PROPOSED ACQUISITION OF A 51% SHAREHOLDING IN KOREA EXCHANGE BANK - UPDATE

HSBC and Lone Star are discussing how this transaction may be taken forward. A further announcement will be made as and when appropriate.

Edgar Filing: HSBC HOLDINGS PLC - Form 6-K

On 3 September 2007 HSBC Holdings plc ("HSBC") announced that its indirect, wholly-owned subsidiary, HSBC Asia Pacific Holdings (UK) Limited ("HSBC Asia") had entered into a conditional agreement to acquire 51.02 per cent of the issued share capital of Korea Exchange Bank ("KEB") from LSF-KEB Holdings SCA ("Lone Star"). The acquisition agreement provides that the acquisition is subject to a number of conditions, including the receipt of applicable governmental and regulatory approvals, in particular approval from Korea's Financial Services Commission ("FSC Approval").

On 29 April 2008, HSBC Asia and Lone Star agreed to extend the deadline for completion of this transaction (the "Long-stop Date") from 30 April 2008 to 31 July 2008. The parties also agreed that if FSC Approval were obtained during the currency of the acquisition agreement, the Long-stop Date would automatically be re-fixed as the date which is two months after the date of the FSC Approval. The acquisition agreement provides that either HSBC Asia or Lone Star may terminate the acquisition agreement if completion has not occurred on or before the Long-stop Date.

The regulatory filing in respect of the proposed acquisition was submitted to the Korean Financial Services Commission in December 2007 but, as at 1 August 2008, FSC Approval had not been granted. Accordingly, from 31 July 2008, the existing acquisition agreement may be terminated at any time by either party up until such time as FSC Approval is granted.

As at the time of making this announcement, HSBC Asia has not terminated the acquisition agreement nor has it received a notice of termination from Lone Star.

HSBC Asia and Lone Star are discussing how this transaction may be taken forward. A further announcement will be made as and when appropriate.
