MERGER PROPOSED — YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT

Dear Commerce Bancshares Corp. Stockholder:

The boards of directors of Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Inc. and Commerce Bancshares Corp. have agreed to a merger of Commerce Bancshares Corp. with and into Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Inc. (the “Merger”), with Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Inc. as the surviving entity. Immediately thereafter, Commerce Bank & Trust Company will merge with and into Berkshire Bank, with Berkshire Bank as the surviving institution (the “Bank Merger”). Commerce Bancshares Corp. is holding a special meeting on September 21, 2017 at 3:00 p.m., local time, at the main office of Commerce Bank located at 386 Main Street, Worcester, Massachusetts 01615, for its stockholders of record on August 1, 2017, to consider and vote on the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of May 22, 2017, by and between Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Inc. and Commerce Bancshares Corp. (the “Merger Agreement”), which will govern the Merger.

If the Merger is completed, each outstanding share of Commerce Bancshares Corp. common stock will be converted into the right to receive 0.93 shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Inc. common stock (the “Common Stock Consideration”), subject to the provision in the Merger Agreement that no Commerce Bancshares Corp. stockholder shall receive, as aggregated with such stockholder’s immediate family members and affiliates for purposes of 12 C.F.R. §225.41 of Regulation Y (the “Acting in Concert Group”), Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Inc. common stock consideration that would exceed 9.9% of the outstanding Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Inc. common stock as of the effective time of the Merger (the “Voting Stock Consideration Limit”). In the event that any Commerce Bancshares Corp. stockholder, as aggregated with such stockholder’s Acting in Concert Group, would exceed the Voting Stock Consideration Limit, such Commerce Bancshares Corp. stockholder shall receive 0.465 shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Inc. Series B Non-Voting Preferred Stock (“BHLB Preferred Stock Consideration”) for each share of Commerce Bancshares Corp. common stock that is not convertible into Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Inc. common stock as a consequence of the Voting Stock Consideration Limit and convertible under certain circumstances to Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock to the extent that the Voting Stock Consideration Limit is not exceeded.

Based on Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Inc.’s closing price of $35.55 on May 19, 2017 (the trading date preceding the public announcement of the proposed transaction), each share of Commerce Bancshares Corp. common stock exchanged for either 0.93 shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Inc. common stock or, to the extent an Acting in Concert Group exceeds the Voting Stock Consideration Limit, 0.465 shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Inc. preferred stock, would have a value of $33.06 per share, with a proposed aggregate value of approximately $209.2 million. Based on Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Inc.’s closing price of $36.85 on July 28, 2017 (the most recent practicable date before the printing of this proxy statement/prospectus), each share of Commerce Bancshares Corp. common stock exchanged for either 0.93 shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Inc. common stock or, to the extent an Acting in Concert Group exceeds the Voting Stock Consideration Limit, 0.465 shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Inc. preferred stock, would have a value of $34.27, with a proposed aggregate value of approximately $216.9 million. Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Inc. common stock is listed on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol “BHLB.” Commerce Bancshares Corp. common stock is not traded on any established public trading market.

Although the number of shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Inc. common stock and preferred stock that holders of Commerce Bancshares Corp. common stock will be entitled to receive is fixed, the market value of the stock consideration will fluctuate with the market price of Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Inc. common stock and will not be known at the time Commerce Bancshares Corp. shareholders vote on the merger. However, as described in more detail elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus, under the terms of the Merger Agreement, if the average price of Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Inc. common stock over a specified period of time decreases below certain specified thresholds, Commerce Bancshares Corp. would have a right to terminate the Merger Agreement, unless Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Inc. elects to increase the exchange ratio, which would result in additional shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Inc. common stock and preferred stock being issued.

The affirmative vote of the holders of two-thirds of the issued and outstanding shares of common stock of Commerce Bancshares Corp. is required to approve the Merger Agreement. Commerce Bancshares Corp. has scheduled a special meeting so its shareholders can vote on the Merger Agreement. Commerce Bancshares Corp. board of directors has determined that the Merger is advisable and in the best interests of Commerce Bancshares Corp. and Commerce Bancshares Corp. board of directors unanimously recommends that the Commerce Bancshares Corp. shareholders vote "FOR" the adoption of the Merger Agreement.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MERGER AND THE COMMERCE BANCSHARES CORP. SPECIAL MEETING

WHY AM I RECEIVING THESE MATERIALS?

A:
Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Inc. (“Berkshire Hills Bancorp”) entered into a Merger Agreement with Commerce Bancshares Corp. (“Commerce Bancshares”) pursuant to which Commerce Bancshares will merge with and into Berkshire Hills Bancorp, with Berkshire Hills Bancorp as the surviving entity.

In order to complete the merger of Commerce Bancshares with and into Berkshire Hills Bancorp, the shareholders of Commerce Bancshares must vote to approve the Merger Agreement. Commerce Bancshares will hold a special meeting of its shareholders to solicit this approval, as well as solicit approvals on other merger-related matters. This proxy statement/prospectus contains important information about the Merger, the Merger Agreement, a copy of which is attached as Annex A to this proxy statement/prospectus, the special meeting of Commerce Bancshares shareholders, and other related matters, and we encourage you to read it carefully.

Q:
WHAT WILL COMMERCE BANCSHARES’ SHAREHOLDERS BE VOTING ON AT THE SPECIAL MEETING?

A:
At the special meeting of shareholders of Commerce Bancshares, the shareholders will be asked to vote to (i) approve the Merger Agreement, and (ii) if necessary, to approve a proposal to adjourn or postpone the Commerce Bancshares special meeting for the purpose of allowing additional time to solicit proxies. No business may be transacted at the Commerce Bancshares special meeting except as specified in the notice accompanying this proxy statement/prospectus.

Q:
WHAT DO I NEED TO DO NOW?

A:
After you have carefully read this proxy statement/prospectus, indicate on your proxy card how you want your shares to be voted, then sign and mail it in the enclosed postage-paid envelope as soon as possible so that your shares may be represented and voted at the Commerce Bancshares special meeting. If you sign and send in your proxy card and do not indicate how you want to vote, Commerce Bancshares will count your proxy card as a vote “FOR” approval of the Merger Agreement, and “FOR” approval, if necessary, of the ability to adjourn or postpone the Commerce Bancshares special meeting for the purpose of allowing additional time to solicit proxies.

Q:
WHAT AM I BEING ASKED TO VOTE ON AND HOW DOES MY BOARD RECOMMEND THAT I VOTE?

A:
You are being asked to vote “FOR” the approval of the Merger Agreement and “FOR” approval, if necessary, of the ability to adjourn or postpone the Commerce Bancshares special meeting for the purpose of allowing additional time to solicit proxies. Commerce Bancshares board of directors has determined that the proposed merger is in the best interests of Commerce Bancshares shareholders, has approved the Merger Agreement and recommends that Commerce Bancshares shareholders vote “FOR” the approval of the Merger Agreement. You are also being asked to vote “FOR” the ability to adjourn the meeting and to transact any other business that properly comes before the special meeting, or any adjournment or postponements of the meeting.

Q:

WHAT WILL COMMERCE BANCSHARES SHAREHOLDERS RECEIVE IN THE MERGER?

A:

If the shareholders of Commerce Bancshares approve the Merger Agreement and the other conditions to closing are satisfied, for each share of Commerce Bancshares common stock you own, you will receive 0.93 shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock and cash in lieu of fractional shares (the “Common Stock Consideration”), subject to the Voting Stock Consideration Limit (as defined below). The Merger Agreement provides that no Commerce Bancshares stockholder, aggregated with such stockholder’s immediate family members and affiliates for purposes of 12 C.F.R. § 225.41 of Regulation Y (the “Acting in Concert Group”) may own more than 9.9% of the outstanding Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock as of the effective time of the Merger (the “Voting Stock Consideration Limit”). In the event that any Commerce Bancshares stockholder, aggregated with such stockholder’s

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Acting in Concert Group, would otherwise exceed the Voting Stock Consideration Limit, such Commerce Bancshares stockholder shall receive 0.465 shares of Series B Non-Voting Berkshire Hills Bancorp preferred stock (the “Preferred Stock Consideration”) for each share of Commerce Bancshares common stock that is not convertible into Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock in excess of the Voting Stock Consideration Limit and convertible under certain circumstances to Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock to the extent that the Voting Stock Consideration Limit is not exceeded. For further information, see “Proposal I — The Proposed Merger — Description of Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Inc. Capital Stock.”

Q:

WHY IS MY VOTE IMPORTANT?

A:

The Merger cannot be completed unless the holders of at least two-thirds (2/3) of the issued and outstanding common stock of Commerce Bancshares vote to approve the Merger Agreement. The failure of a Commerce Bancshares shareholder to vote, by proxy or in person, will have the same effect as a vote against the Merger Agreement.

Q:

HOW DO I VOTE?

A:

You can vote by mail by completing, signing, dating and returning your proxy card in the postage-paid envelope provided. You can also vote in person at the Commerce Bancshares special meeting.

Q:

WHEN AND WHERE IS THE COMMERCE BANCSHARES SPECIAL MEETING?

A:

The Commerce Bancshares special meeting will be held at 3:00 p.m., local time, on September 21, 2017 at the main office of Commerce Bank, located at 386 Main Street, Worcester, Massachusetts 01615.

Q:

WHAT CONSTITUTES A QUORUM FOR THE COMMERCE BANCSHARES SPECIAL MEETING?

A:

The presence at the Commerce Bancshares special meeting, in person or by proxy, of holders representing at least a majority of the outstanding shares of Commerce Bancshares common stock entitled to be voted at the Commerce Bancshares special meeting will constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the Commerce Bancshares special meeting. Abstentions and broker non-votes, if any, will be included in determining the number of shares present at the meeting for the purpose of determining the presence of a quorum.

Q:

WHAT IS THE VOTE REQUIRED TO APPROVE EACH PROPOSAL AT THE COMMERCE BANCSHARES SPECIAL MEETING?

A:

At the special meeting, the affirmative vote of holders of at least two-thirds of the issued and outstanding shares of Commerce Bancshares common stock is required to approve the Merger Agreement. The vote on the proposal to adjourn or postpone the Commerce Bancshares special meeting for the purpose, among others, of allowing additional time to solicit proxies requires the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the shares of Commerce Bancshares common stock present in person or by proxy at the special meeting, even if less than a quorum is present.

Q:
ARE COMMERCE BANCSHARES SHAREHOLDERS ENTITLED TO DISSENTERS' RIGHTS?

A:
Yes. Commerce Bancshares common stockholders who submit to Commerce Bancshares before the special meeting a written demand for appraisal of their stock in connection with the proposed Merger, who do not vote for the proposal to approve the Merger Agreement, and who otherwise perfect their dissenters' rights by complying with the applicable statutory procedures will be entitled to dissenters' rights under the Massachusetts Business Corporation Act. For further information, see "Proposal I — The Proposed Merger — Dissenters' Rights."

Q:
IF MY SHARES ARE HELD IN "STREET NAME" BY MY BROKER, WILL MY BROKER VOTE MY SHARES FOR ME?

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Q.

WHAT IF I FAIL TO INSTRUCT MY BROKER?

A:

If you fail to instruct your broker how to vote your shares and the broker submits an unvoted proxy, the resulting broker “non-vote” will be counted toward a quorum at the Commerce Bancshares special meeting, but it will have the same effect as a vote against the Merger Agreement.

Q.

CAN I ATTEND THE SPECIAL MEETING AND VOTE MY SHARES IN PERSON?

A:

Yes. All shareholders of Commerce Bancshares, including shareholders of record and any shareholder who holds their shares “in street name” through banks, brokers, nominees or any other holder of record, are invited to attend the Commerce Bancshares special meeting. Holders of record of Commerce Bancshares common stock can vote in person at the Commerce Bancshares special meeting. If you are not a shareholder of record, you must obtain a proxy card, executed in your favor, from the record holder of your shares, such as a broker, bank or other nominee, to be able to vote in person at the special meeting. If you plan to attend the special meeting, you must hold your shares in your own name or have a letter from the record holder of your shares confirming your ownership. In addition, you must bring a form of personal photo identification with you in order to be admitted. Commerce Bancshares reserves the right to refuse admittance to anyone without proper proof of share ownership or without proper photo identification.

Q:

CAN I CHANGE MY VOTE AFTER I HAVE VOTED?

A:

Yes. If you have not voted through your broker, there are three ways for you to revoke your proxy and change your vote. First, you may send written notice to the Corporate Secretary of Commerce Bancshares stating that you would like to revoke your proxy. Second, you may complete and submit a new proxy card. Third, you may vote in person at the Commerce Bancshares special meeting. If you have instructed a broker to vote your shares, you must follow the directions you receive from your broker to change your vote. Your last vote will be the vote that is counted.

Q:

SHOULD I SEND IN MY COMMERCE BANCSHARES STOCK CERTIFICATES NOW?

A:

No. You should not send in your stock certificates at this time. You will separately receive a form with instructions for exchanging your Commerce Bancshares stock certificates sometime after we obtain Commerce Bancshares shareholders’ approval and all necessary regulatory approvals.

Q:

I AM ALSO A BERKSHIRE HILLS BANCORP SHAREHOLDER. DO I NEED TO DO ANYTHING WITH MY BERKSHIRE HILLS BANCORP STOCK CERTIFICATES?

A.

No. Berkshire Hills Bancorp shareholders will not exchange their certificates in the Merger. The certificates currently representing shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock will continue to represent the same number of shares of common stock of Berkshire Hills Bancorp after the Merger.

Q:

WHEN DO YOU EXPECT TO MERGE?

A:

Commerce Bancshares and Berkshire Hills Bancorp are working toward completing the Merger as quickly as possible, and may complete the Merger as early as mid-October 2017. However, Commerce Bancshares and Berkshire Hills Bancorp cannot assure you when or if the Merger will occur. Commerce Bancshares and Berkshire Hills Bancorp must first obtain the approval of the shareholders of Commerce Bancshares and all necessary regulatory approvals.

Q:

WHAT HAPPENS IF THE MERGER IS NOT COMPLETED?

A:

If the Merger is not completed, Commerce Bancshares shareholders will not receive any consideration for their shares of Commerce Bancshares common stock in connection with the Merger. Instead, Commerce Bancshares will remain an independent entity. In addition, if the Merger Agreement is terminated in certain circumstances, a termination fee may be required to be paid by Commerce Bancshares or Berkshire Hills Bancorp. See “Proposal I — The Proposed Merger — Terminating the Merger Agreement” for a complete discussion of the circumstances under which termination fees will be required to be paid.

Q:
WHAT ARE THE MATERIAL UNITED STATES FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER TO U.S. HOLDERS OF COMMERCE BANCSHARES STOCK?

A:
The Merger is intended to qualify for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a “reorganization” within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. Accordingly, U.S. holders of Commerce Bancshares common stock generally will not recognize any gain or loss on the exchange of shares of Commerce Bancshares common stock for shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock, and generally should not recognize any gain or loss on the exchange of shares of Commerce Bancshares common stock for shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp preferred stock. However, a U.S. holder of Commerce Bancshares common stock generally will be subject to U.S. federal income tax on cash received in lieu of any fractional share of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock or preferred stock that a holder would otherwise be entitled to receive. For further information, see “Proposal I — The Proposed Merger — Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger” beginning on page 51. This tax treatment may not apply to all Commerce Bancshares shareholders. Determining the actual tax consequences of the Merger to Commerce Bancshares shareholders can be complicated and will depend on your particular circumstances. Commerce Bancshares shareholders should consult their own tax advisor for a full understanding of the Merger’s tax consequences that are particular to each shareholder.

At the special meeting, you will be asked to vote on a proposal to approve the Merger Agreement between Commerce Bancshares and Berkshire Hills Bancorp. Approval of the Merger Agreement requires the affirmative vote of holders of at least two-thirds of the issued and outstanding shares of Commerce Bancshares common stock entitled to vote. As of the record date, there were 6,328,300 shares of Commerce Bancshares common stock outstanding. Directors of Commerce Bancshares who have or share voting power with respect to 6,088,864 outstanding shares of Commerce Bancshares common stock, representing 96.21% of the outstanding shares of Commerce Bancshares common stock as of the record date have agreed with Berkshire Hills Bancorp to vote all of their shares in favor of the Merger at the special meeting.

The Merger and the Merger Agreement (page 32)

The acquisition of Commerce Bancshares is governed by the Merger Agreement. The Merger Agreement provides that, if all of the conditions are satisfied or waived, Commerce Bancshares will be merged with and into Berkshire Hills Bancorp, with Berkshire Hills Bancorp as the surviving entity. Immediately thereafter, Commerce Bank & Trust Company will merge with and into Berkshire Bank, with Berkshire Bank as the surviving institution. We encourage you to read the Merger Agreement, which is included as Annex A to this proxy statement/prospectus.

What Commerce Bancshares Stockholders Will Receive in Consideration to be Received in the Merger (page 49)

If the Merger is completed, each share of Commerce Bancshares common stock will be converted into the right to receive 0.93 shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock and cash in lieu of fractional shares, subject to the Voting Stock Consideration Limit (as described previously). The Merger Agreement provides that no Commerce Bancshares stockholder, aggregated with such stockholder's Acting in Concert Group may own more than the Voting Stock Consideration Limit. In the event that any Commerce Bancshares stockholder, aggregated with such stockholder's Acting in Concert Group, would otherwise exceed the Voting Stock Consideration Limit, such Commerce Bancshares stockholder shall receive 0.465 shares of Preferred Stock Consideration for each share of Commerce Bancshares common stock that is not convertible into Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock as a consequence of the Voting Stock Consideration Limit.

Based on Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Inc.'s closing price of $35.55 on May 19, 2017 (the trading date preceding the public announcement of the proposed transaction), each share of Commerce Bancshares Corp. common stock exchanged for either 0.93 shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Inc. common stock or, to the extent an Acting in Concert Group exceeds the Voting Stock Consideration Limit, 0.465 shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Inc. preferred stock, would have a value of $33.06 per share, with a proposed aggregate value of approximately $209.2 million. Based on Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Inc.'s closing price of $36.85 on July 28, 2017 (the most recent practicable date before the printing of this proxy statement/ prospectus), each share of Commerce Bancshares Corp. common stock exchanged for either 0.93 shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Inc. common stock or, to the extent an Acting in Concert Group exceeds the Voting Stock Consideration Limit, 0.465 shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Inc. preferred stock, would have a value of $34.27, with a proposed aggregate value of approximately $216.9 million. Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Inc. common stock is listed on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol "BHLB." Commerce Bancshares Corp. common stock is not traded on any established public trading market.

Recommendation of Commerce Bancshares' Board of Directors (page 35)

Commerce Bancshares' board of directors has unanimously approved the Merger Agreement and the proposed Merger. The Commerce Bancshares board believes that the Merger Agreement, including the Merger contemplated by the Merger Agreement, is fair to, and in the best interests of, Commerce Bancshares and its shareholders, and therefore unanimously recommends that Commerce Bancshares shareholders vote "FOR" the proposal to approve the Merger Agreement. In reaching this decision, Commerce Bancshares' board of directors considered a variety of factors, which are described in the section captioned "Proposal I — The Proposed Merger — Commerce Bancshares' Reasons for the Merger and Recommendation of the Commerce Bancshares Board" beginning on page 35.

Commerce Bancshares' board of directors unanimously recommends that Commerce Bancshares shareholders vote "FOR" the proposal to adjourn the special meeting to a later date or dates, if necessary, to permit further solicitation of proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to approve the Merger Agreement.

Regulatory Matters Relating to the Merger (page 65)

Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, the Merger cannot be completed unless the Merger of Commerce Bancshares and Berkshire Hills Bancorp and the merger of Commerce Bank & Trust Company and Berkshire Bank are approved by the requisite governmental entities and bank regulators, principally, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, the Massachusetts Division of Banks and the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System. Berkshire Hills Bancorp and Berkshire Bank have filed the relevant applications.

Conditions to Completing the Merger (page 59)

The completion of the Merger is subject to the fulfillment of a number of conditions, including:

- the effectiveness of the registration statement of which this proxy statement/prospectus forms a part;
- approval of the Merger Agreement by the holders of at least two-thirds of the issued and outstanding shares of Commerce Bancshares common stock entitled to vote;
- receipt of all requisite regulatory approvals to complete the Merger and the bank merger;
- the continued accuracy of each party's representations and warranties made as of the date of the Merger Agreement, except to the extent any inaccuracy does not constitute a material adverse effect (as defined in the Merger Agreement);
- each party complying with its respective obligations and agreements pursuant to the Merger Agreement, except to the extent that noncompliance does not constitute a material adverse effect (as defined in the Merger Agreement);
- as of immediately prior to the completion of the Merger, not more than 5.0% of the issued and outstanding shares of Commerce Bancshares common stock shall have served a written notice of dissent from the Merger Agreement to Commerce Bancshares under the Massachusetts Business Corporation Act;
- receipt of a fully executed agreement by and between Berkshire Hills Bancorp and David G. Massad, the majority owner and Chairman of Commerce Bancshares, with respect to Mr. Massad's proposed ownership of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock and preferred stock (which agreement has already been executed by Berkshire Hills Bancorp and David G. Massad);
- confirmation that the Commerce Bancshares subordinated debt obligation has been repaid immediately prior to the consummation of the Merger;
- confirmation by Berkshire Hills Bancorp and Berkshire Bank that all action required to duly elect Pamela Massad and David Brunelle, two Commerce Bancshares board members, to the boards of directors of Berkshire Hills Bancorp and Berkshire Bank has been completed; and
- Berkshire Hills Bancorp and Commerce Bancshares shall each have received the written opinions, dated as of the closing date of the Merger, of Luse Gorman, PC and Nutter McClennen & Fish LLP, respectively, to the effect that the Merger will be treated for federal income tax purposes as a reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Terminating the Merger Agreement (page 67)

The Merger Agreement may be terminated by mutual written consent of Berkshire Hills Bancorp and Commerce Bancshares at any time prior to the completion of the Merger. Additionally, subject to conditions and circumstances described in the Merger Agreement, either Berkshire Hills Bancorp or Commerce Bancshares may terminate the Merger Agreement if, among other things, any of the following occur:

- the Merger has not been consummated by April 30, 2018, provided that the failure to consummate the Merger by such date was not due to terminating party's material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement contained in the Merger Agreement;

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- Commerce Bancshares shareholders do not approve the Merger Agreement at the Commerce Bancshares special meeting;

- a required regulatory approval or non-objection is denied or a governmental authority prohibits the Merger; or

- there is a breach by the other party of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement contained in the Merger Agreement, which cannot be cured, or has not been cured within thirty (30) business days after the giving of written notice to such party of such breach.

Commerce Bancshares may terminate the Merger Agreement if Berkshire Hills Bancorp's stock price falls below thresholds set forth in the Merger Agreement and Berkshire Hills Bancorp does not increase the exchange ratio pursuant to a prescribed formula.

Berkshire Hills Bancorp may terminate the Merger Agreement if (i) Commerce Bancshares receives a superior proposal and has entered into an acquisition agreement with respect to the superior proposal in accordance with the provisions of the Merger Agreement, (ii) the board of directors of Commerce Bancshares submits the Merger Agreement to the Commerce Bancshares stockholders without a recommendation for approval, or (iii) the board of directors of Commerce Bancshares withdraws, modifies or changes its recommendation to stockholders for approval of the Merger Agreement, after having consulted with and considered the advice of its financial and legal advisors. Commerce Bancshares may also terminate the Merger Agreement if Commerce Bancshares has received a superior proposal and the board of directors of Commerce Bancshares had made a determination to accept such superior proposal and complied with the provisions of the Merger Agreement.

Termination Fee (page 67)

Under certain circumstances described in the Merger Agreement, Berkshire Hills Bancorp may be entitled to receive a $8.6 million termination fee in connection with the termination of the Merger Agreement. Under certain circumstances described in the Merger Agreement, Commerce Bancshares may be entitled to receive a $4.3 million termination fee in connection with the termination of the Merger Agreement. See "Proposal I — The Proposed Merger — Terminating the Merger Agreement" on page 67 for a list of the circumstances under which a termination fee is payable.

Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger that are Different from Yours (page 54)

In considering the recommendation of the board of directors of Commerce Bancshares to approve the Merger Agreement, you should be aware that officers and directors of Commerce Bancshares have employment and other compensation agreements or economic interests that give them interests in the Merger that are somewhat different from, or in addition to, their interests as Commerce Bancshares shareholders. Some of the interests of the officers and directors include:

- Employment agreements with Brian W. Thompson, President and Chief Executive Officer, William F. Burke, Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, Michael J. Crawford, Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer, and a change of control agreement with James R. Belliveau, Executive Vice President and Chief Technology Officer, that provide for cash severance payments and continued health insurance in connection with a termination of employment without cause or for good reason following a change in control, each of which will be terminated in connection with the Merger in exchange for the payment of cash and benefits pursuant to individual acknowledgement agreements that Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Commerce Bancshares and Commerce Bank & Trust Company have entered into with each individual;

- A shareholder agreement by Berkshire Hills Bancorp has entered into with David G. Massad, the majority owner and Chairman of Commerce Bancshares, with respect to Mr. Massad's proposed ownership of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock and preferred stock;

The Commerce Bancshares 2010 Long-Term Incentive Plan shall terminate in connection with the Merger, and the holder of a phantom stock award, whether or not vested, will receive an amount of cash determined by multiplying (i) the excess, if any, of $34.00 less the applicable per share exercise price of that Commerce Bancshares phantom stock award by (ii) the number of shares of Commerce common stock subject to that Commerce Bancshares phantom stock award, less any required tax withholding;

- A Three-Year Retention Agreement that Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Inc. and Berkshire Bank have entered into with James Belliveau;

- A Consulting and Release Agreement that Berkshire Bank has entered into with each of Brian W. Thompson and Michael J. Crawford;

- An Acknowledgement Agreement that Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Commerce Bancshares and Commerce Bank & Trust Company have entered into with each of Brian W. Thompson, William F. Burke, Michael J. Crawford and James R. Belliveau;

- The appointment of two individuals who are directors of Commerce Bancshares, Pamela Massad and David Brunelle, to the Berkshire Hills Bancorp and Berkshire Bank boards of directors; and

- Rights of Commerce Bancshares officers and directors to continued indemnification coverage and continued coverage under directors' and officers' liability insurance policies.

Accounting Treatment of the Merger (page 50)

The Merger will be accounted for in accordance with accounting standards for business combinations in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

Comparison of Rights of Shareholders (page 85)

When the Merger is completed, Commerce Bancshares shareholders will become Berkshire Hills Bancorp shareholders and their rights will be governed by Delaware law and by Berkshire Hills Bancorp's certificate of incorporation and bylaws. See "Comparison of Rights of Shareholders" beginning on page 85 for a summary of the material differences between the respective rights of Commerce Bancshares and Berkshire Hills Bancorp shareholders.

Dissenters' Rights (page 30)

Commerce Bancshares shareholders entitled to vote on the Merger have the right to dissent from the Merger. If the Merger is completed, each Commerce Bancshares shareholder who submits to Commerce Bancshares before the special meeting a written demand for appraisal of their stock in connection with the proposed Merger, who does not vote for the proposal to approve the Merger Agreement, and who otherwise perfects their dissenters' rights by complying with all applicable requirements of the Massachusetts Business Corporation Act, will be entitled to receive a cash payment equal to the fair value of their shares of Commerce Bancshares common stock, determined in the manner set forth under the Massachusetts Business Corporation Act, instead of the merger consideration. A dissenting shareholder who files the required written objection with Commerce Bancshares prior to the shareholder vote on the Merger need not vote against the Merger, but a vote in favor of the Merger will constitute a waiver of the shareholder's statutory appraisal rights. A vote against the Merger does not, alone, constitute a written objection. Fair value of Commerce Bancshares common stock in an appraisal proceeding may be more than, less than or the same as the value of merger consideration at the time the Merger is completed. A copy of the section of the Massachusetts Business Corporation Act pertaining to dissenters' appraisals rights is attached as Annex C to this proxy statement/prospectus. You should read the statute carefully and consult with your legal counsel if you intend to exercise these rights.

Material Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger (page 51)

The Merger is intended to qualify for U.S federal income tax purposes as a “reorganization” within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. Accordingly, U.S. holders of Commerce Bancshares common stock generally will not recognize any gain or loss on the exchange of shares of Commerce Bancshares common stock for shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock, and generally should not recognize any gain or loss on the exchange of shares of Commerce Bancshares common stock for shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp preferred stock. However, a U.S. holder of Commerce Bancshares common stock generally will be subject to U.S. federal income tax on cash received in lieu of any fractional share of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock or preferred stock that a holder would otherwise be entitled to receive.

This tax treatment may not apply to all Commerce Bancshares shareholders. Determining the actual tax consequences of the Merger to Commerce Bancshares shareholders can be complicated and will depend on your particular circumstances. Commerce Bancshares shareholders should consult their own tax advisor for a full understanding of the Merger's tax consequences that are particular to each shareholder.

To review the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger to U.S. holders of Commerce Bancshares common stock in greater detail, please see the section "Proposal I — The Proposed Merger — Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger" beginning on page 51.

RISK FACTORS

In addition to the other information contained in or incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/ prospectus, including the matters addressed under the section “Caution About Forward-Looking Statements” beginning on page 16, you should consider carefully the risk factors described below, in deciding how to vote. You should also read and consider the risk factors associated with the business of Berkshire Hills Bancorp because the risk factors may affect the operations and financial results of the consolidated entity. These risk factors may be found in the periodic reports and other documents of Berkshire Hills Bancorp and is incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus. See “Where You Can Find More Information” on page 96.

Because the market price of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock will fluctuate, Commerce Bancshares shareholders cannot be sure of the trading price of the merger consideration they will receive and the price of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock might decrease after the Merger.

Upon completion of the Merger, each share of Commerce Bancshares common stock will be converted into the right to receive merger consideration consisting of shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock or, subject to the 9.9% ownership limitation, Berkshire Hills Bancorp non-voting preferred stock for those shares of Commerce Bancshares common stock that cannot be converted to Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock due to this ownership limit. Commerce Bancshares does not have the right under the Merger Agreement to increase the exchange ratio in the Merger Agreement in the event of any decline in the stock price of Berkshire Hills Bancorp prior to the Merger. There also will be a period of time between the date when shareholders of Commerce Bancshares vote on the Merger Agreement and the date when the Merger is completed. The market price of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock may vary between the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, the date of the Commerce Bancshares special meeting, and the date of completion of the Merger. For example, during the twelve-month period ending on July 28, 2017 (the most recent practicable date before the printing of this proxy statement/prospectus), the price of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock varied from a low of $25.90 to a high of $38.65 and ended that period at $36.85. The market value of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock fluctuates based upon general market economic conditions, Berkshire Hills Bancorp’s business and prospects and other factors. Many of these factors are beyond the control of Commerce Bancshares and Berkshire Hills Bancorp and are not necessarily related to a change in the financial performance or condition of Commerce Bancshares or Berkshire Hills Bancorp. As the market price for shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock will fluctuate, based on numerous factors, the value of the shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock (or, to the extent an Acting in Concert Group exceeds the Voting Stock Consideration Limit, the value of Berkshire Hills Bancorp preferred stock) that a Commerce Bancshares shareholder will receive in the Merger will correspondingly fluctuate. It is impossible to predict accurately the market price of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock after completion of the Merger. Accordingly, the price of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock on the date of the special meeting may not be indicative of the price of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock immediately prior to completion of the Merger and the price of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock after the Merger is completed. Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock is listed on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol “BHLB.” We urge you to obtain current market quotations for Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock.

Holders of Berkshire Hills Bancorp Series B preferred stock will have a limited market to trade their Series B preferred stock.

There is no established public trading market for the Series B preferred stock, and Berkshire Hills Bancorp does not expect a market to develop. In addition, we do not intend to apply for listing of the Series B preferred stock on any national securities exchange or trading system.

