Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

(d) Effective January 27, 2011, Corinthian's Board of Directors, following the unanimous recommendation of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, elected Sharon P. Robinson, Ed.D, as a new director with a term of office expiring at the company's Annual Meeting of Stockholders scheduled for November 2011. Dr. Robinson, 66, currently serves as president and chief executive officer of the American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education. Previously, she held a number of senior management positions at Educational Testing Service, most recently as executive vice president and president of its Educational Policy Leadership Institute. Earlier, Robinson was assistant secretary of education with the U.S. Department of Education's Office of Education Research and Improvements, and before that, she was director, National Center for Innovation for the National Education Association. She has served, or currently serves, on the Board of Trustees of the Woodrow Wilson National Fellowship Program, Southern Education Foundation, National Education Association Foundation for the Improvement of Education, and the National Parent-Teachers Association. Dr. Robinson will be entitled to receive the non-employee director compensation outlined in Exhibit 10.3 to the Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on November 3, 2010.

A copy of the press release issued by the Company on January 27, 2011 announcing Dr. Robinson's election to Corinthian's Board of Directors, is attached as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report and is incorporated herein by reference.
