.

3.14 Title to Assets: Real Property.

(a) Except as set forth on Schedule 3.14(a), as of the date of this Agreement, Insight has, and as of the Closing, Insight will have good and marketable title or a valid leasehold interest in, easement or right to use all of the assets and properties reflected on the Interim Balance Sheet as being owned or leased, as applicable (except for assets sold or otherwise disposed of or leases that have expired since the Interim Balance Sheet Date in the ordinary course of business), and none of such properties or assets is subject to any Liens other than Permitted Liens. All such properties and assets are in good condition, ordinary wear and tear excepted, and, in all material respects, are fit for the uses to which they are being put.

(b) Schedule 3.14(b) is a true, correct and complete list of all real property owned by Insight other than “real estate owned” (the “OREO”) acquired as a result of debts previously contracted which are not used for the operations of Insight (together with any buildings, structures, fixtures or other improvements thereon, the “Owned Property”).

(c) Schedule 3.14(c) is a true, correct and complete list of all leases pursuant to which Insight is a lessee or lessor (the “Leases”) of any real property (together with any buildings, structures, fixtures or other improvements thereon, the “Leased Property” and, together with the Owned Property, the “Real Property”). All such Leases are valid, legally binding, in full force and effect, and enforceable in accordance with their terms, subject to applicable laws related to safety and soundness of insured depository institutions as set forth in 12 U.S.C. §1818(b), the appointment of a conservator or receiver, bankruptcy, insolvency and similar laws affecting creditors’ rights generally, and subject, as to enforceability, to general principles of equity. Other than as set forth on Schedule 3.14(c), there is not under any of the Leases: (i) any default by Insight or any claim of default which with notice or lapse of time, or both, would constitute a default; or (ii) to Insight’s Knowledge, any default or claim of default against any lessor to or lessee of Insight, or any event of default or event which with notice or lapse of time, or both, would constitute a default by any such lessor or lessee. The consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby will not result in a breach or default under any of the Leases, and, except as set forth on Schedule 3.14(c) hereto and specifically identified as such, no consent of or notice to any third party is required as a consequence thereof. Insight has made available to Parent and First Financial true, correct and complete copies of the Leases, and no Lease has been modified in any respect since the date it was made available. Except as set forth on Schedule 3.14(c) none of the property subject to a Lease is subject to any sublease, license or other agreement granting to any person any right to the use, occupancy or enjoyment of such property or any portion thereof. Insight has not received written notice that the landlord with respect to any real property lease would refuse to renew such lease upon expiration of the period thereof upon substantially the same terms, except for rent increases consistent with past experience or market rentals.

3.15 Litigation; Orders.

(a) Except as set forth on Schedule 3.15(a), there is no Proceeding pending or, to Insight’s Knowledge, threatened either (i) against Insight, or to which any assets, interest, or right of any of them may be subject, or (ii) seeking to prevent, materially alter or delay any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

(b) Except as set forth on Schedule 3.15(b), there is no Order either (i) outstanding against Insight, or to which any assets, interest, or right of any of them may be subject, or (ii) seeking to prevent, materially alter or materially delay any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

3.16 Compliance.

(a) Insight is in material compliance with all Applicable Laws and Orders. Insight has all Permits of, and have made all required filings, applications and registrations with, all applicable Government Authorities necessary to permit it to carry on its business in all material respects as presently conducted.

(b) Insight is not in default under or in violation of any term or provision of (i) its Charter Documents or (ii) any material Permit which it holds.

(c) Insight has implemented one or more formal codes addressing each of ethics, conflicts of interest policies, customer privacy policies, anti-money laundering policies, and other material policies as may be required by any Applicable Law, and a complete and correct copy of each such policy has been made available to Parent. To Insight's Knowledge, such policies comply in all material respects with the requirements of any Applicable Law.

3.17 Loans.

None of the rights or remedies under the documentation relating to the Loans has been amended, modified, waived, subordinated or otherwise altered by Insight, except as evidenced by a written instrument which is a part of the file with respect to such Loans made available to First Financial and was entered into by Insight in good faith and in its ordinary course of business. For purposes of this Section 3.17(a), the phrase "enforceable in accordance with its terms" as it relates to a Loan does not mean that the borrower has the financial ability to repay a Loan or that any collateral is sufficient to result in payment of the Loan secured thereby.

(b) Insight has previously disclosed a complete and correct list of all Loans that, as of the Interim Balance Sheet Date (i) are contractually past due 90 days or more in the payment of principal and/or interest, (ii) are on nonaccrual status or (iii) are classified as "Watch List," "Special Mention," "Substandard," "Doubtful" or "Loss," (or words of similar import) together with the principal amount on each such Loan and the identity of the obligor thereunder. Schedule 3.17(b) sets forth a complete list of other real estate owned, acquired by foreclosure or by deed in-lieu thereof and owned by Insight as of the Interim Balance Sheet Date, including the book value thereof. Insight has properly fulfilled in all material respects its contractual responsibilities and duties with respect to any Loan in which it acts as the lead lender or servicer and has complied in all material respects with its duties as required under applicable regulatory requirements.

(d) Except as set forth on Schedule 3.17(d), none of the agreements pursuant to which Insight has sold Loans or pools of Loans or participations in Loans or pools of Loans contains any obligation to repurchase such Loans or interests therein, other than repurchase obligations arising upon breach of representations and warranties, covenants and other obligations of Insight.

(e) Insight has made available to First Financial true and correct copies of the loan files related to the Loans. Such files contain, in all material respects, all of the documents and instruments relating to such Loans.

(f) All payments made on the Loans have been properly credited to the respective Loan.

(g) As to each Loan that is secured, whether in whole or in part, by a guaranty of the United States Small Business Administration or any other Governmental Authority, such guaranty is in full force and effect, and to Insight's Knowledge, will remain in full force and effect following the Closing Date, in each case, without any further action by Insight subject to Insight fulfilling its obligations under the Small Business Administration Agreement that arise after the date hereof.

(h) Schedule 3.17(h) sets forth a list of all Loans by Insight to any directors, executive officers and principal shareholders (as such terms are defined in Regulation O of the Federal Reserve (12 C.F.R. Part 215)) of Insight. All such Loans are and were made in compliance in all material respects with all Applicable Laws. Each Loan disclosed on Schedule 3.17(h) has been made in the ordinary course of business, and on the same terms, including interest rate and collateral, as those prevailing at the time for comparable arms'-length transactions, did not involve more than the normal risk of collectability or present other unfavorable features.

statements delivered in accordance with Section 5.15, as the case may be, were and will be as of the Closing Date established in accordance with the practices and experiences of Insight and were and will be as of the Closing Date adequate under and in accordance with the requirements of GAAP.

3.19 Investment Portfolio. All investment securities held by Insight, as reflected in the Financial Statements, are carried in accordance with GAAP and in a manner consistent with the applicable guidelines issued by the Regulatory Agencies. Insight has good, valid and marketable title to all securities held by it, except securities sold under repurchase agreements or held in any fiduciary or agency capacity, free and clear of any Lien, except as set forth in the Financial Statements and except to the extent any such securities are pledged in the ordinary course of business consistent with prudent banking practices to secure obligations of Insight.

Insight owns or otherwise has the right to use, each such Intellectual Property Right. Except as set forth on Schedule 3.21, the conduct of the business of Insight as currently conducted does not, to Insight's Knowledge, infringe, misappropriate or otherwise violate any Intellectual Property Rights of any Person, and no claims are pending or, to Insight's Knowledge, threatened alleging that Insight is infringing the rights of any Person with regard to any Intellectual Property Right. To Insight's Knowledge, as of the date of this Agreement, no Person is infringing, misappropriating or otherwise violating the rights of Insight with respect to any Intellectual Property Right.

Insight has developed, incorporated into its policies and is undertaking commercially reasonable risk management procedures in connection with its origination and servicing of loans, including in the exercise of any rights in the event of a borrower default, so as to minimize any potential liability to Insight under any Environmental Laws.

(b) To Insight's Knowledge, there has been no release of any Hazardous Substance by Insight in any manner that has given or would reasonably be expected to give rise to any unpaid remedial obligation, corrective action requirement or liability under applicable Environmental Laws.

(c) To Insight's Knowledge, no Hazardous Substance has been disposed of, arranged to be disposed of, released or transported in violation of any applicable Environmental Law, or in a manner that has given rise to, or that would reasonably be expected to give rise to, any liability under any Environmental Law, from any current or former properties or facilities while owned or operated by Insight, and no other condition has existed or event has occurred with respect to Insight or any such properties or facilities that, with notice or the passage of time, or both, would be reasonably likely to result in liability under Environmental Laws, and Hazardous Substances are not otherwise present at or about any such properties or facilities in amount or condition that has resulted in or could reasonably be expected to result in liability to Insight under any Environmental Law.

Except as set forth on Schedule 3.23, Insight is not a party to any Contract that contains (i) any noncompetition or exclusive dealing agreement, or any other agreement or obligation which purports to limit or restrict in any material respect the ability of Insight to solicit customers in the manner in which or the localities in which, all or any portion of its business is conducted or (ii) any agreement that grants any right of first refusal or right of first offer or similar rights or that limits or purports to limit the ability of Insight to own, operate, sell, transfer, pledge or otherwise dispose of any assets or business. All Material Contracts are valid and binding agreements of Insight and are in full force and effect and are enforceable in accordance with their terms except as such enforceability may be limited by laws related to safety and soundness of insured depository institutions as set forth in 12 U.S.C. §1818(b), the appointment of a conservator or receiver, bankruptcy, insolvency, fraudulent transfer, reorganization, moratorium or similar laws, rules or regulations affecting creditors' rights and remedies generally and general principles of equity (regardless of whether enforcement is sought in a proceeding at law or in equity). Insight is not in violation or breach of or default under any Material Contract. To Insight's Knowledge, no third party is in violation or breach of or default under any Material Contract, and there has not occurred any event that, with the lapse of time or the giving of notice or both, would constitute such a breach or default.