The Series B preferred stock is only convertible to Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock under limited conditions. Accordingly, holders of Series B preferred stock may experience illiquidity with respect to their shares of Series B preferred stock.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Each Shareholder subject to the Voting Stock Consideration Limit will receive Berkshire Hills Bancorp Series B preferred stock as consideration for their shares of Commerce Bancshares common stock, which is a series of non-voting preferred stock. Accordingly, each Commerce Bancshares shareholder who receives Series B preferred stock will have less influence over Berkshire Hills Bancorp as compared to the influence that such shareholder may now have over Commerce Bancshares and will have limited options to convert to Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock.

Certain shareholders of Commerce Bancshares currently have a controlling interest in Commerce Bancshares and may vote on the election of directors and other matters affecting Commerce Bancshares. In connection with the merger, Berkshire Hills Bancorp will issue Series B preferred stock to any Commerce Bancshares shareholder as consideration for any shares of Commerce Bancshares common stock that are not convertible to Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock as a result of the Voting Stock Consideration Limit. Accordingly, one or more shareholder of Commerce Bancshares will be limited to a 9.9% voting interest in Berkshire Hills Bancorp and the remaining Commerce Bancshares common stock will be converted to Series B non-voting preferred stock. These Commerce Bancshares shareholders will experience a decline in their influence on management of Berkshire Hills Bancorp as a result. Furthermore, the Series B preferred stock may only convert to Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock under limited conditions, including a transfer to an individual outside of the Acting in Concert Group or a conversion of a limited number of shares to permit the holder to own no more than 9.9% of the then-outstanding Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock, which further limits their influence on Berkshire Hills Bancorp and management of Berkshire Hills Bancorp.

General market conditions and unpredictable factors could adversely affect market value for the Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock and Series B preferred stock.

There can be no assurance about the market value of the Series B preferred stock that will be issued upon completion of the merger. Several factors, many of which are beyond the control of Berkshire Hills Bancorp, could influence the market value of such stock, including:

- Whether Berkshire Hills Bancorp declares or fails to declare dividends from time to time;
- Berkshire Hills Bancorp's general economic condition and creditworthiness;
- Interest rate risk;
- Developments in the securities, credit, and housing markets, and developments with respect to financial institutions generally;
- The market for similar securities; and
- Economic, corporate, securities market, geopolitical, regulatory or judicial events that affect Berkshire Hills Bancorp, the banking industry, or the financial markets generally.

Shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock and Series B preferred stock will be equity interests and will not constitute indebtedness. As such, such stock will rank junior to all indebtedness of, and other non-equity claims on, Berkshire Hills Bancorp with respect to assets available to satisfy claims.

Shareholders of both Berkshire Hills Bancorp and Commerce will have a reduced ownership and voting interest after the merger and will exercise less influence over management.

As a result of the merger, the percentage ownership of every shareholder in the combined company will be smaller than the shareholder's percentage ownership of Berkshire Hills Bancorp or Commerce Bancshares, respectively, prior to the merger. Berkshire Hills Bancorp estimates that upon completion of the merger, current Commerce Bancshares shareholders will own approximately 12.0% of the outstanding shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock and 500,000 shares of Series B preferred stock, and current Berkshire Hills Bancorp shareholders will own approximately 88.0% of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock and no shares of the Series B preferred stock (based on March 31, 2017 information). If hypothetically all of the Series B preferred stock were converted to Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock immediately after the Merger at a rate of two shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock for each share of Series B preferred stock, current Commerce Bancshares shareholders would own approximately 14.0% of the outstanding shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock, and current Berkshire Hills Bancorp shareholders would own approximately 86.0% (based on March 31, 2017 information).

Future issuances of Berkshire Hills Bancorp equity securities could dilute shareholder ownership and voting interest. Berkshire Hills Bancorp's Certificate of Incorporation authorizes the issuance of up to fifty million shares of common stock and one million shares of preferred stock. Any future issuance of equity securities by Berkshire Hills Bancorp may result in dilution in the percentage ownership and voting interest of Berkshire Hills Bancorp shareholders, including, after completion of the Merger, former Commerce Bancshares shareholders. Also, any securities Berkshire Hills Bancorp sells in the future may be valued differently, and the issuance of equity securities for future services, acquisitions or other corporate actions may have the effect of diluting the value of the shares held by Berkshire Hills Bancorp shareholders.

The restrictions on solicitation contained in the Merger Agreement and the termination fee may discourage other companies from trying to acquire Commerce Bancshares.

Until the completion of the Merger, Commerce Bancshares is prohibited from taking any action to knowingly initiate, solicit or engage in discussions or negotiations with, or knowingly provide any information to any person other than Berkshire Hills Bancorp concerning any purchase of a majority of the outstanding Commerce Bancshares common stock, any merger of Commerce Bancshares, or the sale of substantially all of the assets of Commerce Bancshares, or any similar transaction. In addition, Commerce Bancshares has agreed to pay a termination fee to Berkshire Hills Bancorp in specified circumstances. These provisions could discourage other companies from trying to acquire Commerce Bancshares even though those other companies might be willing to offer greater value to Commerce Bancshares' shareholders than Berkshire Hills Bancorp has offered in the Merger. The payment of the termination fee could also have a material adverse effect on Commerce Bancshares' financial condition.

Commerce Bancshares will be subject to business uncertainties and contractual restrictions while the Merger is pending.

The pursuit of the Merger may place a significant burden on management and internal resources of Commerce Bancshares. Any significant diversion of management attention away from ongoing business and any difficulties encountered in the transition could affect Commerce Bancshares' financial results. In addition, the Merger Agreement requires that Commerce Bancshares operate in the usual, regular and ordinary course of business and restricts Commerce Bancshares from taking certain actions prior to the effective time of the Merger or termination of the Merger without Berkshire Hills Bancorp's consent in writing. These restrictions may prevent Commerce Bancshares from pursuing attractive business opportunities that may arise prior to the completion of the Merger.

There is no assurance when or even if the Merger will be completed.

Completion of the Merger is subject to satisfaction or waiver of a number of conditions. See "Proposal I — The Proposed Merger — Conditions to Completing the Merger." There can be no assurance that Berkshire Hills Bancorp and Commerce Bancshares will be able to satisfy the closing conditions or that closing conditions beyond their control will be satisfied or waived.

Berkshire Hills Bancorp and Commerce Bancshares can agree at any time to terminate the Merger Agreement, even if Commerce Bancshares' shareholders have already voted to approve the Merger Agreement. Berkshire Hills Bancorp and Commerce Bancshares can also terminate the Merger Agreement under other specified circumstances. See "Proposal I — The Proposed Merger — Terminating the Merger Agreement."

Certain of Commerce Bancshares' officers and directors have interests that are different from, or in addition to, interests of Commerce Bancshares' shareholders generally.

These include: (1) acknowledgement agreements for certain officers of Commerce Bancshares that provide for cash severance payments and continued health insurance benefits upon completion of the Merger; (2) a cash payment in connection with the termination of all outstanding Commerce Bancshares phantom stock awards; (3) the appointment of two directors of Commerce Bancshares to the board of directors of Berkshire Hills Bancorp and Berkshire Bank immediately following the Merger; (4) consulting and retention agreements with certain key executives of Commerce Bancshares; and (5) provisions in the Merger Agreement relating to indemnification of directors and officers and insurance for directors and officers of Commerce Bancshares for events occurring before the Merger.

For a more detailed discussion of these interests, see “Merger-Related Executive Compensation for Commerce Bancshares’ Executive Officers” beginning on page 57.

Failure to complete the Merger could negatively impact the future businesses and financial results of Berkshire Hills Bancorp and Commerce Bancshares.

If the Merger is not completed, the ongoing businesses of Berkshire Hills Bancorp and Commerce Bancshares may be adversely affected and Berkshire Hills Bancorp and Commerce Bancshares will be subject to several risks, including the following:

- Berkshire Hills Bancorp and Commerce Bancshares will be required to pay certain costs relating to the Merger, whether or not the Merger is completed, such as legal, accounting, and other professional fees;
- under the Merger Agreement, Commerce Bancshares is subject to certain restrictions on the conduct of its business prior to completing the Merger, which may adversely affect its ability to execute certain of its business strategies; and
- matters relating to the Merger may require substantial commitments of time and resources by Berkshire Hills Bancorp and Commerce Bancshares management, which could otherwise have been devoted to other opportunities that may have been beneficial to Berkshire Hills Bancorp and Commerce Bancshares as independent companies, as the case may be.

In addition, if the Merger is not completed, Berkshire Hills Bancorp and/or Commerce Bancshares may experience negative reactions from the financial markets and from their respective customers and employees. Berkshire Hills Bancorp and/or Commerce Bancshares also could be subject to litigation related to any failure to complete the Merger or to enforcement proceedings commenced against Berkshire Hills Bancorp or Commerce Bancshares to perform their respective obligations under the Merger Agreement. If the Merger is not completed, Berkshire Hills Bancorp and Commerce Bancshares cannot assure their shareholders that the risks described above will not materialize and will not materially affect the business, financial results and stock prices of Berkshire Hills Bancorp and/or Commerce Bancshares.

The shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock to be received by Commerce Bancshares shareholders receiving the stock consideration as a result of the Merger will have different rights from shares of Commerce Bancshares common stock.

Following completion of the Merger, Commerce Bancshares shareholders will no longer be shareholders of Commerce Bancshares, a Massachusetts corporation, but instead will be shareholders of Berkshire Hills Bancorp, a Delaware corporation. There will be important differences between your current rights as a Commerce Bancshares shareholder and the rights to which you will be entitled as a Berkshire Hills Bancorp shareholder. See “Comparison of Rights of Shareholders” beginning on page 86 for a discussion of the different rights associated with Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock and Commerce Bancshares common stock.

Berkshire Hills Bancorp may fail to realize the anticipated benefits of the Merger.

The success of the Merger will depend on, among other things, Berkshire Hills Bancorp’s ability to realize anticipated cost savings and to combine the businesses of Berkshire Hills Bancorp and Commerce Bancshares in a manner that does not materially disrupt the existing customer relationships of Commerce Bank & Trust Company or Berkshire Bank, or result in decreased revenues from any loss of customers. If Berkshire Hills Bancorp is not able to successfully achieve these objectives, the anticipated benefits of the Merger may not be realized fully or at all or may take longer to realize than expected.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Berkshire Hills Bancorp and Commerce Bancshares have operated and, until the completion of the Merger, will continue to operate independently. It is possible that the integration process could result in the loss of key employees, the disruption of Berkshire Hills Bancorp's or Commerce Bancshares' ongoing businesses or inconsistencies in standards, controls, procedures and policies that adversely affect the ability of Berkshire Hills Bancorp to maintain relationships with customers and employees or to achieve the anticipated benefits of the Merger.

Berkshire Hills Bancorp and Berkshire Bank may not receive the required regulatory approvals. Such approvals may be subject to adverse regulatory conditions.

Before the Merger and bank merger may be completed, various approvals or waivers must be obtained from, or notifications submitted to, various governmental entities and bank regulators, principally, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, the Massachusetts Department of Banking and the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System. An adverse development in either party's regulatory standing or other factors could result in an inability to obtain one or more of the required regulatory approvals or delay their receipt. Neither Commerce Bancshares nor Berkshire Hills Bancorp can guarantee that it will receive all required regulatory approvals in order to complete the Merger. In addition, some of the governmental authorities from whom those approvals must be obtained may impose conditions, terms, obligations or restrictions on the completion of the Merger or require changes in the terms of the Merger and such conditions, terms, obligations or restrictions may have the effect of delaying the completion of the Merger, imposing additional material costs on or materially limiting the revenues of the combined company following the Merger or otherwise reduce the anticipated benefits of the Merger if the Merger were consummated successfully within the expected timeframe. In addition, neither Berkshire Hills Bancorp nor Commerce Bancshares can provide assurance that any such conditions, terms, obligations or restrictions will not result in the delay or abandonment of the Merger. Additionally, the completion of the Merger is conditioned on the absence of any orders, decrees or injunction by any court or agency of competent jurisdiction that would enjoin or prohibit the completion of the Merger. In addition, Berkshire Hills Bancorp and Commerce Bancshares will each have the right not to complete the Merger if any such regulatory approvals include any condition or requirement that would result in a material adverse effect or a burdensome condition on either of the parties or their subsidiaries.

Fully taxable equivalent considers the impact of tax advantaged investment securities and loans.

(5)
Generally accepted accounting principles require that loans acquired in a business combination be recorded at fair value, whereas loans from business activities are recorded at cost. The fair value of loans acquired in a business combination includes expected loan losses, and there is no loan loss allowance recorded for these loans at the time of acquisition. Accordingly, the ratio of the loan loss allowance to total loans is reduced as a result of the existence of such loans, and this measure is not directly comparable to prior periods. Similarly, net loan charge-offs are normally reduced for loans acquired in a business combination since these loans are recorded net of expected loan losses. Therefore, the ratio of net loan charge-offs to average loans is reduced as a result of the existence of such loans, and this measure is not directly comparable to prior periods. Other institutions may have loans acquired in a business combination, and therefore there may be no direct comparability of these ratios between and among other institutions.

NON-GAAP FINANCIAL MEASURES

This document contains certain non-GAAP financial measures in addition to results presented in accordance with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (“GAAP”). These non-GAAP measures are intended to provide the reader with additional supplemental perspectives on operating results, performance trends, and financial condition.

Non-GAAP financial measures are not a substitute for GAAP measures; they should be read and used in conjunction with Berkshire Hills Bancorp’s GAAP financial information. A reconciliation of non-GAAP financial measures to GAAP measures is provided above. In all cases, it should be understood that non-GAAP financial measures do not depict amounts that accrue directly to the benefit of shareholders. An item which management excludes when computing non-GAAP adjusted earnings can be of substantial importance to Berkshire Hills Bancorp’s results for any particular quarter or year. Berkshire Hills Bancorp’s non-GAAP earnings information set forth is not necessarily comparable to non-GAAP information which may be presented by other companies. Each non-GAAP measure used by Berkshire Hills Bancorp in this proxy statement/prospectus as supplemental financial data should be considered in conjunction with Berkshire Hills Bancorp’s GAAP financial information.

Berkshire Hills Bancorp utilizes the non-GAAP measure of adjusted earnings in evaluating operating trends, including components for adjusted revenue and expense. These measures exclude amounts which Berkshire Hills Bancorp views as unrelated to its normalized operations, including securities gains/losses, losses recorded for the hedge terminations, merger costs, restructuring costs, and systems conversion costs. Adjusted earnings are presented net of an adjustment for income tax expense. References to adjusted net income or adjusted income are also meant to refer to adjusted earnings. Berkshire Hills Bancorp also calculates adjusted earnings per share based on its measure of adjusted earnings. Berkshire Hills Bancorp views these amounts as important to understanding its operating trends, particularly due to the impact of accounting standards related to merger and acquisition activity. Analysts also rely on these measures in estimating and evaluating Berkshire Hills Bancorp’s operating performance. Management also believes that the computation of non-GAAP earnings and earnings per share may facilitate the comparison of Berkshire Hills Bancorp to other companies in the financial services industry.

Adjusted revenue and adjusted expense are computed based on the items used to compute adjusted earnings. Adjusted revenue excludes net securities gains. In several years, securities gains were recognized on stock positions held in acquired banks that resulted in the recording of revenue to recognize the gain at the time of the merger. In the first quarter of 2017, $13 million in securities gains were realized as a result of strong market conditions. In 2014 and 2017, revenue was also adjusted to exclude losses recorded on the termination of hedges, which were related to the acquisition of branches that was completed in the first quarter of 2014 and the acquisition of First Choice Bancorp in the fourth quarter of 2016. In 2013 and 2014, an adjustment was recorded for non-material out of period adjustments to net interest income, which were largely offsetting between the two periods.

Adjusted non-interest expense excludes merger and acquisition costs. These costs include professional fees, severance/benefit costs, systems conversion costs, and contract termination costs. Berkshire Hills Bancorp views merger and acquisition costs as part of the economic investment in acquired operations which are intended to provide future earnings benefits and return on investment. Restructuring costs include costs and losses related to the disposition of branches and other leased and owned real estate, as well as costs related to organization restructurings. Berkshire Hills Bancorp evaluates restructuring costs and considers the length of time for future operating benefits to payback these costs. Berkshire Hills Bancorp also includes net operating results of discontinued operations with restructuring costs. Berkshire Hills Bancorp adjusts expenses to exclude costs related to the conversion of core systems and other major computer systems which are not typical of normal annual operations and which build infrastructure for future expansion. In some cases, variable compensation costs related to the above projects are among the costs excluded in determining adjusted non-interest expense.

Berkshire Hills Bancorp determines the amount of the income tax expense adjustment as the difference between tax expense based on the GAAP tax rate and based on the effective tax rate applicable to core income. In 2014, due to the components of income in that year, Berkshire Hills Bancorp determined the income tax expense associated with the adjusting items for revenue and expense, and this amount was recorded as the income tax expense adjustment.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Adjusted return on assets and adjusted return on equity are computed as non-GAAP measures of performance and are based on adjusted net income and are used for the same reasons that adjusted net income is measured. Berkshire Hills Bancorp also measures its tangible equity, which excludes the balance of goodwill and other intangible assets. Berkshire Hills Bancorp measures tangible book value per share and the ratio of tangible equity to tangible assets. Tangible book value per share is an important valuation metric utilized by the investment community. The ratio of tangible equity to tangible assets is used by analysts and investors as one measure considered in evaluating Berkshire Hills Bancorp's leverage.

This proxy statement/prospectus is first being mailed to shareholders of Commerce Bancshares on or about August 11, 2017.

Matters to Be Considered

The purpose of the Commerce Bancshares special meeting of shareholders is: (i) to vote on a proposal to approve the Merger Agreement, and (ii) to vote upon a proposal to adjourn or postpone the Commerce Bancshares special meeting for the purpose, among others, of allowing additional time to solicit proxies. No business may be transacted at the special meeting except as specified in the notice accompanying this proxy statement/ prospectus.

Proxies

You may vote your shares of Commerce Bancshares common stock in any one of two alternative ways:

By paper proxy card; or

In person at the Commerce Bancshares shareholders' meeting.

Please read the following instructions and vote by whatever method is most convenient for you:

Paper Proxy Card. Each copy of this document mailed to Commerce Bancshares shareholders is accompanied by a proxy card with voting instructions for submission by mail. You should complete and return the proxy card accompanying this document to ensure that your vote is counted at the Commerce Bancshares special meeting, or at any adjournment or postponement of the meeting, regardless of whether you plan to attend the Commerce Bancshares special meeting.

In Person. You can vote your shares by attending the special meeting and voting in person. (Please note, however, that attendance at the special meeting will not in itself constitute revocation of a proxy previously delivered to Commerce Bancshares.)

You can revoke your proxy at any time before the vote is taken at the Commerce Bancshares special meeting. If your shares are held in "street name," your broker will vote your shares on the proposal to approve the Merger Agreement only if you provide instructions to your broker on how to vote. If you have not voted through your broker, you may revoke your proxy by: submitting written notice of revocation to the Secretary of Commerce Bancshares prior to the voting of such proxy; submitting a properly executed proxy bearing a later date; or voting in person at the special meeting.

Written notices of revocation and other communications about revoking your proxy should be addressed to:
Commerce Bancshares Corp.

386 Main Street

Worcester, Massachusetts 01608

Attention: William F. Burke, Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer

If your shares of common stock are held in street name, you should follow the instructions of your broker regarding the revocation of proxies.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

All shares of common stock represented by valid proxies received by Commerce Bancshares through this solicitation that are not revoked will be voted in accordance with your instructions on the proxy card. If you do not specify on your proxy card how you want your shares voted before signing and returning it, your proxy will be voted "FOR" approval of the Merger Agreement, and "FOR" the proposal to adjourn or postpone the special meeting if more time is needed to solicit additional proxies for the approval of the Merger Agreement.

Commerce Bancshares shareholders should NOT send stock certificates with their proxy cards. After the Merger is completed, Commerce Bancshares shareholders will be sent a transmittal form and instructions, at which time they will be requested to submit their stock certificates.

Solicitation of Proxies

Commerce Bancshares is soliciting proxies and will bear the entire cost of soliciting proxies from its shareholders. In addition to solicitation of proxies by mail, Commerce Bancshares will request that banks, brokers and other record holders send proxies and proxy material to the beneficial owners of Commerce Bancshares common stock and secure their voting instructions, if necessary. Commerce Bancshares will reimburse the record holders for their reasonable expenses in taking those actions. Commerce Bancshares may use several of its regular employees, who will not be specially compensated, to solicit proxies from Commerce Bancshares shareholders, either personally or by telephone, electronic mail or letter.

Record Date

The Commerce Bancshares board of directors has fixed the close of business on August 1, 2017 as the record date for determining Commerce Bancshares shareholders entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the Commerce Bancshares special meeting of shareholders. On August 1, 2017, 6,328,300 shares of Commerce Bancshares common stock were outstanding and held by approximately 69 holders of record.

Voting Rights and Vote Required

The presence, in person or by properly executed proxy, of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Commerce Bancshares common stock is necessary to constitute a quorum at the Commerce Bancshares special meeting of shareholders. Abstentions and broker non-votes will be counted solely for the purpose of determining whether a quorum is present. An unvoted proxy submitted by a broker is sometimes referred to as a broker non-vote. Approval of the Merger Agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds (2/3) of the issued and outstanding shares of Commerce Bancshares common stock entitled to vote at the Commerce Bancshares special meeting. You are entitled to one vote for each share of Commerce Bancshares common stock you held as of the record date.

Because the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds (2/3) of the outstanding shares of Commerce Bancshares common stock entitled to vote at the Commerce Bancshares special meeting is needed for Commerce Bancshares and Berkshire Hills Bancorp to proceed with the Merger, the failure to vote by proxy or in person will have the same effect as a vote "AGAINST" the Merger Agreement. Abstentions and broker non-votes also will have the same effect as a vote "AGAINST" the Merger Agreement. Accordingly, the Commerce Bancshares board of directors urges Commerce Bancshares shareholders to complete, date and sign the accompanying proxy card and return it promptly in the enclosed postage-paid envelope.

As of the record date, directors of Commerce Bancshares and their affiliates had the right to vote 6,088,864 shares of Commerce Bancshares common stock, or approximately 96.21% of the outstanding Commerce Bancshares common stock at that date. At the time the Merger Agreement with Berkshire Hills Bancorp was signed, each director of Commerce Bancshares entered into a separate agreement with Berkshire Hills Bancorp, pursuant to which, among other things, they agreed to vote or cause to be voted all shares over which they maintain sole or shared voting power in favor of approval of the Merger Agreement.

Recommendation of the Board of Directors

The Commerce Bancshares board of directors has unanimously approved the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated in the Merger Agreement. The Commerce Bancshares board of directors has determined that the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated in the Merger Agreement are advisable and in the best interests of Commerce Bancshares and its shareholders and unanimously recommends that you vote “FOR” approval of the Merger Agreement and “FOR” the proposal to adjourn or postpone the special meeting if more time is needed to solicit additional proxies for the approval of the Merger Agreement.

See “Proposal I — The Proposed Merger — Commerce Bancshares’ Reasons for the Merger and Recommendation of the Commerce Bancshares Board of Directors” on page 35 for a more detailed discussion of the Commerce Bancshares board of directors’ recommendation.

Voting at the Commerce Bancshares Special Meeting

If you want to vote your shares of Commerce Bancshares common stock held in street name in person at the Commerce Bancshares special meeting, you will have to obtain a written proxy in your name from the broker, bank or other nominee who holds your shares.

DISSENTERS' RIGHTS

Section 13.02(a)(1) of the Massachusetts Business Corporation Act generally provides that shareholders of Massachusetts corporations are entitled to assert appraisal rights in the event of a merger and to receive payment in cash for the fair value of their shares of stock instead of the merger consideration. Commerce Bancshares has concluded that Commerce Bancshares shareholders are entitled to exercise appraisal rights in connection with the proposed merger with Berkshire Hills Bancorp. Commerce Bancshares shareholders electing to exercise dissenters' rights must comply with the provisions of Section 13 of the Massachusetts Business Corporation Act. A copy of the applicable portions of the Massachusetts Business Corporation Act is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex C. Failure to follow those provisions exactly could result in a loss of appraisal rights, in which case dissenting shareholders will receive the merger consideration with respect to their shares.

Commerce Bancshares shareholders who are entitled to vote on the merger and who would like to assert their appraisal rights are required to do the following pursuant to Section 13 of the Massachusetts Business Corporation Act:

- Deliver written notice to Commerce Bancshares of their intent to demand payment for their shares of Commerce Bancshares common stock if the proposed merger is effectuated. The notice must be delivered before the shareholder vote to approve the merger agreement takes place. Voting against, abstaining from voting or failure to vote with respect to the merger agreement does not by itself constitute demand for appraisal for purposes of Massachusetts law. The written objection should be filed with Commerce Bancshares Corp., Attn: Corporate Secretary, 386 Main Street, Worcester, Massachusetts 01608.
- Refrain from voting "FOR" approval of the Commerce Bancshares merger agreement proposal. If a shareholder returns a signed and dated proxy but does not specify a vote "AGAINST" approval of the Commerce Bancshares merger agreement proposal or a direction to "ABSTAIN" from voting on the proposal, the proxy will be voted "FOR" approval of the Commerce Bancshares merger agreement proposal, which will have the effect of waiving their appraisal rights.
- Comply with other procedures required under Section 13 of the Massachusetts Business Corporation Act.

Section 13 of the Massachusetts Business Corporation Act requires that Berkshire Hills Bancorp deliver, within 10 days after the effective date of the merger, a written appraisal notice and forms containing certain information to all shareholders who have properly complied with the procedures for demanding appraisal. Shareholders who have received such notice and wish to exercise appraisal rights must make certain certifications to Berkshire Hills Bancorp and deposit their share certificates with Berkshire Hills Bancorp in order to perfect their appraisal rights. Each shareholder that has properly perfected their appraisal rights will be entitled to a cash payment of the estimated fair value of the shares, plus interest but subject to any applicable withholding taxes, within 30 days of the written appraisal notice and forms' due date, except for shareholders who acquired their shares on or after May 22, 2017, who are not entitled to payment until they accept the offer from Berkshire Hills Bancorp. A shareholder that fails to execute and return the forms, and comply with the terms stated therein, will not be entitled to a payment.

If a dissenting shareholder believes that the amount paid or offered to be paid by Berkshire Hills Bancorp is less than the fair value of their shares, the dissenting shareholder is required, within 30 days of receipt of the payment or offer of payment, to notify Berkshire Hills Bancorp in writing of the shareholder's own estimate of the fair value of the shares and demand payment of that amount plus interest, less any payment received. If the shareholder's demand for payment is not settled within 60 days of Berkshire Hills Bancorp's receipt thereof, Berkshire Hills Bancorp is required to petition the court to determine the fair value of the shares and accrued interest or, if the petition is not made, to pay the amount demanded plus interest to the dissenting shareholder.

The foregoing summary is not intended to be a complete statement of the procedures for exercising appraisal rights under Massachusetts law. Any shareholder who believes they are entitled to appraisal rights and wishes to preserve those rights should carefully review Sections 13.01 through 13.31 of the Massachusetts Business Corporation Act, which are attached as Annex C to this proxy statement/

prospectus, which set forth the procedures to be complied with in perfecting any such rights. Shareholders who wish to dissent from the merger and pursue their appraisal rights should consult with legal counsel to ensure strict compliance with statutory procedures and avoid the loss of any appraisal rights to which they may be entitled. Dissenting shareholders should also consult with a tax advisor regarding the tax consequences of exercising their appraisal rights under Massachusetts law.

PROPOSAL I — THE PROPOSED MERGER

The following summary of the Merger Agreement is qualified by reference to the complete text of the Merger Agreement. A copy of the Merger Agreement is attached as Annex A to this proxy statement/ prospectus and is incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus. You should read the Merger Agreement completely and carefully as it, rather than this description, is the legal document that governs the Merger.

General

The Merger Agreement provides for the merger of Commerce Bancshares with and into Berkshire Hills Bancorp, with Berkshire Hills Bancorp as the surviving entity. Commerce Bancshares will cease to exist upon closing of the Merger. Immediately thereafter, Commerce Bank & Trust Company will merge with and into Berkshire Bank, with Berkshire Bank as the surviving institution.

Background of the Merger

Commerce Bancshares' senior management and board of directors, with the assistance of Commerce Bancshares' financial advisors, have reviewed from time to time various potential strategic alternatives available to Commerce Bancshares, including being acquired by a larger banking company or combining with a comparably-sized banking company. In evaluating strategic alternatives, Commerce Bancshares' senior management and board of directors have considered potential criteria for screening strategic partners and evaluating a potential strategic transaction and the evolving mergers and acquisitions environment. In addition, Commerce Bancshares' senior management and board of directors have compared from time to time the quantitative measures of Commerce Bancshares' performance with those of comparable banking companies and reviewed conditions in the banking industry generally, including the trend towards consolidation and potential strategies for enhancing Commerce Bancshares' competitive position in its market.

On December 6, 2016, Commerce Bancshares engaged Sandler O'Neill & Partners, L.P. to advise Commerce Bancshares in a potential sale transaction. Representatives of Sandler O'Neill were instructed to conduct a targeted solicitation process to gauge potential buyers' levels of interest in considering an acquisition of Commerce Bancshares. Representatives of Sandler O'Neill were specifically directed to contact Berkshire Hills Bancorp and a limited number of other potential acquirers.

Beginning in December 2016, representatives of Sandler O'Neill contacted Berkshire Hills Bancorp and six other prospective acquirers. Like Berkshire Hills Bancorp, each of those other prospective acquirers is a banking company that is substantially larger than Commerce and has a meaningful presence in markets in or near which Commerce Bancshares operates. Berkshire Hills Bancorp and these other companies were perceived as likely to be in a position to make a compelling offer based upon (i) their ability to consummate an acquisition of Commerce Bancshares, (ii) their ability to offer to acquire Commerce Bancshares solely or mostly for stock, (iii) the quality of the stock consideration that might be offered, including the liquidity and performance over time, (iv) the anticipated strategic interest in the Commerce Bancshares franchise, and (v) the ability to conduct due diligence and negotiate an agreement expeditiously.

Four potential acquirers other than Berkshire Hills Bancorp initially expressed interest in learning more about the potential transaction and signed customary confidentiality agreements, which were identical in all material respects. Berkshire Hills Bancorp at that time declined to enter into a confidentiality agreement. Each of those four potential acquirers received a confidential information memorandum describing Commerce Bancshares which representatives of Sandler O'Neill assisted Commerce Bancshares' senior management in preparing and obtained concurrent access to a data site with preliminary due diligence information. Of those four potential acquirers, two, which we refer to as "Company A" and "Company B" in this proxy statement/prospectus, submitted written preliminary indications of interest in January 2017. Each of the other two potential acquirers informed representatives of Sandler O'Neill that it was not interested in pursuing an acquisition of Commerce Bancshares.

At Commerce Bancshares' direction, representatives of Sandler O'Neill entered into parallel discussions with Company A and Company B with the goal of increasing the attractiveness of the economic terms of their respective proposals from the perspective of Commerce Bancshares shareholders and assessing the prospects that the proposed transaction could be completed as contemplated. A material consideration in the valuation of Commerce Bancshares by each of Company A and Company B was Commerce Bancshares' portfolio of loans collateralized by taxicab medallions, which we refer to in this proxy statement/prospectus as the "Medallion Loans". Moreover, Company A's willingness to consider an acquisition of Commerce Bancshares was conditioned upon Commerce Bancshares' agreement that it would sell the Medallion Loans prior to the completion of the acquisition.

