- 13.2. The transfer of ownership of a registered share for which no share certificate is outstanding shall be effected only either by service upon the Company of an instrument of transfer of ownership of the share or by submission to it of an instrument of transfer of ownership of the share. In both cases, the transfer of ownership shall, after deletion of the existing booking in the share register, be effected by recording an initial booking or an addition as referred to in Article 11 hereof in the share register or by issuing one or more share certificates registered in the name of the person(s) entitled to the nominal amount registered in the name of the person(s) entitled to the share(s).
- 13.3. For written acknowledgement by the Company of the transfer of ownership of a registered share, made with the consent of the Board of Directors, it is required:
- if a type I share certificate is outstanding for the share or if a booking for the share is outstanding in the register: that an instrument of transfer of ownership, by means of a form to be supplied by the Company, duly completed and signed by or on behalf of the transferor, has been lodged with the Company;
 - if a type II share certificate is outstanding for the share: that the instrument of transfer of ownership, the share certificate or a separate instrument couched in identical terms, duly completed and signed by or on behalf of the transferor, has been lodged with the Company.

Additional transfer requirements.

Article 14.

- 14.1. The provisions of Article 13 hereof shall apply correspondingly to:
- the allocation of a registered share upon the division of any community of property;
 - the creation and transfer of a right of usufruct or the creation of a right of usufruct, provided that the written acknowledgement thereof in the case of a share for which a share certificate is outstanding can be effected only by making a record thereon to such effect.
- 14.2. The transfer of a registered share as a result of a foreclosure shall take place in accordance with the statutory regulations in force, provided that if a share certificate for the share is outstanding, the transfer of ownership of the share certificate with the Company shall also be required for the transfer of ownership of the share.

Section V

Special provisions relating to the ordinary shares numbered 1 to 2,400 inclusive.

Article 15.

- 15.1. Ordinary shares belonging to the series numbered 1 to 2,400 inclusive may be transferred to more other holders of such shares numbered 1 to 2,400 inclusive.
- 15.2. The provisions of the preceding paragraph of this Article may be deviated from with respect to the ordinary shares numbered 1 to 2,400 inclusive, given unanimously at a meeting of such holders, if all the holders are present or represented.
- 15.3. Before acknowledgement of a transfer is effected, the Board of Directors shall ascertain whether for such transfer have been duly complied with.

Article 16.

- 16.1. On the death of a holder of any ordinary share bearing one of the numbers 1 to 2,400 inclusive, if the holder is a partnership, association or company being a holder of such share - the heirs-at-law, shall be bound, within three months at the latest after the date of such death or after the date of such dissolution, to offer all the shares registered in the name of their legal predecessor or predecessors in the partnership, association or company, successively and in such order as they may desire, at the price last quoted on Euronext for the ordinary shares of the Company prior to the date of the said death or resolution for dissolution, to the legal predecessor or predecessors in the partnership, association or company, successively and in such order as they may desire, at the price last quoted on Euronext for the ordinary shares of the Company prior to the date of the said death or resolution for dissolution, at the same time lodging with the Board of Directors a written acknowledgement of the transfer of ownership, as mentioned in Article 13, paragraph 3 sub-paragraph (a) hereof, and the share certificate.
- 16.2. The heirs-at-law, legal successors or liquidators mentioned in the preceding paragraph shall, after the date of the said death or resolution for dissolution, give notice thereof in writing to the Board of Directors, specifying the person or persons to whom, in accordance with the provisions aforesaid, the shares numbered 1 to 2,400 inclusive, belonging to their legal predecessor or the part thereof, shall be transferred, at the same time lodging with the Board of Directors a written acknowledgement of the transfer of ownership, as mentioned in Article 13, paragraph 3 sub-paragraph (a) hereof, and the share certificate.
- 16.3. The provisions of the foregoing paragraphs of this Article may be deviated from with respect to the ordinary shares numbered 1 to 2,400 inclusive, given unanimously at a meeting of such holders, if all the holders are present or represented.

Article 17.

