Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

On January 11, 2014, Cash America International, Inc. (the Company) entered into a Separation of Employment Agreement (the Separation Agreement) with Dennis J. Weese, who served as the Company's Division President - Retail Services Division and left the Company to pursue other opportunities on January 3, 2014. The Separation Agreement provides Mr. Weese with certain pay and benefits that are generally consistent with the Company's Severance Pay Plan for Executives, including 18 months of base salary continuation to be paid through July 3, 2015 in the aggregate amount of $697,500 (before any applicable withholding), 18 months of medical benefits, a lump sum cash payment of $35,769 to cover accrued but unpaid vacation and reimbursement for certain outplacement services, if utilized, for up to $9,000 that are available for a period of 12 months. In addition, the Separation Agreement allows for the vesting, on January 31, 2014 and February 22, 2014, of an aggregate of 9,090 time-based restricted stock units, which were granted to Mr. Weese in previous years. The Separation Agreement also includes certain releases and non-disclosure, non-solicitation and non-competition covenants, among other terms and conditions. The Separation Agreement provides Mr. Weese with a seven-day revocation period from the date the Separation Agreement was signed.

Because Mr. Weese remained employed by the Company on January 1, 2014, Mr. Weese may also receive up to a maximum of 6,744 shares of the Company's common stock, par value $0.10 per share, in connection with a 2011 grant of performance-based restricted stock units that were eligible to vest on January 1, 2014, the vesting of which is based on the Company's performance from January 1, 2011 through December 31, 2013 and is subject to certification by the Management Development and Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors at its regularly scheduled meeting in late January. All other unvested restricted stock unit grants that Mr. Weese previously received were forfeited when he left the Company. Additionally, Mr. Weese remains eligible to receive a cash payment under the Company's 2013 Short-term Incentive Compensation Plan for Executive Officers and a contribution under the Company's Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan if the Company's Board of Directors elects to award either or both at its regularly scheduled meeting in late January.

A copy of the Separation Agreement is attached as Exhibit 10.1 hereto and incorporated herein by reference. The foregoing summary of the Separation Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Separation Agreement.

Article I Shareholders

Article I, Section 8 (Votes Required for Action) was amended to change the voting standard for the election of directors in uncontested elections from a plurality to a majority of votes cast. A director nominee in an uncontested election will be elected to the Board if the director receives a majority of the votes cast, and if such director does not receive a majority of the votes cast, he or she is required to promptly tender a resignation to the Board that is subject to acceptance or rejection by the Board within 90 days from the date of the certification of the election results. Article III, Section 6 (Vice Presidents and Division Officers) was amended to clarify that the President and Chief Executive Officer, or the Board of Directors in the absence of a designation by the President and Chief Executive Officer, can designate the Executive Vice President or Division Officer who will exercise the powers of the President and Chief Executive Officer during that officer's absence or inability to act.

Article III, Section 7 (Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer) was amended to state that the Chief Financial Officer and the Treasurer shall control, audit and arrange the financial affairs of the Company, and shall have such powers and duties as may be assigned to him by the Board the Chairman of the Board or the President and Chief Executive Officer.