Commerce Bancshares' portfolio of Medallion Loans stems from its 2012 acquisition of Mercantile Capital Corp., the holding company of Mercantile Bank & Trust based in Boston, Massachusetts. At the time of that acquisition, Mercantile was one of the leading providers of Medallion Loans secured by taxi medallions in Boston and Cambridge, Massachusetts. Commerce Bancshares continued to offer Medallion Loans after the acquisition, and at March 31, 2017, Commerce Bancshares had total Medallion Loans of $103 million, secured by 392 medallions in Boston (85%) and Cambridge (15%).

Recent changes in the taxicab and for-hire vehicle industries have created uncertainty regarding the value of the Medallion Loans. Ridesharing applications, or ridesharing apps, used by for-hire vehicles compete directly with operators of medallion taxis. This competition has materially decreased the market value for taxi medallions. Commerce Bancshares estimates that the value of taxi medallions in Boston peaked in 2014, when the medallions sold for $700,000, and that as of December 31, 2016, Boston medallions were valued at approximately $365,000.

Decreases in the value of taxi medallions in the Boston and Cambridge markets may adversely affect the Medallion Loans in various ways. For example, such a decrease may result in an increase in the loan-to-value ratios of the Medallion Loans, which in turn may decrease the market value of those loans. In addition, when medallion values decline significantly, there typically is an increase in the risk of Medallion Loan delinquencies, foreclosures and borrower bankruptcies. Moreover, Commerce Bancshares' ability to recover on defaulted Medallion Loans by foreclosing on and selling the medallion collateral would be diminished, which could result in material losses on defaulted Medallion Loans. Company B informed Commerce Bancshares that as a consequence of the material decline in the market value for taxi medallions in the Boston and Cambridge markets in recent years, Company B anticipated that it would need to significantly decrease the value of the Medallion Loans as part of its purchase accounting adjustments if it acquired Commerce Bancshares.

In an effort to reduce uncertainty inherent in the valuation of Commerce Bancshares' Medallion Loan portfolio and to seek to improve the proposed terms that Company A and Company B were willing to offer, Commerce Bancshares considered through late March the feasibility of various alternatives to maximize the value of the Medallion Loans, including through the sale of the Medallion Loans to an unrelated third-party in a transaction separate from the acquisition of Commerce Bancshares. After considering various tax, accounting and regulatory considerations, Commerce Bancshares concluded that it would likely not be in the best interest of Commerce Bancshares stockholders to transfer the Medallion Loans in a transaction separate from the acquisition of Commerce Bancshares.

In mid-March, Berkshire Hills Bancorp informed representatives of Sandler O'Neill that it had reconsidered and was interested in submitting a proposal to acquire Commerce Bancshares. Berkshire Hills Bancorp signed a confidentiality agreement that was not materially different than those signed by Company A and Company B, and then obtained access to the same data site available to Company A and Company B. Berkshire Hills Bancorp met with Commerce Bancshares' senior management and completed its initial due diligence review of Commerce Bancshares, including a review of all of the Medallion Loans.

On April 19, 2017, Berkshire Hills Bancorp delivered to Commerce Bancshares a written expression of interest in acquiring Commerce Bancshares for a combination of stock and cash. Berkshire Hills Bancorp proposed to pay 75% of the merger consideration in the form of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock with each Commerce Bancshares stock being converted into shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock using a fixed exchange ratio of 0.95 shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock for each share of Commerce Bancshares common stock, and to acquire each of the remaining shares of Commerce Bancshares common stock for cash, valuing Commerce Bancshares common stock at $34.00 per share. Berkshire Hills Bancorp's indication of interest was subject to customary contingencies, including completion of more in-depth due diligence and the negotiation of a mutually acceptable merger agreement, and a request by Berkshire Hills Bancorp's President and CEO Michael Daly for an opportunity to meet personally with Mr. Massad, but was not conditioned upon the sale of the Medallion Loans prior to or in connection with the closing of the proposed transaction.

Representatives of Commerce Bancshares invited representatives of Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Company A and Company B to present each party's best and final offer. On May 2, representatives of Commerce and Sandler O'Neill met with representatives of Company B and with Mr. Daly on behalf of Berkshire Hills Bancorp. At that time, Mr. Massad and Mr. Daly also held a private, one-on-one conversation initiated by Mr. Massad. Following those meetings, Commerce Bancshares determined that Berkshire Hills Bancorp met its stated criteria for a potential transaction partner based upon (i) its ability to consummate an acquisition of Commerce Bancshares, (ii) its ability to offer to acquire Commerce Bancshares solely or mostly for stock, (iii) the quality of the stock consideration that Berkshire Hills Bancorp could offer, including the liquidity and performance of its stock over time, (iv) Berkshire Hills Bancorp's strategic interest in the Commerce Bancshares franchise and the perceived "fit" between the two companies, and (v) the ability of Berkshire Hills Bancorp to complete due diligence and negotiate an agreement expeditiously. Commerce Bancshares agreed that it would negotiate exclusively with Berkshire Hills Bancorp, and Berkshire Hills Bancorp promptly completed its due diligence review.

In Commerce Bancshares' discussions with Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Commerce Bancshares sought to increase the percentage of the merger consideration that would be payable in the form of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock. Representatives of Commerce Bancshares and Berkshire Hills Bancorp also discussed the proposed approximately $105 million purchase accounting adjustment that Berkshire Hills Bancorp expected to make to reduce the value of Commerce Bancshares' loans, with the vast majority of the adjustment to be made to the Medallion Loans. In addition, Commerce Bancshares and Berkshire Hills Bancorp discussed Berkshire Hills Bancorp's proposed plan to issue additional common stock in a public offering to increase Berkshire Hills Bancorp's common equity capital by at least $125 million. In connection with the anticipated public offering, Commerce Bancshares consented to Sandler O'Neill's participation as a manager of the offering.

Recognizing that Mr. Massad would be a significant shareholder of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock as a result of the merger transaction, Berkshire Hills Bancorp and Mr. Massad also discussed whether Mr. Massad would be willing to receive shares of Series B Non-Voting Berkshire Hills Bancorp preferred stock in lieu of shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock to the extent that the ownership of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock by Mr. Massad and his Acting in Concert Group would exceed 9.9% of the shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock outstanding immediately after the completion of the Merger. In addition, Berkshire Hills Bancorp and Mr. Massad discussed passivity commitments, trading volume restrictions and other terms that Berkshire Hills Bancorp proposed to address in a Shareholder Agreement between Mr. Massad and Berkshire Hills Bancorp that was a condition to Berkshire Hills Bancorp's willingness to enter into a merger agreement. As an inducement to Mr. Massad to accept the restrictions in the Shareholder Agreement and to agree to limit the amount of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock that he and his Acting in Concert Group would receive in the Merger to 9.9% of the shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock outstanding immediately after the completion of the Merger, Berkshire Hills Bancorp modified its proposal to provide that the merger consideration would consist solely of Berkshire Hills Bancorp capital stock and to convert each share of Commerce Bancshares common stock into 0.93 shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock (or, in Mr. Massad's case, the economic equivalent of Series B Non-Voting Berkshire Hills Bancorp preferred stock, to the extent that the shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock that Mr. Massad and his Acting in Concert Group would otherwise receive in the Merger would exceed the Voting Stock Consideration Limit).

On May 4, Berkshire Hills Bancorp provided the initial draft of a merger agreement. From May 5 through May 18, Commerce Bancshares senior management, representatives of Mr. Massad, and Nutter McClennen & Fish LLP, counsel to Commerce Bancshares and Mr. Massad, participated in discussions with Berkshire Hills Bancorp's senior management and legal counsel on various issues relating to the terms of the Merger and Shareholder Agreement and other aspects of the proposed transaction. The parties also finalized related agreements confirming the treatment of pre-existing severance and other compensation arrangements for Brian W. Thompson, William Burke, Michael J. Crawford and James R. Belliveau. See "— Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger that are Different from Yours," beginning on page 54 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

On May 15, representatives of Commerce Bancshares' senior management, Sandler O'Neill, and Nutter met in person with Berkshire Hills Bancorp's senior management to review Berkshire Hills Bancorp's current financial condition, recent operating results and strategic plans.

On May 18, the Commerce Bancshares board of directors met in person with representatives of Sandler O'Neill and Nutter. The Commerce Bancshares board reviewed the terms of the proposed merger agreement and the Shareholder Agreement between Mr. Massad and Berkshire Hills Bancorp. In particular, the Commerce Bancshares board reviewed the material terms of the merger agreement, including the merger consideration, closing conditions, Commerce Bancshares' ability to consider unsolicited acquisition proposals under certain circumstances, the parties' termination rights, and the corresponding termination fees. At this meeting, representatives of Sandler O'Neill reviewed the financial aspects of the proposed Merger and rendered an oral opinion (which was confirmed by a written opinion, dated May 18, 2017) to the effect that, as of such date and subject to the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered, and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by Sandler O'Neill as set forth in such opinion, the exchange ratio in the proposed Merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Commerce Bancshares common stock. See "— Opinion of Commerce Bancshares Corp.'s Financial Advisor," beginning on page 38 of this proxy statement/prospectus, and the Sandler O'Neill opinion included as Annex B to this proxy statement/prospectus.

Mr. Thompson briefed the Commerce Bancshares board of directors on the roles anticipated for him, Mr. Crawford and Mr. Belliveau, noting that he and Mr. Crawford would serve as consultants to Berkshire Bank for a period of six months following the Merger, that Berkshire Bank may extend their consulting engagement for an additional six months upon 30 days prior notice to and approval by the consultant, and the compensation paid to Messrs. Thompson and Crawford as consultants would $63,792 and $41,845 per month respectively. See "— Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger that are Different from Yours," beginning on page 54 of this proxy statement/prospectus. Throughout the presentations, Commerce Bancshares' directors provided comments and asked questions, which were addressed by Mr. Thompson, representatives of Sandler O'Neill and Nutter. At the conclusion of the meeting, by the unanimous vote of all directors, the Commerce Bancshares board of directors approved the Merger Agreement and the proposed Merger, authorized management to enter into the Merger Agreement and other related agreements, and recommended that the Commerce Bancshares shareholders vote in favor of approving the Merger Agreement.

On the morning of May 22, before the opening of trading on the U.S. stock market, each of Commerce Bancshares' directors delivered signed voting agreements to Berkshire Hills Bancorp; Commerce Bancshares and Berkshire Hills Bancorp entered into the Merger Agreement; and Commerce Bancshares and Berkshire Hills Bancorp issued a joint press release announcing that they had entered into the Merger Agreement.

Commerce Bancshares' Reasons for the Merger and Recommendation of the Commerce Bancshares' Board of Directors

The board of directors of Commerce Bancshares believes that the Merger Agreement and the Merger are fair to and in the best interests of Commerce Bancshares, and that the consideration to be paid in the Merger is fair to and in the best interests of the stockholders of Commerce Bancshares. Accordingly, the Commerce Bancshares board of directors has approved the Merger Agreement and unanimously recommends that Commerce Bancshares stockholders vote "FOR" the adoption of the Merger Agreement.

In approving the Merger Agreement, the Commerce Bancshares' board of directors consulted with legal counsel as to its legal duties and the terms of the Merger Agreement and with its financial advisors with respect to the financial aspects of the transaction and specific transaction terms. In arriving at its determination, the Commerce Bancshares' board of directors also considered a number of factors, including the following:

- the Commerce Bancshares board of directors' and senior management's knowledge of Commerce Bancshares' business, operations, properties, assets, financial condition, operating results and prospects, and its and their understanding of Berkshire Hills Bancorp's business, operations, properties, assets, financial condition, operating results, historical market prices and prospects, including information obtained through due diligence;

- the fact that the Commerce Bancshares stockholders will receive shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock (or preferred stock convertible into common stock) pursuant to the Merger and the potential that the value of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock will increase after the signing of the Merger Agreement;

- the May 18, 2017 financial presentation of Sandler O'Neill (including the assumptions and methodologies underlying the analyses in connection therewith) and the written opinion of Sandler O'Neill delivered to Commerce Bancshares' board of directors on May 18, 2017, to the effect that, as of May 18, 2017 and based upon and subject to the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered, and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by Sandler O'Neill as set forth in such opinion, the exchange ratio in the proposed Merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Commerce Bancshares common stock, as more fully described under "— Opinion of Commerce Bancshares Corp's Financial Advisor," beginning on page 38 of this proxy statement/prospectus, and in the Sandler O'Neill opinion included as Annex B to this proxy statement/prospectus;

- the ability of Commerce Bancshares under the terms of the Merger Agreement to negotiate with third parties concerning certain unsolicited competing acquisition proposals if Commerce Bancshares were to receive such a proposal prior to the approval of the Merger Agreement by Commerce Bancshares' stockholders, and to terminate the Merger Agreement upon the payment to Berkshire Hills Bancorp of a termination fee of $8.5 million;

- the efforts made to negotiate a Merger Agreement favorable to Commerce Bancshares and its stockholders and the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement;

- the fact that two Commerce Bancshares directors will become directors of Berkshires Hills Bancorp upon the closing of the Merger; and

- the fact that Mr. Massad, the holder of approximately 92% of Commerce Bancshares' outstanding common stock, is supportive of the Merger Agreement and the Merger.

Commerce Bancshares' board of directors also weighed the factors described above against certain factors and potential risks associated with entering into the Merger Agreement, including, among others, the following:

- the fact that the exchange ratio is fixed, which means that Commerce Bancshares' stockholders could be adversely affected by a decrease in the trading price of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock following the signing of the Merger Agreement;

- the possibility of costs and delays resulting from seeking the regulatory approvals necessary to complete the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, the possibility that the Merger may not be completed if such approvals are not obtained, and the potential negative impacts on Commerce Bancshares and its business if such approvals are not obtained;

- the fact that the integration of Commerce Bancshares and Berkshire Hills Bancorp may be complex and time consuming and may require substantial resources and effort, and the risk that if the combined bank is not successfully integrated, the anticipated benefits of the Merger may not be realized fully or at all or may take longer to realize than expected;

the possibility that the anticipated strategic and other benefits to Commerce Bancshares and the combined bank following the completion of the Merger will not be realized or will take longer to realize than expected; the potential for diversion of management and employee attention and for increased employee attrition during the period prior to the completion of the Merger, and the potential effect of the Merger on Commerce Bancshares' customers and business relationships; the restrictions on the conduct of Commerce Bancshares' business prior to the completion of the Merger, requiring Commerce Bancshares to conduct its business only in the ordinary course, subject to specific limitations, which could delay or prevent Commerce Bancshares from undertaking business opportunities that may arise pending completion of the Merger and could negatively impact Commerce Bancshares' customers and business relationships;

- the fact that the Merger Agreement contains certain restrictions on the ability of Commerce Bancshares to solicit proposals for alternative transactions or engage in discussions regarding such proposals, including the requirement for Commerce Bancshares to pay Berkshire Hills Bancorp a termination fee of $8.5 million in certain circumstances;

- the transaction costs to be incurred by Commerce Bancshares in connection with the Merger;

- the interests of Commerce Bancshares' executive officers described in "— Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger that are Different from Yours," beginning on page 54 of this proxy statement/ prospectus; and

- the various other applicable risks associated with Commerce Bancshares, Berkshire Hills Bancorp and the Merger, including the risks described in "— Risk Factors," beginning on page 11 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

In considering the recommendation of Commerce Bancshares' board of directors with respect to the proposal to approve the Merger Agreement and the proposed Merger, you should be aware that certain of Commerce Bancshares executive officers may have interests in the Merger that are different from yours. Commerce Bancshares' board of directors was aware of and considered these interests, among other matters, in evaluating the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement and in recommending that the Merger Agreement be approved by the Commerce Bancshares stockholders. See "— Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger that are Different from Yours," beginning on page 54 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

The foregoing discussion of the information and factors considered by Commerce Bancshares' board of directors in reaching its conclusions and recommendations is not intended to be exhaustive, but includes the material factors considered by Commerce Bancshares' board of directors. In view of the wide variety of factors considered by Commerce Bancshares' board of directors in connection with its evaluation of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, and the complexity of these matters, the Commerce Bancshares board did not find it practicable to, and did not attempt to, quantify, rank or otherwise assign any relative or specific weights to the various specific factors considered in reaching its determination and making its recommendation. Commerce Bancshares' board of directors considered all of the foregoing factors as a whole and based its recommendation on the totality of the information presented. In considering the factors described above, individual members of Commerce Bancshares's board of directors may have given different weights to different factors.

Berkshire Hills Bancorp's Reasons for the Merger

Berkshire Hills Bancorp's and Berkshire Bank's boards of directors reviewed and discussed the transaction with their management and unanimously determined that the Merger is advisable and is fair to, and in the best interests of, Berkshire Hills Bancorp and Berkshire Bank. In reaching its determination, the Berkshire Hills Bancorp and Berkshire Bank boards of directors considered a number of factors, including, among others, the following:

- the Merger will accelerate Berkshire Bank's growth in the greater Boston area, Central Massachusetts and Eastern Massachusetts and result in significant scale in the Central and Eastern Massachusetts region;

- while the Merger will result in Berkshire Hills Bancorp's consolidated assets exceeding the $10 billion threshold and result in regulatory costs and revenue impacts, the size of the acquisition is expected to reduce the financial effect of exceeding the threshold;

- the complementary cultures of Berkshire Hills Bancorp and Commerce and each company's focus on exemplary customer service, which Berkshire Hills Bancorp believes should facilitate the successful integration and implementation of the transaction; and

- potential increased income opportunity derived from the ability to expand Berkshire Hills Bancorp's suite of products and services to Commerce's customers and to market certain products to Commerce's customers that are not presently offered.

This discussion of the factors considered by Berkshire Hills Bancorp's and Berkshire Bank's boards of directors is not exhaustive. Berkshire Hills Bancorp's and Berkshire Bank's boards of directors considered these factors as a whole, and considered them to be favorable to, and supportive of, its determination. Berkshire Hills Bancorp's and Berkshire Bank's boards of directors did not consider it practical, nor did it attempt, to quantify, rank or otherwise assign relative weights to the specific factors that it considered in reaching its decision. In considering the factors described above, individual members of Berkshire Hills Bancorp's and Berkshire Bank's boards of directors may have given different weights to different factors.

Opinion of Commerce Bancshares Corp's Financial Advisor

Commerce Bancshares Corp. (or, for the purposes of this section, "Commerce Bancshares") retained Sandler O'Neill to act as an independent financial advisor to Commerce Bancshares's board of directors in connection with Commerce Bancshares's consideration of a possible business combination. Sandler O'Neill is a nationally recognized investment banking firm whose principal business specialty is financial institutions. In the ordinary course of its investment banking business, Sandler O'Neill is regularly engaged in the valuation of financial institutions and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions and other corporate transactions.

Sandler O'Neill acted as an independent financial advisor in connection with the proposed transaction and participated in certain of the negotiations leading to the execution of the merger agreement. At the May 18, 2017 meeting at which Commerce Bancshares's board of directors considered and discussed the terms of the merger agreement and the merger, Sandler O'Neill delivered to Commerce Bancshares's board of directors its oral opinion, which was subsequently confirmed in writing, to the effect that, as of May 18, 2017, the exchange ratio provided for in the merger agreement was fair to the holders of Commerce Bancshares common stock from a financial point of view. The full text of Sandler O'Neill's opinion is attached as Annex B to this proxy statement/prospectus. The opinion outlines the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by Sandler O'Neill in rendering its opinion. The description of the opinion set forth below is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinion. Holders of Commerce Bancshares common stock are urged to read the entire opinion carefully in connection with their consideration of the proposed merger.

Sandler O'Neill's opinion speaks only as of the date of the opinion. The opinion was directed to Commerce Bancshares's board of directors in connection with its consideration of the merger agreement and the merger and does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder of Commerce Bancshares as to how any such shareholder should vote at any meeting of shareholders called to consider and vote upon the approval of the merger agreement and the merger. Sandler O'Neill's opinion was directed only to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the exchange ratio to the holders of Commerce Bancshares common stock and does not address the underlying business decision of Commerce Bancshares to engage in the merger, the form or structure of the merger or any other transactions contemplated in the merger agreement, the relative merits of the merger as compared to any other alternative transactions or business strategies that might exist for Commerce Bancshares or the effect of any other transaction in which Commerce Bancshares might engage. Sandler O'Neill did not express any opinion as to the fairness of the amount or nature of the compensation to be received in the merger by any officer, director or employee of Commerce Bancshares or Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Inc. (or, for the purposes of this section, "Berkshire Hills Bancorp"), or any class of such persons, if any, relative to the compensation to be received in the merger by any other shareholder, including the merger consideration to be received by the holders of Commerce Bancshares common stock. Sandler O'Neill's opinion was approved by Sandler O'Neill's fairness opinion committee.

In connection with its opinion, Sandler O'Neill reviewed and considered, among other things:

- a draft of the merger agreement, dated May 17, 2017;

certain publicly available financial statements and other historical financial information of Commerce Bancshares that Sandler O'Neill deemed relevant;

- the pro forma financial impact of the merger on Berkshire Hills Bancorp based on certain assumptions relating to purchase accounting adjustments, cost savings, transaction expenses, regulatory expenses as a result of Berkshire Hills Bancorp crossing the $10 billion in assets threshold at closing of the merger and for the years ending December 31, 2018 through December 31, 2021, the public offering and sale of an amount of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock prior to closing of the merger that would raise net proceeds to Berkshire Hills Bancorp of $150 million (the “Berkshire Hills Bancorp Common Stock Offering”), as well as estimated net income projections for Commerce Bancshares for the years ending December 31, 2018 through December 31, 2021, as provided by the senior management of Berkshire Hills Bancorp;
- the publicly reported historical price and trading activity for Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock, including a comparison of certain stock market information for Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock and certain stock indices as well as publicly available information for certain other similar companies, the securities of which are publicly traded;

- the current market environment generally and the banking environment in particular; and
- such other information, financial studies, analyses and investigations and financial, economic and market criteria as Sandler O’Neill considered relevant.

Sandler O’Neill also discussed with certain members of the senior management of Commerce Bancshares the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of Commerce Bancshares and held similar discussions with certain members of the senior management of Berkshire Hills Bancorp regarding the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of Berkshire Hills Bancorp.

In performing its review, Sandler O'Neill relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information that was available to and reviewed by Sandler O'Neill from public sources, that was provided to Sandler O'Neill by Commerce Bancshares or Berkshire Hills Bancorp or their respective representatives, or that was otherwise reviewed by Sandler O'Neill, and Sandler O'Neill assumed such accuracy and completeness for purposes of rendering its opinion without any independent verification or investigation. Sandler O'Neill relied on the assurances of the respective managements of Commerce Bancshares and Berkshire Hills Bancorp that they were not aware of any facts or circumstances that would make any of such information inaccurate or misleading. Sandler O'Neill was not asked to and did not undertake an independent verification of any of such information and Sandler O'Neill did not assume any responsibility or liability for the accuracy or completeness thereof. Sandler O'Neill did not make an independent evaluation or perform an appraisal of the specific assets, the collateral securing assets or the liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of Commerce Bancshares or Berkshire Hills Bancorp or any of their respective subsidiaries, nor was Sandler O'Neill furnished with any such evaluations or appraisals. Sandler O'Neill rendered no opinion or evaluation on the collectability of any assets or the future performance of any loans of Commerce Bancshares or Berkshire Hills Bancorp. Sandler O'Neill did not make an independent evaluation of the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses of Commerce Bancshares or Berkshire Hills Bancorp, or of the combined entity after the Merger, and Sandler O'Neill did not review any individual credit files relating to Commerce Bancshares or Berkshire Hills Bancorp. Sandler O'Neill assumed, with Commerce Bancshares's consent, that the respective allowances for loan losses for both Commerce Bancshares and Berkshire Hills Bancorp are adequate to cover such losses and will be adequate on a pro forma basis for the combined entity.

In preparing its analyses, Sandler O'Neill used certain internal financial projections for Commerce Bancshares for the year ending December 31, 2017, as provided by the senior management of Commerce Bancshares, as well as an estimated long-term net income growth rate and estimated dividends per share for the years thereafter, as provided by the senior management of Commerce Bancshares. In addition, Sandler O'Neill used publicly available consensus mean analyst earnings per share estimates for Berkshire Hills Bancorp for the years ending December 31, 2017 and December 31, 2018, as well as an estimated long-term earnings per share growth rate and dividends per share for the years thereafter, as provided by the senior management of Berkshire Hills Bancorp. Sandler O'Neill also received and used in its pro forma analyses certain assumptions relating to purchase accounting adjustments, cost savings, transaction expenses, regulatory expenses as a result of Berkshire Hills Bancorp crossing the $10 billion in assets threshold at closing of the merger and for the years ending December 31, 2018 through December 31, 2021, the Berkshire Hills Bancorp Common Stock Offering, as well as estimated net income projections for Commerce Bancshares for the years ending December 31, 2018 through December 31, 2021, as provided by the senior management of Berkshire Hills Bancorp. With respect to the foregoing information, the respective senior managements of Commerce Bancshares and Berkshire Hills Bancorp confirmed to Sandler O'Neill that such information reflected (or, in the case of the publicly available consensus mean analyst earnings per share estimates referred to above, were consistent with) the best currently available projections, estimates and judgments of those respective senior managements as to the future financial performance of Commerce Bancshares and Berkshire Hills Bancorp, respectively, and the other matters covered thereby, and Sandler O'Neill assumed that the future financial performance reflected in such information would be achieved. Sandler O'Neill expressed no opinion as to such information, or the assumptions on which such information was based. Sandler O'Neill also assumed that there had been no material change in the respective assets, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects of Commerce Bancshares or Berkshire Hills Bancorp since the date of the most recent financial statements made available to Sandler O'Neill. Sandler O'Neill assumed in all respects material to its analysis that Commerce Bancshares and Berkshire Hills Bancorp will remain as going concerns for all periods relevant to its analysis.

Sandler O'Neill also assumed, with Commerce Bancshares's consent, that (i) each of the parties to the merger agreement will comply in all material respects with all material terms and conditions of the merger agreement and all related agreements, that all of the representations and warranties contained in such agreements are true and correct in all material respects, that each of the parties to such agreements will perform in all material respects all of the covenants and other obligations required to be performed by such party under such agreements and that the conditions precedent in such agreements are not and will not be waived, (ii) in the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory or third party approvals, consents and releases with respect to the merger, no delay, limitation, restriction or condition will be imposed that would have an adverse effect on Commerce Bancshares, Berkshire Hills Bancorp or the merger or any related transaction, (iii) the merger and any related transactions will be consummated in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement without any waiver, modification or amendment of any material term, condition or agreement thereof and in compliance with all applicable laws and other requirements, and (iv) the merger will qualify as a tax-free reorganization for federal income tax purposes. Finally, with Commerce Bancshares's consent, Sandler O'Neill relied upon the advice that Commerce Bancshares received from its legal, accounting and tax advisors as to all legal, accounting and tax matters relating to the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. Sandler O'Neill expressed no opinion as to any such matters.

Sandler O'Neill's opinion was necessarily based on financial, economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to Sandler O'Neill as of, the date thereof. Events occurring after the date thereof could materially affect Sandler O'Neill's opinion. Sandler O'Neill has not undertaken to update, revise, reaffirm or withdraw its opinion or otherwise comment upon events occurring after the date thereof. Sandler O'Neill expressed no opinion as to the trading value of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock at any time or what the value of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock will be once it is actually received by the holders of Commerce Bancshares common stock.

In rendering its opinion, Sandler O'Neill performed a variety of financial analyses. The summary below is not a complete description of the analyses underlying Sandler O'Neill's opinion or the presentation made by Sandler O'Neill to Commerce Bancshares's board of directors, but is a summary of all material analyses performed and presented by Sandler O'Neill. The summary includes information presented in tabular format. In order to fully understand the financial analyses, these tables must be read together with the accompanying text. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the financial analyses. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process involving subjective judgments as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances. The process, therefore, is not necessarily susceptible to a partial analysis or summary description. Sandler O'Neill believes that its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of the factors and analyses to be considered without considering all factors and analyses, or attempting to ascribe relative weights to some or all such factors and analyses, could create an incomplete view of the evaluation process underlying its opinion. Also, no company included in Sandler O'Neill's comparative analyses described below is identical to Commerce Bancshares or Berkshire Hills Bancorp and no transaction is identical to the merger.

Accordingly, an analysis of comparable companies or transactions involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of the companies and other factors that could affect the public trading values or merger transaction values, as the case may be, of Commerce Bancshares and Berkshire Hills Bancorp and the companies to which they are being compared. In arriving at its opinion, Sandler O'Neill did not attribute any particular weight to any analysis or factor that it considered. Rather, Sandler O'Neill made qualitative judgments as to the significance and relevance of each analysis and factor. Sandler O'Neill did not form an opinion as to whether any individual analysis or factor (positive or negative) considered in isolation supported or failed to support its opinion, rather, Sandler O'Neill made its determination as to the fairness of the exchange ratio on the basis of its experience and professional judgment after considering the results of all its analyses taken as a whole.

In performing its analyses, Sandler O'Neill also made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, business and economic conditions and various other matters, many of which are beyond the control of Commerce Bancshares, Berkshire Hills Bancorp and Sandler O'Neill. The analyses performed by Sandler O'Neill are not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results, both of which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by such analyses. Sandler O'Neill prepared its analyses solely for purposes of rendering its opinion and provided such analyses to Commerce Bancshares's board of directors at its May 18, 2017 meeting. Estimates on the values of companies do not purport to be appraisals or necessarily reflect the prices at which companies or their securities may actually be sold. Such estimates are inherently subject to uncertainty and actual values may be materially different. Accordingly, Sandler O'Neill's analyses do not necessarily reflect the value of Commerce Bancshares common stock or the prices at which Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock may be sold at any time. The analyses of Sandler O'Neill and its opinion were among a number of factors taken into consideration by Commerce Bancshares's board of directors in making its determination to approve the merger agreement and should not be viewed as determinative of the exchange ratio or the decision of Commerce Bancshares's board of directors or management with respect to the fairness of the merger. The type and amount of consideration payable in the merger were determined through negotiation between Commerce Bancshares and Berkshire Hills Bancorp.

Summary of Exchange Ratio and Implied Transaction Metrics. Sandler O'Neill reviewed the financial terms of the proposed merger. Subject to certain adjustments, as more fully described in the merger agreement, at closing, each share of Commerce Bancshares common stock issued and outstanding prior to the Effective Time will receive 0.93 of a share of the common stock of Berkshire Hills Bancorp; provided, however, that no Commerce Bancshares stockholder shall receive either individually or in aggregate with such stockholder's Acting in Concert Group, as such term is defined in the merger agreement, shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock that would exceed 9.9% of the outstanding Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock as of the Effective Time. Sandler O'Neill noted that the net present value analysis is a widely used valuation methodology, but the results of such methodology are highly dependent upon the numerous assumptions that must be made, and the results thereof are not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results.

Pro Forma Merger Analysis. Sandler O'Neill analyzed certain potential pro forma effects of the merger. In performing this analysis, Sandler O'Neill utilized the following information and assumptions: (i) the merger closes in the fourth quarter of 2017; (ii) certain internal financial projections for Commerce Bancshares for the year ending December 31, 2017, as provided by the senior management of Commerce Bancshares, and projections for Commerce Bancshares for the years ending December 31, 2018 to December 31, 2021, as provided by the senior management of Berkshire Hills Bancorp; (iii) publicly available consensus mean analyst earnings per share estimates for Berkshire Hills Bancorp for the years ending December 31, 2017 and December 31, 2018, as well as an estimated long-term annual earnings per share growth rate and dividends per share for the years thereafter, as provided by the senior management of Berkshire Hills Bancorp and its representatives; and (iv) certain assumptions relating to purchase accounting adjustments, cost savings, transaction expenses regulatory expenses as a result of Berkshire Hills Bancorp crossing the $10 billion in assets threshold and the Berkshire Hills Bancorp Common Stock Offering prior to the closing of the merger, as provided by the senior management of Berkshire Hills Bancorp and its representatives. The analysis indicated that the merger could be accretive to Berkshire Hills Bancorp's earnings per share (excluding one-time transaction costs and expenses) for the year ended December 31, 2018, and accretive to Berkshire Hills Bancorp's estimated tangible book as of December 31, 2017 and December 31, 2018.