3.24 Employee Benefit Matters.

Only employees and former employees of Insight (and their eligible dependents) participate in the Employee Benefit Plans. (e) All contributions (including, without limitation, all employer contributions and employee salary reduction contributions), premiums and benefit payments required by and due from Insight and any Affiliate under or in connection with the terms of each Employee Benefit Plan have been made within the time periods prescribed by the Employee Benefit Plan, ERISA and the Code.

(f) Each Employee Benefit Plan may be amended, terminated or otherwise modified by Insight in its sole discretion, including the elimination of any and all future benefit accruals thereunder, without any adverse consequences to Insight, other than providing COBRA benefits to qualified beneficiaries of any Employee Benefit Plan that is a group health plan. No communications or provision of any Employee Benefit Plan has failed to effectively reserve the right of Insight to so amend, terminate or otherwise modify such Employee Benefit Plan. Neither Insight nor any of its Affiliates has announced its intention to modify or terminate any Employee Benefit Plan or adopt any arrangement or program which, once established, would come within the definition of an Employee Benefit Plan. Except as set forth in Schedule 3.24(f), each asset held under each Employee Benefit Plan may be liquidated or terminated without the imposition of any redemption fee, surrender charge, comparable liability, or consent of a person or entity, other than Insight or the trustee of such plan.

(g) Each Employee Benefit Plan that constitutes in any part a nonqualified deferred compensation plan within the meaning of Section 409A of the Code has been operated and maintained in accordance with Section 409A of the Code and applicable guidance thereunder. No payment to be made under any Employee Benefit Plan is or will be subject to the penalties or Section 409A(a)(1) of the Code. Further, Insight has not announced any type of plan or binding commitment to create any additional Employee Benefit Plan, to enter into any agreement with any current or former employee, officer, director, or other individual or to amend or modify any existing Employee Benefit Plan or agreement with any current or former employee, officer, director, or other individual.

(j) Except as set forth in Schedule 3.24(j), neither Insight nor any Employee Benefit Plan provides (or will provide) health or other welfare benefits to one or more former employees, officers, directors, or other individuals (including dependents of any of the foregoing) other than benefits that are required to be provided pursuant to the applicable requirements of COBRA. (m) The consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement will not require the funding (whether on a formal or informal basis) of the benefits under any Employee Benefit Plan.

(n) No participants in any Employee Benefit Plan participate in such plan pursuant to the terms of a collective bargaining agreement.

(o) Except as set forth in Schedule 3.24(o), the 401(k) Plan is not funded with and does not allow for payments, investments, or distributions in any employer security of Insight or any Affiliate (including employer securities as defined in Section 407(d)(1) of ERISA), or employer real property as defined in Section 407(d)(2) of ERISA.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, no representation or warranty is made by Insight with respect to statements made or incorporated by reference therein based on information supplied by or on behalf of Parent or First Financial for inclusion in the Proxy Statement/Prospectus or the Registration Statement.

The Board of Directors of Insight has received the opinion of Keefe, Bruyette & Woods, Inc., dated the date of this Agreement, to the effect that, as of such date and based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth therein, the consideration to be received by the Insight Shareholders is fair, from a financial point of view, to the Insight Shareholders.

3.32 Bank Secrecy Act, Anti-Money Laundering and OFAC and Customer Information. Parent is duly qualified and in good standing as a foreign corporation authorized to do business in each jurisdiction in which the nature of its activities or the character of the properties it owns or leases make such qualification necessary, except in such cases where the lack of said authorization or qualification has not had and would not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

(b) First Financial is a national banking association (i) duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the Laws of the United States (ii) with all requisite power (corporate or otherwise) and authority to own and operate its properties and to carry on its business as presently conducted. 4.2 Authority: Binding Nature. Each of Parent and First Financial has all requisite power and authority to enter into this Agreement and to carry out its obligations hereunder and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby. The execution and delivery of this Agreement by each of Parent and First Financial, and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby has been duly authorized by all necessary action on the part of each of Parent and First Financial and no other corporate proceedings on the part of Parent or First Financial are necessary to authorize the execution and delivery of this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby. This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by each of Parent and First Financial and, constitutes (in each case assuming due authorization, execution and delivery by Insight) the legal, valid and binding obligations of each of Parent and First Financial enforceable against each of Parent and First Financial in accordance with its terms, subject to the effect of any applicable laws related to safety and soundness of insured depository institutions as set forth in 12 U.S.C. §1818(b), the appointment of a conservator or receiver, bankruptcy, reorganization, insolvency, fraudulent transfer, moratorium, restructuring or similar Laws affecting creditors' rights and remedies generally and general equitable principles regardless of whether such enforceability is considered in a proceeding at law or in equity.

4.3 No Conflicts. The execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement by each of Parent and First Financial and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby do not and will not (a) conflict with, or result in a breach of or default under, any terms or conditions the Charter Documents of Parent or First Financial or any of their Subsidiaries, or (b) assuming that the consents and approvals referred to in Section 4.4 hereof are duly obtained, (x) conflict with or violate in any material respect any Applicable Law as to Parent or First Financial or any of their Subsidiaries, (y) result in any material breach of, or constitute a material default (or event which with the giving of notice or lapse of time, or both, would become a material default) under, or give to others any rights of termination, amendment, acceleration or cancellation pursuant to any material contract (as defined in Item 601(b)(10) of Regulation S-K)) to which Parent or First Financial or any of their Subsidiaries is a party, or (z) result in the creation or imposition of any Lien on any of the assets of Parent or First Financial or any of their Subsidiaries.

4.5 Regulatory Matters. Each of Parent and First Financial has timely filed all material reports, registrations and statements, together with any amendments required to be made with respect thereto, that it was required to file since January 1, 2010 with any Regulatory Agency, and has paid all applicable fees, premiums and assessments due and payable thereto, except where the failure to do so would not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect. Each such report, registration and statement, including financial statements, exhibits and schedules thereto, complied, in all material respects, with Applicable Law. No Regulatory Agency or other Governmental Authority has initiated or has pending any formal enforcement action regarding the business, disclosures or operations of Parent or First Financial that could reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect. There is no unresolved written violation, criticism, comment or exception by any Regulatory Agency or other Governmental Authority with respect to any report or statement relating to any examinations or inspections of Parent or First Financial except where such adverse determination would not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect. (c) The parties shall advise each other within twenty-four hours of receiving any communication from any Governmental Authority whose consent or approval is required for consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement that causes such party to believe that there is a reasonable likelihood that the Regulatory Approvals or any other consent or approval required hereunder will not be obtained or that the receipt of any such approval will be materially delayed.

(ii) during and, as reasonably required, outside of customary business hours, to Insight's telecommunications and electronic data processing systems, facilities and personnel for the purpose of performing conversion activities related to data processing integration.

5.6 Public Announcements. Insight, Parent and First Financial shall consult with each other before issuing any press release or otherwise making any public statements or filings with respect to this Agreement or any of the transactions contemplated hereby and shall not issue any such press release or make any such public statement without the prior written consent of the other party, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed; provided, however, that a party may, without the prior written consent of the other party, issue such press release or make such public statement or filing as may be required by Applicable Law or Order, or any listing agreement with a national stock exchange or automated quotation system; provided, further, however that such party shall have first used reasonable best efforts to consult with the other party with respect to such release, statement or filing.

5.7 No Control of Insight. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall give Parent or First Financial, directly or indirectly, the right to control or direct the operations of Insight prior to the Closing Date.

(b) Insight shall deliver an updated copy of Schedule 3.25(d) to Parent not more than ten (30) Business Days following the date of this Agreement and shall provide Parent and First Financial with an updated copy of Schedule 3.25(d) within ten (10) Business Days prior to the Closing Date. Only employees (and their dependents) shall be participants in the Employee Benefit Plans sponsored by Insight.

(c) Parent and First Financial shall provide, or cause to provide, each employee of Insight, including any employee on an approved leave of absence, who, as decided by Parent and First Financial in their sole discretion, does not continue employment with the Surviving Bank following the Closing Date (a "Discontinued Employee") with severance benefits under First Financial's existing severance practices or pursuant to the terms of any employment agreement with Insight in existence as of the date hereof; provided that

(i) for purposes of determining seniority as it relates to First Financial's severance practices, such a Discontinued Employee shall be credited with his or her years of service with Insight;

(ii) such benefit payments shall be conditioned on execution of a release of claims in a form satisfactory to Parent and First Financial; and

(iii) Parent and First Financial shall assume Insight's obligations under the employment agreements, that are listed on Schedule 3.25(f).

(d) Parent and First Financial shall also be responsible for any notice to the Discontinued Employee that the Worker Adjustment and Retraining Notification Act or other Applicable Law may require for the Discontinued Employee as well as the consequences of failing to provide any such required notice.

