Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On August 5, 2014, SYNCHRONY FINANCIAL (the Company) closed the initial public offering (the IPO) of 125,000,000 shares of its common stock at a price to the public of $23.00 per share. The Company has granted the underwriters in the IPO an option to purchase up to an aggregate of 18,750,000 additional shares of common stock. The Company received net proceeds from the IPO of approximately $2.8 billion. General Electric Company (GE) currently owns approximately 84.9% of the Company's common stock (or 83.1% if the underwriters exercise in full their option to purchase additional shares).

In connection with the IPO and as previously contemplated by, and described in, the Company's IPO Registration Statement on Form S-1 (No. 333-194528) filed with the SEC and declared effective on July 30, 2014 (the Registration Statement), the Company entered into various agreements with GE and its affiliates. These agreements were entered into on August 5, 2014 (the IPO closing date) and consist of the following:

Transitional Services Agreement, by and among General Electric Capital Corporation (GECC), the Company and Retail Finance International Holdings, Inc. (RIH), pursuant to which, among other things, the Company, GECC and RIH provide each other, on a transitional basis, certain administrative and support services and other assistance consistent with the services the Company and GECC provided to each other before the IPO.

Registration Rights Agreement, by and between the Company and GECC, pursuant to which, among other things, the Company provides GECC with registration rights relating to shares of the Company's common stock held by GECC or permitted transferees after the IPO.

Tax Sharing and Separation Agreement, by and between GE and the Company, which, among other things, governs the allocation between GE and the Company of the responsibilities for the taxes of the GE group. The Tax Sharing and Separation Agreement also allocates rights, obligations and responsibilities in connection with certain administrative matters relating to the preparation of tax returns and control of tax audits and other proceedings relating to taxes.

Employee Matters Agreement, by and among GE, GECC and the Company, which governs certain employee, compensation and benefits matters among the Company, GECC and GE. Under the Employee Matters Agreement, among other things, the Company generally assumes or retains liabilities relating to the employment or services of any person with respect to the Company's business before or after the completion of the IPO. The Employee Matters Agreement also generally provides for continued participation by Company employees in GE benefits for so long as GE owns at least 50% of the Company's common stock.

Transitional Trademark License Agreement, by and between GE Registry, Inc. and the Company, pursuant to which, among other things, GE grants the Company a limited, non-exclusive, royalty-free, non-transferable license (with no right to sublicense) to use (i) certain marks, logos and the GE monogram in connection with the Company's products and services until such time as GE ceases to beneficially own more than 50% of the Company's outstanding common stock, subject to certain exceptions and (ii) a specified tagline in connection with the Company's products and services and in the general promotion of the Company's business for a period of three years after GE ceases to beneficially own more than 50% of the Company's outstanding common stock.

Intellectual Property Cross License Agreement, by and between GE and GECC, on the one hand, and the Company, on the other hand, pursuant to which, among other things, the Company and GE grant each other a non-exclusive, irrevocable, royalty-free, fully paid-up, worldwide, perpetual license under certain intellectual property rights that they each own or license.

The Company entered into each of these agreements on August 5, 2014 and is filing the executed versions of these agreements as exhibits to this current report. The full descriptions of these agreements contained in the Registration Statement are incorporated by reference herein and the descriptions of the agreements are subject to, and are qualified in their entirety by, reference to the terms of the complete agreements.

Item 2.03 Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant.

In connection with the IPO and as previously contemplated by, and described in, the Company's Registration Statement, the Company entered into a term loan facility (the "New Bank Term Loan Facility") with third party lenders that provided $8.0 billion principal amount of unsecured term loans maturing in 2019 and a term loan facility (the "New GECC Term Loan Facility") with GECC that provided $1.5 billion principal amount of unsecured term loans maturing in 2019. On August 5, 2014 (the IPO closing date), the Company borrowed the full amounts under the New Bank Term Loan Facility and the New GECC Term Loan Facility.

The full descriptions of these agreements contained in the Registration Statement (including the events of default which may give rise to an acceleration of the obligations thereunder) are incorporated by reference herein and the descriptions of the agreements are subject to, and are qualified in their entirety by, reference to the terms of the complete agreements, which have been previously filed.