In connection with this analysis, Sandler O'Neill considered and discussed with the Commerce Bancshares board of directors how the analysis would be affected by changes in the underlying assumptions, including the impact of final purchase accounting adjustments determined at the closing of the transaction, and noted that the actual results achieved by the combined company may vary from projected results and the variations may be material.

Sandler O'Neill's Relationship. Sandler O'Neill acted as Commerce Bancshares's financial advisor in connection with the merger and will receive a fee for its services in an amount equal to 1.00% of the aggregate purchase price, which fee at the time of announcement was approximately $2.1 million. Sandler O'Neill's transaction fee is contingent upon consummation of the merger. Sandler O'Neill also received a fee of $600,000 for rendering its opinion, which fairness opinion fee will be credited in full towards the fee becoming due and payable to Sandler O'Neill on the day of closing of the merger. Commerce Bancshares has also agreed to indemnify Sandler O'Neill against certain claims and liabilities arising out of Sandler O'Neill's engagement and to reimburse Sandler O'Neill for certain of its out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with Sandler O'Neill's engagement. In the two years preceding the date of Sandler O'Neill's opinion, Sandler O'Neill did not provide any other investment banking services to Commerce Bancshares. In the two years preceding the date of Sandler O'Neill's opinion, Sandler O'Neill has provided certain investment banking services to, and received fees from, Berkshire Hills Bancorp. Most recently, Sandler O'Neill acted as financial advisor to Berkshire Hills Bancorp in connection with Berkshire Hills Bancorp's acquisition of First Choice Bank, which transaction closed in December 2016. In addition, with Commerce Bancshares's consent, Sandler O'Neill acted as book-running manager in connection with the Berkshire Hills Bancorp Common Stock Offering, which transaction priced on May 22, 2017 and resulted in net proceeds to Berkshire Hills Bancorp of $152.9 million. In the ordinary course of Sandler O'Neill's business as a broker-dealer, Sandler O'Neill may purchase securities from and sell securities to Commerce Bancshares, Berkshire Hills Bancorp and their respective affiliates. Sandler O'Neill may also actively trade the equity and debt securities of Berkshire Hills Bancorp or its affiliates for Sandler O'Neill's own account and for the accounts of Sandler O'Neill's customers.

Consideration to be Received in the Merger

Each share of Commerce Bancshares common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger (other than dissenting shares, if applicable) will be converted into the right to receive 0.93 shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock as described herein, provided that the Voting Stock Consideration Limit discussed previously is not triggered. In the event that any Commerce Bancshares stockholder, aggregated with such stockholder's Acting in Concert Group, would otherwise exceed the Voting Stock Consideration Limit, such Commerce Bancshares stockholder will receive 0.465 shares of Series B Non-Voting Berkshire Hills Bancorp preferred stock for each share of Commerce Bancshares common stock that is not convertible into Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock as a consequence of the Voting Stock Consideration Limit.

Based on Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Inc.'s closing price of $35.55 on May 19, 2017 (the trading date immediately preceding the public announcement of the proposed transaction), each share of Commerce Bancshares Corp. common stock exchanged for either 0.93 shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Inc. common stock or, to the extent an Acting in Concert Group exceeds the Voting Stock Consideration Limit, 0.465 shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Inc. preferred stock, would have a value of $33.06 per share, with a proposed aggregate value of approximately $209.2 million. Based on Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Inc.'s closing price of $36.85 on July 28, 2017 (the most recent practicable date before the printing of this proxy statement/prospectus), each share of Commerce Bancshares Corp. common stock exchanged for either 0.93 shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Inc. common stock or, to the extent an Acting in Concert Group exceeds the Voting Stock Consideration Limit, 0.465 shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Inc. preferred stock would have a value of $34.27, with a proposed aggregate value of approximately $216.9 million. Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Inc. common stock is listed on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol "BHLB." Commerce Bancshares Corp. common stock is not traded on any established public trading market. There is no established public trading market for the Series B preferred stock, and Berkshire Hills Bancorp does not expect a market to develop. For purposes of this paragraph, Berkshire Hills Bancorp and Commerce Bancshares have assumed that the value of each share of the Series B preferred stock is based on the conversion of each share of Series B preferred stock into two shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock.

Surrender of Stock Certificates

Promptly following the completion of the Merger, Berkshire Hills Bancorp will cause to be delivered to Commerce Bancshares shareholders a letter of transmittal, together with instructions for the surrender of their Commerce Bancshares stock certificates in exchange for the merger consideration. Until a Commerce Bancshares shareholder surrenders his, her or its Commerce Bancshares stock certificates in exchange for the merger consideration, Commerce Bancshares shareholders will not be paid dividends or other distributions declared after the Merger with respect to any Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock for which their Commerce Bancshares shares may be exchanged. When Commerce Bancshares shareholders surrender their Commerce Bancshares stock certificates, Berkshire Hills Bancorp will pay any unpaid dividends or other distributions, without interest. After the completion of the Merger, there will be no further transfers of Commerce Bancshares stock. Commerce Bancshares stock certificates surrendered after the completion of the Merger will be canceled and exchanged for the merger consideration. If their Commerce Bancshares stock certificates have been lost, stolen or destroyed, Commerce Bancshares shareholders will have to prove their ownership of these certificates and that they were lost, stolen or destroyed before they receive any consideration for their shares. The letter of transmittal will include instructions on how to provide evidence of ownership.

Accounting Treatment of the Merger

In accordance with current accounting guidance, the Merger will be accounted for pursuant to accounting standards for business combinations. The result of this is that the recorded assets and liabilities of Berkshire Hills Bancorp will be carried forward at their recorded amounts, the historical operating results will be unchanged for the prior periods being reported on and that the assets and liabilities of Commerce Bancshares will be adjusted to fair value at the date of the Merger. In addition, all identified intangibles will be recorded at fair value and included as part of the net assets acquired. To the extent that the purchase price, consisting of cash plus the number of shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock to be issued to former Commerce Bancshares shareholders at fair value, exceeds the fair value of the net assets including identifiable intangibles of Commerce Bancshares at the Merger date, that amount will be reported as goodwill. In accordance with current accounting guidance, goodwill will not be amortized but will be evaluated for impairment annually. Identified intangibles will be amortized over their estimated lives. Further, operating results of Commerce Bancshares will be included in the operating results of Berkshire Hills Bancorp beginning from the date of completion of the Merger.

Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger

General. The following discussion sets forth the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger to U.S. holders (as defined below) of Commerce Bancshares common stock who exchange their Commerce Bancshares common stock for Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock and preferred stock in the Merger. This discussion does not address any tax consequences arising under the laws of any state, locality or foreign jurisdiction, or under any U.S. federal tax laws (such as the unearned income Medicare contribution tax pursuant to the Health Care and Education Reconciliation Act of 2010) other than federal income tax law. This discussion is based upon the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (referred to as the “Code”), the regulations of the U.S. Department of the Treasury and court and administrative rulings and decisions in effect on the date of this document. These laws may change, possibly retroactively, and any change could affect the continuing validity of this discussion.

For purposes of this discussion, you are a “U.S. holder” if you beneficially own Commerce Bancshares stock and you are:

- a citizen or resident of the United States for U.S. federal income tax purposes;
- a corporation, or other entity taxable as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes, created or organized under the laws of the United States or any of its political subdivisions;
- a trust that (1) is subject to the primary supervision of a court within the United States and the control over substantial decisions of which is vested in one or more U.S. persons, or (2) has a valid election in effect under applicable U.S. Treasury regulations to be treated as a U.S. person; or
- an estate that is subject to U.S. federal income tax on its income regardless of its source.

This discussion assumes that you hold your shares of Commerce Bancshares common stock as a capital asset within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Code. Further, this discussion does not address all aspects of U.S. federal income taxation that may be relevant to you in light of your particular circumstances or that may be applicable to you if you are subject to special treatment under the U.S. federal income tax laws, including if you are:

- a financial institution;
- a tax-exempt organization;
- an individual retirement account or other tax-deferred account;
- an S corporation or other pass-through entity;
- an insurance company;
- a mutual fund;

a regulated investment company or real estate investment trust;

a controlled foreign corporation or passive foreign investment company; a trader in securities who elects the mark-to-market method of accounting for your securities;

a Commerce Bancshares shareholder whose shares are qualified small business stock for purposes of Section 1202 of the Code or who may otherwise be subject to the alternative minimum tax provisions of the Code;

a Commerce Bancshares shareholder who received Commerce Bancshares stock through the exercise of employee stock options or otherwise as compensation, through the exercise of warrants, or through a tax-qualified retirement plan; an expatriate or person who has a functional currency other than the U.S. dollar; or a Commerce Bancshares shareholder who holds Commerce Bancshares stock as part of a hedge, straddle or a constructive sale or conversion transaction.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

In addition, this discussion does not address the tax consequences of the Merger to holders of Commerce Bancshares stock other than U.S. holders or holders of Commerce Bancshares stock who exercise appraisal and/or dissenters rights. This discussion does not address the tax consequences to a holder of Commerce Bancshares common stock of the receipt of regular monthly dividends paid consistently in accordance with past practice.

If a partnership (including an entity treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes) holds Commerce Bancshares common stock, the tax treatment of a partner in the partnership will generally depend on the status of such partner and the activities of the partnership.

This discussion is not intended to be tax advice to any particular holder of Commerce Bancshares common stock. Tax matters regarding the Merger are complicated, and the tax consequences of the Merger to you will depend on your particular situation. Commerce Bancshares shareholders are urged to consult their tax advisors as to the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger, as well as the effects of state, local, federal non-income and non-U.S. tax laws.

It is a condition to the closing of the Merger that Berkshire Hills Bancorp receive the opinion of its legal counsel, Luse Gorman, PC, and Commerce Bancshares receive the opinion of its legal counsel, Nutter McClennen & Fish LLP, each dated as of the effective time of the Merger, substantially to the effect that, on the basis of facts, representations and assumptions set forth or referred to in that opinion (including factual representations contained in certificates of officers of Berkshire Hills Bancorp and Commerce Bancshares), the Merger will be treated for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. The tax opinions are not binding on the Internal Revenue Service, or "IRS," or any court. Berkshire Hills Bancorp and Commerce Bancshares have not sought and will not seek any ruling from the IRS regarding any matters relating to the Merger and, as a result, there can be no assurance that the IRS will not assert, or that a court would not sustain, a position contrary to any of the conclusions set forth below. In addition, if any of the representations or assumptions upon which the opinions are based are inconsistent with the actual facts, the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger could be adversely affected.

Based on the opinions that the Merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger are as follows:

- No gain or loss generally will be recognized by a U.S. holder of Commerce Bancshares stock upon the receipt of shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock in exchange therefor pursuant to the Merger (except in respect of cash received in lieu of fractional shares, as discussed below), and no gain or loss generally should be recognized by a U.S. holder of Commerce Bancshares stock upon the receipt of shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp preferred stock in exchange therefor pursuant to the Merger (except in respect of cash received in lieu of fractional shares, as discussed below);
- The aggregate adjusted tax basis of the shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock or preferred stock received by the U.S. holder in the Merger will be the same as the aggregate adjusted tax basis of shares of Commerce Bancshares stock surrendered in exchange therefor, reduced by the tax basis allocable to any fractional share of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock or preferred stock for which cash is received;
- The holding period of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock or preferred stock received by a U.S. holder will include the holding period of the Commerce Bancshares stock exchanged therefor; and
- Although no fractional shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock will be issued in the Merger, a U.S. holder who receives cash in lieu of such a fractional share of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock will generally be treated as having received the fractional share pursuant to the Merger and then having sold that fractional share of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock for cash. As a result, a U.S. holder will generally recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and the portion of the holder's aggregate adjusted tax basis of the shares of Commerce Bancshares stock surrendered that is allocable to its fractional share. Any capital gain or loss will be long-term capital gain or loss if the holding period for the fractional share (including the holding period of the shares of Commerce Bancshares stock surrendered therefor) is more than one year. Long-term capital gains of individuals generally are eligible for reduced rates of taxation. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations.

For purposes of the above discussion of the bases and holding periods for shares of Commerce Bancshares stock and Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock, Commerce Bancshares shareholders who acquired different blocks of Commerce Bancshares stock at different times or at different prices must calculate their basis and holding periods separately for each identifiable block of such stock exchanged or received in the Merger.

Tax Implications to U.S. Holders of BHLB Preferred Stock Consideration. The material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger to U.S. holders that receive BHLB Preferred Stock Consideration depend, among other factors, on whether the BHLB Preferred Stock Consideration is treated as “nonqualified preferred stock” for U.S. federal income tax purposes. The receipt of nonqualified preferred stock issued as consideration in a merger that otherwise qualifies as a tax-free “reorganization” for federal income tax purposes will generally be taxable in full to the recipient. In contrast, the receipt of “preferred stock” that is not treated as “nonqualified preferred stock” for U.S. federal income tax purposes will generally be taxable in the same manner as the exchange of Commerce Bancshares common stock for Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock, as described above.

For U. S. federal income tax purposes, nonqualified preferred stock is preferred stock that generally meets any one of the following four requirements: (1) the shareholder has the right to require the issuer corporation or a person related to the issuer corporation to redeem or purchase the stock within twenty (20) years of the issue date; (2) the issuer corporation or a related person is required to redeem or purchase the stock within twenty (20) years of the issue date; (3) the issuer corporation or a related person has the right to redeem or purchase the stock within twenty (20) years of the issue date and, as of the issue date, it is more likely than not that the right will be exercised; or (4) the dividend rate on the stock varies in whole or in part, directly or indirectly, with reference to interest rates, commodity prices or other similar indices.

The BHLB Preferred Stock Consideration, which is described in more detail in this proxy statement/ prospectus, will have the following characteristics: (1) the holder will not be entitled to require Berkshire Hills Bancorp or a related person to redeem or repurchase the BHLB Preferred Stock Consideration; (2) Berkshire Hills Bancorp or a related person will not be required to redeem or repurchase any shares of the BHLB Preferred Stock Consideration; (3) Berkshire Hills Bancorp or a related person will not have the right to redeem or repurchase any shares of the BHLB Preferred Stock Consideration; (4) the dividends on the BHLB Preferred Stock Consideration will not vary in whole or in part, directly or indirectly, with reference to interest rates, commodity prices or other similar indices because holders of BHLB Preferred Stock Consideration will be entitled to receive ratable dividends only if and when dividends are concurrently declared and payable on the shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock, and the dividends on the BHLB Preferred Stock Consideration will be paid at a rate equal to 200% (on a per share basis) of the amount declared or paid on the Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock; and (5) at the discretion of the holder, each share of BHLB Preferred Stock Consideration may be converted into two shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock provided that, at the time of conversion, the holder’s ownership interest when aggregated with the ownership interest of certain other persons in Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock does not exceed 9.9% of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock then outstanding or 9.9% of the aggregate outstanding shares of voting stock of Berkshire Hills Bancorp.

For these reasons, it is our opinion that the BHLB Preferred Stock Consideration should not be treated as nonqualified preferred stock. Accordingly, the BHLB Preferred Stock Consideration should be generally taxable in the same manner as Commerce Bancshares common stock exchanged for Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock. The tax consequences of the Merger to each holder of Commerce Bancshares common stock, however, will depend on such holder’s own situation. We therefore strongly encourage holders of Commerce Bancshares common stock to consult their own tax advisors as to the possible treatment of their receipt of BHLB Preferred Stock Consideration.

Backup Withholding. Payments of cash (including cash in lieu of a fractional share, if any) to a U.S. holder of Commerce Bancshares stock may, under certain circumstances, be subject to information reporting and backup withholding (currently at a rate of 28%) unless such holder provides proof of an applicable exemption or, in the case of backup withholding, furnishes its taxpayer identification number and otherwise complies with the backup withholding rules. Any amounts withheld from payments to a U.S. holder of Commerce Bancshares stock under the backup withholding rules are not an additional tax and generally will be allowed as a refund or credit against such holder's federal income tax liability provided that the holder timely furnishes the required information to the IRS.

Reporting Requirements. U.S. holders of Commerce Bancshares stock who receive Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock pursuant to the Merger will be required to retain records pertaining to the Merger, and any such holder who, immediately before the Merger, holds at least 1% (by vote or value) of the outstanding Commerce Bancshares stock, or securities of Commerce Bancshares with a basis for federal income tax purposes of at least $1 million, will be required to file with its U.S. federal income tax return for the year in which the Merger takes place a statement setting forth certain facts relating to the Merger. U.S. holders are urged to consult with their tax advisors with respect to these and other reporting requirements applicable to the Merger.

The preceding discussion is a summary of the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger to a U.S. holder of Commerce Bancshares stock does not address all potential tax consequences that apply or that may vary with, or are contingent on, individual circumstances, and should not be construed as tax advice. Moreover, the discussion does not address any U.S. federal non-income tax or any foreign, state or local tax consequences of the Merger. Tax matters are very complicated and, accordingly, we strongly urge you to consult with a tax advisor to determine the particular federal, state, local and foreign income and other tax consequences to you of the Merger.

Resale of Berkshire Hills Bancorp Common Stock

Shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock or preferred stock received by Commerce Bancshares shareholders in the Merger will be registered under the Securities Act of 1933 and will be freely transferable, subject to the restrictions noted in the shareholder agreement with Mr. Massad and the Acting in Concert Group.

This proxy statement/prospectus does not cover resales of Berkshire Hills Bancorp's common stock or preferred stock received by any person who may be deemed to be an affiliate of Commerce Bancshares or Berkshire Hills Bancorp.

Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger that are Different from Yours

In considering the recommendation of the Commerce Bancshares board of directors that you vote to approve the Merger Agreement, you should be aware that some of Commerce Bancshares' officers and directors have employment and other compensation agreements or economic interests that are different from, or in addition to, those of Commerce Bancshares shareholders generally. The Commerce Bancshares board of directors was aware of and considered these interests, among other matters, in evaluating and negotiating the Merger Agreement, and in recommending to the shareholders that the Merger Agreement be approved.

Employment and Change of Control Agreements with Commerce Bank & Trust Company. The Employment Agreements previously entered into with Commerce Bank & Trust Company and each of Brian W. Thompson, President and Chief Executive Officer, William F. Burke, Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, Michael J. Crawford, Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer, and a Change of Control Agreement with James R. Belliveau, Executive Vice President and Chief Technology Officer, and which will be terminated in accordance with each executive's acknowledgement agreement, provide for a lump sum cash payment in the event of an involuntary termination without cause or a voluntary termination with good reason during the term of the agreement. The amount of the lump sum cash payment is equal to three times (two times for Mr. Belliveau) the executive's termination compensation, which is generally the annual rate of compensation equal to the highest total year compensation (as defined in the agreement) for any twelve month period within the year of termination of employment or the three calendar years immediately preceding the date of termination of employment. In addition, the executive is entitled to continued health and medical and hospital insurance for three years (two years for Mr. Belliveau). Since each executive has agreed to terminate their Employment Agreement and Change of Control Agreement pursuant to individual acknowledgement agreements that Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Commerce Bancshares and Commerce Bank & Trust Company have entered into with each individual, no payments or benefits will be made under these agreements.

Cash Payment for Termination of Outstanding Phantom Stock Awards. Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, upon the later of either the receipt of final regulatory approval or the receipt of Commerce Bancshares stockholder approval, each outstanding Commerce Bancshares phantom stock award, subject to Commerce Bancshares' receipt of a phantom stock award surrender agreement, whether or not then vested or exercisable, shall be terminated and the holder thereof shall be paid by Commerce Bancshares, no later than ten business days following the date of such approval, an amount in cash determined by multiplying (i) the excess, if any, of $34.00 less the applicable per share exercise price of that Commerce Bancshares phantom stock award by (ii) the number of shares of Commerce Bancshares common stock subject to that Commerce Bancshares phantom stock award, less any required tax withholding. Brian W. Thompson, William Burke, Michael J. Crawford and James R. Belliveau who hold 166,563, 104,102, 104,102 and 88,281 vested and non-vested phantom stock awards, respectively, will be entitled to a lump sum cash payment equal to $3,262,002, $2,038,754, $2,038,754, and $1,682,940, respectively, upon termination of their vested and non-vested phantom stock awards, less applicable withholding taxes. Non-employee directors Michael Angelini, David Brunelle, Michael Collins, Herbert Ingram, George Isaac, Shaun Martin, Pamela Massad, R. Norman Peters and Michael Tsotsis will each receive $327,218, $327,218, $284,188, $327,218, $327,218, $315,353, $327,218, $327,218 and $234,987, respectively, in cash upon the termination of the phantom stock awards held by each of them.

Annual Bonus Plan. All of Commerce Bancshares' executive officers are participants in the Commerce Bank & Trust Company Short-Term Incentive Compensation Plan, which provides that, if the executive terminates employment either prior to the payout date, or prior to March 1 of the year following the plan year, then he or she shall not be eligible to receive an award under the plan for such plan year unless such termination is for reasons of retirement, disability, death or involuntary termination following a change in control. In such circumstances, a pro-rata award based upon the extent of the participant's employment during the plan year and the company's performance during the plan year may be paid. Under the Merger Agreement, Commerce Bancshares has the right to pay prorated annual bonus awards in respect of the 2017 fiscal year on the closing date for the period from January 1, 2017 through the closing date, based upon the target payout. In addition, in the event the closing date occurs after March 31, 2018, participants will be paid pro-rata through the month in which the closing date occurs in 2018. For an estimate of the value of the prorated bonus payable to each of the executive officers in connection with the Merger, see "Merger-Related Executive Compensation for Commerce Bancshares' Executive Officers."

280G Shareholder Vote. The Merger Agreement provides that if shareholders of Commerce Bancshares approve the proposed payments to the Commerce Bancshares' executives, in accordance with Treasury Regulation Section 1.280G-1, Q&A: 7, then such executives will be entitled to the full amount of the payments provided in the acknowledgement agreements which are set forth below in "Merger-Related Executive Compensation for Commerce Bancshares' Executive Officers." In the event that the shareholder approval requirements of Treasury Regulation Section 1.280G-1, Q&A: 7 are not satisfied, each Commerce Bancshares executive who is a party to an acknowledgement agreement shall accept a reduction in payments under said acknowledgement agreements to avoid an excess parachute payment under Section 280G of the Code and an excise tax under Section 4999 of the Code and the amount of such reductions are set forth in footnote one under "Merger-Related Executive Compensation for Commerce Bancshares' Executive Officers." Commerce Bancshares intends to seek shareholder approval of the proposed payments to the Commerce Bancshares' executives in accordance with Treasury Regulation Section 1.280G-1, Q&A: 7, at Commerce Bancshares' Annual Meeting of Shareholders to be held on August 3, 2017.

Acknowledgement Agreements. In connection with the execution of the Merger Agreement, Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Commerce Bancshares and Commerce Bank & Trust entered into an Acknowledgement Agreement with each of Brian W. Thompson, William Burke, Michael J. Crawford and James R. Belliveau. In accordance with the terms of each agreement, each executive's employment agreement or change of control agreement, as applicable, will be terminated, effective as of the merger date, and in lieu of any payments or benefits under such agreement, Brian W. Thompson, William Burke, Michael J. Crawford and James R. Belliveau, respectively, will be entitled to a lump sum cash payment equal to $2,605,416,

$1,400,418, $1,676,058, and $977,500 less applicable withholding taxes, respectively. In addition, Messrs. Crawford and Belliveau will be entitled to continued health and medical insurance for three years (two years for Mr. Belliveau) and in lieu of such coverage Brian Thompson and William Burke will each receive a cash payment equal to $68,400, and this amount shall be further increased by the amount necessary to pay the federal and state income taxes attributable to this payment, less applicable tax withholding.

Three Year Retention Agreement with James Belliveau. In connection with the execution of the Merger Agreement, Berkshire Hills Bancorp and Berkshire Bank entered into a Three Year Retention Agreement with Mr. Belliveau pursuant to which Mr. Belliveau will be employed as a Senior Vice President of Berkshire Bank. Mr. Belliveau's initial annual base salary will be $309,515 and the executive will be eligible to receive an annual bonus. In addition, upon the third annual anniversary following the date of the Merger, provided the executive is employed on such date, Berkshire Bank shall pay the executive a retention bonus of $300,000, which will be payable one-half in cash and one-half in common stock of Berkshire Hills Bancorp. The stock component of the retention bonus will be granted to the executive as a restricted stock award at the next regularly scheduled grant date after the date of the Merger, and the number of shares of restricted stock granted to the executive will be the quotient of $150,000 divided by the closing price of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock on the grant date. The restricted stock will become one-hundred percent vested (cliff vest) on the third annual anniversary following the date of grant provided the executive is employed on such date. If Berkshire Bank terminates the executive's employment without cause or if the executive resigns with good reason, Berkshire Bank will pay the executive the cash portion of the retention bonus and amend the restricted stock grant to provide for full vesting as of the date of termination. In addition, Mr. Belliveau will agree not to compete with Berkshire Hills Bancorp and Berkshire Bank for a period of one year following the executive's termination of employment.

Consulting and Release Agreements with Brian W. Thompson and Michael J. Crawford. In connection with the execution of the Merger Agreement, Berkshire Bank entered into a Consulting and Release Agreement with each of Mr. Brian W. Thompson and Mr. Michael J. Crawford pursuant to which each individual will perform consulting services for a period of six months following the Merger. Berkshire Bank may extend the term for an additional six months upon thirty (30) days prior notice to and approval by the consultant. In addition, the consultant will agree not to compete with Berkshire Hills Bancorp and Berkshire Bank and not to solicit Berkshire Bank employees and customers, in each case, for a period of twelve months after the date of the Merger. In exchange for the consulting services, non-competition and non-solicitation restrictions and a full release of claims, Berkshire Bank has agreed to pay Messrs. Thompson and Crawford $63,792 and $41,845, respectively, per month for six months.

Two New Directors. In accordance with the Merger Agreement, two individuals who are directors of Commerce Bancshares, Pamela Massad and David Brunelle, will be appointed and elected to the Berkshire Hills Bancorp and Berkshire Bank boards of directors; provided, however, that if, prior to the Merger, Ms. Massad or Mr. Brunelle are unable or unwilling to serve as members of the Berkshire Hills Bancorp and Berkshire Bank board of directors, Berkshire Hills Bancorp, in consultation with Commerce Bancshares, shall designate a new board member from the remaining existing members of the Commerce Bancshares board of directors. The fees paid to the directors will be the same as the fees paid to similarly situated board members of Berkshire Hills Bancorp and Berkshire Bank.

Severance Pay. Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, each person who is an employee of Commerce Bancshares and who is terminated for a reason other than cause within twelve months subsequent to the date of the Merger or resigns for good reason within twelve months subsequent to the date of the Merger or is not offered employment as of the date of the Merger, excluding those employees who are entitled to benefits under employment or change of control arrangements, shall be entitled to severance benefits. The amount of the severance benefits shall be determined under the applicable employer's severance plan, Commerce Bancshares or a subsidiary of Commerce Bancshares, or Berkshire Bank's severance plan if such payments would be more favorable to such person; provided, however, that in no event shall such severance payments exceed six month's pay.

Indemnification. Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, Berkshire Hills Bancorp has agreed that it will from and after the effective time of the Merger, to the fullest extent permitted under applicable law, indemnify, defend and hold harmless each present and former officer, employee or director of Commerce

Bancshares or any subsidiary of Commerce Bancshares against all losses, claims, damages, costs, expenses, liabilities or judgments or amounts that are paid in settlement of or in connection with any action or investigation arising in whole or in part, out of the fact that such person is or was an officer, employee or director of Commerce Bancshares or any subsidiary of Commerce Bancshares. Any such claim must pertain to a matter arising, existing or occurring before the effective time of the Merger, regardless of whether such claim is asserted or claimed before or after the effective time of the Merger.

Directors' and Officers' Insurance. Berkshire Hills Bancorp has further agreed to obtain and fully pay the premiums for the extension of Commerce Bancshares' existing directors' and officers' insurance policies, in each case for a claims reporting or discovery period of at least six years from and after the effective time of the Merger. Berkshire Hills Bancorp is not required to spend more than 175% of the annual premiums currently paid by Commerce Bancshares.

Shareholder Agreement with Chairman. Concurrent with the execution of the Merger Agreement, David G. Massad, Commerce Bancshares' Chairman, entered into a Shareholder Agreement with Berkshire Hills Bancorp, which, among other things, would restrict Mr. Massad's ability to transfer, acquire or sell shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock, influence corporate transactions and management of Berkshire Hills Bancorp, and initiate and support actions or shareholder proposals not recommended by Berkshire Hills Bancorp's board of directors. Additionally, during the term of this agreement, Mr. Massad must vote all Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock beneficially owned by him in excess of 5% of the Berkshire Hills Bancorp outstanding in a manner consistent with the recommendations of the board of directors of Berkshire Hills Bancorp. This Shareholder Agreement is further described under "Proposal I — The Proposed Merger — Shareholder Agreement Between Berkshire Hills Bancorp and David G. Massad."

Merger-Related Executive Compensation for Commerce Bancshares' Executive Officers

The following table sets forth the estimated potential payments and benefits to Commerce Bancshares' executive officers in connection with a change of control and assumes that the effective time of the Merger will be June 30, 2017, the last practicable date prior to the date of these materials. If the Merger closes on or after January 2, 2018, then the estimated payment in connection with a change of control listed below will change as some of the phantom stock awards will have vested without regard to the change of control and cash payments may change because of the right to pro-rated bonuses. This table does not include the value of benefits in which the executive officers are vested without regard to the occurrence of a change of control. The amounts shown below are estimates based on multiple assumptions that may or may not actually occur, and as a result, the actual amounts to be received by a named executive officer may differ materially from the amounts shown below.

Executive	Cash $(1)	Equity $(2)	Perquisites/ Benefits $(3)	Tax Reimbursements $(4)	Total ($)
Brian W. Thompson	3,183,188	311,700	—	55,964	3,550,852
William F. Burke	1,527,907	194,813	—	55,964	1,778,684
Michael J. Crawford	1,998,035	194,813	45,000	—	2,237,848
James R. Belliveau	1,039,403	194,813	14,588	—	1,248,804

The cash payments consist of: (a) for all executive officers, the amount payable under each individual's acknowledgement agreement; (b) for all executive officers, a 2017 pro-rated bonus (based on target performance); (c) for Messrs. Thompson and Burke only, a payment in lieu of continued health and medical insurance coverage; and (d) for Messrs. Thompson and Crawford, respectively, a monthly consulting fee of $63,792 and $41,845, respectively, for six months. The payments described in clauses (a), (b), and (c) are "single trigger and the consulting fees will be earned post-closing. Set forth below are the separate values of each of payments described in clauses (a) – (d) above.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Executive	Acknowledgement Agreement Payment	2017 Bonus Payment	Payment in lieu of insurance	Consulting Payments
Brian W. Thompson	2,605,416	126,620	68,400	382,752
William F. Burke	1,400,418	59,089	68,400	—
Michael J. Crawford	1,676,058	70,907	—	251,070
James R. Belliveau	977,500	61,903	—	—

The cash severance payments will be reduced if the shareholder approval requirements of Treasury Regulation Section 1.280G-1, Q&A: 7 are not satisfied. If the shareholder approval requirements are not satisfied, and in order to avoid excise taxes under Section 280G of the Code, the cash severance payments to Messrs. Thompson, Burke and Crawford, respectively, will be reduced by approximately $841,784, $522,386, $503,740, respectively.

