Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On January 3, 2008, Noven Pharmaceuticals, Inc. (the "Company") issued a press release, attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1, announcing that Robert C. Strauss has retired from his roles as President, Chief Executive Officer, director and Chairman of the Company.

In connection with Mr. Strauss' departure, the Company and Mr. Strauss have entered into a Separation Agreement (the "Strauss Agreement"), dated January 2, 2008 (the "Effective Date"), which provides for (1) a lump sum separation payment of $1,080,597, less applicable taxes and withholding, to be paid on or before March 15, 2008, (2) an award under the Company's 2007 Management Incentive Plan (the "MIP"), based on the Company's 2007 financial performance and subject to and consistent with adjustments made by the Company for its executive officers, to be paid at the same time and in the same manner as the Company's executive officers, (3) a grant of 50,000 restricted stock units, granted under the Company's 1999 Long-Term Incentive Plan, which shall vest on the second anniversary of the Effective Date, provided that Mr. Strauss does not violate certain non-competition, non-solicitation and confidentiality agreements included in the Strauss Agreement, (4) an extension of the exercise period for all of Mr. Strauss' currently vested stock options and currently vested stock appreciation rights through December 31, 2009, and (5) the payment of all accrued but unused vacation time through the Effective Date. The foregoing description of the Strauss Agreement and the restricted stock unit grant are qualified in their entirety by reference to the full text of such agreements, copies of which are attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 and 10.2, respectively, and are incorporated herein by reference. The Company expects to record the expenses associated with the Strauss Agreement in its financial results for the fourth quarter of 2007.

Also on January 3, 2008, the Company announced the appointment of Jeffrey F. Eisenberg as Executive Vice President and Interim Chief Executive Officer as of the Effective Date. Mr. Eisenberg, 42, has been with the Company since November 1998 and, since May 2005, has served as the Company's Senior Vice President – Strategic Alliances. From January 2001 to September 2001, he served as the Company's Vice President, General Counsel & Corporate Secretary, and from September 2001 to May 2005, he served as the Company's Vice President – Strategic Alliances, General Counsel & Corporate Secretary. From 1995 through 1998, Mr. Eisenberg served as Associate General Counsel and then as Acting General Counsel of IVAX Corporation. Prior to joining IVAX, he was a lawyer in the corporate securities department of the law firm of Steel Hector & Davis.

In connection with his appointment as Executive Vice President and Interim Chief Executive Officer, Mr. Eisenberg has entered into a Letter Agreement, dated January 2, 2008, which provides for a 90-day term, unless extended, for his service as Interim Chief Executive Officer. The Letter Agreement also provides that, for his service as Interim Chief Executive Officer, Mr. Eisenberg will receive (1) $100,000 cash compensation, to be paid at the end of the 90-day term, which compensation will be in addition to his regular salary payments, and (2) restricted stock with a value equal to $100,000, valued as of the grant date on January 2, 2008, which shall vest in eight equal quarterly installments beginning on March 31, 2008. The Letter Agreement also provides for severance in the event Mr. Eisenberg were to be terminated without "cause" or were to resign for "good reason" (as such terms are defined in the Letter Agreement) prior to December 31, 2009, in which event he would receive (a) severance equal to one year of his then-current salary, (b) an amount equal to the fixed percentage of base salary set by the Company's Compensation Committee pursuant to the Company's Annual Incentive Plan in effect during the applicable fiscal year of the date of termination (the current percentage is set at 45% of base salary), (c) immediate vesting of the restricted stock outstanding at the date of such termination or resignation, and (d) an extension of the exercise period for then vested options from 90 days to 12 months from the date of such termination or resignation. The foregoing descriptions of the Letter Agreement with Mr. Eisenberg and the restricted stock grant are qualified in their entirety by reference to the full text of such agreements, copies of which are attached hereto as Exhibit 10.3 and 10.4, respectively, and are incorporated herein by reference.

In addition, the Company announced the appointment of Wayne P. Yetter, the Company's current lead independent director, as the Company's non-executive Chairman, effective on the Effective Date.