Edgar Filing: UNILEVER N V - Form 6-K

- 17.1. If the notice mentioned in the preceding Article hereof, together with the specification of the certificates referred to in such Article have not been lodged with the Board of Directors in accordance with said Article, the Board of Directors shall notify the other holders of the ordinary shares in accordance with said Article accordingly, at the same time convening a meeting of the holders of such shares. This meeting shall be held at the same time and place as the meeting of the holders of such shares who are prepared to take over the shares in question, and the successors or liquidators concerned shall be bound to transfer such shares forthwith and in accordance with the provisions for the ordinary shares of the Company prior to the date of such designation.
- 17.2. The chairman of the said meeting shall have the designation mentioned in the preceding Article hereof forthwith to the Board of Directors and the Board of Directors shall notify the heirs-at-law or liquidators concerned accordingly within fourteen days after such meeting.
- 17.3. In the event of the heirs-at-law, legal successors or liquidators failing to transfer the shares in question in the name of their legal predecessor or in the name of the dissolved partnership, association or company, the persons designated by the said meeting within fourteen days after notification of such failure to transfer, the Board of Directors may effect such transfer themselves by signing on their behalf an instrument in accordance with paragraph 3 sub-paragraph (a) hereof; such transfer shall be recorded at the same time and place as the meeting of the holders of such shares in accordance with Article 11 hereof and - if necessary - duplicate share certificates shall be issued to the holders of such shares. Such duplicates shall render the document it replaces null and void. All expenses incurred in connection with such duplicates shall be borne by the heirs-at-law, legal successors or liquidators concerned.
- Article 18.
All announcements and communications required by the foregoing Articles of this Section shall be made in accordance with the provisions of Article 18 of the Dutch Companies Act of 1992.
Section VI
Management.
- Article 19.
- 19.1. The management of the Company shall be conducted by a Board of Directors.
- 19.2. The Board of Directors shall consist of one or more Executive Directors and Non-Executive Directors.
- 19.3. Only natural persons can be Non-Executive Directors.
- 19.4. The Board of Directors shall determine the number of Executive Directors and the number of Non-Executive Directors. The Board of Directors may appoint one of the Executive Directors as Group Chief Executive Officer. The Board of Directors may decide.
- 19.5. The Executive Directors and Non-Executive Directors shall be appointed by the General Meeting of the Company comprising at least such number of persons as shall be required by law for each vacancy. The General Meeting shall be convened by the holders of ordinary shares numbered 1 to 2,400 inclusive. Notwithstanding the provisions of the preceding Article, the General Meeting may appoint a member of the Board of Directors as its deputy. The General Meeting of the holders of ordinary shares numbered 1 to 2,400 inclusive has not within a reasonable period of time made a nomination. A nomination is binding when it has been made in due time, in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Dutch Companies Act of 1992 and includes the names of persons who have offered themselves for election to the board of directors. The General Meeting may at all times overrule the binding nature of such a nomination by a resolution adopted by a two-thirds majority of the votes cast, which majority should represent more than one-half of the votes. In the event that a nomination is overruled in accordance with the preceding sentence, the General Meeting shall be held within three months thereafter, notwithstanding the other provisions of this Article, a new Director may be appointed with an absolute majority of the votes cast at such General Meeting in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 6 of this Article. Pending one or more vacancies the Board of Directors remains properly constituted.
- 19.6. When a proposal is made to the General Meeting for the appointment of a member of the Board of Directors, the person or persons (first) nominated shall be included in the agenda of such General Meeting.
- 19.7. The nomination list shall be lodged with the Board of Directors in good time before the General Meeting is to deal with the appointment of one or more members of the Board of Directors so that the Board of Directors may place the appointments on the agenda for that meeting.
- 19.8. The remuneration of the Executive Directors shall be determined by the Board of Directors.
- 19.9. Each of the Non-Executive Directors shall be paid a fee at such rate as may from time to time be determined by the Board of Directors provided that the aggregate of all fees so paid per annum to Non-Executive Directors shall not exceed the amount per annum decided by the General Meeting.
- 19.10. Unless Dutch law provides otherwise, the following shall be reimbursed to current and former Executive Directors:
- a. the reasonable costs of conducting a defence against claims (also including claims for damages) or failures to act in the exercise of their duties or any other duties currently or formerly performed by them at the Company's request;
 - b. any damages payable by them as a result of an act or failure to act as referred to in a.
 - c. the reasonable costs of appearing in other legal proceedings in which they are or have been involved as members of the Board of Directors, with the exception of proceedings primarily own behalf.

There shall be no entitlement to reimbursement as referred to above if and to the extent established in a final and conclusive decision that the act or failure to act of the person concerned is characterised as wilful ("opzettelijk"), intentionally reckless ("bewust roekeloos") or grossly negligent ("verwijtbaar") conduct, unless Dutch law provides otherwise or this would, in view of the circumstances, be unacceptable according to standards of reasonableness and fairness, or (ii) the costs of the proceedings concerned are covered by an insurance and the insurer has paid out the costs or financed them. If it has been established by a Dutch court in a final and conclusive decision that a person is not entitled to reimbursement as referred to above, he shall immediately repay the amount concerned. The Company may request that the person concerned provide security for his repayment obligation. The Board of Directors may decide to require liability insurance for the benefit of the persons concerned. The Board of Directors may decide to implement the further implementation to the above.

Annual resignation and dismissal.

Article 20.