(2)

Represents the estimated cash payment to be made in exchange for the cancellation of the non-vested phantom stock awards held by Commerce Bancshares' executive officers. The value of the phantom stock awards is based on a per share price of $34.00, which is the fixed dollar amount specified in the Merger Agreement. The amounts payable under this column are considered a "single trigger" benefit since it is payable upon the later of either the receipt of final regulatory approval or the receipt of Commerce Bancshares stockholder approval without regard to termination of employment. In addition, we assumed that all of the phantom stock awards will be cashed out pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement; however, each executive may exercise their vested phantom stock awards before such date.

(3)

Represents the estimated value of continued health and medical coverage for thirty-six months for Mr. Crawford. For Mr. Belliveau, who will become an officer of Berkshire Bank upon the completion of the Merger, the amount shown represents the estimated employee share of Berkshire Bank health insurance, which he is entitled to receive at no cost for twenty-four months. Messrs. Thompson and Burke are entitled to a cash payment in the amount of $68,400 in lieu of continued health and medical coverage.

(4)

Represents the estimated tax reimbursement payment on the amount necessary to pay the federal and state income taxes attributable to the payment of $68,400, which is payable to Messrs. Thompson and Burke in lieu of continued insurance coverage.

Employee Matters

Each person who is an employee of Commerce Bancshares or Commerce Bank & Trust Company as of the closing of the Merger will become an employee of Berkshire Bank and will be eligible to participate in group health, medical, dental, life, disability, and other welfare plans available to similarly situated employees of Berkshire Bank on the same basis that it provides such coverage to Berkshire Bank employees. With respect to any welfare plan or program of Commerce Bancshares that in the determination of Berkshire Hills Bancorp provides benefits of the same type as a plan maintained by Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Berkshire Hills Bancorp may continue the Commerce Bancshares plan until such employees become eligible for the Berkshire Hills Bancorp plan so that there is no gap in coverage. Berkshire Hills Bancorp will give credit to continuing Commerce Bancshares employees for purposes of Berkshire Bank's vacation and other paid leave programs for their accrued and unpaid vacation and/or leave balance with Commerce Bancshares. Employees of Commerce Bancshares will be eligible to participate in the Berkshire Bank 401(k) Plan on the later of the day following the closing date of the Merger or the date the Commerce Bank & Trust Company 401(k) Plan is merged, frozen or terminated.

Operations of Berkshire Bank after the Merger

After the Merger of Commerce Bank & Trust Company with and into Berkshire Bank, Berkshire Bank will continue to operate as a wholly-owned subsidiary of Berkshire Hills Bancorp. Certain subsidiaries of Commerce Bank & Trust Company will become a wholly-owned subsidiary of Berkshire Bank. The Board of Directors of Berkshire Bank will appoint Pamela Massad and David Brunelle, two current directors of Commerce Bank & Trust Company, to the board of directors of Berkshire Bank immediately after the effective time of the Merger. In the event that either individual is unable or unwilling to serve as a member of Berkshire Bank's board of directors, Berkshire Bank, in consultation with Commerce Bank & Trust Company, will designate a new board member from the remaining existing members of the Commerce Bank & Trust Company board of directors. Pamela Massad is the daughter of David G. Massad.

Time of Completion

Unless the parties agree otherwise and unless the Merger Agreement has otherwise been terminated, the closing of the Merger will take place on a date that is no later than the fifth business day following the date on which all of the conditions to the Merger contained in the Merger Agreement are satisfied or waived. See "—Conditions to Completing the Merger." On the closing date of the Merger, Berkshire Hills Bancorp will file articles of merger with the Massachusetts Secretary of the Commonwealth and the Delaware Secretary of State merging Commerce Bancshares with and into Berkshire Hills Bancorp. The Merger will become effective at the time stated in the articles of merger. Immediately following the Merger, Berkshire Bank will file articles of merger with the Massachusetts Department of Banking and the Massachusetts Secretary of the Commonwealth merging Commerce Bank & Trust Company into Berkshire Bank. The bank merger will become effective at the time stated in the articles of merger.

Berkshire Hills Bancorp and Commerce Bancshares are working to complete the Merger quickly. It is currently expected that the Merger may be completed as early as mid-October 2017. However, because completion of the Merger is subject to various conditions, the parties cannot be certain of the actual timing.

Conditions to Completing the Merger

The parties' obligations to consummate the Merger are conditioned on the following:

- Each party having performed in all material respects all obligations and complied in all material respects with all agreements or covenants required by the Merger Agreement to be performed or complied with by them at or prior to the effective time of the Merger;
- The parties obtaining any and all permits, authorizations, consents, waivers, clearances or approvals required for the consummation of the Merger, the failure of which to obtain would have a material adverse effect on the parties;
- No changes, other than changes contemplated by the Merger Agreement, in the business, operations, condition (financial or otherwise), assets or liabilities of a party to the Merger Agreement and its subsidiaries (regardless of whether or not such events or changes are inconsistent with the representations and warranties given in the Merger Agreement) that individually or in the aggregate has had or reasonably would be expected to have a material adverse effect on such party;
- The Merger Agreement and each transaction contemplated thereby must be approved and adopted by the requisite votes of the Commerce Bancshares shareholders;

All required regulatory approvals having been received and all waiting periods thereto shall have expired, and such regulatory approvals shall not have included any condition or requirement that would result in a material adverse effect or a burdensome condition on either of the parties or their subsidiaries;

- The registration statement filed by Berkshire Hills Bancorp with the SEC having been declared effective under the Securities Act and no stop order suspending the effectiveness of the Merger Registration Statement having been issued, and no proceedings for that purpose having been initiated or threatened by the SEC, and, if the offer and sale of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock in the Merger is subject to state securities laws if any state, no stop order of any state securities commissioner;

Conduct of Business Before the Merger

In general, the Merger Agreement obligates Commerce Bancshares and Berkshire Hills Bancorp to conduct their businesses in the usual, regular and ordinary course of business and to use reasonable efforts to preserve intact their business organizations and assets and maintain their rights and franchises.

In addition, Commerce Bancshares has agreed that, until completion of the Merger and unless permitted by Berkshire Hills Bancorp, it will not:

In addition to these covenants, the Merger Agreement contains various other customary covenants, including, among other things, access to information, each party's efforts to cause its representations and warranties to be true and correct on the closing date of the Merger and each party's agreement to take no action that would cause the Merger to fail to qualify as a tax-free reorganization.

Representations and Warranties Made by the Parties in the Merger Agreement

Each of the parties has made certain customary representations and warranties to the other in the Merger Agreement relating to their businesses. For information on these representations and warranties, please refer to the Merger Agreement attached as Annex A. The representations and warranties must be true and correct through the effective time of the Merger, except where the failure of any such representation or warranty to be true and correct as of the effective time of the Merger would not have a material adverse effect (except for certain representations and warranties made in the Merger Agreement regarding the organization, capitalization and corporate authority of the parties, which must be true and correct in all material respects). See "— Conditions to Completing the Merger."

TABLE OF CONTENTS

The representations and warranties contained in the Merger Agreement were made only for purposes of such agreement and are made as of specific dates, were solely for the benefit of the parties to such agreement, and may be subject to limitations agreed to by the contracting parties, including qualifications by disclosures between the parties. These representations and warranties may have been made for the purpose of allocating risk between the parties to the agreement instead of establishing these matters as facts, and may be subject to standards of knowledge and materiality applicable to the contracting parties that differ from those applicable to investors as statements of factual information. Each of the parties has made representations and warranties to the other regarding, among other things:

- corporate matters, including due organization and qualification;
- capitalization;
- authority relative to execution and delivery of the Merger Agreement and the absence of conflicts with, violations of, or a default under organizational documents or other obligations as a result of the Merger;

- Commerce Bancshares' stock transfer records.

In addition, Berkshire Hills Bancorp has made other representations and warranties about itself to Commerce Bancshares as to:

- previous documents filed with the SEC;

- sufficient funds to cover the cash consideration at closing; and

- Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock to be issued at closing will be duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable and subject to no preemptive rights.

Regulatory Approvals Required for the Merger

General. Commerce Bancshares and Berkshire Hills Bancorp have agreed to use all reasonable efforts to obtain all permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of all third parties and governmental entities that are necessary or advisable to consummate the Merger, which will include the approvals of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, the Massachusetts Commissioner of Banks and the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System. Berkshire Hills Bancorp has filed the application or notice materials necessary to obtain these regulatory approvals. The Merger cannot be completed without such approvals. Berkshire Hills Bancorp and Commerce Bancshares cannot assure you that all of the required regulatory approvals will be obtained, when they will be received or whether there will be conditions in the approvals or any litigation challenging the approvals. Berkshire Hills Bancorp and Commerce Bancshares also cannot assure you that the United States Department of Justice or any state attorney general will not attempt to challenge the Merger on antitrust grounds, or what the outcome will be if such a challenge is made. Berkshire Hills Bancorp and Commerce Bancshares are not aware of any material governmental approvals or actions that are required prior to the Merger other than those described herein. Berkshire Hills Bancorp and Commerce Bancshares presently contemplate that each will seek any additional governmental approvals or actions that may be required in addition to those requests for approvals currently pending; however, Berkshire Hills Bancorp and Commerce Bancshares cannot assure you that any such additional approvals or actions will be obtained.

Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. The bank merger is subject to approval by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation pursuant to the Federal Bank Merger Act. The Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation may not approve any transaction that would result in a monopoly or otherwise substantially lessen competition or restrain trade, unless it finds that the anti-competitive effects of the transaction are clearly outweighed by the public interest. In addition, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation considers the financial and managerial resources and future prospects of the institutions involved and the convenience and needs of the communities to be served. Under the Community Reinvestment Act, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation must take into account the record of performance of each company in meeting the credit needs of its entire communities, including low and moderate income neighborhoods, served by each company. Berkshire Bank and Commerce Bank & Trust Company each has a satisfactory CRA rating. The Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation also must consider the effectiveness of each institution involved in the proposed transaction in combating money-laundering activities, as well as any risk to the financial stability of the banking or financial systems of the United States.

Federal law requires publication of notice of, and the opportunity for public comment on, the applications submitted by Berkshire Hills Bancorp and Berkshire Bank for approval of the Merger and authorizes the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation to hold a public hearing in connection with the application if it determines that such a hearing would be appropriate. Any such hearing or comments provided by third parties could prolong the period during which the application is subject to review. In addition, under federal law, a period of 30 days must expire following approval by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, within which period the Department of Justice may file objections to the Merger under the federal antitrust laws. This waiting period may be reduced to 15 days if the Department of Justice has not provided any adverse comments relating to the competitive factors of the transaction. If the Department of Justice were to commence an antitrust action, that action would stay the effectiveness of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation's approval of the Merger unless a court specifically orders otherwise. In reviewing the Merger, the Department of Justice could analyze the Merger's effect on competition differently than the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, and thus it is possible that the Department of Justice could reach a different conclusion than the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation regarding the Merger's competitive effects.

Massachusetts Commissioner of Banks. The bank merger is also subject to the approval of the Massachusetts Commissioner of Banks pursuant to Massachusetts law. In determining whether to approve the application, the Commissioner of Banks will consider, among other factors, whether competition among banking institutions will be unreasonably affected, whether public convenience and advantage will be promoted and whether the Merger will result in "net new benefits" within the resulting institution's Community Reinvestment Act assessment area.

Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System. The Merger and the bank merger are subject to approval by the Federal Reserve Board under the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, as amended, and the Bank Merger Act, respectively.

The Federal Reserve Board takes into consideration a number of factors when acting on applications under the Bank Merger Act and the Bank Holding Company Act, including: (1) the financial and managerial resources and the effect of the proposed merger on these resources (including capital and pro forma capital ratios of the combined organization, the management expertise, internal controls, and risk management systems, especially those with respect to compliance with laws applicable to consumers and "fair lending" laws); (2) the effect of the proposal on competition; (3) the future prospects of the existing and merged entities; (4) the convenience and needs of the communities served; (5) any risk to the stability of the United States banking or financial system; and (6) the effectiveness of the acquiring entity in combating money laundering activities. The Federal Reserve Board also reviews the records of the relevant insured depository institutions under the Community Reinvestment Act of 1997, which we refer to in this document as the "CRA." In connection with such a review, the Federal Reserve Board will provide an opportunity for public comment on the application and is authorized to hold a public meeting or other proceeding if it determines such meeting or other proceeding would be appropriate.

In addition, a period of 15 to 30 days must expire following approval by the Federal Reserve Board before completion of the merger is allowed, within which period the United States Department of Justice may file objections to the merger under the federal anti-trust laws. While Berkshire Hills Bancorp and Commerce Bancshares believe that the likelihood of objection by the Department of Justice is remote in this case, there can be no assurance that the Department of Justice will not initiate proceedings to block the merger.

In addition, Berkshire Hills Bancorp and Commerce Bancshares will each have the right not to complete the Merger if any such regulatory approvals include any condition or requirement that would result in a material adverse effect or a burdensome condition on either of the parties or their subsidiaries.

No Solicitation

Until the Merger is completed or the Merger Agreement is terminated, Commerce Bancshares has agreed that it, its subsidiaries, its officers, directors, employees, representatives, agents and affiliates will not:

- directly or indirectly initiate, solicit, induce or knowingly encourage any inquiries or the making of any proposal that constitutes, or may reasonably be expected to lead to, any acquisition of Commerce Bancshares, whether by merger, acquisition of 25% or more of Commerce Bancshares' capital stock or 25% or more of the assets of Commerce Bancshares or otherwise;
- enter into or maintain or continue discussions or negotiations regarding any such acquisition proposal; or
- obtain any such acquisition proposal or agree to or endorse any such acquisition proposal.

Commerce Bancshares may, however, furnish information regarding Commerce Bancshares to, or enter into discussions or negotiations with, any person or entity in response to an unsolicited acquisition proposal by such person or entity if and only to the extent that:

- such acquisition proposal did not result from a breach of the “No Solicitation” section of the Merger Agreement;

- Commerce Bancshares’ board of directors determines in good faith, after consultation with its financial and legal advisors, that such unsolicited proposal, if consummated, is reasonably likely to result in a transaction more favorable to Commerce Bancshares’ shareholders from a financial point of view than the merger with Berkshire Hills Bancorp and is reasonably likely to be completed in accordance with its terms;

- Commerce Bancshares receives for the person presenting the unsolicited acquisition proposal an executed confidentiality agreement in form and substance identical in all material respects to the confidentiality agreement between Berkshire Hills Bancorp and Commerce Bancshares; and

- the Commerce Bancshares special meeting of shareholders has not yet occurred.

Nothing contained in the Merger Agreement prohibits Commerce Bancshares or its representatives from (a) informing any person of the existence of the provisions of the “No Solicitation” section of the Merger Agreement, (b) contacting any person solely to clarify the terms and conditions of an acquisition proposal or (c) otherwise disclosing any information to the Commerce Bancshares shareholders that the Commerce Bancshares board of directors determines in good faith (after consultation with its legal counsel) it must disclose in order not to breach its fiduciary duties to such shareholders.

Commerce Bancshares must promptly, but in no event later than one business day, notify Berkshire Hills Bancorp of any inquires, proposals or offers received by, any information requested from, or any discussions or negotiations sought to be initiated or continued with it or any of its representative regarding an acquisition proposal, indicating in connection with such notice the material terms of, and the name of the person making, any such inquires, proposals or offers.

Terminating the Merger Agreement

The Merger Agreement may be terminated prior to the closing, before or after approval by Commerce Bancshares’ shareholders, as follows:

- by mutual written agreement of Berkshire Hills Bancorp and Commerce Bancshares;

- by either Berkshire Hills Bancorp or Commerce Bancshares if the closing of the Merger has not occurred on or before April 30, 2018, and such failure to close is not due to the terminating party’s material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement contained in the Merger Agreement;

- by Berkshire Hills Bancorp or Commerce Bancshares if the shareholders of Commerce Bancshares have voted at the special shareholders’ meeting and do not approve the Merger Agreement;

- by a non-breaching party if the other party breaches any covenants, agreements, representations or warranties contained in the Merger Agreement and such breach, together with all other such breaches, would entitle the terminating party not to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, and if such breach has not been cured within thirty days after written notice from the terminating party;

by either party if any required regulatory approvals for consummation of the Merger are not obtained or any court or other governmental authority issues a final order or other action prohibiting the Merger;

by Berkshire Hills Bancorp if (a) Commerce Bancshares receives a “superior proposal,” as defined in the Merger Agreement, and the Commerce Bancshares board of directors enters into an acquisition agreement with respect to the superior proposal, withdraws its recommendation of the Merger Agreement, fails to make such recommendation or modifies or qualifies its recommendation in a manner adverse to Berkshire Hills Bancorp, (b) either (i) the Commerce Bancshares board or directors submits the Merger Agreement to its shareholders without a recommendation for approval or (ii) the Commerce Bancshares board of directors withdraws,

qualifies or adversely modifies its recommendation of the Merger Agreement to the Commerce Bancshares shareholders (or publicly proposes or resolves to do so), or (c) the Commerce Bancshares shareholders do not approve the Merger Agreement; or

- by Commerce Bancshares in order to accept a superior proposal, as defined in the Merger Agreement, which has been received and considered by Commerce Bancshares in compliance with the applicable terms of the Merger Agreement, provided that Commerce Bancshares has notified Berkshire Hills Bancorp in accordance with the Merger Agreement of such superior proposal and has given Berkshire Hills Bancorp the opportunity during a period of three business days following delivery of the notice to negotiate amendments to the Merger Agreement which would permit Commerce Bancshares to proceed with the proposed merger with Berkshire Hills.

If the Merger Agreement is terminated, under either of the latter two scenarios described above, Commerce Bancshares shall pay to Berkshire Hills Bancorp a fee of $8.6 million. The fee would also be payable to Berkshire Hills Bancorp if Commerce Bancshares enters into a merger agreement with a third party within one year of (a) the termination of the Merger Agreement by Berkshire Hills Bancorp due to a breach by Commerce Bancshares after the occurrence of a bona fide acquisition proposal has been publicly announced or otherwise made known to the senior management or board of directors of Commerce Bancshares, or (b) the termination of the Merger Agreement by any party due to the failure of the shareholders of Commerce Bancshares to approve the Merger Agreement at the special meeting after the occurrence of an acquisition proposal has been publicly announced or otherwise made known to the shareholders of Commerce Bancshares.

Additionally, Commerce Bancshares may terminate the Merger Agreement at any time during the five business-day period commencing on the first date on which all regulatory approvals (and waivers, if applicable) necessary for consummation of the Merger have been received (disregarding any waiting period) (the “Determination Date”), if both of the following conditions are satisfied:

- the trading price of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock as of the determination date, as defined by the Merger Agreement, is less than $28.44 (the “Berkshire Hills Ratio”); and

- the number obtained by dividing the trading price of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock on the determination date, as defined by the Merger Agreement, by $35.55 is less than the number obtained by dividing (x) the Nasdaq Bank Index price as of the determination date by (y) the initial Nasdaq Bank Index price minus 0.20.

If Commerce Bancshares elects to exercise its termination right as described above, it must give prompt written notice to Berkshire Hills. During the five business-day period commencing with its receipt of such notice, Berkshire Hills Bancorp shall have the option to increase the consideration to be received by the holders of Commerce Bancshares common stock by increasing the exchange ratio from 0.93 to equal the lesser of (x) a number obtained by dividing (A) the product of the index ratio and the exchange ratio (as then in effect) and as defined by the Merger Agreement by (B) the Berkshire Hills Bancorp trading price as of the determination date or (y) a number obtained by dividing (A) the product of the index ratio and the exchange ratio (as then in effect) and as defined by the Merger Agreement minus 0.20 by (B) the Berkshire Hills Bancorp trading price as of the determination date divided by $35.55.

Because the formula is dependent on the future price of Berkshire Hills Bancorp’s common stock and that of the Nasdaq Bank Index, it is not possible to determine what the adjusted exchange ratio would be at this time, but, in general, the ratio would be increased and, consequently, more shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock issued, to take into account the extent of the decline in the value of Berkshire Hills Bancorp’s common stock as compared to the changes in the value of the common stock of the Nasdaq Bank Index.

Changing the Terms of the Merger Agreement

The parties may amend the Merger Agreement at any time before or after approval of the Merger Agreement by Commerce Bancshares shareholders. However, after such shareholder approval, no amendment may be made without the approval of Commerce Bancshares’ shareholders if it reduces the amount or value, or changes the form of, the merger consideration to be delivered to Commerce Bancshares' shareholders pursuant to the Merger Agreement.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

The parties may waive any of their conditions to closing, unless they may not be waived under law.

Expenses

Except as specifically provided in the Merger Agreement, each of Berkshire Hills Bancorp and Commerce Bancshares will pay its own costs and expenses incurred in connection with the Merger.

- Without Berkshire Hills Bancorp's prior written consent and Berkshire Hills Bancorp's review of Mr. Massad's proposed sale or transfer of such shares, which consent and review shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed, to directly or indirectly sell or transfer any of Mr. Massad's shares of Commerce Bancshares stock or shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock, with the exception of specific transfers and limited sales of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock by Mr. Massad, as further defined by the Shareholder Agreement;

DESCRIPTION OF BERKSHIRE HILLS BANCORP, INC. CAPITAL STOCK

The following summary describes the material terms of Berkshire Hills Bancorp's capital stock and is subject to, and qualified by, Berkshire Hills Bancorp's certificate of incorporation and bylaws and the Delaware General Corporation Law. See "Where You Can Find More Information" as to how to obtain a copy of Berkshire Hills Bancorp's certificate of incorporation and bylaws.

General

Berkshire Hills Bancorp is authorized to issue 50,000,000 shares of common stock having a par value of $0.01 per share, and 1,000,000 shares of preferred stock having a par value of $0.01 per share. At August 1, 2017, 40,422,877 shares of common stock were outstanding. At that date, no preferred shares were outstanding.

Common Stock

Voting Rights. The holders of common stock are entitled to one vote per share on all matters presented to shareholders. Holders of common stock are not entitled to cumulate their votes in the election of directors. However, Berkshire Hills Bancorp's certificate of incorporation provides that a record owner of Berkshire Hills Bancorp's common stock who beneficially owns, either directly or indirectly, in excess of 10% of Berkshire Hills Bancorp's outstanding shares, is not entitled to any vote in respect of the shares held in excess of the 10% limit.

No Preemptive or Conversion Rights. The holders of common stock do not have preemptive rights to subscribe for a proportionate share of any additional securities issued by Berkshire Hills before such securities are offered to others. The absence of preemptive rights increases Berkshire Hills Bancorp's flexibility to issue additional shares of common stock in connection with Berkshire Hills Bancorp's acquisitions, employee benefit plans and for other purposes, without affording the holders of common stock a right to subscribe for their proportionate share of those additional securities. The holders of common stock are not entitled to any redemption privileges, sinking fund privileges or conversion rights.

Dividends. Holders of common stock are entitled to receive dividends ratably when, as and if declared by Berkshire Hills Bancorp's board of directors from assets legally available therefor, after payment of all dividends on preferred stock, if any is outstanding. Under the Delaware General Corporation Law, Berkshire Hills Bancorp may pay dividends out of surplus or net profits for the fiscal year in which declared and/or the preceding fiscal year, even if its surplus accounts are in a deficit position. Dividends paid by Berkshire Bank have historically been the primary operating source of funds available to Berkshire Hills Bancorp, and historic financing sources have included senior and subordinated debt and the issuance of trust preferred securities, preferred stock and common stock. Berkshire Hills Bancorp expects to use these sources of funds in the future, as well as proceeds it may obtain from the offering of common stock, preferred stock and/or debt securities for payment of dividends to its shareholders, the repurchase of its common stock and for other needs. Berkshire Hills Bancorp's board of directors intends to maintain its present policy of paying regular quarterly cash dividends. The declaration and amount of future dividends will depend on circumstances existing at the time, including Berkshire Hills Bancorp's earnings, financial condition and capital requirements, as well as regulatory limitations and such other factors as Berkshire Hills Bancorp's board of directors deems relevant.

Berkshire Hills Bancorp's principal assets and sources of income consist of investments in its operating subsidiaries, which are separate and distinct legal entities.

Liquidation. Upon liquidation, dissolution or the winding up of the affairs of Berkshire Hills Bancorp, holders of common stock are entitled to receive their pro rata portion of the remaining assets of Berkshire Hills Bancorp after the holders of Berkshire Hills Bancorp's preferred stock, if any, have been paid in full any sums to which they may be entitled.

Preferred Stock

Under the terms of our Certificate of Incorporation, as amended, our Board of Directors is authorized to issue up to 1,000,000 shares of preferred stock in one or more series without stockholder approval. Our Board of Directors has the discretion to determine the rights, preferences, privileges and restrictions, including voting rights, dividend rights, conversion rights, redemption privileges and liquidation preferences, of each series of preferred stock. As of March 31, 2017, no shares of preferred stock are issued and outstanding. However, per the terms of the Merger Agreement, any shares of Commerce Bancshares common stock that are not convertible to Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock as a result of the Voting Stock Consideration Limit will be converted into Berkshire Hills Bancorp Series B Non-Voting Preferred Stock ("Series B preferred stock") at a rate of 0.465 shares of Series B preferred stock for each share of Commerce Bancshares common stock. Based on the Commerce Bancshares common stockholdings as of March 31, 2017, Berkshire Hills Bancorp anticipates that it will issue approximately 500,000 shares of Series B preferred stock at the effective time of the Merger. The following is a summary of the rights, privileges and terms of the Series B preferred stock.

Rank. The Series B preferred stock will rank:

- Subordinate and junior to all indebtedness of Berkshire Hills Bancorp;

- Subordinate and junior to all other series of preferred stock of Berkshire Hills Bancorp, other than any series of preferred stock the terms of which provide that such series is subordinate or junior to the Series B preferred stock in any respect; and

- On parity with the Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock, except with respect to dividends, distributions upon the liquidation, dissolution or winding up of Berkshire Hills Bancorp and voting rights, as described below.

Dividends. Holders of Series B preferred stock are entitled to receive ratable dividends only if and when dividends are concurrently declared and payable on the shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock; provided that no dividend may be declared or paid on the Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock unless a dividend equal to 200% (on a per share basis) of the amount declared or paid on the Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock is also concurrently declared or paid on the Series B preferred stock.

Liquidation Preference. In the event of our liquidation, dissolution or winding up, subject to the rights of holders of any class or series of our capital stock hereafter created specifically ranking by its terms senior to the Series B preferred stock, holders of Series B preferred stock will participate ratably in the distribution of any remaining assets with the common stock and any other class or series of our capital stock hereafter created that participates with the common stock in such distributions.

Voting Rights. Shares of Series B preferred stock will generally have no voting rights, except as required by Delaware law.

Conversion. Each share of Series B preferred stock may convert, at the discretion of the holder and under the conversion procedures set forth below, into two shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock and may be transferred to any person other than a member of the Acting in Concert Group (as defined by Regulation Y of the Federal Reserve Board's regulations) through a widespread public distribution, a transfer in which no transferee (or group of associated transferees) would receive 2% or more of the shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock then outstanding, or to a transferee that would control more than 50% of the voting securities of Berkshire Hills Bancorp. The shares of Series B preferred stock are not convertible to Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock if held by a member of the Acting in Concert Group, except as follows:

- Shares of the Series B preferred stock may be converted to Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock where, following the conversion, the Acting in Concert Group's beneficial ownership would constitute no more than 9.9% of the then-outstanding shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock; and

- The holder of Series B preferred stock must tender the shares along with written notice to Berkshire Hills Bancorp along with necessary documentation to establish that the conversion will not be inconsistent with, or in violation of, the requirements of any regulatory authority with respect to the restrictions on the transfer of the Series B preferred stock that are required to preserve the “non-voting classification” of the Series B preferred stock.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Redemption. Berkshire Hills Bancorp is not obligated to redeem or repurchase any shares of Series B preferred stock. Shares of Series B preferred stock are not otherwise entitled to any redemption rights, or mandatory sinking fund or analogous fund provisions.

Listing. There is no established public trading market for the Series B preferred stock, and Berkshire Hills Bancorp does not expect a market to develop. In addition, we do not intend to apply for listing of the Series B preferred stock on any national securities exchange or trading system.

Significant Corporate Transactions. If, at any time that shares of Series B preferred stock are outstanding, Berkshire Hills Bancorp effects a merger or other change of control transaction, then a holder will have the right to receive, upon any subsequent conversion of a share of Series B preferred stock and for each share of Series B preferred stock, the same kind and amount of securities, cash or property as such holder would have been entitled to receive upon the occurrence of such significant corporate transaction if such holder had been, immediately prior to such significant corporate transaction, the holder of two shares of common stock.

Certain Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaw Provisions Affecting Stock

Berkshire Hills Bancorp's certificate of incorporation and bylaws contain several provisions that may make Berkshire Hills Bancorp a less attractive target for an acquisition of control by anyone who does not have the support of Berkshire Hills Bancorp's board of directors. Such provisions include, among other things, the requirement of a supermajority vote of shareholders or directors to approve certain business combinations and other corporate actions, a minimum price provision, several special procedural rules, a vote limitation provision and the limitation that shareholder actions may only be taken at a meeting and may not be taken by unanimous written shareholder consent. The foregoing is qualified in its entirety by reference to Berkshire Hills Bancorp's certificate of incorporation and bylaws.

Restrictions on Ownership

Under the federal Change in Bank Control Act, a notice must be submitted to the Federal Reserve if any person (including a company), or group acting in concert, seeks to acquire "control" of a bank holding company or savings association. An acquisition of "control" can occur upon the acquisition of 10% or more of the voting stock of a bank holding company or depository institution or as otherwise defined by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System. Under the Change in Bank Control Act, the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System has 60 days from the filing of a complete notice to act, taking into consideration certain factors, including the financial and managerial resources of the acquirer and the anti-trust effects of the acquisition. Any company that so acquires control would then be subject to regulation as a bank holding company.

Transfer Agent and Registrar

UNAUDITED PRO FORMA COMBINED CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL INFORMATION RELATING TO THE COMMERCE MERGER

The unaudited pro forma combined condensed consolidated financial information has been prepared using the acquisition method of accounting, giving effect to the merger of Berkshire with Commerce. The unaudited pro forma combined condensed consolidated statement of financial condition combines the historical financial information of Berkshire and Commerce as of March 31, 2017. The unaudited pro forma combined condensed consolidated statements of operations combine the historical financial information of Berkshire and Commerce and give effect to the merger as if they had been completed as of January 1, 2016. Certain reclassifications have been made to historical financial information in order to conform to this combined condensed presentation.

The actual value of Berkshire's common stock to be recorded as consideration in the Commerce merger will be based on the closing price of Berkshire common stock at the time of the merger completion. The proposed merger with Commerce is targeted for completion as early as mid-October 2017. There can be no assurance that the Commerce merger will be completed as anticipated. For purposes of the unaudited pro forma financial information, the fair value of Berkshire common stock to be issued in connection with the Commerce merger is based on the $35.55 closing price of the stock on May 19, 2017.

The unaudited pro forma financial information includes estimated adjustments, including adjustments to record assets and liabilities of the acquired entity and operations at their respective fair values and represents pro forma estimates by Berkshire based on available fair value information. The estimates are as of March 31, 2017. The pro forma adjustments for Commerce included herein are subject to change depending on changes in interest rates and the components of assets and liabilities, and the adjustments are subject to change as additional information becomes available and additional analyses are performed. The final allocation of the purchase price for the acquisition will be determined after completion of thorough analyses to determine the value of tangible and identifiable intangible assets and liabilities as of the completion date of the business combination. Increases or decreases in the estimated fair values of the net assets as compared with the information shown in the unaudited pro forma combined condensed consolidated financial information may change the amount of the purchase price allocated to goodwill and other assets and liabilities and may impact Berkshire's statement of operations due to adjustments in yield and/or amortization of the adjusted assets or liabilities. Any changes to Commerce's shareholders' equity, including results of operations from March 31, 2017 through the date the merger is completed, will also change the purchase price allocation, which may include the recording of a lower or higher amount of goodwill. The final adjustments may be materially different from the unaudited pro forma adjustments presented herein.

