Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On October 24, 2006, Constellation Brands, Inc., a Delaware corporation (Constellation) entered into a letter agreement with Thomas S. Summer, Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of Constellation, regarding his retirement. Pursuant to the letter agreement, Mr. Summer will continue to perform on a full time basis his duties as Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer until May 15, 2007 (the Transition Date) or such earlier date on which a new Chief Financial Officer has been appointed. Mr. Summer will also assist in identifying a successor to his position. On the Transition Date, or such earlier date when a new Chief Financial Officer has been appointed, Mr. Summer will resign from his position as Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer. From the date of the letter agreement until the Transition Date, Mr. Summer will continue to receive his current compensation and benefits in accordance with Constellation s benefit plans.

Mr. Summer will continue as an employee of Constellation after the Transition Date, or such earlier date when a new Chief Financial Officer is appointed, through May 14, 2008 (the Separation Date) providing transitional assistance in person or by telephone or other electronic means as reasonably requested by the Chief Executive Officer of Constellation. During the period between the Transition Date and the Separation Date (the Transition Period), Mr. Summer will receive the base compensation that he was receiving on the Transition Date and will be entitled to such retirement and welfare benefits that are generally provided to employees consistent with the terms of such plans. He will not be entitled to bonuses, stock options or other incentive compensation during the Transition Period or for the fiscal years ending after the Transition Date except that he will have the right to participate in the annual option grants expected to be awarded in April 2007 and he will be paid a lump sum amount of $88,800 on the Transition Date. The Company will consider increasing Mr. Summer s compensation during the Transition Period if the demands placed on him become excessive.

After the Separation Date, Mr. Summer will not be entitled to receive compensation, severance or other benefits except as follows. He will be entitled to receive vested benefits under Constellation s retirement plans and stock incentive plans, reimbursement for business expenses properly incurred before the Separation Date and rights as provided by law. All outstanding options will immediately vest on the Separation Date and he will have thirty (30) days from the Separation Date to exercise vested stock options.

The Separation Date may become a date earlier than May 14, 2008 by mutual consent of the parties.

In consideration of the benefits provided under the letter agreement, Mr. Summer covenanted not to compete with Constellation or solicit customers of Constellation through the Separation Date. Constellation may consider, if requested, modifications to the foregoing covenant where it believes the competitive impact to be minimal or otherwise manageable.

The above description of the letter agreement is qualified in its entirety by the terms and conditions of the letter agreement which is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and incorporated herein by reference.

Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Principal Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Principal Officers.

On October 25, 2006, Constellation announced that Thomas S. Summer, Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of Constellation, plans to retire from his position. In order to ensure a smooth transition, Mr. Summer will remain in his position as Chief Financial Officer until the earlier of May 15, 2007 or the date on which a new Chief Financial Officer is appointed. Thereafter, Mr. Summer will continue in an advisory role with Constellation through May 14, 2008 or an earlier date mutually agreed upon by Constellation and Mr. Summer.
