FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Grand Toys International receives NASDAQ delisting notice for Failing to File Form 20-F

Hong Kong, SAR July 24, 2006 -- Grand Toys International Limited (Nasdaq GRIN) announced today that, as a result of Grand s failure to file its Annual Report on Form 20-F, it received a Nasdaq Staff Determination on July 18,

Edgar Filing: GRAND TOYS INTERNATIONAL LTD - Form 6-K

2006 stating that Grand is not in compliance with the requirements for continued listing on Nasdaq as set forth in Nasdaq Marketplace Rule 4320(e)(12). As a result, Grand s ADSs will be delisted from the Nasdaq SmallCap Stock Market on July 27, 2006 unless Grand requests a hearing to appeal the delisting determination. Grand does not expect the delay in filing its Annual Report on Form 20-F to be lengthy and, accordingly, it intends to appeal the Nasdaq Staff Determination. Representatives of the Nasdaq Staff have advised Grand the hearing date will be set generally between 20 and 40 days after the appeal is made. Grand intends to file the 20-F during this interim period which, absent additional circumstances which Grand cannot currently foresee, will result in a withdrawal of the delisting determination.

The Nasdaq Staff s delisting determination was expected after Grand had previously announced that the filing would be delayed. The delay was a result of the acquisitions in December 2005 of Hua Yang Holdings Company Limited and Kord Holdings, Inc., which were under common control with Grand, requiring Grand to restate its financial statements back to the date of common control as if Hua Yang and Kord were part of Grand on May 24, 2004 and June 30, 2004, the respective dates that ownership of Hua Yang and Kord was acquired by Grand s controlling shareholder. Due to the complexity of the restatement, Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu, Grand s independent accounting firm, has not yet completed its audit of the registrant s restated financial statements.