(e) With respect to any employee benefit plan of Parent or Parent's Affiliates in which any Continuing Employee becomes eligible to participate on or after the Closing Date (a "Parent Plan"), Parent shall (i) waive all preexisting conditions, actively at work requirements, exclusion and waiting periods with respect to participation and coverage requirements under any such Parent Plan to the extent they were inapplicable to, or were satisfied under, any Employee Benefit Plan in which such Continuing Employee participated prior to the Closing Date; and (ii) ensure that each Continuing Employee receives full credit (including eligibility to participate, vesting, vacation entitlement and severance benefits, but excluding benefit accrual under any defined benefit Parent Plan) under each Parent Plan in which such Continuing Employee becomes or may become a participant for service with Surviving Bank (or any predecessor to Surviving Bank and its Affiliates), solely to the extent such service was credited under the Employee Benefit Plans. As of the Closing Date, Parent and First Financial shall credit to Continuing Employees the amount of vacation time that such employees had accrued under any vacation policy or arrangement listed on Schedule 3.24 as of the Closing Date. With respect to each Parent Plan that is a health plan in which Continuing Employees participate after Closing, Parent and First Financial shall (i) cause to be waived any eligibility waiting period, any evidence of insurability requirement and the application of any pre-existing condition limitation under such plan; and (ii) cause each Continuing Employee to be given credit under such health plan with respect to the plan year in which the Closing Date occurs ("Closing Date Plan Year") for amounts (such as deductibles and co-payments) paid under any similar Employee Benefit Plan by such Continuing Employee, with respect to the Closing Date Plan Year and for which verification is provided by the insurer or third party administrator of such Employee Benefit Plan, as though such amounts had been paid in accordance with the terms and conditions of any applicable Parent Plan.

(f) Parent, First Financial and Insight acknowledge and agree that all provisions contained in this Section 5.8 are included for the sole benefit of Parent, First Financial and Insight and nothing contained herein shall (i) be construed as an amendment to any Employee Benefit Plan or Parent Plan or the creation of any new employee benefit plan, (ii) create any third-party beneficiary or other rights in any other person, including any employee or former employee of any of Parent, First Financial or Insight or their respective Affiliates, or any dependent or beneficiary thereof or (iii) otherwise obligate Parent or any of its Affiliates to maintain any particular Parent Plan or other employee benefit plan or retain the employment of any particular employee following the Closing Date. Parent, First Financial and Insight further acknowledge and agree that Insight shall provide to Parent all employee books and records relating to Continuing Employees no later than the Closing Date.

(g) Insight shall terminate the 401(k) Plan immediately prior to the Closing by resolution adopted by the board of directors of Insight, on terms acceptable to Parent and First Financial, and simultaneously amend the 401(k) Plan to the extent necessary to comply with all Applicable Laws to the extent not previously amended. Said termination shall provide that all participants in the 401(k) Plan shall be fully vested in their account balances thereunder; and Insight shall notify the 401(k) Plan participants and beneficiaries of such termination prior to the Closing Date pursuant to Applicable Law requirements. Parent and First Financial will permit rollover of 401(k) plan assets by Continuing Employees in cash and with respect to loans, in kind, to a defined contribution retirement plan with a 401(k) feature of Parent or First Financial.

5.9 No Solicitation of Transaction.

(a) From the date hereof until the Closing Date, or, if earlier, the date on which this Agreement is terminated in accordance with ARTICLE VII, Insight shall not, and shall cause all of its officers, directors, employees, investment bankers, attorneys, accountants, agents, advisors or other representatives to not, directly or indirectly, (i) take any action to solicit, initiate, encourage or knowingly facilitate (including by way of furnishing nonpublic information or assistance) any inquiries with respect to, or the making of, any Acquisition Proposal, (ii) participate in any discussions or negotiations regarding any Acquisition Proposal or furnish, or otherwise afford access, to any Person (other than Parent and First Financial) any information or data with respect to Insight or otherwise relating to an Acquisition Proposal, (iii) approve, endorse or recommend any Acquisition Proposal (other than the Merger), or (iii) enter into any agreement in principle, arrangement, understanding, contract or agreement relating to an Acquisition Proposal. Upon execution of this Agreement, Insight shall, and shall cause all of its officers, directors, employees, investment bankers, attorneys, accountants, agents, advisors and other representatives to, immediately cease any discussions, negotiations or communications with any party or parties with respect to any Acquisition Proposal; provided, however, that nothing in this Section 5.9 shall preclude Insight or its representatives from contacting any such party or parties solely for the purpose of complying with the provisions of the first clause of this sentence or to enforce the provisions of any confidentiality agreement entered into with any Person with respect to a potential Acquisition Proposal.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 5.9(a), Insight may take any of the actions described in clause (ii) of Section 5.9(a) if, but only if, (i) Insight has received a bona fide unsolicited written Acquisition Proposal, prior to Insight Shareholders' Meeting, that did not result from a breach of this Section 5.9; (ii) Insight's Board of Directors determines (in accordance with this Agreement) that such Acquisition Proposal constitutes a Superior Proposal; (iii) Insight has provided First Financial with at least five (5) Business Day's prior notice of such determination; (iv) prior to furnishing or affording access to any information or data with respect to Insight or otherwise relating to an Acquisition Proposal, Insight receives from such Person a confidentiality agreement with terms no less favorable to Insight than those contained in the Confidentiality Agreement; and (v) the failure of Insight's Board of Directors to furnish such information or access or enter into discussions or negotiations would violate its fiduciary duties to Insight shareholders. Insight shall promptly provide to First Financial any non-public information regarding Insight provided to any other Person that was not previously provided to First Financial, such additional information to be provided no later than the date of provision of such information to such other party.

(c) Insight shall promptly (and in any event within twenty-four (24) hours) notify First Financial in writing if any proposals or offers (or modified offers or proposals) are received by, any information is requested from, or any negotiations or discussions are sought to be initiated or continued with, Insight or any Insight Representatives, in each case in connection with any Acquisition Proposal, and such notice shall indicate the name of the Person initiating such discussions or negotiations or making such proposal, offer or information request.

5.10 Indemnification; Directors' and Officers' Insurance.

(a) From and after the Effective Time and for a period of six (6) years thereafter, each of Parent and Surviving Bank shall (i) indemnify and hold harmless each individual who at the Effective Time is, or any time prior to the Effective Time was, a director, officer or employee of Insight (the "Indemnitees") in respect of all claims, liabilities, losses, damages, judgments, fines, penalties costs and expenses (including legal expenses) in connection with any claim, suit, action, proceeding or investigation, whenever asserted, based on or arising out of the fact that Indemnitee was an officer, director or employee of Insight for acts or omissions by Indemnitee in such capacity or taken at the request of Insight, at or any time prior to the Effective Time (including any claim, suit, action, proceeding or investigation relating to the Transactions), to the fullest extent permitted by Law and (ii) assume all obligations of Insight to Indemnitees in respect of indemnification and exculpation from liabilities for acts or omissions occurring at or prior to the Effective Time as provided in Insight's Charter Documents. In addition, Parent, from and after the Effective Time, shall and shall cause Surviving Bank to, advance any expenses (including legal expenses) of any Indemnitee under this Section 5.10 as incurred to the fullest extent permitted by Applicable Law, provided that the Indemnitee to whom expenses are advanced provides an undertaking to repay advances if it shall be determined that such Indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified pursuant to this Section 5.10.

(b) The Surviving Bank shall, for six years after the Effective Time, maintain in effect the current directors' and officers' liability insurance policies maintained by Insight (provided that the Surviving Bank may substitute therefor policies of at least the same coverage and amounts containing terms and conditions which are no less advantageous to such officers and directors so long as substitution does not result in gaps or lapses in coverage) with respect to matters occurring prior to the Effective Time; provided, however, that in no event shall the Surviving Bank be required to expend pursuant to this Section 5.10(b) more than an amount per year equal to 200% of current annual premiums paid by Insight for such insurance and, in the event the cost of such coverage shall exceed that amount, the Surviving Bank shall purchase as much coverage as possible for such amount. The provisions of this Section 5.10 shall be deemed to have been satisfied if prepaid "tail" policies with the same terms, conditions and coverage as indicated above have been obtained by the Surviving Bank for purposes of this Section 5.10 from carriers with the same or better rating as the carrier of such insurances as of the date of this Agreement.

(c) The provisions of this Section 5.10 are intended for the benefit of, and shall be enforceable by, each Indemnitee, his or her heirs and his or her representatives and is in addition to, and not in substitution for, any other rights to indemnification or contribution that any Indemnitee may have under Insight Charter Documents, by contract, by Law or otherwise. In the event the Surviving Bank or any of its successors or assigns (i) consolidates with or merges into any other Person and shall not be the continuing or surviving corporation or entity of such consolidation or merger or (ii) transfers all or substantially all of its properties and assets to any Person, then, and in each such case, proper provision shall be made so that the successors and assigns of the Surviving Bank or the purchaser of its assets and properties shall assume the obligations set forth in this Section 5.10. This Section 5.10 shall survive the Effective Time.

5.11 Efforts to Consummate; Further Assurances.

(a) Parent, First Financial and Insight agree to use reasonable best efforts to satisfy or cause to be satisfied as soon as practicable their respective obligations hereunder and the conditions precedent to the Closing.

(b) Prior to the Closing Date, each of the parties hereto shall promptly advise the other party of any change or event that, individually or in the aggregate, would reasonably be expected to cause or constitute a breach in any material respect of any of its representations, warranties or covenants contained herein.

5.12 Board of Directors. At or promptly following the Effective Time, Parent and First Financial shall take such actions as are reasonably required in order to appoint one (1) qualified, independent director designated by Parent to serve on Parent and Surviving Bank's Board of Directors.

5.13 Columbus Advisory Board. At or promptly following the Effective Time, Parent shall create a Columbus Advisory Board. Parent shall take all action necessary to appoint certain director(s) from the current Board of Directors of Insight, as agreed among Parent, First Financial and Insight, to serve on the Columbus Advisory Board. No later than thirty (30) days after the execution of this Agreement, Insight shall provide to Parent the names of its current directors who desire to serve on the Columbus Advisory Board pursuant to this Section 5.13.

5.14 Non-Competition Agreements; Voting Agreements. Concurrently with the execution and delivery of this Agreement, each person listed on Schedule 5.14 has executed and delivered to First Financial a non-competition and non-solicitation agreement and a voting agreement.

