On August 6, 2007, eLong, Inc. (the Company) issued a press release announcing the resignation of David Goldhill as a member of the audit committee of the board of directors of the Company effective July 30, 2007. The Company also announced that Mr. Goldhill indicated that his resignation was prompted by the Company's advice that, as a result of his having accepted a position as the chief executive officer of a company under common control with eLong, he is no longer considered independent under NASDAQ's Marketplace Rules, and therefore can no longer serve on the audit committee. The Company's press release is furnished as Exhibit 99.1.

The information herein and in the press releases is intended to be furnished and shall not be deemed filed for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the Exchange Act) or otherwise subject to the liabilities of that section, nor shall it be deemed incorporated by reference in any filing under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended or the Exchange Act, except as expressly set forth by specific reference in such a filing.

eLong, Inc. Reports Resignation of Audit Committee Member

BEIJING, China August 6, 2007 eLong, Inc. (NASDAQ: LONG) (eLong or the Company), a leading online travel service provider in China, today reported that David Goldhill has resigned as a member of the audit committee of the board of directors of the Company effective July 30, 2007. Mr. Goldhill, who served as the chair of the audit committee, indicated that his resignation was prompted by the Company's advice that, as a result of his having accepted a position as the chief executive officer of a company under common control with eLong, he is no longer considered independent under NASDAQ's Marketplace Rules, and therefore can no longer serve on the audit committee.

On August 1, 2007, eLong received a letter from NASDAQ's Listing Qualifications Department stating that, due to Mr. Goldhill's resignation, the Company no longer complies with the requirement set forth in NASDAQ Marketplace Rule 4350 that the audit committee of a NASDAQ-listed company be composed of at least three members. The letter also indicated, however, that consistent with Marketplace Rule 4350(d)(4), NASDAQ would provide the Company with a cure period in order to regain compliance, until the earlier of the Company's next annual meeting of shareholders or July 30, 2008 or, if the Company's next annual meeting of shareholders is held before January 28, 2008, then no later than January 28, 2008.

eLong has initiated a search to find a suitable replacement for Mr. Goldhill, and expects that the vacancy on the audit committee caused by Mr. Goldhill's resignation will be filled prior to the end of the cure period provided by NASDAQ.

Safe Harbor Statement

The statement in this press release concerning eLong's expectation as to its ability to find a suitable replacement for David Goldhill on its audit committee prior to the end of the cure period provided by NASDAQ is a forward-looking statement within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and as defined in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. This forward looking statement is based upon management's current views and expectations with respect to future events and is not a guarantee of future performance, and there can be no assurance that eLong will in fact be successful in locating a suitable replacement before the end of the cure period. Risk factors that could affect eLong's ability to find a suitable replacement include a shortage of qualified persons who are willing to serve on the audit committee of a publicly-traded company. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on this forward-looking statement, which speaks only as of the current date.