Berkshire anticipates that the merger with Commerce will provide the combined company with financial benefits that include reduced recurring operating expenses. Berkshire expects to realize cost savings approximating 20% of the anticipated recurring non-interest expense of Commerce. These cost savings are not included in these unaudited pro forma statements and there can be no assurance that expected cost savings will be realized. The merger will result in a combined company with over $10 billion in assets. The expected impact of the increased regulatory burden and the offset of the cost savings and revenue impact are not included in these unaudited pro forma statements. The pro forma information, while helpful in illustrating the financial characteristics of the combined company under one set of assumptions, does not reflect the benefits of expected cost savings or opportunities to earn additional revenue and, accordingly, does not attempt to predict or suggest future results. It also does not necessarily reflect what the historical results of the combined company would have been had our companies been combined during these periods.

The unaudited pro forma combined condensed consolidated financial information has been derived from and should be read in conjunction with the historical consolidated financial statements and the related notes of Berkshire and Commerce. The historic information about Berkshire is incorporated in this joint proxy statement/prospectus by reference. See "Where You Can Find More Information."

NOTES TO THE UNAUDITED PRO FORMA COMBINED CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Note A — Basis of Presentation

The unaudited pro forma combined condensed consolidated financial information and explanatory notes show the impact on the historical financial condition and income of Berkshire resulting from the business combination with Commerce under accounting principles for business combinations. Under these accounting principles, the acquired assets and liabilities are recorded by Berkshire at their respective fair values as of the date the business combination is completed. The unaudited pro forma combined condensed consolidated statement of financial condition combines the historical financial information of Berkshire and Commerce as of March 31, 2017 and assumes that the business combination was completed as of March 31, 2017. The unaudited pro forma combined condensed consolidated statements of operations give effect to the business combination as if they had been completed on January 1, 2016. All loans are recorded at fair value, including the elimination of adjustments for estimated credit losses, and no allowance for loan losses is carried over to Berkshire's statement of financial condition. In addition, certain anticipated nonrecurring costs associated with the business combination, conversion-related expenditures are not reflected in the unaudited pro forma statements of operations. While the recording of the acquired loans at their fair value will impact the prospective determination of the provision for loan losses and the allowance for loan losses, for purposes of the unaudited pro forma combined condensed consolidated statements of operations, we assumed no adjustments to the historical amount of Commerce's provision for loan losses. If such adjustments were estimated, there could be a reduction, which could be significant, to the historical amount of Commerce's provision for loan losses presented.

Note B — Accounting Policies and Financial Statement Classifications

The accounting policies of Commerce are in the process of being reviewed in detail by Berkshire. On completion of such review, conforming adjustments or financial statement reclassifications may be determined.

Note C — Merger and Acquisition Integration Costs

The plan to integrate the operations of Berkshire with those of Commerce is still being developed. The specific details of these plans will continue to be refined over the next several months, and will include assessing personnel, benefit plans, premises, equipment, and service contracts to determine where there may be potential advantage in eliminating redundancies. Certain decisions arising from these assessments may involve involuntary termination of employees, vacating premises, changing information systems, canceling contracts with certain service providers and selling or otherwise disposing of certain premises, furniture and equipment. Berkshire expects to incur merger related costs including professional fees, legal fees, system conversion costs, and costs related to communications with customers and others. Commerce also expects to incur merger related costs. To the extent there are costs associated with these actions, the costs will be recorded based on the nature of the cost and timing of these integration actions. Transaction costs represent direct, incremental costs of the acquisition. Estimated transaction costs expected to be incurred in closing the transaction are accrued in the unaudited pro forma balance sheet, but are not reflected in the unaudited pro forma income statement. See further discussion of the Company's consideration of transactional costs in Note E sections 10 and 13.

Note D — Estimated Annual Cost Savings

Berkshire expects to realize annualized cost savings related to recurring non-interest expense of approximately $8.0 million (20%) of Commerce's expected recurring non-interest expense following the merger. These anticipated cost savings are integral to Berkshire's strategy in entering into the business combination. These cost savings are not reflected in the pro forma financial information and there can be no assurance they will be achieved in the amount or manner currently contemplated.

Note E — Unaudited Pro Forma Merger and Adjustments

The following pro forma adjustments have been reflected in the unaudited pro forma combined condensed consolidated financial information. All adjustments are based on current assumptions and valuations, which are subject to change. All adjustments for Commerce in these unaudited pro forma financial statements are based on due diligence analysis performed by Berkshire based on information available prior to the announcement of the transaction.

Other merger adjustments affecting short-term investments include Commerce paying $12.7 million to terminate and pay-out phantom stock before the acquisition date, as required by the merger agreement. In 2003, Commerce granted 1,500 shares of phantom stock to one director as compensation for work performed on the acquisition of the mortgage company. In 2011, Commerce adopted the 2011 Long Term Incentive Plan under which phantom stock appreciation rights may be granted to directors and employees of the Bank. There are approximately 700 thousand awards outstanding.

Additionally, short-term investments are to be utilized to pay an estimated $25.3 million in merger related costs. Merger related costs include $8.5 million in employee related matters, $6.4 million in data conversion and technology costs, $5.9 million for investment bankers, audit and legal costs, $3.9 million in various retail and facilities related costs, and $0.3 million in marketing expenses.

Represents the disposals of securities for repayment by Commerce of its subordinated debt before the time of the merger. This is a requirement of the merger agreement and is not a fair value adjustment.

3)

These amounts represent the estimated fair value adjustment to Commerce's loan portfolio, which includes an estimate of credit losses. Accordingly, allowances for loan losses prior to the acquisition date cannot be carried-over, which was $16.0 million as of March 31, 2017. The adjustment to the Commerce loan portfolio includes an estimated $91.1 million for non-accretable credit discount, of which $66.7 million is tied to Commerce Medallion Loans, and $16.0 million in accretable discount based on the interest rate and credit characteristics of the acquired loans.

Represents adjustments to goodwill resulting from recording the assets and liabilities at fair value. These adjustments are preliminary and are subject to change. When final adjustments are completed, the amounts may be materially different than those presented here. The excess of consideration paid over the fair value of net assets acquired was recorded as goodwill and is summarized in Note E-10.

5)

Represents the recognition of the core deposit intangible asset at fair value offset by the elimination of $227 thousand of intangibles previously recorded by Commerce. The core deposit intangible asset is estimated to be $19.0 million calculated on the $1.4 billion balance of core deposits.

This amount primarily consists of $27.9 million in adjustments in the net deferred tax assets resulting from the fair value adjustments related to the acquired assets and liabilities and identifiable intangible. The actual tax asset adjustments will be determined upon final analysis. This is offset by a decrease of $3.0 million in other merger adjustments, which is from Commerce's termination and phase out of their phantom stock.

Fair value adjustments represent adjustments to premises and equipment for buildings of $3.7 million offset by a reduction in OREO of $1.0 million and a reduction in other assets including prepaid expenses of $1.2 million.

Other merger adjustments represents $4.8 million in capitalized merger related costs, including $2.8 million of various retail and facilities related costs and $1.9 million in branch hardware and software.

Represents repayment by Commerce of their subordinated debt before the time of the merger. This is a requirement of the merger agreement and is not a fair value adjustment.

9)

Fair value adjustment of $1.0 million is for various other liabilities and other merger adjustments of $12.7 million relates to Commerce's termination and pay-out of phantom stock prior to closing the merger, as required by the merger agreement.

80

10)

The equity adjustment will be based on the fair value of Berkshire's common stock on the date that the Commerce merger closes, which could be materially different from the amount presented here, as well as transaction expenses.

While the merger conversion is based on a fixed exchange ratio of 0.93 Berkshire common shares for each Commerce common share, the merger agreement sets forth a mechanism where some stock consideration will be issued to certain Commerce shareholders as preferred stock rather than as common stock. This mechanism is based on the total number of Berkshire shares outstanding as of the date of the merger completion, together with the total number of Commerce and Berkshire shares held by the Acting in Concert Group as defined in the merger agreement. The common and preferred shares issued as merger consideration in the pro forma financial statements are based on stock information as of that date. The actual number of common and preferred shares issued is likely to be different, primarily due to routine changes in outstanding Berkshire common shares related to equity based compensation arrangements.

A summary of the net impact of adjustments to shareholders' equity and goodwill is as follows (dollars and shares in thousands):

Fair value of Berkshire preferred shares to be issued	$ 35,550

The high and low Berkshire closing stock prices in 2017 through June 20, 2017 were $37.95 and $33.65, respectively. Based on this range of prices, the fair value of Berkshire common shares to be issued would be in a pro forma range of $185.4 million to $164.4 million, respectively, and the fair value of Berkshire preferred shares to be issued would be in a pro forma range of $38.0 million to $33.7 million, respectively. The actual fair value of Berkshire common and preferred shares to be issued will be based on the closing price of Berkshire's stock immediately prior to the completion of the merger, and may not be within this range. Any change in the fair value of Berkshire shares to be issued will give rise to an equal change in the amount of goodwill recorded.

Represents the accretion of fair value adjustments related to loans utilizing the straight line method over the three year estimated life.

12)

Represents the reversal of interest expense related to Commerce's subordinated debt of $21.1 million that will be repaid before the closing utilizing an average interest rate of 7.25%.

13)

Adjustment to non-interest expense for Commerce includes amortization of the identifiable intangible asset using the straight line method over ten years. Non-interest expenses do not reflect anticipated cost savings, which are estimated at 20% of total non-interest expenses. Non-interest expenses also do not include one-time transaction expenses which were expensed by Berkshire against income and which are accounted for as balance sheet adjustments to cash and equity in these unaudited pro forma financial statements.

Reflects the tax impact of the pro forma fair value adjustments at an estimated tax rate of 40.0% for 2016 and 2017.

15)

Adjustment reflects the preferred stock dividends that are a result of the preferred shares expected to be issued in connection with the Commerce merger.

16)

Adjustment reflects the elimination of Commerce shares outstanding, offset by the shares expected to be issued in connection with the Commerce merger. See Note E-10 for additional information about share adjustments.

Note F — Effect of Hypothetical Adjustments on Commerce's Historical Financial Statements

The unaudited pro forma combined condensed consolidated statement of operations presents the pro forma results assuming the Commerce merger occurred on January 1, 2016. As required by Regulation S-X Article 11, the pro forma statement of operations does not reflect any adjustments to eliminate Commerce's historical provision for credit losses. Both Commerce's provision for credit losses for the periods presented relate to loans that Berkshire is required to initially record at fair value. Such fair value adjustments include a component related to the expected credit losses on those loan portfolios. Berkshire believes that these provisions would not have been recorded in Berkshire's consolidated financial statements for the periods presented had the merger been completed on January 1, 2016.

Delaware law provides that a company may pay expenses incurred in advance of the final disposition of the proceeding provided the company receives from the individual a written undertaking to repay the advanced amounts if it is ultimately determined that the individual was not entitled to be indemnified. Growth

Total assets of $2.2 billion as of March 31, 2017 decreased $18 million, or 3.3% on an annualized basis, from December 31, 2016. The decrease in assets was primarily driven by a decrease in interest bearing deposits as a result of decreased payroll-related deposits, which resulted in a decrease to cash and cash equivalents necessary to fund loans and investments.

Total loans and leases of $1.5 billion as of March 31, 2017 increased $31 million, or 8.7% on an annualized basis, from December 31, 2016. Commerce Bancshares’s commercial loan portfolios, which are comprised of commercial real estate loans and commercial loans and leases, totaled $1.3 billion, or 89.8% of total loans and leases, as of March 31, 2017, an increase of $36 million, or 11.3% on an annualized basis, from $1.3 billion, or 89.2% of total loans and leases, as of December 31, 2016.

The increase in nonperforming loans and leases and nonperforming assets was primarily driven by taxi medallion loans that were placed on nonaccrual.

The ratio of the allowance for loan and lease losses to total loans and leases was 1.1% as of March 31, 2017, compared to 1.2% as of December 31, 2016. Commerce Bancshares continued to employ its historical underwriting methodology throughout the three-month period ended March 31, 2017.

2.1 Merger.

Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, at the Effective Time: (a) Commerce shall merge with and into BHLB, with BHLB as the resulting or surviving corporation (the “Surviving Corporation”); and (b) the separate existence of Commerce shall cease and all of the rights, privileges, powers, franchises, properties, assets, liabilities and obligations of Commerce shall be vested in and assumed by BHLB. As part of the Merger, each outstanding share of Commerce Common Stock will be converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration pursuant to the terms of Article III.

2.2 Closing; Effective Time.

The closing (“Closing”) shall occur no later than the close of business on the fifth Business Day following the satisfaction or (to the extent permitted by applicable law) waiver of the conditions set forth in Article IX (other than those conditions that by their terms are to be satisfied at the Closing, but subject to the satisfaction or (to the extent permitted by applicable law) waiver of those conditions), or such other date that may be agreed to in writing by the parties. The Merger shall be effected by the filing of a certificate of merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware and articles of merger with the Secretary of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts on the day of the Closing (the “Closing Date”), in accordance with the DGCL and MGL, respectively. The “Effective Time” means the date and time upon which the certificate of merger and the articles of merger, respectively, are filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware and the Secretary of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, or as otherwise stated in the certificate of merger or articles of merger, in accordance with the DGCL and MGL. A pre-closing of the transactions contemplated hereby (the “Pre-Closing”) shall take place at the offices of Luse Gorman, PC, at 10:00 a.m. on the day prior to the Closing Date.

2.3 Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws.

The certificate of incorporation and bylaws of BHLB as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be the certificate of incorporation and bylaws of the Surviving Corporation, until thereafter amended as provided therein and by applicable law.

2.4 Directors of the Surviving Corporation.

Effective immediately after the Closing Date, Pamela Massad and David Brunelle (the “New Board Members”) shall be appointed and elected to the BHLB and Berkshire Bank Boards of Directors; provided, however, that if, prior to the Effective Time, Ms. Massad or Mr. Brunelle are unable or unwilling to serve as members of the BHLB and Berkshire Bank Board of Directors, BHLB, in consultation with Commerce, shall designate a New Board Member from the remaining existing members of the Commerce Board of Directors.

2.5 Effects of the Merger.

At and after the Effective Time, the Merger shall have the effects as set forth in the DGCL and MGL.

2.6 Tax Consequences.

It is intended that the Merger shall constitute a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, and that this Agreement shall constitute a “plan of reorganization” as that term is used in Sections 354 and 361 of the Code.

2.7 Possible Alternative Structures.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement and subject to the satisfaction of the conditions set forth in Article IX prior to the Effective Time, BHLB may revise the structure for effecting the Merger described in Section 2.1 or the Bank Merger including, without limitation, (A) by substituting a wholly owned subsidiary for BHLB or Berkshire Bank, as applicable, or (B) entering into a stock purchase agreement with certain stockholders of Commerce and immediately thereafter effectuating a short-form merger between parent and subsidiary pursuant to MGL Ch. 156D, §11.05, provided that, in any revision to the structure: (i) any such subsidiary shall become a party to, and shall agree to be bound by, the terms of this Agreement; (ii) there are no adverse Federal or state income tax consequences to BHLB, Berkshire Bank, Commerce, CBTC or to the BHLB or Commerce stockholders, and nothing would prevent the rendering of the opinions contemplated in Sections 9.2.5 and 9.3.5, as a result of the modification; (iii) the consideration to be paid to the holders of Commerce Common Stock under this Agreement is not thereby changed in kind, value or reduced in amount, other than as contemplated in the Shareholder Agreement in connection with the Merger; and (iv) such modification will not materially delay the Closing or materially jeopardize or delay (x) the calling and holding of the Commerce Stockholders Meeting, the solicitation of proxies in connection therewith, or stockholder consent in lieu of a meeting of stockholders, to the extent permissible or (y) the receipt of any Regulatory Approvals or other consents and approvals relating to the consummation of the Merger or otherwise cause any condition to Closing set forth in Article IX not to be capable of being fulfilled. ARTICLE III

CONVERSION OF SHARES

3.1 Conversion of Commerce Common Stock; Merger Consideration.

At the Effective Time, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of BHLB, Commerce or the holders of any of the shares of Commerce Common Stock, the Merger shall be effected in accordance with the following terms:

3.1.1 Each share of BHLB Common Stock that is issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall remain issued and outstanding following the Effective Time and shall be unchanged by the Merger.

3.1.2 All shares of Commerce Common Stock held in the treasury of Commerce prior to the Effective Time (other than shares held in a fiduciary capacity or in connection with debts previously contracted) ("Treasury Stock") cease to exist, and such shares, including any Certificates therefor, shall be canceled as promptly as practicable thereafter, and no payment or distribution shall be made in consideration therefor.

3.1.3 Subject to a potential adjustment as provided in Section 10.1.9, each outstanding share of Commerce Common Stock (other than Treasury Stock and Dissenting Shares) shall be converted into the right to receive 0.93 (the "Exchange Ratio") shares of BHLB Common Stock (the "BHLB Common Stock Consideration"); provided, however, that no Commerce stockholder shall receive, as aggregated with such stockholder's immediate family members and affiliates for purposes of 12 C.F.R. § 225.41 of Regulation Y (the "Acting in Concert Group"), BHLB Common Stock Consideration that would exceed 9.9% of the outstanding BHLB Common Stock as of the Effective Time (the "Voting Stock Consideration Limit"). In the event that any Commerce stockholder, as aggregated with such stockholder's Acting in Concert Group, would otherwise exceed the Voting Stock Consideration Limit, such Commerce stockholder shall receive 0.465 shares of non-voting, participating BHLB preferred stock as defined by the Certificate of Designation attached as Exhibit C hereto ("BHLB Preferred Stock Consideration") for every share of Commerce Common Stock that may not be converted into BHLB Common Stock as a consequence of the Voting Stock Consideration Limit.

3.1.4 Each outstanding share of Commerce Common Stock, the holder of which has perfected his right to appraisal under applicable law and has not effectively withdrawn or lost such right as of the Effective Time (the "Dissenting Shares"), shall not be converted into or represent a right to receive the Merger Consideration hereunder, and the holder thereof shall be entitled only to such rights as are granted by applicable law. Commerce shall give BHLB prompt notice upon receipt by Commerce of any such demands for payment of the fair value of such shares of Commerce Common Stock and of withdrawals of such notice and any other related communications (any shareholder duly making such demand being hereinafter called a "Dissenting Shareholder"), and BHLB shall have the right to participate in all discussions, negotiations and proceedings with respect to any such demands. Commerce shall not, except with the prior written consent of BHLB, voluntarily make any payment with respect to, or settle or offer to settle, any such demand for payment, or waive any failure to timely deliver a written demand for appraisal or the taking of any other action by such Dissenting Shareholder as may be necessary to perfect appraisal rights under applicable law. Any payments made in respect of Dissenting Shares shall be made by BHLB as the surviving company.

3.1.5 If any Dissenting Shareholder withdraws or loses (through failure to perfect or otherwise) his right to such payment at or prior to the Effective Time, such holder's shares of Commerce Common Stock shall be converted into a right to receive the Merger Consideration in accordance with the applicable provisions of this Agreement. If such holder withdraws or loses (through failure to perfect or otherwise) his right to such payment after the Effective Time, each share of Commerce Common Stock of such holder shall be entitled to receive the Merger Consideration.

3.1.6 Upon the Effective Time, outstanding shares of Commerce Common Stock shall no longer be outstanding and shall automatically be canceled and shall cease to exist, and shall thereafter by operation of this Section 3.1 represent only the right to receive the Merger Consideration and any dividends or distributions with respect thereto or any dividends or distributions with a record date prior to the Effective Time that were declared or made by Commerce on such shares of Commerce Common Stock in accordance with the terms of this Agreement on or prior to the Effective Time and which remain unpaid at the Effective Time.

3.1.7 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, no certificates or scrip representing fractional shares of BHLB Common Stock or BHLB Preferred Stock shall be issued upon the surrender for exchange of Certificates, no dividend or distribution with respect to BHLB Common Stock or BHLB Preferred Stock shall be payable on or with respect to any fractional share interests, and such fractional share interests shall not entitle the owner thereof to vote or to any other rights of a stockholder of BHLB. In lieu of the issuance of any such fractional share, BHLB shall pay to each former holder of Commerce Common Stock who otherwise would be entitled to receive a fractional share of BHLB Common Stock or BHLB Preferred Stock, an amount in cash, rounded to the nearest cent and without interest, equal to the product of (i) the fraction of a share to which such holder would otherwise have been entitled and (ii) the average of the daily closing sales prices of a share of BHLB Common Stock as reported on the NYSE for the five (5) consecutive trading days immediately preceding the Closing Date. For purposes of determining any fractional share interest, all shares of Commerce Common Stock owned by a Commerce stockholder shall be combined so as to calculate the maximum number of whole shares of BHLB Common Stock and BHLB Preferred Stock issuable to such Commerce stockholder.

3.1.8 If BHLB changes (or the BHLB Board sets a related record date that will occur before the Effective Time for a change in) the number or kind of shares of BHLB Common Stock outstanding by way of a stock split, stock dividend, recapitalization, reclassification, reorganization or similar transaction, then the Merger Consideration (and any other dependent items) will be adjusted proportionately to account for such change. If Commerce changes (or the Commerce Board sets a related record date that will occur before the Effective Time for a change in) the number or kind of shares of Commerce Common Stock (or Rights thereto) outstanding by way of a stock split, stock dividend, recapitalization, reclassification, reorganization or similar transaction, then the Merger Consideration (and any other dependent items) will be adjusted proportionately to account for such change.

3.2 Procedures for Exchange of Commerce Common Stock.

3.2.1 BHLB to Make Merger Consideration Available. After the Closing and at or prior to the Effective Time, BHLB shall deposit, or shall cause to be deposited, with the Exchange Agent for the benefit of the holders of Commerce Common Stock, for exchange in accordance with this Section 3.2, an aggregate amount of cash sufficient to pay the aggregate amount of the cash payable in lieu of the issuance of fractional shares pursuant to this Article III and shall instruct the Exchange Agent to issue such cash and shares of BHLB Common Stock and BHLB Preferred Stock for exchange in accordance with this Section 3.2 (such cash and shares of BHLB Common Stock and BHLB Preferred Stock, together with any dividends or distributions with respect thereto (without any interest thereon) being hereinafter referred to as the "Exchange Fund").

3.2.2 Exchange of Certificates. BHLB shall take all steps necessary to cause the Exchange Agent, not later than five (5) Business Days after the Effective Time, to mail to each holder of a Certificate or Certificates a form letter of transmittal for return to the Exchange Agent and instructions for use in effecting the surrender of the Certificates in exchange for the Merger Consideration and cash in lieu of fractional shares into which the Commerce Common Stock represented by such Certificates shall have been converted as a result of the Merger, if any. The letter of transmittal shall specify that delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title to the Certificates shall pass, only upon delivery of the Certificates to the Exchange Agent. Upon proper surrender of a Certificate for exchange and cancellation to the Exchange Agent, together with a properly completed letter of transmittal, duly executed, the holder of such Certificate shall be entitled to receive in exchange therefor the Merger Consideration and the Certificate so surrendered shall be cancelled. No interest will be paid or accrued on any cash payable in lieu of fractional shares or any unpaid dividends and distributions, if any, payable to holders of Certificates.

3.2.3 Rights of Certificate Holders after the Effective Time. The holder of a Certificate that prior to the Merger represented issued and outstanding Commerce Common Stock shall have no rights, after the Effective Time, with respect to such Commerce Common Stock except to surrender the Certificate in exchange for the Merger Consideration as provided in this Agreement. No dividends or other distributions declared after the Effective Time with respect to BHLB Common Stock shall be paid to the holder of any unsurrendered Certificate until the holder thereof shall surrender such Certificate in accordance with this Section 3.2. After the surrender of a Certificate in accordance with this Section 3.2, the record holder thereof shall be entitled to receive any such dividends or other distributions, without any interest thereon, which theretofore had become payable with respect to shares of BHLB Common Stock represented by such Certificate.

3.2.4 Surrender by Persons Other than Record Holders. If the Person surrendering a Certificate and signing the accompanying letter of transmittal is not the record holder thereof, then it shall be a condition of the payment of the Merger Consideration that: (i) such Certificate is properly endorsed to such Person or is accompanied by appropriate stock powers, in either case signed exactly as the name of the record holder appears on such Certificate, and is otherwise in proper form for transfer, or is accompanied by appropriate evidence of the authority of the Person surrendering such Certificate and signing the letter of transmittal to do so on behalf of the record holder; and (ii) the Person requesting such exchange shall pay to the Exchange Agent in advance any transfer or other similar taxes required by reason of the payment to a Person other than the registered holder of the Certificate surrendered, or required for any other reason, or shall establish to the satisfaction of the Exchange Agent that such tax has been paid or is not payable.

3.2.5 Closing of Transfer Books. From and after the Closing Date, there shall be no transfers on the stock transfer books of Commerce of the Commerce Common Stock that were outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time. If, after the Effective Time, Certificates representing such shares are presented for transfer to the Exchange Agent, they shall be exchanged for the Merger Consideration and canceled as provided in this Section 3.2.

3.2.6 Return of Exchange Fund. At any time following the nine (9) month period after the Effective Time, BHLB shall be entitled to require the Exchange Agent to deliver to it any portion of the Exchange Fund which had been made available to the Exchange Agent and not disbursed to holders of Certificates (including, without limitation, all interest and other income received by the Exchange Agent in respect of all funds made available to it), and thereafter such holders shall be entitled to look to BHLB (subject to abandoned property, escheat and other similar laws) with respect to any Merger Consideration that may be payable upon due surrender of the Certificates held by them.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, neither BHLB nor the Exchange Agent shall be liable to any holder of a Certificate for any Merger Consideration delivered in respect of such Certificate to a public official pursuant to any abandoned property, escheat or other similar law.

3.2.7 Lost, Stolen or Destroyed Certificates. In the event any Certificate shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the Person claiming such Certificate to be lost, stolen or destroyed and the posting by such Person of a bond in such amount as the Exchange Agent may reasonably direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against it with respect to such Certificate, the Exchange Agent will issue in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed Certificate the Merger Consideration deliverable in respect thereof.

3.2.8 Withholding. BHLB or the Exchange Agent will be entitled to deduct and withhold from the consideration otherwise payable pursuant to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby to any holder of Commerce Common Stock such amounts as BHLB (or any Affiliate thereof) or the Exchange Agent are required to deduct and withhold with respect to the making of such payment under the Code, or any applicable provision of U.S. federal, state, local or non-U.S. tax law. To the extent that such amounts are properly withheld by BHLB or the Exchange Agent, such withheld amounts will be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the holder of the Commerce Common Stock in respect of whom such deduction and withholding were made by BHLB or the Exchange Agent.

hereby, up to and including the Merger, have been duly and validly approved by the Board of Directors of Commerce. This Agreement has been duly and validly executed and delivered by Commerce, and subject to Commerce Stockholder Approval (the “Commerce Stockholder Approval”), and the receipt of the Regulatory Approvals and due and valid execution and delivery of this Agreement by BHLB, constitutes the valid and binding obligation of Commerce, enforceable against Commerce in accordance with its terms, subject to applicable bankruptcy, insolvency and similar laws affecting creditors’ rights generally, and subject, as to enforceability, to general principles of equity.

4.4.2 (a) The execution and delivery of this Agreement by Commerce, and (b) subject to receipt of Regulatory Approvals and Commerce’s and BHLB’s compliance with any conditions contained therein, the receipt of the Commerce Stockholder Approval, and compliance by BHLB with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby and compliance by Commerce with the terms and provisions hereof will not (i) conflict with or result in a breach of any provision of the articles of organization and bylaws of Commerce or CBTC; (ii) violate any statute, code, ordinance, rule, regulation, judgment, order, writ, decree or injunction applicable to Commerce or CBTC or any of their respective properties or assets; or (iii) violate, conflict with, result in a breach of any provisions of, constitute a default (or an event which, with notice or lapse of time, or both, would constitute a default) under, result in the termination or amendment of, accelerate the performance required by, or result in a right of termination or acceleration or the creation of any lien, security interest, charge or other encumbrance upon any of the properties or assets of Commerce or CBTC under any of the terms, conditions or provisions of any Commerce Material Contract.

4.5 Consents.

Except for (a) the receipt of the Regulatory Approvals and compliance with any conditions contained therein, (b) compliance with applicable requirements of the Securities Act, the Exchange Act and state securities or “blue sky” laws, (c) the filing of the Certificate of Merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware and articles of merger with the Secretary of State of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and (d) the Commerce Stockholder Approval, no consents, waivers or approvals of, or filings or registrations with, any Governmental Entity or Bank Regulator are necessary, and, to the Knowledge of Commerce, no consents, waivers or approvals of, or filings or registrations with, any other third parties are necessary, in connection with (x) the execution and delivery of this Agreement by Commerce, the completion by Commerce of the Merger and the performance by Commerce of its obligations hereunder or (y) the execution and delivery of the agreement and plan of merger in respect of the Bank Merger and the completion of the Bank Merger. Commerce has no reason to believe that (i) any Regulatory Approvals or other required consents or approvals will not be received or will include the imposition of any condition (financial or otherwise) or requirement that could reasonably be expected by Commerce to result in a Materially Burdensome Regulatory Condition, or that (ii) any public body or authority having jurisdiction over the affairs of Commerce or CBTC, the consent or approval of which is not required or pursuant to the rules of which a filing is not required, will object to the completion of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

4.6 Financial Statements.

4.6.1 The Commerce Regulatory Reports have been prepared in all material respects in accordance with applicable regulatory accounting principles and practices throughout the periods covered by such reports, and fairly present in all material respects the consolidated financial position, results of operations and changes in shareholders’ equity of Commerce as of and for the periods ended on the dates thereof, in accordance with applicable regulatory accounting principles applied on a consistent basis.

4.6.2 Commerce has previously made available to BHLB the Commerce Financial Statements. The Commerce Financial Statements have been prepared in accordance with GAAP in all material respects, and (including the related notes where applicable) fairly present in each case in all material respects (subject in the case of the unaudited interim statements to normal year-end adjustments) the consolidated financial position, results of operations and cash flows of Commerce and the Commerce Subsidiaries on a consolidated basis as of and for the respective periods ending on the dates thereof, in accordance with GAAP during the periods involved, except as indicated in the notes thereto.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

4.6.3 Except as provided in Commerce Disclosure Schedule 4.6.3, at the date of the most recent consolidated statement of financial condition included in the Commerce Financial Statements or in the Commerce Regulatory Reports, Commerce did not have any liabilities, obligations or loss contingencies of any nature (whether absolute, accrued, contingent or otherwise) of a type required to be reflected in such Commerce Financial Statements or in the Commerce Regulatory Reports or in the footnotes thereto which are not fully reflected or reserved against therein or fully disclosed in a footnote thereto, except for liabilities, obligations and loss contingencies which are not material individually or in the aggregate or which are incurred in the ordinary course of business, consistent with past practice, and subject, in the case of any unaudited statements, to normal, recurring audit adjustments and the absence of footnotes.