5.15 Financial Statements. From the date of this Agreement until the Closing Date or the termination of this Agreement pursuant to Article VII, Insight will provide to Parent and First Financial (i) as promptly as practicable, but in no event later than the twentieth day following the end of the relevant calendar month, the monthly unaudited financial statements of Insight as provided to Insight's management (including any related notes and schedules thereto), for each of the calendar months ended after the date of this Agreement, and (ii) following the satisfaction of all closing conditions as set forth in ARTICLE VI (excluding any conditions which by their nature are to be satisfied only upon the Closing and which are capable of being satisfied) and with the approval of Insight's independent outside auditors, the unaudited financial statements of Insight as of the latest practicable date prior to the Closing Date (including any related notes and schedules thereto), for the period commencing on the first day of the corresponding calendar month (the "Pre-Closing Financial Statements"). All SRB Obligations shall be accrued for and reflected in the Pre-Closing Financial Statements in accordance with the GAAP.

5.16 Tax Matters.

(a) For federal income tax purposes, the Merger is intended to constitute a Tax-Free Reorganization and this Agreement is intended to constitute a “plan of reorganization” within the meaning of Treasury Regulations Section 1.368-2(g). After the date of this Agreement (including, without limitation, after the Effective Time) subject to the other terms and conditions in this Agreement, each party hereto shall take any action that is required to cause the Merger to qualify, and will not take any actions or cause any actions to be taken which could reasonably be likely to prevent the Merger from qualifying, as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. All parties hereto shall report the Merger as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368 of the Code, unless otherwise required pursuant to a “determination” within the meaning of Section 1313(a) of the Code.

(b) The Chief Financial Officer of each of Parent and Insight shall execute and deliver to Squire Sanders (US) LLP, special tax counsel for Parent, and Vorys, Sater, Seymour and Pease LLP, special tax counsel for Insight, certificates substantially in the form agreed to by the parties and such firms at such time or times as may reasonably be requested by such firms, including at the time the Registration Statement is filed with the SEC and the Effective Time, in connection with such special tax counsel’s respective delivery of its tax opinion, if any, pursuant to Section 6.3(e). Each of Parent and Insight shall use its commercially reasonable best efforts not to take or cause to be taken any action that would cause to be untrue (or fail to take or cause not to be taken any action which would cause to be untrue) any of the certifications and representations included in the certificates described in this Section 5.16(b).

5.17 NASDAQ Listing. Parent shall, as promptly as practicable, file all documents, take all actions reasonably necessary and otherwise use its reasonable best efforts to (i) list, prior to the Effective Time if such listing is required to be made prior to the Effective Time under Nasdaq rules, the shares of Parent Common Stock to be issued to the holders of Insight Common Stock as part of the Merger Consideration in connection with the Merger, or (ii) make such post-Closing filings with the Nasdaq as may be required by the applicable Nasdaq rules.

5.18 Litigation and Claims.

(a) Parent shall promptly notify Insight in writing of any Proceeding, or of any claim, controversy or contingent liability that might reasonably be expected to become the subject of a Proceeding, against Parent or First Financial, if such Proceeding or potential Proceeding is reasonably likely to result in a Material Adverse Change. Parent shall promptly notify Insight in writing of any Proceeding, pending or, to Parent's Knowledge, threatened against Parent or First Financial that (A) questions or would reasonably be expected to question the validity of this Agreement or the agreements contemplated hereby or any actions taken or to be taken by Parent with respect hereto or thereto or (B) seeks to enjoin or otherwise restrain the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby.

(b) Insight shall promptly notify Parent in writing of any Proceeding, or of any claim, controversy or contingent liability that might reasonably be expected to become the subject of a Proceeding, against Insight, if such Proceeding or potential Proceeding is reasonably likely to result in a Material Adverse Change. Insight shall promptly notify Parent in writing of any Proceeding, pending or, to Insight's Knowledge, threatened against Insight that (A) questions or would reasonably be expected to question the validity of this Agreement or the agreements contemplated hereby or any actions taken or to be taken by Parent with respect hereto or thereto or (B) seeks to enjoin or otherwise restrain the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby.

ARTICLE VI

Conditions to close

6.1 Conditions to Each Party's Obligations. Each party's obligation to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall be subject to the fulfillment at or prior to the Closing Date of the following conditions, any or all of which may be waived in whole or in part by the party entitled to the benefit thereof:

(a) No Orders. No Governmental Authority shall have enacted, issued, promulgated, enforced or entered any Applicable Law or Order (whether temporary, preliminary or permanent) which has the effect of making illegal or preventing or prohibiting the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

(b) Regulatory Approvals. All Regulatory Approvals shall have been obtained and shall remain in full force and effect and shall not contain any unduly burdensome conditions as contemplated by Section 5.2(a) and all statutory waiting periods in respect thereof shall have expired or been terminated.

(c) Consents. All consents, authorizations, waivers or approvals set forth in Schedule 3.4 shall have been obtained.

(d) Registration Statement. The Registration Statement shall have been effective under the Securities Act, no stop orders suspending the effectiveness of the Registration Statement shall have been issued, no action, suit, proceeding or investigation by the SEC to suspend the effectiveness thereof shall have been initiated and be continuing, and all necessary approvals under state securities laws or the Securities Act relating to the issuance of the shares of Parent Common Stock issuable pursuant to the Merger shall have been received.

6.2 Conditions to Obligations of First Financial and Parent. The obligations of First Financial and Parent to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby are also subject to the satisfaction, or waiver by First Financial and Parent, at or prior to the Closing Date of the following conditions:

- (a) Accuracy of Representations and Warranties. For purposes of this Section 6.2(a), the accuracy of the representations and warranties of Insight set forth in this Agreement shall be assessed as of the date of this Agreement and as of the Closing with the same effect as though all such representations and warranties had been made on and as of the Closing Date; provided that representations and warranties which are confined to a specified date shall speak only as of such date. The representations and warranties set forth in Sections 3.1, 3.2, 3.3(a), 3.6, 3.8, 3.28 and 3.31 shall be true and correct, except for inaccuracies which are de minimis in amount or effect. There shall not exist inaccuracies in the representations and warranties of Insight set forth in this Agreement (including the representations and warranties set forth in Sections 3.1, 3.2, 3.3(a), 3.6, 3.8, 3.28 and 3.31) such that the aggregate effect of such inaccuracies has, or is reasonably likely to have, a Material Adverse Change or Material Adverse Effect with respect to Insight; provided that, for purposes of this sentence only, those representations and warranties which are qualified as to “materiality,” “Material Adverse Change” or “Material Adverse Effect” or as to “Insight’s Knowledge” shall be deemed not to include such qualifications.
- (b) Compliance with Covenants and Obligations. Insight shall have performed and complied in all material respects with all of its covenants and obligations required by this Agreement to be performed or complied with prior to or at the Closing Date.
- (c) Shareholder Approval. This Agreement shall have been approved by action by the Insight Shareholders holding the requisite voting power under the Charter Documents and Applicable Law.
- (d) Insight Closing Deliverables. Insight shall have delivered to Parent, each of the certificates, instruments, agreements, documents, assets and other items required to be delivered by it pursuant to Section 2.15 at or prior to the Closing Date.
- (e) Well Capitalized. Insight shall be Well Capitalized.
- (f) No Proceedings. There shall have been no new Proceedings initiated against Insight between the date hereof and Closing that, in the aggregate, would reasonably be expected to expose Insight or Surviving Bank to liabilities in a total amount exceeding $500,000.
- (g) No Enforcement Actions. There shall have been no new enforcement actions initiated by any Regulatory Agency which, individually or in the aggregate, would reasonably be expected to materially affect Insight’s ability to conduct its business as currently being conducted.

(h) Appraisal Share. As of the Closing Date, the holders of no more than 5% of the Insight Common Stock that is issued and outstanding shall have taken the actions required under the ORC to qualify their Insight Common Stock as Appraisal Share.

(i) Insight Stock Option. Insight shall have duly entered into the Option Cash-Out Agreements with all holders of Insight Stock Options pursuant to Section 2.8 of this Agreement.

(j) Insight Series A Preferred Stock. Insight shall have duly redeemed all the Insight Series A Preferred Stock; provided, however, that: (i) Insight shall not be obligated to redeem the Series A Preferred Stock until Parent and First Financial have agreed in writing that all conditions in this Section 6.2 (other than Section 6.2(d)) have been satisfied or waived, (ii) Insight shall not be obligated to redeem the Series A Preferred Stock if Insight is unable to obtain from Vorys, Sater, Seymour and Pease LLP an opinion that, taking into account such redemption, the Merger will be treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, and (iii) in the event Vorys, Sater, Seymour and Pease LLP is unable to render the opinion referred to in clause (ii) hereof, the parties hereto agree to use commercially reasonable efforts to take such other actions or make revisions hereto to permit both (A) the Merger (provided that the Merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code in the opinion of Vorys, Sater, Seymour and Pease LLP) and (B) the redemption, cancellation or other transaction that results in the Series A Preferred Stock no longer being issued or outstanding as of the Effective Time.

