TI's ability to develop, manufacture and market innovative products in a rapidly changing technological environment;

TI's ability to compete in products and prices in an intensely competitive industry;

TI's ability to maintain and enforce a strong intellectual property portfolio and obtain needed licenses from third parties;

Consolidation of TI's patent licensees and market conditions reducing royalty payments to TI;

Timely completion and successful integration of announced acquisitions;

Economic, social and political conditions in the countries in which TI, its customers or its suppliers operate, including security risks, possible disruptions in the transportation networks and fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates;

Losses or curtailments of purchases from key customers or the timing of customer inventory adjustments;

Availability of raw materials and critical manufacturing equipment;

TI's ability to recruit and retain skilled personnel;

Fluctuations in the market value of TI's investments and in interest rates; and Timely implementation of new manufacturing technologies and installation of manufacturing equipment.

For a more detailed discussion of these and other factors, see the text under the heading "Cautionary Statements Regarding Future Results of Operations" in Item 1 of TI's most recent Form 10-K.