4.7 Taxes.

Commerce and the Commerce Subsidiaries are members of the same affiliated group within the meaning of Code Section 1504(a). Commerce, on behalf of itself and its Subsidiaries, has timely filed or caused to be filed all Tax Returns (including, but not limited to, those filed on a consolidated, combined or unitary basis) required to have been filed by Commerce and the Commerce Subsidiaries prior to the date hereof, or requests for extensions to file such returns and reports have been timely filed. All such Tax Returns are true, correct, and complete in all material respects. Commerce and the Commerce Subsidiaries have timely paid or, prior to the Effective Time will pay, all Taxes, whether or not shown on such returns or reports, due or claimed to be due to any Governmental Entity prior to the Effective Time other than Taxes which are being contested in good faith. Commerce and the Commerce Subsidiaries have declared on their Tax Returns all positions taken therein that could give rise to a substantial underpayment of United States Federal Income Tax within the meaning of Section 6662 of the Code (or any corresponding provision of state or local laws). The accrued but unpaid Taxes of Commerce and the Commerce Subsidiaries did not, as of the most recent Commerce Financial Statements, exceed the reserve for Tax liability (rather than any reserve for deferred Taxes established to reflect timing differences between book and Tax income) set forth on the face of the most recent Commerce balance sheet (rather than in any notes thereto). Commerce and its Subsidiaries are subject to Tax audits in the ordinary course of business. Commerce management does not believe that an adverse resolution to any of such audits of which it has Knowledge would be reasonably likely to have a Material Adverse Effect on Commerce. Commerce and the Commerce Subsidiaries have not been notified in writing by any jurisdiction that the jurisdiction believes that Commerce or any of the Commerce Subsidiaries were required to file any Tax Return in such jurisdiction that was not filed. Neither Commerce nor any of the Commerce Subsidiaries (A) has been a member of a group with which they have filed or been included in a combined, consolidated or unitary income Tax Return other than a group the common parent of which was Commerce or (B) has any liability for the Taxes of any Person (other than Commerce or any of the Commerce Subsidiaries) under Treas. Reg. § 1.1502-6 (or any similar provision of state, local, or non-U.S. law), as a transferee or successor, by contract, or otherwise. As of the date hereof, all deficiencies proposed in writing as a result of any audits have been paid or settled. There are no written claims or assessments pending against Commerce or any Commerce Subsidiary for any alleged deficiency in any Tax, and neither Commerce nor any Commerce Subsidiary has been notified in writing of any proposed Tax claims or assessments against Commerce or any Commerce Subsidiary. Commerce and the Commerce Subsidiaries each have duly and timely withheld, collected and paid over to the appropriate taxing authority all amounts required to be so withheld and paid under all applicable laws, and have duly and timely filed all Tax Returns with respect to such withheld Taxes, within the time prescribed under any applicable law. Commerce and the Commerce Subsidiaries have delivered to BHLB true and complete copies of all Income Tax Returns of Commerce and the Commerce Subsidiaries for taxable periods ending on or after January 1, 2014. Neither Commerce nor any of the Commerce Subsidiaries is or has been a party to any “reportable transaction,” as defined in Code § 6707A(c)(1) and Treas. Reg. § 1.6011-4(b). Neither Commerce nor any of the Commerce Subsidiaries has distributed stock of another Person, or has had its stock distributed by another Person, in a transaction that was purported or intended to be governed in whole or in part by Code § 355 or Code § 361. Neither Commerce nor any of the Commerce Subsidiaries has been a United States real property holding corporation within the meaning of Code § 897(c)(2) during the applicable period specified in Code § 897(c)(1)(A)(ii).

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Neither Commerce nor any Commerce Subsidiary has suffered any Material Adverse Effect since March 31, 2017 and, to Commerce's Knowledge, no event has occurred or circumstance arisen since that date which, in the aggregate, has had or reasonably would be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect on Commerce.

4.9 Material Contracts; Leases; Defaults.

4.9.1 Except as set forth in Commerce Disclosure Schedule 4.9.1, neither Commerce nor any Commerce Subsidiary is a party to or subject to: (i) any employment, consulting or severance contract or arrangement with any past or present officer, director, employee or consultant of Commerce or any Commerce Subsidiary, except for "at will" arrangements; (ii) any plan, arrangement or contract providing for bonuses, pensions, options, deferred compensation, retirement payments, profit sharing or similar arrangements for or with any past or present officers, directors, employees or consultants of Commerce or any Commerce Subsidiary; (iii) any collective bargaining agreement with any labor union relating to employees of Commerce or any Commerce Subsidiary; (iv) any agreement which by its terms limits or affects the payment of dividends by Commerce or any Commerce Subsidiary; (v) any instrument evidencing or related to indebtedness for borrowed money in excess of $100,000, whether directly or indirectly, by way of purchase money obligation, conditional sale, lease purchase, guaranty or otherwise, in respect of which Commerce or any Commerce Subsidiary is an obligor to any Person, which instrument evidences or relates to indebtedness other than deposits, FHLB advances with a term to maturity not in excess of one (1) year, repurchase agreements, bankers' acceptances, and transactions in "federal funds" or which contains financial covenants or other non-customary restrictions (other than those relating to the payment of principal and interest when due) which would be applicable on or after the Closing Date to Commerce or any Commerce Subsidiary; (vi) any other agreement, written or oral, which is not terminable without cause on sixty (60) days' notice or less without penalty or payment, or that obligates Commerce or any Commerce Subsidiary for the payment of more than $60,000 annually or for the payment of more than $100,000 over its remaining term; or (vii) any agreement (other than this Agreement), contract, arrangement, commitment or understanding (whether written or oral) that materially restricts or limits the conduct of business by Commerce or any Commerce Subsidiary.

4.9.2 Each real estate lease that will require the consent of the lessor or its agent as a result of the Merger or the Bank Merger by virtue of the terms of any such lease, is listed in Commerce Disclosure Schedule 4.9.2 identifying the section of the lease that contains such prohibition or restriction. Subject to any consents that may be required as a result of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, to its Knowledge neither Commerce nor any Commerce Subsidiary is in material default under any material contract, agreement, commitment, arrangement, lease, insurance policy or other instrument to which it is a party, by which its assets, business, or operations may be bound or affected, or under which it or its assets, business, or operations receive benefits, and, to Commerce's Knowledge, there has not occurred any event that, with the lapse of time or the giving of notice or both, would constitute such a default and all such material contracts, agreements, commitments, arrangements, leases, insurance policies and other instruments are listed on Commerce Disclosure Schedule 4.9.2.

4.9.3 True and correct copies of agreements, contracts, arrangements and instruments referred to in Section 4.9.1 and 4.9.2 (each a "Commerce Material Contract," and collectively, the "Commerce Material Contracts") have been made available to BHLB on or before the date hereof, are listed on Commerce Disclosure Schedules 4.9.1 and 4.9.2 and are in full force and effect without modification on the date hereof. Except as set forth in Commerce Disclosure Schedule 4.9.3, no Commerce Material Contract (i) provides for acceleration of the vesting of benefits or payments due thereunder upon the occurrence of a change in ownership or control of Commerce or any Commerce Subsidiary or upon the occurrence of a subsequent event; (ii) requires Commerce or any Commerce Subsidiary to provide a benefit in the form of Commerce Common Stock or determined by reference to the value of Commerce Common Stock or (iii) contains provisions which permit an employee, director or independent contractor to terminate such agreement or arrangement without cause and continue to accrue future benefits thereunder.

4.10.3 Commerce and each Commerce Subsidiary currently maintain insurance considered by each of them to be reasonable for their respective operations. TABLE OF CONTENTS

4.16.2 Commerce Disclosure Schedule 4.16.2 sets forth a listing, as of the most recently available date (and in no event earlier than March 31, 2017), by account, of: (A) all loans (including loan participations) of CBTC that have been accelerated during the past twelve (12) months; (B) with respect to all commercial loans (including commercial real estate loans), all notification letters and other written communications from CBTC to any borrowers, customers or other parties during the past twelve (12) months wherein CBTC has requested or demanded that actions be taken to correct existing defaults or facts or circumstances which may become defaults; (C) each borrower, customer or other party which has notified CBTC during the past twelve (12) months of, or has asserted against Commerce or CBTC, in each case in writing, any “lender liability” or similar claim, and, to the Knowledge of Commerce and CBTC, each borrower, customer or other party which has given Commerce or CBTC any oral notification of, or orally asserted to or against Commerce or CBTC, any such claim; and (D) all loans, (1) that are contractually past due ninety (90) days or more in the payment of principal and/or interest, (2) that are on non-accrual status, (3) that as of March 31, 2017 are classified as “Other Loans Specially Mentioned,” “Special Mention,” “Substandard,” “Doubtful,” “Loss,” “Classified,” “Critical,” “Watch list” or words of similar import, together with the principal amount of and accrued and unpaid interest on each such Loan and the identity of the obligor thereunder, (4) where a reasonable doubt exists as to the timely future collectability of principal and/or interest, whether or not interest is still accruing or the loans are less than ninety (90) days past due, (5) where the interest rate terms have been reduced and/or the maturity dates have been extended subsequent to the agreement under which the loan was originally created due to concerns regarding the borrower’s ability to pay in accordance with such initial terms, or (6) where a specific reserve allocation exists in connection therewith; and (E) all other assets classified by Commerce or CBTC as real estate acquired through foreclosure or in lieu of foreclosure, including in-substance foreclosures, and all other assets currently held that were acquired through foreclosure or in lieu of foreclosure. Commerce Disclosure Schedule 4.16.2 may exclude any individual loan with a principal outstanding balance of less than $100,000, provided that Commerce Disclosure Schedule 4.16.2 includes, for each category described, the aggregate amount of individual loans with a principal outstanding balance of less than $100,000 that has been excluded.

4.16.3 All loans receivable (including discounts) and accrued interest entered on the books of Commerce and CBTC arose out of bona fide arm’s-length transactions, were made for good and valuable consideration in the ordinary course of Commerce’s and CBTC’s respective businesses, and the notes or other evidences of indebtedness with respect to such loans (including discounts) are true and genuine and are what they purport to be. The loans, discounts and the accrued interest reflected on the books of Commerce and CBTC are subject to no defenses, set-offs or counterclaims (including, without limitation, those afforded by usury or truth-in-lending laws), except as may be provided by bankruptcy, insolvency or similar laws affecting creditors’ rights generally or by general principles of equity. Except with respect to liens in favor of the FHLB, all such loans are owned by Commerce or CBTC free and clear of any liens.

4.16.4 The notes and other evidences of indebtedness evidencing the loans described above, and all pledges, mortgages, deeds of trust and other collateral documents or security instruments relating thereto are valid, true and genuine, and what they purport to be.

4.17 Related Party Transactions.

Neither Commerce nor any Commerce Subsidiary is a party to any transaction (including any loan or other credit accommodation) with any Affiliate of Commerce or any Commerce Subsidiary, except as described in Commerce Disclosure Schedule 4.17. All such transactions (a) were made in the ordinary course of business, (b) were made on substantially the same terms, including interest rates and collateral, as those prevailing at the time for comparable transactions with other Persons, and (c) did not involve more than the normal risk of collectability or present other unfavorable features. No loan or credit accommodation to any Affiliate of Commerce or any Commerce Subsidiary is presently in default or, during the three (3)-year period prior to the date of this Agreement, has been in default or has been restructured, modified or extended. Neither Commerce nor any Commerce Subsidiary has been notified that principal or interest with respect to any such loan or other credit accommodation will not be paid when due or that the loan grade classification accorded such loan or credit accommodation is inappropriate.

4.19 Board Approval.

The Board of Directors of Commerce determined that the Merger is in the best interests of Commerce and its stockholders, approved this Agreement, resolved to recommend approval of this Agreement by the holders of Commerce Common Stock, and directed that this Agreement be submitted to the holders of Commerce Common Stock for their approval. The Board of Directors of Commerce has taken all action so that BHLB and Berkshire Bank will not be an “interested stockholder” or prohibited from entering into or consummating a “business combination” with Commerce (in each case as such term is used in Section 203 of the DGCL) as a result of the execution of this Agreement or the consummation of the transactions in the manner contemplated hereby.

4.20 Registration Obligations.

Neither Commerce nor any Commerce Subsidiary is under any obligation, contingent or otherwise, which will survive the Effective Time by reason of any agreement to register any transaction involving any of its securities under the Securities Act.

4.21 Risk Management Instruments.

All interest rate swaps, caps, floors, option agreements, futures and forward contracts and other similar risk management arrangements, whether entered into for Commerce’s own account, or for the account of one or more of Commerce’s Subsidiaries or their customers, in force and effect as of March 31, 2017 (all of which are set forth in Commerce Disclosure Schedule 4.21), were entered into in compliance with all applicable laws, rules, regulations and regulatory policies, and to the Knowledge of Commerce and each Commerce Subsidiary, with counterparties believed to be financially responsible at the time; and to Commerce’s and each Commerce Subsidiary’s Knowledge each of them constitutes the valid and legally binding obligation of Commerce or such Commerce Subsidiary, enforceable in accordance with its terms (except as enforceability may be limited by applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium, fraudulent transfer and similar laws of general applicability relating to or affecting creditors’ rights or by general equity principles), and is in full force and effect. Neither Commerce nor any Commerce Subsidiary, nor any other party thereto, is in breach of any of its obligations under any such agreement or arrangement.

4.22 Fairness Opinion.

Commerce has received an opinion, a copy of which will be provided to BHLB promptly following the date of this Agreement, from Sandler O’Neill & Partners, L.P. to the effect that, subject to the terms, conditions and qualifications set forth therein, as of the date hereof, the Merger Consideration to be received by the stockholders of Commerce pursuant to this Agreement is fair to such stockholders from a financial point of view. Such opinion has not been amended or rescinded as of the date of this Agreement.

4.23 Intellectual Property.

Commerce and each Commerce Subsidiary owns or, to Commerce’s Knowledge, possesses the rights necessary (subject to expirations in accordance with their terms) to use all patents, copyrights, trade secrets, trade names, computer software, service marks and trademarks used in its respective business, each without payment (except for license fees or other payments pursuant to commercially available off-the-shelf technology), and neither Commerce nor any Commerce Subsidiary has received any written notice of breach or conflict with respect thereto that asserts the rights of others. Commerce and each Commerce Subsidiary have performed all the obligations required to be performed, and are not in default in any respect, under any contract, agreement, arrangement or commitment relating to any of the foregoing.

4.24 Duties as Fiduciary.

CBTC has, if required by virtue of any line of business in which it is or previously was engaged in a “fiduciary capacity,” to its Knowledge performed all of its duties in a fashion that complied with all applicable laws, regulations, orders, agreements, wills, instruments, and common law standards in effect at that time. CBTC has not received notice of any claim, allegation, or complaint from any Person that CBTC failed to perform these duties in a manner that complied with all applicable laws, regulations, orders, agreements, wills, instruments, and common law standards, except for notices involving matters that have been resolved and any cost of such resolution is reflected in Commerce's Financial Statements. For purposes of this Section 4.24, the term "fiduciary capacity" (i) shall mean (a) acting as trustee, executor, administrator, registrar of stocks and bonds, transfer agent, guardian, assignee, receiver, or custodian under a uniform gifts to minors act and (b) possessing investment discretion on behalf of another, and (ii) shall exclude CBTC's capacity with respect to individual retirement accounts or the Commerce Benefit Plans.

4.25 Employees; Labor Matters.

There is no unfair labor practice or labor arbitration proceeding pending or, to the Knowledge of Commerce, threatened against Commerce or any Commerce Subsidiary (other than routine employee grievances that are not related to union employees). Commerce and each Commerce Subsidiary is in compliance with all applicable laws respecting employment and employment practices, terms and conditions of employment and wages and hours, and are not engaged in any unfair labor practice. Neither Commerce nor any Commerce Subsidiary is a party to, or bound by, any agreement for the leasing of employees.

4.25.3 To Commerce's Knowledge, all Persons who have been treated as independent contractors by Commerce or any Commerce Subsidiary for Tax purposes have met the criteria to be so treated under all applicable federal, state and local Tax laws, rules and regulations.

4.26 Commerce Information Supplied.

The information relating to Commerce and any Commerce Subsidiary to be contained in the Merger Registration Statement, or in any other document filed with any Bank Regulator or other Governmental Entity in connection herewith, will not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances in which they are made, not misleading.

4.27 Internal Controls.

4.27.1 The records, systems, controls, data and information of Commerce and its Subsidiaries are recorded, stored, maintained and operated under means (including any electronic, mechanical or photographic process, whether computerized or not) that are under the exclusive ownership and direct control of Commerce or its Subsidiaries or accountants (including all means of access thereto and therefrom), except for any non-exclusive ownership and non-direct control that would not reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the system of internal accounting controls described in the following sentence. Commerce and its Subsidiaries have devised and maintain a system of internal accounting controls sufficient to provide reasonable assurances regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements in accordance with GAAP.

4.27.2 Commerce's management has completed an assessment of the effectiveness of its internal control over financial reporting for the year ended December 31, 2016, and such assessment concluded that such controls were effective. It has previously disclosed, based on its most recent evaluation prior to the date hereof, to its auditors and the audit committee of the Commerce board: (A) any significant deficiencies and material weaknesses in the design or operation of internal controls over financial reporting and (B) any fraud, whether or not material, that involves management or other employees who have a significant role in its internal controls over financial reporting.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

4.27.3 Since December 31, 2014, (A) neither Commerce nor any of its Subsidiaries nor, to its knowledge, any director, officer, employee, auditor, accountant or representative of Commerce or any of its Subsidiaries has received or otherwise had or obtained knowledge of any material complaint, allegation, assertion or claim, whether written or oral, regarding the accounting or auditing practices, procedures, methodologies or methods (including with respect to loan loss reserves, write-downs, charge-offs and accruals) of it or any of its subsidiaries or their respective internal accounting controls, including any material complaint, allegation, assertion or claim that it or any of its subsidiaries has engaged in questionable accounting or auditing practices, and (B) no attorney representing Commerce or any of its Subsidiaries, whether or not employed by it or any of its Subsidiaries, has reported evidence of a material violation of securities laws, breach of fiduciary duty or similar violation by Commerce or any of its officers, directors, employees or agents to its board of directors or any committee thereof or to any of its directors officers.

CBTC has taken all actions necessary to comply with applicable law in connection with its purchase of BOLI. 4.29 Stock Transfer Records.

The Stock transfer books and records of Commerce are materially complete and accurate.

Except as set forth in the following sentence, no representation or warranty of BHLB contained in this Article V shall be deemed untrue or incorrect, and BHLB shall not be deemed to have breached a representation or warranty, as a consequence of the existence of any fact, circumstance or event unless such fact, circumstance or event, individually or taken together with all other facts, circumstances or events inconsistent with any paragraph of this Article V, has had or reasonably could be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect, disregarding for these purposes (x) any qualification or exception for, or reference to, materiality in any such representation or warranty and (y) any use of the terms "material," "materially," "in all material respects," "Material Adverse Effect" or similar terms or phrases in any such representation or warranty. The foregoing standard shall not apply to representations and warranties contained in Sections 5.2 (other than Sections 5.2.3, 5.2.4, and 5.2.5 and the last sentence of Sections 5.2.1 and 5.2.2), Section 5.3 and 5.4 (other than Section 5.4.2(iii)) which shall be true and correct in all material respects.

BHLB has granted options to acquire 92,222 shares of BHLB Common Stock at a weighted average exercise price of $13.91 per share. All shares of BHLB Common Stock issuable pursuant to option plans maintained by BHLB will be duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable when issued upon the terms and conditions specified in the instruments pursuant to which they are issuable.

5.3.2 BHLB owns all of the capital stock of each BHLB Subsidiary free and clear of all liens, security interests, pledges, charges, encumbrances, agreements and restrictions of any kind or nature. Except for the BHLB Subsidiaries and as set forth in BHLB Disclosure Schedule 5.3.2, BHLB as of the date of this Agreement does not possess, directly or indirectly, any equity interest in any corporate or other legal entity, except for equity interests held in the investment portfolios of BHLB or any BHLB Subsidiary (which as to any one issuer, do not exceed five percent (5%) of such issuer’s outstanding equity securities) and equity interests held in connection with the lending activities of Berkshire Bank, including stock in the FHLB.

5.3.3 To BHLB’s Knowledge, except as set forth on BHLB Disclosure Schedule 5.3.3, as of the date hereof, no Person is the beneficial owner (as defined in Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act) of five percent (5%) or more of the outstanding shares of BHLB Common Stock.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

5.3.4 No bonds, debentures, notes or other indebtedness having the right to vote on any matters on which BHLB's stockholders may vote have been issued by BHLB and are outstanding.

5.4 Authority; No Violation.

5.4.1 BHLB has full corporate power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement and, subject to receipt of the Regulatory Approvals, to perform its obligations hereunder and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby. The execution and delivery of this Agreement by BHLB and the completion by BHLB of the transactions contemplated hereby, up to and including the Merger, have been duly and validly approved by the Board of Directors of BHLB. This Agreement has been duly and validly executed and delivered by BHLB, and subject to the receipt of the Regulatory Approvals, the Commerce Stockholder Approval, and due and valid execution and delivery of this Agreement by Commerce, constitutes the valid and binding obligations of BHLB, enforceable against BHLB in accordance with its terms, subject to applicable bankruptcy, insolvency and similar laws affecting creditors' rights generally, and subject, as to enforceability, to general principles of equity.

5.4.2 (a) The execution and delivery of this Agreement by BHLB, and (b) subject to receipt of the Regulatory Approvals, and compliance by Commerce and BHLB with any conditions contained therein, the receipt of the Commerce Stockholder Approval, and compliance by Commerce with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby and compliance by BHLB with the terms and provisions hereof will not (i) conflict with or result in a breach of any provision of the certificate of incorporation or articles of association, as applicable, and bylaws of BHLB or any BHLB Subsidiary; (ii) violate any statute, code, ordinance, rule, regulation, judgment, order, writ, decree or injunction applicable to BHLB or any BHLB Subsidiary or any of their respective properties or assets; or (iii) violate, conflict with, result in a breach of any provisions of, constitute a default (or an event which, with notice or lapse of time, or both, would constitute a default) under, result in the termination or amendment of, accelerate the performance required by, or result in a right of termination or acceleration or the creation of any lien, security interest, charge or other encumbrance upon any of the properties or assets of BHLB or any BHLB Subsidiary under any of the terms, conditions or provisions of any note, bond, mortgage, indenture, deed of trust, license, lease, agreement or other investment or obligation to which BHLB or any BHLB Subsidiary is a party, or by which they or any of their respective properties or assets may be bound or affected.

5.5 Consents.

Except for (a) the receipt of the Regulatory Approvals and compliance with any conditions contained therein, (b) compliance with applicable requirements of the Securities Act, the Exchange Act and state securities or "blue sky" laws, (c) the filing of the Certificate of Merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware, (d) the filing with the SEC of (i) the Merger Registration Statement and (ii) such reports under Sections 13(a), 13(d), 13(g) and 16(a) of the Exchange Act as may be required in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby and the obtaining from the SEC of such orders as may be required in connection therewith, (e) notification of the listing of BHLB Common Stock to be issued in the Merger on the NYSE and (f) the approval of this Agreement by the Commerce Stockholder Approval, no consents, waivers or approvals of, or filings or registrations with, any Governmental Entity or Bank Regulator are necessary, and, to the Knowledge of BHLB, no consents, waivers or approvals of, or filings or registrations with, any other third parties are necessary, in connection with (x) the execution and delivery of this Agreement by BHLB, the completion by BHLB of the Merger and the performance by BHLB of its obligations hereunder or (y) the execution and delivery of the agreement and plan of merger in respect of the Bank Merger and the completion of the Bank Merger. BHLB has no reason to believe that (i) any Regulatory Approvals or other required consents or approvals will not be received or will include the imposition of any condition (financial or otherwise) or requirement that could reasonably be expected by BHLB to result in a Materially Burdensome Regulatory Condition or that (ii) any public body or authority having jurisdiction over the affairs of BHLB and Berkshire Bank, the consent or approval of which is not required or pursuant to the rules of which a filing is not required, will object to the completion of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

5.6 Financial Statements.

5.6.1 The BHLB Regulatory Reports have been prepared in all material respects in accordance with applicable regulatory accounting principles and practices throughout the periods covered by such statements, and fairly present in all material respects the consolidated financial position, results of operations and changes in shareholders' equity of BHLB as of and for the periods ended on the dates thereof, in accordance with applicable regulatory accounting principles applied on a consistent basis.

5.6.2 BHLB has previously made available to Commerce the BHLB Financial Statements covering periods ended prior to the date hereof. The BHLB Financial Statements have been prepared in accordance with GAAP in all material respects, and (including the related notes where applicable) fairly present in each case in all material respects (subject in the case of the unaudited interim statements to normal year-end adjustments) the consolidated financial position, results of operations and cash flows of BHLB and the Berkshire Bank on a consolidated basis as of and for the respective periods ending on the dates thereof, in accordance with GAAP during the periods involved, except as indicated in the notes thereto, or in the case of unaudited statements, as permitted by Form 10-Q.

5.6.3 At the date of the most recent consolidated statement of financial condition included in the BHLB Financial Statements or in the BHLB Regulatory Reports, BHLB did not have any liabilities, obligations or loss contingencies of any nature (whether absolute, accrued, contingent or otherwise) of a type required to be reflected in such BHLB Financial Statements or in the footnotes thereto which are not fully reflected or reserved against therein or fully disclosed in a footnote thereto, except for liabilities, obligations and loss contingencies which are not material individually or in the aggregate or which are incurred in the ordinary course of business, consistent with past practice, and subject, in the case of any unaudited statements, to normal, recurring audit adjustments and the absence of footnotes.

5.7 Taxes.

5.7.1 Neither BHLB nor any of its Subsidiaries or Affiliates has taken or agreed to take any action, has failed to take any action or knows of any fact, agreement, plan or other circumstance that could reasonably be expected to prevent the Merger from qualifying as a "reorganization" within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. BHLB and the BHLB Subsidiaries are members of the same affiliated group within the meaning of Code Section 1504(a). BHLB, on behalf of itself and its Subsidiaries, has timely filed or caused to be filed all Tax Returns (including, but not limited to, those filed on a consolidated, combined or unitary basis) required to have been filed by BHLB and the BHLB Subsidiaries prior to the date hereof, or requests for extensions to file such returns and reports have been timely filed. All such Tax Returns are true, correct, and complete in all material respects. BHLB and the BHLB Subsidiaries have timely paid or, prior to the Effective Time will pay, all Taxes, whether or not shown on such returns or reports, due or claimed to be due to any Governmental Entity prior to the Effective Time other than Taxes which are being contested in good faith. BHLB and the BHLB Subsidiaries have declared on their Tax Returns all positions taken therein that could give rise to a substantial underpayment of United States Federal Income Tax within the meaning of Section 6662 of the Code (or any corresponding provision of state or local laws). The unpaid accrued but unpaid Taxes of BHLB and the BHLB Subsidiaries did not, as of the most recent BHLB Financial Statements, exceed the reserve for Tax liability (rather than any reserve for deferred Taxes established to reflect timing differences between book and Tax income) set forth on the face of the most recent BHLB balance sheet (rather than in any notes thereto). BHLB and its Subsidiaries are subject to Tax audits in the ordinary course of business. BHLB management does not believe that an adverse resolution to any of such audits of which it has Knowledge would be reasonably likely to have a Material Adverse Effect on BHLB. BHLB and the BHLB Subsidiaries have not been notified in writing by any jurisdiction that the jurisdiction believes that BHLB or any of the BHLB Subsidiaries were required to file any Tax Return in such jurisdiction that was not filed. Neither BHLB nor any of the BHLB Subsidiaries (A) has been a member of a group with which they have filed or been included in a combined, consolidated or unitary income Tax Return other than a group the common parent of which was BHLB or (B) has any liability for the Taxes of any Person (other than BHLB or any of the BHLB Subsidiaries) under Treas. Reg. § 1.1502-6 (or any similar provision of state, local, or non-U.S. law), as a transferee or successor, by contract, or otherwise. As of the date hereof, all deficiencies proposed in writing as a result of any audits have been paid or settled. There are no written claims or assessments pending against BHLB or any BHLB Subsidiary for any alleged deficiency in any Tax, and neither BHLB nor any BHLB Subsidiary has been notified in writing of any proposed Tax claims or assessments against BHLB or any BHLB Subsidiary. BHLB and the BHLB Subsidiaries each have duly and timely withheld, collected and paid over to the appropriate taxing authority all amounts required to be so withheld and paid under all applicable laws, and have duly and timely filed all Tax Returns with respect to such withheld Taxes, within the time prescribed under any applicable law. BHLB and the BHLB Subsidiaries have delivered to Commerce true and complete copies of all Tax Returns of BHLB and the BHLB Subsidiaries for taxable periods ending on or after December 31, 2014. Neither BHLB nor any of the BHLB Subsidiaries is or has been a party to any “reportable transaction,” as defined in Code § 6707A(c)(1) and Treas. Reg. § 1.6011-4(b). Neither BHLB nor any of the BHLB Subsidiaries has distributed stock of another Person, or has had its stock distributed by another Person, in a transaction that was purported or intended to be governed in whole or in part by Code § 355 or Code § 361. Neither BHLB nor any of the BHLB Subsidiaries has been a United States real property holding corporation within the meaning of Code § 897(c)(2) during the applicable period specified in Code § 897(c)(1)(A)(ii).

5.8 No Material Adverse Effect.

Neither BHLB nor any BHLB Subsidiary has suffered any Material Adverse Effect since March 31, 2017 and, to BHLB’s Knowledge, no event has occurred or circumstance arisen since that date which, in the aggregate, has had or is reasonably likely to have a Material Adverse Effect on BHLB.

5.9 Ownership of Property; Insurance Coverage.

5.9.1 Except as set forth on BHLB Disclosure Schedule 5.9.1, BHLB and each BHLB Subsidiary has good and, as to real property, marketable title to all assets and properties owned by BHLB or such BHLB Subsidiary, as applicable, in the conduct of its businesses, whether such assets and properties are real or personal, tangible or intangible, including assets and property reflected in the most recent consolidated statement of financial condition contained in the BHLB Financial Statements or acquired subsequent thereto (except to the extent that such assets and properties have been disposed of in the ordinary course of business, since the date of such consolidated statement of financial condition), subject to no encumbrances, liens, mortgages, security interests or pledges, except (i) those items which secure liabilities for public or statutory obligations or any discount with, borrowing from or other obligations to FHLB, inter-bank credit facilities, reverse repurchase agreements or any transaction by an BHLB Subsidiary acting in a fiduciary capacity, and (ii) statutory liens for amounts not yet delinquent or which are being contested in good faith. BHLB and the BHLB Subsidiaries, as lessee, have the right under valid and existing leases of real and personal properties used by BHLB and the BHLB Subsidiaries in the conduct of their businesses to occupy or use all such properties as presently occupied and used by each of them. Such existing leases and commitments to lease constitute or will constitute operating leases for both tax and financial accounting purposes and the lease expense and minimum rental commitments with respect to such leases and lease commitments are as disclosed in all material respects in the notes to the BHLB Financial Statements.

6.1.1 Affirmative Covenants. During the period from the date of this Agreement to the Effective Time, except with the written consent of BHLB, which consent will not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed, Commerce will, and it will cause each Commerce Subsidiary to: operate its business only in the usual, regular and ordinary course of business; use commercially reasonable efforts to preserve intact its business organization and assets and maintain its rights and franchises; and voluntarily take no action which would: (i) materially adversely affect the ability of the parties to obtain the Regulatory Approvals or materially increase the period of time necessary to obtain the Regulatory Approvals, (ii) materially adversely affect its ability to perform its covenants and agreements under this Agreement or (iii) result in the representations and warranties contained in Article IV of this Agreement not being true and correct on the date of this Agreement or at any future date on or prior to the Closing Date, subject to the standard set forth in Section 4.1, or in any of the conditions set forth in Article IX hereof not being satisfied.