6.3 Conditions to the Obligations of Insight. The obligation of Insight to consummate the transactions contemplated by this transaction is also subject to the satisfaction, or waiver by Insight, at or prior to the Closing Date of the following conditions:

(a) Accuracy of Representations and Warranties. For purposes of this Section 6.3(a), the accuracy of the representations and warranties of Parent set forth in this Agreement shall be assessed as of the date of this Agreement and as of the Closing with the same effect as though all such representations and warranties had been made on and as of the Closing Date; provided that representations and warranties which are confined to a specified date shall speak only as of such date. The representations and warranties set forth in Sections 4.1, 4.2, 4.3(a), 4.8 and 4.9 shall be true and correct, except for inaccuracies which are de minimis in amount or effect. There shall not exist inaccuracies in the representations and warranties of Parent set forth in this Agreement (including the representations and warranties set forth in Sections 4.1, 4.2, 4.3(a), 4.8 and 4.9) such that the aggregate effect of such inaccuracies has, or is reasonably likely to have, a Material Adverse Change or Material Adverse Effect with respect to Parent; provided that, for purposes of this sentence only, those representations and warranties which are qualified as to “materiality,” “Material Adverse Change” or “Material Adverse Effect” or as to “First Financial’s Knowledge” shall be deemed not to include such qualifications.

(b) Compliance with Covenants and Obligations. Parent shall have performed and complied in all material respects with all of its covenants and obligations required by this Agreement to be performed or complied with prior to or at the Closing Date.

(c) Listing. The shares of Parent Common Stock to be issued to the Insight stockholders as part of the Merger Consideration in the Merger shall have been approved for listing on the Nasdaq.

(d) Parent Closing Deliverables. Parent shall have delivered to Insight, each of the certificates, instruments, agreements, documents, assets and other items required to be delivered by it pursuant to Section 2.16 at or prior to the

(e) Tax Opinion. Insight shall have received an opinion of Vorys, Sater, Seymour and Pease LLP and a copy of the opinion of Squire Sanders (US) LLP, if any, rendered to Parent, each dated as of the Closing Date and based on facts, representations and assumptions described in such opinion, to the effect that the Merger will be treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. In rendering such opinions, Vorys, Sater, Seymour and Pease LLP and Squire Sanders (US) LLP will be entitled to receive and rely upon customary certificates and representations of the Chief Financial Officer of each of Insight and Parent as referenced in Section 5.16(b).

(f) No Enforcement Actions. There shall have been no new enforcement actions initiated by any Regulatory Agency which, individually or in the aggregate, would reasonably be expected to materially affect First Financial's ability to conduct its business as currently being conducted.

ARTICLE VII

Termination

7.1 Termination. This Agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the Closing Date:

(a) by the mutual written consent of Insight and First Financial;

(b) by either Insight, on the one hand, or Parent or First Financial, on the other hand, if the Closing Date shall not have occurred on or before September 30, 2014; provided, that the right to terminate this Agreement under this Section 7.1(b) shall not be available to any party whose failure to fulfill any obligation under this Agreement shall have been the cause of, or shall have resulted in, the failure of the Closing Date to occur on or prior to such date;

(c) by either Insight, on the one hand, or Parent or First Financial, on the other hand, in the event of (i) a material breach by the other party of any representation or warranty contained this Agreement, which breach cannot be or has not been cured within thirty (30) days after the giving of written notice to the breaching party of such breach, and which breach or breaches would result in a failure to satisfy any condition to Parent and First Financial's or Insight's obligations set forth in Section 6.2 or Section 6.3, respectively, or (ii) a material breach by the other party of any of its obligations contained in this Agreement, which breach cannot be or has not been cured within thirty (30) days after the giving of written notice to the breaching party of such breach, and which breach or breaches would result in a failure to satisfy any condition to Parent and First Financial's or Insight's obligations set forth in Section 6.2 or Section 6.3, respectively;

(d) by either Insight, on the one hand, or Parent or First Financial, on the other hand, if (i) final action has been taken by a Regulatory Agency whose approval is required in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby, which final action (x) has become final and nonappealable and (y) does not approve this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby, or (ii) any Governmental Authority shall have enacted, issued, promulgated, enforced or entered any law, or final nonappealable judgment which has the effect of making illegal the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement;

(e) by Insight if there shall have occurred and be continuing a material disproportionate decrease in the Parent Share Average Closing Price; provided, however, that Insight shall not be entitled to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 7.1(e) if Parent elects, by written notice to Insight, to adjust the Parent Share Value (a “Decline Adjustment”) such that the Parent Share Value shall be deemed to equal the Parent Share Average Closing Price. A material disproportionate decrease in the Parent Share Average Closing Price shall be deemed to have occurred if (i) the Parent Share Average Closing Price is less than 75% of the Parent Share Signing Date Price, (ii) such decline is not proportionate relative to the KBW Regional Banking Index, (iii) Insight delivers written notice to First Financial of its intention to terminate this Agreement within forty-eight (48) hours following delivery of such notice, and (iv) First Financial does not elect to pursue a Decline Adjustment; provided, however, that if Parent effects a stock dividend, reclassification, recapitalization, stock split, combination, exchange of shares or similar transaction after the date hereof and prior to the date on which the Parent Share Average Closing Price is determined, the provisions of this Section 7.1(e) shall be appropriately adjusted so that such event does not in and of itself trigger a termination right on behalf of Insight. For purposes of this Section 7.1(e), a decline in the Parent Share Average Closing Price that is “not proportionate relative to the KBW Regional Banking Index” shall have occurred only if the quotient obtained by dividing the Parent Share Average Closing Price by the Parent Share Signing Date Price, is less than the quotient obtained by dividing the Final Index by the Initial Index and subtracting 0.25 from the quotient, where “Initial Index” shall mean $76.58, which is the average of the closing prices of the KBW Regional Banking Index as quoted on Bloomberg (KRX:IND) for the twenty (20) trading-day period for which the Parent Share Signing Date Price was determined, and “Final Index” shall mean the average of the closing prices of the KBW Regional Banking Index for the twenty (20) trading-day period for which the Parent Share Average Closing Price is determined;

(f) by First Financial if (i) the Board of Directors of Insight (or any committee thereof) shall have failed to make the Insight Recommendation or shall have made an Adverse Recommendation Change, or (ii) Insight shall have materially breached any of the provisions set forth in Sections 2.14 and 5.9;

(g) by First Financial or Insight, if Insight has received a Superior Proposal, and in accordance with Sections 2.14 and 5.9 of this Agreement, the Board of Directors of Insight has delivered to First Financial a Notice of Recommendation Change and made an Adverse Recommendation Change; or

(h) by Parent or First Financial, on the one hand, or Insight, on the other hand, if the Insight Shareholders fail to adopt this Agreement for any reason whatsoever.

7.2 Effect of Termination.

(a) In the event of termination of this Agreement by a party pursuant to Section 7.1, written notice thereof shall promptly be given to the other party(ies) hereto, and upon such notice this Agreement shall terminate. Except as provided under this Section 7.2 or otherwise expressly in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, upon termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 7.1, this Agreement shall forthwith become void and of no further force and effect, there shall be no liability on the part of any party hereto to the other party(ies), and all rights and obligations of any party hereto shall cease and the parties shall be released from any and all obligations hereunder; provided, that (i) the provisions of Section 5.4(c) shall survive any such termination; and (ii) nothing herein shall relieve any party from liability for damages resulting from fraud or the breach of any of its representations, covenants or agreements set forth in this Agreement.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, (i) if this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Sections 7.1(f) or (g), then Insight shall, on the date of termination, pay to First Financial the sum equal to 5% of the Expanded Total Consideration (the "Termination Fee"), and (ii) if this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Section 7.1(h), then Insight shall, on the date of termination, pay to First Financial an amount equal to First Financial's out of pocket expenses incurred in connection with the proposed Merger up to and including the termination. The Termination Fee and expenses as provided in this Section 7.2(b) shall be paid to First Financial in same day funds. Insight hereby waives any right to set-off or counterclaim against such amount.

8.2 Entire Agreement. This Agreement (including the Disclosure Schedules hereto) and the other documents and agreements delivered at the Closing Date pursuant to the provisions hereof constitute the full and entire understanding and agreement of the parties hereto in respect of its subject matter, and supersedes all prior agreements, understandings (oral and written) and negotiations between or among the parties with regard to such subject matter. The Disclosure Schedules and the Confidentiality Agreement constitute a part hereof as though set forth in full herein.

8.3 Amendments. This Agreement (including the Disclosure Schedules attached hereto) may not be modified, amended, supplemented, canceled or discharged, except by a written instrument executed by all parties hereto.

8.4 Waivers. No failure to exercise, and no delay in exercising, any right, power or privilege under this Agreement shall operate as a waiver, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, power or privilege hereunder preclude the exercise of any other right, power or privilege. No waiver of any breach of any provision shall be deemed to be a waiver of any preceding or succeeding breach of the same or any other provision, nor shall any waiver be implied from any course of dealing between the parties. No extension of time for performance of any obligations or other acts hereunder or under any other agreement shall be deemed to be an extension of the time for performance of any other obligations or any other acts. Any waiver, permit, consent or approval of any kind or character by any party of any breach or default under this Agreement, must be in writing and shall be effective only to the extent specifically set forth in such writing.

8.5 Binding Effect: Assignment. The rights and obligations of this Agreement shall be binding on and enforceable by the parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns. Except as expressly provided herein, the rights and obligations of this Agreement may not be assigned by Insight, Parent or First Financial without the express prior written consent of the other party. Nothing in this Agreement, expressed or implied, is intended or shall be construed to confer upon any Person other than the parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns any rights, remedies, obligations or liabilities under or by reason of this Agreement, except as expressly provided in this Agreement.

8.6 Governing Law. This Agreement shall be construed and enforced in accordance with, and the rights of the parties shall be governed by, the laws of the State of Ohio, without regard to principles of conflicts of laws.

8.7 Consent to Jurisdiction.

(a) Each party hereto agrees that it shall bring any action or proceeding in respect of any claim arising out of or related to this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby, whether in tort or contract or at law or in equity, exclusively, in the United States District Court and any Ohio state court sitting in Cincinnati, Ohio, and (1) irrevocably submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of such courts, (2) waives any objection to laying venue in any such action or proceeding in such courts, and (3) waives any objection that such courts are an inconvenient forum or do not have jurisdiction over any party. Each of the parties hereto agrees that a final judgment in any action shall be conclusive and may be enforced in other jurisdictions by suit on the judgment or in any other manner provided by Applicable Law.

