Item 8.01 Other Events.

On February 17, 2010, upon the recommendation of the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors (the Board) of Asbury Automotive Group, Inc. (the Company), the Board approved and the Company adopted a Recoupment Policy (the Policy), which will be included in the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines.

Upon a determination by the Company's non-management directors, or a committee thereof, that a restatement of the Company's financial results was caused by fraud or intentional misconduct, the Policy requires certain employees to reimburse the Company for the after-tax difference between actual performance-based incentive compensation paid and the performance-based incentive compensation that would have been paid based on the Company's restated financial results. With respect to recoupment from named executive officers, the non-management directors need not find that such named executive officer's conduct was directly related to the restatement. For all other employees, the non-management directors are required to find that such employees engaged directly in fraud or intentional misconduct that caused the restatement prior to seeking recoupment from such other employees. For the purposes of the Policy, the term named executive officer has the same meaning ascribed to it in Item 402 of Regulation S-K of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

Performance-based incentive compensation paid on the basis of the Company's consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2010 and thereafter shall be subject to the Policy. Enforcement under the Policy shall be limited to the three-year period following the filing of the financial results in question with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

The information set forth above is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Policy, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and incorporated herein by reference.
