Item 1.01. Entry into Material Definitive Agreement.

Golden Boy Acquisition

On December 7, 2013, Post Holdings, Inc. (“Post” or the “Company”) and a wholly-owned subsidiary of Post entered into a Share Purchase Agreement (the “Golden Boy Agreement”) to acquire all of the outstanding equity interests of privately owned Golden Boy Foods Ltd. (“Golden Boy”), a manufacturer, marketer and distributor of private label and branded peanut and other nut butters, baking nuts, raisins, other dried fruit and trail mixes, from affiliates of Tricor Pacific Capital Partners and other shareholders (collectively, the “Golden Boy Sellers”).

The purchase price payable by Post under the Golden Boy Agreement is CAD$320 million, on a debt-free, cash-free basis, subject to a working capital adjustment. The Golden Boy Agreement contains customary representations, warranties and indemnities, including covenants which relate to the operation of the Golden Boy business during the period between signing and closing. The closing of the acquisition is subject to various closing conditions, including the expiration or termination of the applicable waiting periods under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended and the receipt of Canadian anti-trust regulatory approval, as well as other customary closing conditions. In addition, Post and the Golden Boy Sellers have agreed to indemnify each other for certain losses, and a portion of the purchase price will be held in escrow to secure the Golden Boy Sellers’ indemnification obligations under the Golden Boy Agreement.

The acquisition is expected to close on or about February 1, 2014. Following the later of (i) the receipt of all required regulatory approvals and third party consents and (ii) January 9, 2014, Post will be required under the Golden Boy Agreement to make a nonrefundable deposit of CAD$32 million provided that all of the other conditions to closing are satisfied (in which case such closing conditions shall also be deemed to be satisfied for purposes of the closing). In the event that the acquisition does not close on or before February 1, 2014, Post is also required under the Golden Boy Agreement to pay the Golden Boy Sellers interest on the part of the purchase price not represented by the deposit at an effective annual interest rate of 8.0%, beginning on February 2, 2014 and ending on the day prior to the closing date. The Golden Boy Agreement may be terminated by mutual consent, and under certain other circumstances, including if the closing of the acquisition has not occurred on or before March 1, 2014.

The foregoing summary of the Golden Boy Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby does not purport to be complete and is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by, the full text of the Golden Boy Agreement, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit 2.1 hereto and is incorporated herein by reference. The Golden Boy Agreement has been included to provide investors with information regarding its terms. It is not intended to provide any other factual information about the parties to the Golden Boy Agreement or the Golden Boy business acquired thereunder. The Golden Boy Agreement contains representations and warranties that the parties to the agreement made solely for the benefit of each other. The assertions embodied in such representations and warranties are qualified by information contained in confidential disclosure schedules that the parties exchanged in connection with signing the Golden Boy Agreement. In addition, these representations and warranties (i) may be intended not as statements of fact, but rather as a way of allocating risk to one of the parties if those statements prove to be inaccurate, (ii) may apply materiality standards different from what may be viewed as material to investors and securityholders, and (iii) were made only as of the date of the Golden Boy Agreement or as of such other date or dates as may be specified in the Golden Boy Agreement. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of such representations and warranties may change after the date of the Golden Boy Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in Post’s public disclosures. Investors and securityholders are urged not to rely on such representations and warranties as characterizations of the actual state of facts or circumstances at this time or any other time.

Dymatize Acquisition

On December 8, 2013, Post and a wholly-owned subsidiary of Post entered into a Securities Purchase Agreement (the “Dymatize Agreement”) to acquire all of the outstanding equity interests of privately owned Dymatize Enterprises, LLC (“Dymatize”), a manufacturer and marketer of premium nutritional and sports supplements, from affiliates of TA Associates and other owners (collectively, the “Dymatize Sellers”).

The purchase price payable by Post under the Dymatize Agreement is US$380 million, on a debt-free, cash-free basis, subject to a working capital adjustment, with additional consideration of up to $17.5 million cash contingent upon Dymatize achieving certain profit targets in calendar year 2014.

Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of such representations and warranties may change after the date of the Dymatize Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in Post's public disclosures. #### Forward-Looking Statements

Certain matters discussed in this Current Report on Form 8-K are forward-looking statements, including the expected timing of the acquisitions. Such statements involve certain risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements. Potential risks and uncertainties include risks related to, among other things, obtaining regulatory approval of or non-objection to the acquisitions; the potential impact on the business due to uncertainty about the acquisitions; the retention of employees and the ability of Post to successfully integrate operations; the possibility that various closing conditions for the acquisitions may not be satisfied or waived; the effects of disruption from the acquisitions making it more difficult to maintain relationships with employees, customers, suppliers, other business partners or governmental entities for the respective parties; other business transaction costs; actual or contingent liabilities of the acquired businesses; the inability to predict the future success or market acceptance of the acquired businesses; and other risks described in the Post's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. These forward-looking statements represent the Post's judgment as of the date hereof. Post disclaims, however, any intent or obligation to update these forward-looking statements.