(b) Each party hereby (i) consents to service of process in any action between the parties arising in whole or in part under or in connection with this Agreement in any manner permitted by Ohio Law, (ii) agrees that service of process made in accordance with clause (i) or made by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, at its address specified pursuant to Section 8.1, will constitute good and valid service of process in any such action and (iii) waives and agrees not to assert (by way of motion, as a defense, or otherwise) in any such action any claim that service of process made in accordance with clause (i) or (ii) does not constitute good and valid service of process.

8.8 Waiver of Jury Trial. EACH PARTY ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT ANY CONTROVERSY THAT MAY ARISE UNDER THIS AGREEMENT IS LIKELY TO INVOLVE COMPLICATED AND DIFFICULT ISSUES, AND THEREFORE EACH SUCH PARTY HEREBY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVES ANY RIGHT SUCH PARTY MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN RESPECT OF ANY LITIGATION DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED BY THIS AGREEMENT. EACH PARTY CERTIFIES AND ACKNOWLEDGES THAT (A) NO REPRESENTATIVE, AGENT OR ATTORNEY OF ANY OTHER PARTY HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT SUCH OTHER PARTY WOULD NOT, IN THE EVENT OF LITIGATION, SEEK TO ENFORCE THE FOREGOING WAIVER, (B) EACH SUCH PARTY UNDERSTANDS AND HAS CONSIDERED THE IMPLICATIONS OF THIS WAIVER, (C) EACH SUCH PARTY MAKES THIS WAIVER VOLUNTARILY, AND (D) EACH SUCH PARTY HAS BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT BY, AMONG OTHER THINGS, THE WAIVERS AND CERTIFICATIONS IN THIS SECTION 8.8.

8.9 Severability. In the event that any one or more of the provisions contained herein, or the application thereof in any circumstances, is held invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect for any reason, the parties shall negotiate in good faith with a view to the substitution therefor of a suitable and equitable solution in order to carry out, so far as may be valid and enforceable, the intent and purpose of such invalid provision, provided, that the validity, legality and enforceability of any such provision in every other respect and of the remaining provisions contained herein shall not be in any way impaired thereby, it being intended that all of the rights and privileges of the parties hereto shall be enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by Applicable Law.

8.10 Cumulative Remedies: Specific Performance. All rights and remedies under this Agreement or otherwise afforded by Applicable Law to any party, shall be cumulative and not alternative. Without limiting the rights of a party hereto to pursue all other legal and equitable rights available to such party for another party's failure to perform its obligations under this Agreement, the parties hereto acknowledge and agree that the remedy at law for any failure to perform their respective obligations hereunder would be inadequate and that each party shall be entitled to specific performance, injunctive relief or other equitable remedies in the event of any such failure.

8.11 Expenses. Each party to this Agreement shall bear its own expenses incurred in connection with the preparation, execution and performance of this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby, whether or not such transactions are consummated, including all fees and expenses of agents, representatives, counsel and accountants.

8.12 Prevailing Party. In the event that any litigation between the parties hereto should arise as the result of any breach or alleged breach of this Agreement, the prevailing party in said litigation shall be entitled to recover its reasonable attorneys' fees and costs, including attorneys' fees and costs incurred in litigating entitlement to attorneys' fees and costs and in determining or quantifying the amount of recoverable attorneys' fees and costs (through both trial and appellate levels) from the nonprevailing party.

8.13 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts, each of which shall be an original, but all of which together shall constitute one instrument.

8.14 Nonsurvival. None of the representations, warranties, covenants and agreements set forth in this Agreement other than this Section 8.14 shall survive the Effective Time, except for those covenants and agreements contained in this Agreement that by their terms apply or are to be performed in whole or in part after the Effective Time.

12 U.S.C. Section 215a(b)-(d) and Sections 1115.19 and 1701.85 of the Ohio Revised Code

12 U.S.C. § 215a. Mergers of national banks or State banks into national banks

(b) Dissenting shareholders. If a merger shall be voted for at the called meetings by the necessary majorities of the shareholders of each association or State bank participating in the plan of merger, and thereafter the merger shall be approved by the Comptroller, any shareholder of any association or State bank to be merged into the receiving association who has voted against such merger at the meeting of the association or bank of which he is a stockholder, or has given notice in writing at or prior to such meeting to the presiding officer that he dissents from the plan of merger, shall be entitled to receive the value of the shares so held by him when such merger shall be approved by the Comptroller upon written request made to the receiving association at any time before thirty days after the date of consummation of the merger, accompanied by the surrender of his stock certificates.

(c) Valuation of shares. The value of the shares of any dissenting shareholder shall be ascertained, as of the effective date of the merger, by an appraisal made by a committee of three persons, composed of (1) one selected by the vote of the holders of the majority of the stock, the owners of which are entitled to payment in cash; (2) one selected by the directors of the receiving association; and (3) one selected by the two so selected. The valuation agreed upon by any two of the three appraisers shall govern. If the value so fixed shall not be satisfactory to any dissenting shareholder who has requested payment, that shareholder may, within five days after being notified of the appraised value of his shares, appeal to the Comptroller, who shall cause a reappraisal to be made which shall be final and binding as to the value of the shares of the appellant.

(d) Application to shareholders of merging associations: Appraisal by Comptroller; expenses of receiving association; sale and resale of shares; State appraisal and merger law. If, within ninety days from the date of consummation of the merger, for any reason one or more of the appraisers is not selected as herein provided, or the appraisers fail to determine the value of such shares, the Comptroller shall upon written request of any interested party cause an appraisal to be made which shall be final and binding on all parties. The expenses of the Comptroller in making the reappraisal or the appraisal, as the case may be, shall be paid by the receiving association. The value of the shares ascertained shall be promptly paid to the dissenting shareholders by the receiving association. The shares of stock of the receiving association which would have been delivered to such dissenting shareholders had they not requested payment shall be sold by the receiving association at an advertised public auction, and the receiving association shall have the right to purchase any of such shares at such public auction, if it is the highest bidder therefor, for the purpose of reselling such shares within thirty days thereafter to such person or persons and at such price not less than par as its board of directors by resolution may determine. If the shares are sold at public auction at a price greater than the amount paid to the dissenting shareholders, the excess in such sale price shall be paid to such dissenting shareholders. The appraisal of such shares of stock in any State bank shall be determined in the manner prescribed by the law of the State in such cases, rather than as provided in this section, if such provision is made in the State law; and no such merger shall be in contravention of the law of the State under which such bank is incorporated. The provisions of this subsection shall apply only to shareholders of (and stock owned by them in) a bank or association being merged into the receiving association.

ORC § 1115.19. Payment of fair cash value of shares to dissenting shareholders

Unless the articles of incorporation of the state bank otherwise provide, any shareholder of a state bank that has been consolidated or merged with, or whose assets have been transferred to, another state bank or a national bank, savings bank, or savings association pursuant to any provision of this chapter other than section 1115.15 of the Revised Code, who did not vote in favor of the consolidation, merger, or transfer, shall be paid the fair cash value, as of the day before the vote was taken authorizing the action, of the shares held, excluding from the fair cash value any appreciation or depreciation in consequence of the consolidation, merger, or transfer which entitled the shareholder to this relief. Section 1701.85 of the Revised Code shall govern with respect to the shareholder's rights and any limitations on those rights. Any shareholder who does not object and demand in writing the payment of the fair cash value of the shares in the manner and at the time provided in section 1701.85 of the Revised Code, shall be bound by the vote of the board of directors or the assenting shareholders of the state bank.

ORC § 1701.85. Dissenting shareholder's demand for fair cash value of shares

(A) (1) A shareholder of a domestic corporation is entitled to relief as a dissenting shareholder in respect of the proposals described in sections 1701.74, 1701.76, and 1701.84 of the Revised Code, only in compliance with this section.

(2) If the proposal must be submitted to the shareholders of the corporation involved, the dissenting shareholder shall be a record holder of the shares of the corporation as to which the dissenting shareholder seeks relief as of the date fixed for the determination of shareholders entitled to notice of a meeting of the shareholders at which the proposal is to be submitted, and such shares shall not have been voted in favor of the proposal.

(3) Not later than twenty days before the date of the meeting at which the proposal will be submitted to the shareholders, the corporation may notify the corporation's shareholders that relief under this section is available. The notice shall include or be accompanied by all of the following:

(a) A copy of this section;

(b) A statement that the proposal can give rise to rights under this section if the proposal is approved by the required vote of the shareholders;

(c) A statement that the shareholder will be eligible as a dissenting shareholder under this section only if the shareholder delivers to the corporation a written demand with the information provided for in division (A)(4) of this section before the vote on the proposal will be taken at the meeting of the shareholders and the shareholder does not vote in favor of the proposal.

(4) If the corporation delivers notice to its shareholders as provided in division (A)(3) of this section, a shareholder electing to be eligible as a dissenting shareholder under this section shall deliver to the corporation before the vote on the proposal is taken a written demand for payment of the fair cash value of the shares as to which the shareholder seeks relief. The demand for payment shall include the shareholder's address, the number and class of such shares, and the amount claimed by the shareholder as the fair cash value of the shares.

(5) If the corporation does not notify the corporation's shareholders pursuant to division (A)(3) of this section, not later than ten days after the date on which the vote on the proposal was taken at the meeting of the shareholders, the dissenting shareholder shall deliver to the corporation a written demand for payment to the dissenting shareholder of the fair cash value of the shares as to which the dissenting shareholder seeks relief, which demand shall state the dissenting shareholder's address, the number and class of such shares, and the amount claimed by the dissenting shareholder as the fair cash value of the shares.

(6) If a signatory, designated and approved by the dissenting shareholder, executes the demand, then at any time after receiving the demand, the corporation may make a written request that the dissenting shareholder provide evidence of the signatory's authority. The shareholder shall provide the evidence within a reasonable time but not sooner than twenty days after the dissenting shareholder has received the corporation's written request for evidence.

(7) The dissenting shareholder entitled to relief under division (A)(3) of section 1701.84 of the Revised Code in the case of a merger pursuant to section 1701.80 of the Revised Code and a dissenting shareholder entitled to relief under division (A)(5) of section 1701.84 of the Revised Code in the case of a merger pursuant to section 1701.801 of the Revised Code shall be a record holder of the shares of the corporation as to which the dissenting shareholder seeks relief as of the date on which the agreement of merger was adopted by the directors of that corporation. Within twenty days after the dissenting shareholder has been sent the notice provided in section 1701.80 or 1701.801 of the Revised Code, the dissenting shareholder shall deliver to the corporation a written demand for payment with the same information as that provided for in division (A)(4) of this section.

(8) In the case of a merger or consolidation, a demand served on the constituent corporation involved constitutes service on the surviving or the new entity, whether the demand is served before, on, or after the effective date of the merger or consolidation. In the case of a conversion, a demand served on the converting corporation constitutes service on the converted entity, whether the demand is served before, on, or after the effective date of the conversion.

(9) If the corporation sends to the dissenting shareholder, at the address specified in the dissenting shareholder's demand, a request for the certificates representing the shares as to which the dissenting shareholder seeks relief, the dissenting shareholder, within fifteen days from the date of the sending of such request, shall deliver to the corporation the certificates requested so that the corporation may endorse on them a legend to the effect that demand for the fair cash value of such shares has been made. The corporation promptly shall return the endorsed certificates to the dissenting shareholder. A dissenting shareholder's failure to deliver the certificates terminates the dissenting shareholder's rights as a dissenting shareholder, at the option of the corporation, exercised by written notice sent to the dissenting shareholder within twenty days after the lapse of the fifteen-day period, unless a court for good cause shown otherwise directs. If shares represented by a certificate on which such a legend has been endorsed are transferred, each new certificate issued for them shall bear a similar legend, together with the name of the original dissenting holder of the shares. Upon receiving a demand for payment from a dissenting shareholder who is the record holder of uncertificated securities, the corporation shall make an appropriate notation of the demand for payment in its shareholder records. If uncertificated shares for which payment has been demanded are to be transferred, any new certificate issued for the shares shall bear the legend required for certificated securities as provided in this paragraph. A transferee of the shares so endorsed, or of uncertificated securities where such notation has been made, acquires only the rights in the corporation as the original dissenting holder of such shares had immediately after the service of a demand for payment of the fair cash value of the shares. A request under this paragraph by the corporation is not an admission by the corporation that the shareholder is entitled to relief under this section.

(B) Unless the corporation and the dissenting shareholder have come to an agreement on the fair cash value per share of the shares as to which the dissenting shareholder seeks relief, the dissenting shareholder or the corporation, which in case of a merger or consolidation may be the surviving or new entity, or in the case of a conversion may be the converted entity, within three months after the service of the demand by the dissenting shareholder, may file a complaint in the court of common pleas of the county in which the principal office of the corporation that issued the shares is located or was located when the proposal was adopted by the shareholders of the corporation, or, if the proposal was not required to be submitted to the shareholders, was approved by the directors. Other dissenting shareholders, within that three-month period, may join as plaintiffs or may be joined as defendants in any such proceeding, and any two or more such proceedings may be consolidated. The complaint shall contain a brief statement of the facts, including the vote and the facts entitling the dissenting shareholder to the relief demanded. No answer to a complaint is required. Upon the filing of a complaint, the court, on motion of the petitioner, shall enter an order fixing a date for a hearing on the complaint and requiring that a copy of the complaint and a notice of the filing and of the date for hearing be given to the respondent or defendant in the manner in which summons is required to be served or substituted service is required to be made in other cases. On the day fixed for the hearing on the complaint or any adjournment of it, the court shall determine from the complaint and from evidence submitted by either party whether the dissenting shareholder is entitled to be paid the fair cash value of any shares and, if so, the number and class of such shares. If the court finds that the dissenting shareholder is so entitled, the court may appoint one or more persons as appraisers to receive evidence and to recommend a decision on the amount of the fair cash value. The appraisers have power and authority specified in the order of their appointment. The court thereupon shall make a finding as to the fair cash value of a share and shall render judgment against the corporation for the payment of it, with interest at a rate and from a date as the court considers equitable. The costs of the proceeding, including reasonable compensation to the appraisers to be fixed by the court, shall be assessed or apportioned as the court considers equitable. The proceeding is a special proceeding and final orders in it may be vacated, modified, or reversed on appeal pursuant to the Rules of Appellate Procedure and, to the extent not in conflict with those rules, Chapter 2505. of the Revised Code. If, during the pendency of any proceeding instituted under this section, a suit or proceeding is or has been instituted to enjoin or otherwise to prevent the carrying out of the action as to which the shareholder has dissented, the proceeding instituted under this section shall be stayed until the final determination of the other suit or proceeding. Unless any provision in division (D) of this section is applicable, the fair cash value of the shares that is agreed upon by the parties or fixed under this section shall be paid within thirty days after the date of final determination of such value under this division, the effective date of the amendment to the articles, or the consummation of the other action involved, whichever occurs last. Upon the occurrence of the last such event, payment shall be made immediately to a holder of uncertificated securities entitled to payment. In the case of holders of shares represented by certificates, payment shall be made only upon and simultaneously with the surrender to the corporation of the certificates representing the shares for which the payment is made.

(C) (1) If the proposal was required to be submitted to the shareholders of the corporation, fair cash value as to those shareholders shall be determined as of the day prior to the day on which the vote by the shareholders was taken and, in the case of a merger pursuant to section 1701.80 or 1701.801 of the Revised Code, fair cash value as to shareholders of a constituent subsidiary corporation shall be determined as of the day before the adoption of the agreement of merger by the directors of the particular subsidiary corporation. The fair cash value of a share for the purposes of this section is the amount that a willing seller who is under no compulsion to sell would be willing to accept and that a willing buyer who is under no compulsion to purchase would be willing to pay, but in no event shall the fair cash value of a share exceed the amount specified in the demand of the particular shareholder. In computing fair cash value, both of the following shall be excluded:

(a) Any appreciation or depreciation in market value resulting from the proposal submitted to the directors or to the shareholders;

(b) Any premium associated with control of the corporation, or any discount for lack of marketability or minority status.

(2) For the purposes of this section, the fair cash value of a share that was listed on a national securities exchange at any of the following times shall be the closing sale price on the national securities exchange as of the applicable date provided in division (C)(1) of this section:

(a) Immediately before the effective time of a merger or consolidation;

(b) Immediately before the filing of an amendment to the articles of incorporation as described in division (A) of section 1701.74 of the Revised Code;

(c) Immediately before the time of the vote described in division (A)(1)(b) of section 1701.76 of the Revised Code.

(D) (1) The right and obligation of a dissenting shareholder to receive fair cash value and to sell such shares as to which the dissenting shareholder seeks relief, and the right and obligation of the corporation to purchase such shares and to pay the fair cash value of them terminates if any of the following applies:

(a) The dissenting shareholder has not complied with this section, unless the corporation by its directors waives such failure;

(b) The corporation abandons the action involved or is finally enjoined or prevented from carrying it out, or the shareholders rescind their adoption of the action involved;

(c) The dissenting shareholder withdraws the dissenting shareholder's demand, with the consent of the corporation by its directors;

(d) The corporation and the dissenting shareholder have not come to an agreement as to the fair cash value per share, and neither the shareholder nor the corporation has filed or joined in a complaint under division (B) of this section within the period provided in that division.

(2) For purposes of division (D)(1) of this section, if the merger, consolidation, or conversion has become effective and the surviving, new, or converted entity is not a corporation, action required to be taken by the directors of the corporation shall be taken by the partners of a surviving, new, or converted partnership or the comparable representatives of any other surviving, new, or converted entity.

(E) From the time of the dissenting shareholder's giving of the demand until either the termination of the rights and obligations arising from it or the purchase of the shares by the corporation, all other rights accruing from such shares, including voting and dividend or distribution rights, are suspended. If during the suspension, any dividend or distribution is paid in money upon shares of such class or any dividend, distribution, or interest is paid in money upon any securities issued in extinguishment of or in substitution for such shares, an amount equal to the dividend, distribution, or interest which, except for the suspension, would have been payable upon such shares or securities, shall be paid to the holder of record as a credit upon the fair cash value of the shares. If the right to receive fair cash value is terminated other than by the purchase of the shares by the corporation, all rights of the holder shall be restored and all distributions which, except for the suspension, would have been made shall be made to the holder of record of the shares at the time of termination.

KBW has acted as financial advisor to Insight and not as an advisor to or agent of any other person. As part of our investment banking business, we are continually engaged in the valuation of bank and bank holding company securities in connection with acquisitions, negotiated underwritings, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements and valuations for various other purposes. As specialists in the securities of banking companies, we have experience in, and knowledge of, the valuation of banking enterprises. In the ordinary course of our business as a broker-dealer, we may, from time to time purchase securities from, and sell securities to, Insight, the Bank and the Parent, and as a market maker in securities, we may from time to time have a long or short position in, and buy or sell, debt or equity securities of Insight, the Bank and the Parent for our own account and for the accounts of our customers. To the extent we have any such position as of the date of this opinion it has been disclosed to Insight. We have acted exclusively for the Board of Directors of Insight (the “Board”) in rendering this opinion and will receive a fee from Insight for our services. A portion of our fee is payable upon the rendering of this opinion and a significant portion is contingent upon the successful completion of the Transaction. In addition, Insight has agreed to indemnify us for certain liabilities arising out of our engagement.

In the past two years, KBW has not provided investment banking and financial advisory services to Insight. In the past two years, KBW has not provided investment banking and financial advisory services to the Bank or Parent. We may in the future provide investment banking and financial advisory services to Insight, the Bank and Parent and receive compensation for such services.

In connection with this opinion, we have reviewed, analyzed and relied upon material bearing upon the financial and operating condition of Insight and Parent and the Transaction, including among other things, the following: (i) a draft of the Agreement dated December 17, 2013 (the most recent draft that was made available to us in connection with this opinion); (ii) the quarterly call reports for the last three years ended September 30, 2013 for both Insight and Parent; (iii) the audited financial statements and Annual Reports for the three years ended December 31, 2012 of Insight and Parent; (iv) the quarterly reports on Form 10-Q for the quarters ended March 31, 2013, June 30, 2013 and September 30, 2013 of Parent; (v) certain other interim reports to stockholders and other communications from Insight and Parent to their respective stockholders; and (vi) other financial information concerning the businesses and operations of Insight, the Bank, and Parent furnished to us by Insight and Parent for purposes of our analysis. Our consideration of financial information and other factors that we deemed appropriate under the circumstances or relevant to our analyses included, among others, the following: (i) the historical and current financial position and results of operations of Insight and Parent; (ii) the assets and liabilities of Insight and Parent; (iii) the nature and terms of certain other merger transactions and business combinations in the banking industry; (iv) a comparison of certain financial information for Insight and certain financial and stock market information for Parent with similar information for certain other companies the securities of which are publicly traded; (v) financial and operating forecasts and projections of Insight which were prepared by and provided to us by Insight management and (vi) publicly available consensus “street estimates” of Parent and estimates regarding certain pro forma financial effects of the Transaction on the Bank and Parent that were prepared by and provided to us by management of Parent and that, in each case, were discussed with us by management of Parent and used and relied upon by us with the consent of the Board. We have also performed such other studies and analyses as we considered appropriate and have taken into account our assessment of general economic, market and financial conditions and our experience in other transactions, as well as our experience in securities valuation and knowledge of the banking industry generally. We have also held discussions with senior management of Insight and Parent regarding the past and current business operations, regulatory relations, financial condition and future prospects of their respective companies and such other matters as we have deemed relevant to our inquiry.

The Board of Directors – Insight Bank

In conducting our review and arriving at our opinion, we have relied upon and assumed the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information provided to us or publicly available and we have not independently verified the accuracy or completeness of any such information or assumed any responsibility or liability for such verification, accuracy or completeness. We have relied upon management of Insight as to the reasonableness and achievability of the financial and operating forecasts and projections of Insight (and the assumptions and bases therefor) that were prepared by and provided to us by such management team and we have assumed, at the direction of Insight, that such forecasts and projections were reasonably prepared on a basis reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of such management and that such forecasts and projections will be realized in the amounts and in the time periods currently estimated by such management. We have further relied upon management of Parent as to the reasonableness and achievability of the estimates regarding certain pro forma financial effects of the Transaction on the Bank and Parent prepared by and provided to us by management of Parent (and the assumptions and bases therefor), and we have assumed that such estimates were reasonably prepared on a basis reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of such management and that such estimates will be realized in the amounts and in the time periods currently estimated by such management.

It is understood that such forecasts, projections and estimates prepared by and provided to us by the respective managements of Insight and Parent, as the case may be, were not prepared by such managements with the expectation of public disclosure, that all such information is based on numerous variables and assumptions that are inherently uncertain, including, without limitation, factors related to general economic and competitive conditions and that, accordingly, actual results could vary significantly from those set forth in such forecasts, projections and estimates. We have assumed, based on discussions with the respective managements of Insight and Parent, that such forecasts, projections and estimates as well as publicly available consensus “street estimates” of Parent referred to above, provide a reasonable basis upon which we could form our opinion and we express no view as to any such information or the assumptions or bases therefor. As you are aware, the forecasts, projections and estimates of Parent referred to above do not reflect the Bank’s proposed acquisition of First Bexley Bank that was publicly announced by Parent on December 18, 2013 (such transaction, the “First Bexley Acquisition”), and based on discussions with management of Parent and with the consent of the Board, we have further assumed that such acquisition, if consummated, would not have an impact on such forecasts, projections and estimates of Parent in any respect that would be material to our analyses or this opinion. We have relied on the foregoing information without independent verification or analysis and do not in any respect assume any responsibility or liability for the accuracy or completeness thereof.

We also assumed that there were no material changes in the assets, liabilities, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects of either Insight or Parent since the date of the last financial statements of each such entity that were made available to us. We are not experts in the independent verification of the adequacy of allowances for loan and lease losses and we have assumed, without independent verification and with your consent that the aggregate allowances for loan and lease losses for Insight and Parent are adequate to cover such losses. In rendering our opinion, we have not made or obtained any evaluations or appraisals or physical inspection of the property, assets or liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of Insight or Parent, the collateral securing any of such assets or liabilities, or the collectability of any such assets, nor have we examined any individual loan or credit files, nor did we evaluate the solvency, financial capability or fair value of Insight or Parent under any state or federal laws, including those relating to bankruptcy, insolvency or other matters. Estimates of values of companies and assets do not purport to be appraisals or necessarily reflect the prices at which companies or assets may actually be sold. Because such estimates are inherently subject to uncertainty, we assume no responsibility or liability for their accuracy.

We have assumed, with the consent of the Board, that (i) the actual value of the Stock Consideration will not differ from the value ascribed to the Stock Consideration herein and (ii) the actual amount of the Cash Consideration will not differ from the assumed amount of the Cash Consideration set forth herein, in each case in any respect that would be material to our analyses. We have also assumed, in all respects material to our analyses, the following: (i) that the Transaction and the related transactions described in or contemplated by the Agreement (including, without limitation, the Insight Preferred Stock Redemption) will be completed substantially in accordance with the terms set forth in the Agreement (the final terms of which will not differ in any respect material to our analyses from the draft reviewed) with no additional payments or adjustments to the Merger Consideration; (ii) that the representations and warranties of each party in the Agreement and in all related documents and instruments referred to in the Agreement are true and correct; (iii) that each party to the Agreement and all related documents will perform all of the covenants and agreements required to be performed by such party under such documents; (iv) that there are no factors that would delay or subject to any adverse conditions, any necessary regulatory or governmental approval for the Transaction and that all conditions to the completion of the Transaction will be satisfied without any waivers or modifications to the Agreement; and (v) that in the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory, contractual, or other consents or approvals for the Transaction, no restrictions, including any divestiture requirements, termination or other payments or amendments or modifications, will be imposed that will have a material adverse effect on the future results of operations or financial condition of the combined entity or the contemplated benefits of the Transaction, including the cost savings, revenue enhancements and related expenses expected to result from the Transaction. We have assumed that the Transaction will be consummated in a manner that complies with the applicable provisions of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and all other applicable federal and state statutes, rules and regulations. We have further assumed that Insight has relied upon the advice of its counsel, independent accountants and other advisors (other than KBW) as to all legal, financial reporting, tax, accounting and regulatory matters with respect to Insight, the Bank, Parent, the Transaction, any related transaction or any other transaction (including without limitation the Insight Preferred Stock Redemption) and the Agreement. KBW has not provided advice with respect to any such matters.

We express no view or opinion as to any terms or other aspects of the Transaction or any related transaction, including without limitation, the form or structure of the Transaction, any consequences of the Transaction to Insight, its stockholders, creditors or otherwise, or any terms, aspects or implications of any other transactions or any voting, support, stockholder or other agreements, arrangements or understandings contemplated or entered into in connection with the Transaction or otherwise. We further express no view or opinion as to the First Bexley Acquisition or any terms, aspects or implications thereof, including without limitation any direct or indirect consequence or impact of either the consummation of such acquisition (further to its publicly announced terms (including anticipated timing) or otherwise) or, alternatively, the failure to consummate such acquisition, on Insight, the holders of Insight Common Stock, the Transaction (including any term or aspect thereof) or any related transaction, or the prices, trading range or volume of Parent Common Stock. Our opinion is necessarily based upon conditions as they exist and can be evaluated on the date hereof and the information made available to us through the date hereof. It is understood that subsequent developments may affect the conclusion reached in this opinion and that KBW does not have an obligation to update, revise or reaffirm this opinion. This opinion is for the information of, and is directed to, the Board (in its capacity as such) in connection with its consideration of the financial terms of the Transaction. This opinion is not to be used for any other purpose and is not to be relied upon by any other person or entity, including without limitation any holder of Insight Common Stock. This opinion does not constitute a recommendation to the Board as to how it should vote on the Transaction or to any holder of Insight Common Stock as to how any such shareholder should vote at any shareholders' meeting at which the Transaction is considered, or whether or not any such shareholder should enter into a voting, shareholders', or affiliates' agreement with respect to the Transaction or exercise any dissenters' or appraisal rights that may be available to such shareholder.

This opinion has been reviewed and approved by our Fairness Opinion Committee in conformity with our policies and procedures established under the requirements of Rule 5150 of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority. This opinion may not be published, referred to, reproduced, disseminated or quoted from, in whole or in part, nor shall any public reference to KBW be made, without our prior written consent.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, it is our opinion that, as of the date hereof, the Merger Consideration in the Transaction is fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Insight Common Stock.

Very truly yours,