6.3 Current Information.

6.3.1 During the period from the date of this Agreement to the Effective Time, Commerce will cause one or more of its representatives to confer with representatives of BHLB to inform BHLB regarding Commerce's operations at such times as BHLB may reasonably request. Commerce will promptly notify BHLB of any change in the ordinary course of its business or in the operation of its properties and, to the extent permitted by applicable law, of any governmental complaints, investigations or hearings (or communications indicating that the same may be contemplated), or the institution or the threat of material litigation involving Commerce or any Commerce Subsidiary. Without limiting the foregoing, senior officers of BHLB and Commerce shall meet monthly to review, to the extent permitted by applicable law, the financial and operational affairs of Commerce and the Commerce Subsidiaries, and Commerce shall give due consideration to BHLB's input on such matters, with the understanding that, notwithstanding any other provision contained in this Agreement, neither BHLB nor Berkshire Bank shall under any circumstance be permitted to exercise control of Commerce or any Commerce Subsidiary prior to the Effective Time.

6.3.2 Commerce and BHLB shall cooperate regarding a plan for the conversion of data processing and related electronic informational systems of Commerce to those used by BHLB, which planning shall include, but not be limited to, discussion of the possible termination by Commerce of third-party service provider arrangements effective at the Effective Time or at a date thereafter, non-renewal of personal property leases and software licenses used by Commerce in connection with its systems operations, retention of outside consultants and additional employees to assist with the conversion, and outsourcing, as appropriate, of proprietary or self-provided system services, it being understood that Commerce shall not be obligated to take any such action prior to the Effective Time and, unless Commerce otherwise agrees and provided it is permitted by applicable law, no conversion shall take place prior to the Effective Time. BHLB and Berkshire Bank shall indemnify Commerce for any reasonable out-of-pocket fees, expenses, or charges that Commerce or any Commerce Subsidiary may incur as a result of taking, at the request of BHLB or any BHLB Subsidiary, any action to facilitate the conversion.

6.3.3 Commerce shall provide BHLB, within fifteen (15) Business Days of the end of each calendar month, a written list of nonperforming assets (the term "nonperforming assets," for purposes of this subsection, means (i) loans that are "troubled debt restructuring" as defined in Accounting Standards Codification 310-40, (ii) loans on nonaccrual, (iii) real estate owned, (iv) all loans ninety (90) days or more past due as of the end of such month and (v) and impaired loans. Commerce will promptly prepare and provide BHLB with the minutes of all Commerce and CBTC officer and director loan committee meetings.

6.3.4 Commerce shall promptly inform BHLB, to the extent permitted by applicable law, upon receiving notice of any legal, administrative, arbitration or other proceedings, demands, notices, audits or investigations (by any federal, state or local commission, agency or board) relating to the alleged liability of Commerce or any Commerce Subsidiary under any labor or employment law.

6.4 Access to Properties and Records.

Subject to Section 11.1, Commerce shall permit BHLB access upon reasonable notice and at reasonable times to its properties and those of the Commerce Subsidiaries, and shall disclose and make available to BHLB during normal business hours all of its books and records relating to the assets, properties, operations, obligations and liabilities, including, but not limited to, all books of account (including the general ledger), tax records, minute books of directors' and stockholders' meetings (other than minutes that discuss any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or any other subject matter that Commerce reasonably determines should be kept confidential), organizational documents, bylaws, material contracts and agreements, filings with any regulatory authority, litigation files, plans affecting employees, and any other business activities or prospects in which BHLB may have a reasonable interest; provided, however, that Commerce shall not be required to take any action that would provide access to or to disclose information where such access or disclosure, in Commerce's reasonable judgment, would interfere with the normal conduct of Commerce's business or would violate or prejudice the rights or business interests or confidences of any customer or other Person or entity or would result in the waiver by it of the privilege protecting communications between it and any of its counsel or contravene any applicable law. Commerce shall provide and shall request its auditors to provide BHLB with such historical financial information regarding it (and related audit reports and consents) as BHLB may reasonably request for Securities Law disclosure purposes. BHLB shall use commercially reasonable efforts to minimize any interference with Commerce's regular business operations during any such access to Commerce's property, books and records. Commerce and each Commerce Subsidiary shall permit BHLB, at BHLB's expense, to (i) cause a Phase I environmental assessment to be performed at any physical location owned or occupied by Commerce or any Commerce Subsidiary and (ii) cause an appraisal to be performed in respect of any real property owned by Commerce or any Commerce Subsidiary.

6.5 Financial and Other Statements.

6.5.1 Promptly upon receipt thereof, Commerce will furnish to BHLB copies of each annual, interim or special audit of the books of Commerce and the Commerce Subsidiaries made by its independent registered public accountants and copies of all internal control reports submitted to Commerce by such accountants, or by any other accounting firm rendering internal audit services, in connection with each annual, interim or special audit of the books of Commerce and the Commerce Subsidiaries made by such accountants.

6.5.2 As soon as reasonably available, but in no event later than the date such documents are filed with the MDOB, FRB or FDIC, Commerce will deliver to BHLB the Commerce Regulatory Report filed by Commerce or CBTC. Within twenty-five (25) days after the end of each month, CBTC will deliver to BHLB a consolidating balance sheet and a consolidating statement of operations, without related notes, for such month prepared in accordance with current financial reporting practices, as well as a month-end and year to date comparison to budget.

6.5.3 To the extent permitted by applicable law, Commerce promptly will advise upon receipt and permit review by BHLB of any inquiry or examination report of any Bank Regulator with respect to the condition or activities of Commerce or CBTC.

6.5.4 With reasonable promptness, Commerce will furnish to BHLB its quarterly and annual reports and such additional financial data that Commerce possesses and as BHLB may reasonably request, including without limitation, detailed monthly financial statements and loan reports and detailed deposit reports.

6.6 Maintenance of Insurance.

Commerce shall use commercially reasonable efforts to maintain, and to cause the Commerce Subsidiaries to maintain, insurance in such amounts as are reasonable to cover such risks as are customary in relation to the character and location of its properties and the nature of its business, with such coverage and in such amounts not less than that maintained by Commerce and the Commerce Subsidiaries as of the date of this Agreement and set forth in Commerce Disclosure Schedule 4.10.3. Commerce will promptly inform BHLB if Commerce or any Commerce Subsidiary receives notice from an insurance carrier that (i) an insurance policy will be canceled or that coverage thereunder will be reduced or eliminated, or (ii) premium costs with respect to any policy of insurance will be substantially increased.

6.7 Disclosure Supplements.

From time to time prior to the Effective Time, Commerce will promptly supplement or amend the Commerce Disclosure Schedule delivered in connection herewith with respect to any matter hereafter arising which, if existing, occurring or known at the date of this Agreement, would have been required to be set forth or described in such Commerce Disclosure Schedule or which is necessary to correct any information in such Commerce Disclosure Schedule which has been rendered materially inaccurate thereby. No supplement or amendment to such Commerce Disclosure Schedule shall have any effect for the purpose of determining satisfaction of the conditions set forth in Article IX.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

6.8 Consents and Approvals of Third Parties.

Commerce shall use its commercially reasonable efforts, and shall cause each Commerce Subsidiary to use its commercially reasonable efforts, to obtain as soon as practicable all consents and approvals of any other Persons or entities necessary for the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

6.9 All Reasonable Efforts.

Subject to the terms and conditions herein provided, Commerce agrees to use, and agrees to cause each Commerce Subsidiary to use, all commercially reasonable efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all action and to do, or cause to be done, all things necessary under applicable laws and regulations to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

6.10 Failure to Fulfill Conditions.

In the event that Commerce determines that a condition to its obligation to complete the Merger cannot be fulfilled and that it will not waive that condition, it will promptly notify BHLB.

6.11 No Solicitation.

6.11.1 From and after the date hereof until the termination of this Agreement, neither Commerce, nor any Commerce Subsidiary, nor any of their respective officers, directors, employees, representatives, agents and affiliates including, without limitation, any investment banker, attorney or accountant retained by Commerce or any of the Commerce Subsidiaries (collectively, "Representatives"), will, directly or indirectly, initiate, solicit or knowingly encourage (including by way of furnishing non-public information or assistance) any inquiries or the making of any proposal that constitutes, or may reasonably be expected to lead to, any Acquisition Proposal (as defined by Section 6.11.4), or enter into or maintain or continue discussions or negotiate with any Person in furtherance of such inquiries or to obtain an Acquisition Proposal or agree to or endorse any Acquisition Proposal, or authorize or permit any of its officers, directors, or employees or any of its Subsidiaries or any investment banker, financial advisor, attorney, accountant or other representative retained by any of its Subsidiaries to take any such action, and Commerce shall notify BHLB orally and in writing (as promptly as practicable but no later than one business day of receipt of such inquiry or proposal) of all of the relevant details relating to all inquiries and proposals which Commerce or any of its Subsidiaries or any of their respective officers, directors or employees, or, to Commerce's Knowledge, investment bankers, financial advisors, attorneys, accountants or other representatives of Commerce may receive relating to any of such matters; provided, however, that nothing contained in this Section 6.11 shall prohibit the Board of Directors of Commerce from (i) complying with its disclosure obligations under federal or state law; or (ii) prior to the time of the Commerce Stockholder vote to approve this Agreement at the Commerce Stockholder Meeting, furnishing information to, or entering into discussions or negotiations with, any Person or entity that makes an unsolicited Acquisition Proposal, if, and only to the extent that (A) such Acquisition Proposal did not result from a breach of this Section 6.11 by Commerce, (B) the Board of Directors of Commerce or any appropriate committee thereof has determined in its good faith judgment, after consultation with Commerce's financial advisor and outside counsel, that such Acquisition Proposal is reasonably likely to be consummated in accordance with its terms, taking into account all legal, financial (including the financing terms thereof) and regulatory aspects of the proposal and the Person making the proposal, and (C) such Acquisition Proposal is reasonably likely to result in a transaction more favorable to Commerce stockholders from a financial point of view than the Merger (taking into account all relevant factors, including, without limitation, the timing of consummation as compared to the Merger and after giving effect to all of the adjustments, if any, which may be offered by BHLB pursuant to Section 10.1.8) (such proposal that satisfies clauses (A), (B) and (C) being referred to herein as a "Superior Proposal"); provided, however, that a Superior Proposal may consist of multiple Acquisition Proposals that, taken together, satisfy all of the requirements set forth in this definition; provided, further, nothing contained in this Agreement shall prohibit Commerce and, if applicable, any of its Representatives from (i) informing any Person of the existence of the provisions of this Section 6.11, (ii) contacting any Person solely to clarify the terms and conditions of an Acquisition Proposal, or (iii) otherwise disclosing any information to its stockholders that the Commerce Board of Directors determines in good faith (after consultation with its outside legal counsel) that (i) it is required to disclose to Commerce's stockholders under applicable law, or (ii) for the Board of Directors to comply with its fiduciary duties under applicable law, subject to compliance with the requirements of this Section 6.11 and Section 6.13. Commerce shall promptly, but in no event later than one (1) calendar day, notify BHLB of such inquiries, proposals or offers received by, any such information requested from, or any such discussions or negotiations sought to be initiated or continued with Commerce or any of its representatives indicating, in connection with such notice, the name of such Person and the material terms and conditions of any inquiries, proposals or offers, and receives from such Person an executed confidentiality agreement in form and substance identical in all material respects to the Confidentiality Agreement.

6.11.2 "Acquisition Proposal" shall mean any proposal or offer as to any of the following (other than the transactions contemplated hereunder) involving Commerce or any of its Subsidiaries: (i) any merger, consolidation, share exchange, business combination, or other similar transactions; (ii) any sale, lease, exchange, mortgage, pledge, transfer or other disposition of 25% or more of the assets of Commerce and the Commerce Subsidiaries, taken as a whole, in a single transaction or series of transactions; (iii) any tender offer or exchange offer for 25% or more of the outstanding shares of capital stock of Commerce or the filing of a registration statement under the Securities Act in connection therewith; or (iv) any public announcement of a proposal, plan or intention to do any of the foregoing or any agreement to engage in any of the foregoing.

6.12 Reserves and Merger-Related Costs.

Prior to the Effective Time, each of Commerce and its Subsidiaries shall, consistent with GAAP and applicable U.S. banking laws and regulations, modify or change its loan, OREO, accrual, reserve, tax, litigation and real estate valuation policies and practices (including loan classifications and levels of reserves) so as to be applied on a basis that is consistent with that of BHLB, provided, however, that no such modifications or changes need be made prior to the satisfaction of the conditions set forth in Sections 9.1.1 and 9.1.3; provided further, that in any event, no accrual or reserve made by Commerce or any of its Subsidiaries pursuant to this Section 6.12 shall constitute or be deemed to be a breach, violation of or failure to satisfy any representation, warranty, covenant, agreement, condition or other provision of this Agreement or otherwise be considered in determining whether any such breach, violation or failure to satisfy shall have occurred. The recording of any such adjustments shall not be deemed to imply any misstatement of previously furnished financial statements or information and shall not be construed as concurrence of Commerce or its management with any such adjustments.

6.13 Board of Directors and Committee Meetings.

Following the receipt of all Regulatory Approvals (without regard to any waiting periods associated therewith), Commerce and the Commerce Subsidiaries shall permit two (2) representatives of BHLB to attend any meeting of their Board of Directors, executive committee, loan (or credit) committee and asset liability committee as observers (together, the "BHLB Observers"), provided that neither Commerce nor any Commerce Subsidiary shall be required to permit the BHLB Observers to remain present during any confidential discussion of this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby or any Acquisition Proposal or during any other matter that the respective Board of Directors has been advised of by counsel that such attendance by the BHLB Observers may violate or be inconsistent with a confidentiality obligation or fiduciary duty or any legal or regulatory requirement.

6.14 401(k) Plan Termination.

If requested by BHLB in writing prior to the Effective Time, and subject to the occurrence of the Effective Time, Commerce shall cause to be adopted prior to the Closing Date resolutions of the Board of Directors of Commerce and any necessary amendments to cease all contributions to any and all 401(k) plans maintained or sponsored by Commerce or any of its Subsidiaries (the "401(k) Plan"), and to prohibit the entry of new participants to the 401(k) Plan as of the day preceding the Closing Date, or to terminate the 401(k) Plan as of the day preceding the Closing Date. In the sole discretion of BHLB, the 401(k) Plan may be merged into the BHLB 401(k) Plan or terminated immediately prior to the Effective Time. The form and substance of such resolutions and any necessary amendments shall be subject to the review and approval of BHLB, which shall not be unreasonably withheld. Commerce shall deliver to BHLB an executed copy of such resolutions and any necessary amendments as soon as practicable following their adoption by the Board of Directors of Commerce and shall fully comply with such resolutions and any necessary amendments. If, in accordance with this Section 6.14, BHLB requests in writing that Commerce freeze entry of new participants into the 401(k) Plan, or terminate the 401(k) Plan, Commerce shall take such actions as BHLB may reasonably require in furtherance of the assumption of the 401(k) Plan by BHLB, including, but not limited to, adopting such amendments to the 401(k) Plan as may be necessary to effect such assumption or termination.

6.15 Commerce Long-Term Incentive Plan.

Commerce Disclosure Schedule 6.15 sets forth all of the outstanding phantom stock awards or stock appreciation rights and any other right, contingent or accrued, granted under the Commerce Long-Term Incentive Plan (“Commerce Phantom Stock Awards”) as of the date hereof. Upon the later of either the receipt of final Regulatory Approval or the receipt of Commerce Stockholder Approval (the “Trigger Event”), each Commerce Phantom Stock Award, subject to Commerce’s receipt of a phantom stock award surrender agreement in the form set forth in Section 6.15 of the Company Disclosure Schedules, whether or not then vested or exercisable, shall be terminated and the holder thereof shall be paid by Commerce, no later than ten business days following the Trigger Event, an amount in cash determined by multiplying (i) the excess, if any, of $34.00 less the applicable per share exercise price of that Commerce Phantom Stock Award by (ii) the number of shares of Commerce Common Stock subject to that Commerce Phantom Stock Award, less any required tax withholding. The Commerce Long-Term Incentive Plan shall be amended, to the extent required and permitted by applicable laws, to effectuate this Section 6.15 and all Commerce Phantom Stock Awards issued thereunder shall terminate at the Effective Time.

ARTICLE VII

COVENANTS OF BHLB

7.1 Conduct of Business.

7.1.1 Affirmative Covenants.

(A) During the period from the date of this Agreement to the Effective Time, except with the written consent of Commerce, which consent will not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed, BHLB will, and it will cause each BHLB Subsidiary to: operate its business only in the usual, regular and ordinary course of business; use reasonable best efforts to preserve intact its business organization and assets and maintain its rights and franchises; and voluntarily take no action which would (i) materially adversely affect its ability to perform its covenants and agreements under this Agreement; or (ii) prevent or impede, or be reasonably likely to prevent or impede, the Merger from qualifying as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code.

(B) Promptly after the Closing and prior to the Effective Time, BHLB shall deposit, or shall cause to be deposited, with the Exchange Agent the Exchange Fund.

7.2 Disclosure Supplements.

From time to time prior to the Effective Time, BHLB will promptly supplement or amend the BHLB Disclosure Schedule delivered in connection herewith with respect to any matter hereafter arising which, if existing, occurring or known at the date of this Agreement, would have been required to be set forth or described in such BHLB Disclosure Schedule or which is necessary to correct any information in such BHLB Disclosure Schedule which has been rendered materially inaccurate thereby. No supplement or amendment to such BHLB Disclosure Schedule shall have any effect for the purpose of determining satisfaction of the conditions set forth in Article IX.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

7.3 Consents and Approvals of Third Parties.

BHLB shall use its commercially reasonable efforts, and shall cause each BHLB Subsidiary to use its commercially reasonable efforts, to obtain as soon as practicable all consents and approvals of any other Persons necessary for the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

7.4 Reasonable Best Efforts.

Subject to the terms and conditions herein provided, BHLB agrees to use and agrees to cause each BHLB Subsidiary to use reasonable best efforts in good faith to take, or cause to be taken, all action and to do, or cause to be done, all things necessary under applicable laws and regulations to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement as promptly as practicable.

7.5 Employee Benefits.

Following the Closing Date, BHLB may choose to maintain any or all of the Commerce Benefit Plans in its sole discretion and Commerce shall cooperate with BHLB in order to effect any plan terminations to be made as of the Effective Time. Nothing herein shall limit the ability of BHLB to amend or terminate any of the Commerce Benefit Plans.

7.5.1 Benefit Plans Covering Commerce Employees. For any Commerce Benefit Plan which is terminated and for which there is a comparable BHLB Benefit Plan of general applicability, BHLB shall take all reasonable action so that eligible Commerce employees at the Closing Date and who remain so employed immediately following the Effective Time (the “Continuing Commerce Employees”) shall be entitled to participate in such BHLB Benefit Plan to the same extent as similarly-situated employees of BHLB (it being understood that inclusion of Continuing Commerce Employees in the BHLB Benefit Plans may occur at different times with respect to different plans). BHLB shall cause each BHLB Benefit Plan in which Continuing Commerce Employees are eligible to participate to take into account for purposes of eligibility and vesting under the BHLB Benefit Plans (but not for purposes of benefit accrual) the service of such employees with Commerce to the same extent as such service was credited for such purpose by Commerce; provided, however, that such service shall not be recognized to the extent that such recognition would result in a duplication of benefits. Nothing herein shall limit the ability of BHLB to amend or terminate any of the Commerce Benefit Plans in accordance with their terms at any time; provided, however, that BHLB shall continue to maintain the Commerce Benefit Plans (other than the Commerce Long-Term Incentive Plan or incentive plans) for which there is a comparable BHLB Benefit Plan until the Commerce employees are permitted to participate in the BHLB Benefit Plans, unless such BHLB Benefit Plan has been frozen or terminated with respect to similarly-situated employees of BHLB or any Subsidiary of BHLB.

7.5.2 Bank 401(k) Plan Participation. All Continuing Commerce Employees, that are current Commerce participants as of the Closing Date, shall be eligible to participate in BHLB’s 401(k) plan on the later of the day after the Closing Date or the date the Commerce 401(k) Plan is merged, frozen or terminated. All rights to participate in BHLB’s 401(k) Plan are subject to BHLB’s right to amend or terminate BHLB’s 401(k) plan in its sole and absolute discretion and are subject to the terms of BHLB’s 401(k) plan including, but not limited to, the eligibility and vesting provisions of such plan. Continuing Commerce Employees shall continue to participate in the Commerce 401(k) Plan or its successor, subject to Section 6.14 of this Agreement and as the plan may be further amended in the sole discretion of BHLB.

7.5.3 Welfare Benefits. If Continuing Commerce Employees become eligible to participate in a medical, dental or health plan of BHLB upon termination of such plan of Commerce, BHLB shall make all commercially reasonable efforts to cause each such plan to (i) waive any preexisting condition limitations to the extent such conditions are covered under the applicable medical, health or dental plans of BHLB, (ii) honor under such plans any deductible, co-payment and out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the employees and their beneficiaries during the portion of the calendar year prior to such participation and (iii) waive any waiting period limitation or evidence of insurability requirement which would otherwise be applicable to such employee on or after the Effective Time, in each case to the extent such employee had satisfied any similar limitation or requirement under an analogous Commerce Benefit Plan prior to the Effective Time. Continuing Commerce Employees will continue to be covered by medical, dental and health plans as maintained by Commerce prior to the Closing Date, and the Commerce benefit plan may be amended or terminated in the sole discretion of BHLB.

7.5.4 Paid Time Off Programs. BHLB will give Continuing Commerce Employees credit, for purposes of BHLB's vacation and/or other paid leave benefit programs, for such individuals accrued and unpaid vacation and/or paid leave balance with Commerce as of the Closing Date. Continuing Commerce Employees may continue to be covered by paid time off programs maintained by Commerce prior to the Closing Date.

7.5.5 BHLB to Honor Agreements. Subject to any required regulatory approval or satisfaction of a condition in any Regulatory Approval, BHLB agrees to honor all employment agreements, change in control agreements, severance agreements, deferred compensation agreements and consulting agreements that Commerce has with its current and former employees and which have been identified in Commerce Disclosure Schedule 4.13.1, except to the extent any such agreements shall be superseded or terminated at the Closing Date or following the Closing Date with the written consent of the affected parties and provided that: (a) no payments made under such agreements would be characterized as an "excess parachute payment" as such term is defined in Code Section 280G, and (b) if shareholders of Commerce approve the proposed payments to the Commerce executives specified in the employment agreements in accordance with Treasury Regulation Section 1.280G-1, Q&A: 7, then such executives will be entitled to payments set forth in BHLB Disclosure Schedule 7.5.5. In the event that the shareholder approval requirements of Treasury Regulation Section 1.280G-1, Q&A: 7 are not satisfied, each Commerce executive who is a party to an employment agreement shall accept a reduction in benefits under said employment agreement to avoid an excess parachute payment under Code Section 280G and an excise tax under Code Section 4999 and such reduced payments are as set forth in BHLB Disclosure Schedule 7.5.5. Commerce shall, prior to the Effective Time, use its reasonable best efforts to obtain from each individual receiving such payments and listed in BHLB Disclosure Schedule 7.5.5 an agreement, in the form of Exhibit B hereto, setting forth the method in which his or her rights under the specified programs will be settled in the event such individuals are entitled to payment or benefits (each, a "Settlement Agreement"). Each Commerce executive who is a party to an employment agreement shall execute and deliver to BHLB, immediately prior to the execution of this Agreement, an acknowledgement agreement regarding the above conditions, in the form attached to BHLB Disclosure Schedule 7.5.5.

7.5.6 No Guarantee of Employment, Severance. Except to the extent of commitments herein or other contractual commitments, if any, specifically made or assumed by BHLB hereunder or by operation of law, BHLB shall have no obligation arising from and after the Closing Date to continue in its employ or in any specific job or to provide to any specified level of compensation or any incentive payments, benefits or perquisites to any Person who is an employee of Commerce or any Commerce Subsidiary as of the Closing Date. Each Person who is an employee of Commerce or any Commerce Subsidiary as of the Closing Date and who is terminated by BHLB for a reason other than cause within twelve (12) months subsequent to the Closing Date or is not offered employment with BHLB as of the Effective Time or resigns for Good Reason, excluding those employees who are entitled to benefits under employment or change of control arrangements, shall be entitled to severance benefits pursuant to Commerce's severance plan or policy, as applicable, or BHLB's current severance plan or policy, if such payments would be more favorable to such Person; provided, however, that in no event shall such severance payments exceed six month's pay and; provided, further, if such benefits pursuant to Commerce or Commerce's plan or policy, as applicable, will result in an excise tax under Code Section 4980D, such plan or policy shall be modified to the extent necessary so as to avoid the imposition of such excise tax and the affected participant under such plan or policy shall be paid an additional amount such that his or her benefit, net applicable taxes, equals the value of the benefit reduced or eliminated by such action. In addition, each Person who is an employee of Commerce or any Commerce Subsidiary as of the Closing Date and who is terminated by BHLB for a reason other than cause within twelve (12) months subsequent to the Closing Date or is not offered employment with BHLB as of the Effective Time or resigns for Good Reason, excluding those employees who are entitled to benefits under employment arrangements, shall be entitled to career transition services to be provided at BHLB's expense. BHLB, in consultation with Commerce, may offer retention payments to certain employees of Commerce and CBTC on a case by case basis.

7.5.7 Worker Adjustment and Retraining Notification Act. If requested by BHLB, Commerce shall take all such actions as BHLB may request in order to fully and timely comply with any and all requirements of both the federal Worker Adjustment and Retraining Notification Act of 1988 ("WARN Act") and any state specific WARN Act statutes, including providing notices to Commerce's employees.

7.5.8 Agreements with Commerce Executives. The following agreements will be executed by the parties thereto concurrently with this Agreement, which shall be effective as of the Effective Time: (i) a Retention Agreement by and between BHLB and James R. Belliveau, (ii) a Consulting Agreement by and between BHLB and Brian W. Thompson, and (iii) a Consulting Agreement by and between BHLB and Michael J. Crawford.

7.6 Directors and Officers Indemnification and Insurance.

7.6.1 Prior to the Effective Time, BHLB shall obtain and fully pay the premium for the extension of (i) the Side A coverage part (directors' and officers' liability) of Commerce's existing directors' and officers' insurance policies, and (ii) Commerce's existing fiduciary liability insurance policies, in each case for a claims reporting or discovery period of at least six (6) years from and after the Effective Time, from an insurance carrier with the same or better credit rating as Commerce's current insurance carrier with respect to directors' and officers' liability insurance and fiduciary liability insurance (collectively, "D&O Insurance" and such insurance carrier, the "Insurance Carrier") with terms, conditions, retentions and limits of liability that are at least as favorable as Commerce's existing policies with respect to any actual or alleged error, misstatement, misleading statement, act, omission, neglect, breach of duty or any matter claimed against any Person covered thereby that arose, existed, or occurred at or prior to the Effective Time (including in connection with this Agreement or the transactions or actions contemplated hereby); provided, however, that in no event shall BHLB be required to expend for such "tail" policy a premium amount in excess of an amount equal to 175% of the annual premiums paid by Commerce for D&O Insurance in effect as of the date of this Agreement. In connection with the foregoing, Commerce agrees, in order for BHLB to fulfill its agreement, to provide the Insurance Carrier with such representations as such insurer may request with respect to the reporting of any prior claims.

7.6.2 In addition to Section 7.6.1, BHLB shall, from and after the Effective Date, to the fullest extent that would have been permitted to Commerce under DGCL and the Commerce Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws (to the extent not prohibited by federal law), indemnify, defend and hold harmless each Person who is now, or who has been at any time before the date hereof or who becomes before the Effective Time, an officer or director of Commerce or any Commerce Subsidiary (the "Indemnified Parties") against all losses, claims, damages, costs, expenses (including attorneys' fees), liabilities or judgments or amounts that are paid in settlement (which settlement shall require the prior written consent of BHLB, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed) of or in connection with any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, whether civil, criminal, or administrative (each, a "Claim") in which an Indemnified Party is or is threatened to be made a party or witness in whole or in part or arising in whole or in part out of the fact that such Person is or was an Indemnified Party if such Claim pertains to any matter of fact arising, existing, or occurring before the Effective Time (including, without limitation, the Merger and the other transactions contemplated hereby), regardless of whether such Claim is asserted or claimed before, or after, the Effective Time and will pay all costs and expenses (including reasonable fees and expenses of counsel) as they are incurred in connection with any such Claim. Any Indemnified Party wishing to claim indemnification or advancement under this Section 7.6.2 upon learning of any Claim, shall notify BHLB (but the failure so to notify BHLB shall not relieve it from any liability which it may have under this Section 7.6.2, except to the extent such failure materially prejudices BHLB). In the event of any such Claim (whether arising before or after the Effective Time) (1) BHLB shall have the right to assume the defense thereof (in which event the Indemnified Parties will cooperate in the defense of any such matter) and upon such assumption BHLB shall not be liable to any Indemnified Party for any legal expenses of other counsel or any other expenses subsequently incurred by any Indemnified Party in connection with the defense thereof, except that if BHLB elects not to assume such defense, or counsel for the Indemnified Parties reasonably advises the Indemnified Parties that there are or may be (whether or not any have yet actually arisen) issues which raise conflicts of interest between BHLB and the Indemnified Parties, the Indemnified Parties may retain counsel satisfactory to them, and BHLB shall pay the reasonable fees and expenses of such counsel for the Indemnified Parties, (2) except to the extent required due to conflicts of interest as described above, BHLB shall be obligated pursuant to this paragraph to pay for only one (1) firm of counsel for all Indemnified Parties unless there is a conflict of interest that necessitates more than one law firm, and (3) BHLB shall not be liable for any settlement effected without its prior written consent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed).

7.6.3 In the event that either BHLB or any of its successors or assigns (i) consolidates with or merges into any other Person and shall not be the continuing or surviving company or entity of such consolidation or merger or (ii) transfers all or substantially all of its properties and assets to any Person, then, and in each such case, proper provision shall be made so that the successors and assigns of BHLB shall assume the obligations set forth in this Section 7.6.

7.6.4 The obligations of BHLB provided under this Section 7.6 are intended to be enforceable against BHLB directly by any of the Indemnified Parties and shall be binding on all respective successors and permitted assigns of BHLB.

7.7 Stock Listing.

BHLB agrees to file a notification form for the listing on the NYSE (or such other national securities exchange on which the shares of BHLB Common Stock shall be listed as of the Closing Date) of the shares of BHLB Common Stock to be issued in the Merger.

7.8 Reservation of Stock.

BHLB agrees at all times from the date of this Agreement until the Merger Consideration has been paid in full to reserve a sufficient number of shares of BHLB Common Stock to fulfill its obligations under this Agreement.

7.9 Communications to Commerce Employees; Training

BHLB and Commerce agree that as promptly as practicable following the execution of this Agreement, meetings with employees of Commerce and the Commerce Subsidiaries shall be held at such locations as BHLB and Commerce shall mutually agree, provided that representatives of Commerce shall be permitted to attend such meetings. BHLB and Commerce shall mutually agree in advance as to the scope and content of all communications to the employees of Commerce and the Commerce Subsidiaries. At mutually agreed upon times following execution of this Agreement, representatives of BHLB shall be permitted to meet with the employees of Commerce and the Commerce Subsidiaries to discuss employment opportunities with BHLB, provided that representatives of Commerce shall be permitted to attend any such meeting. From and after the first date on which all Regulatory Approvals (and waivers, if applicable) and the Commerce Stockholder Approval necessary for the consummation of the Merger and Bank Merger (disregarding any waiting period) have been obtained, BHLB shall also be permitted to conduct training sessions outside of normal business hours or at other times as Commerce may agree, with the employees of Commerce and the Commerce Subsidiaries and may conduct such training seminars at any branch location of Commerce Bank; provided that BHLB will in good faith attempt to schedule such training sessions in a manner which does not unreasonably interfere with CBTC's normal business operations.

7.10 Current Information.

During the period from the date of this Agreement to the Effective Time, BHLB will cause one or more of its representatives to confer with representatives of Commerce to inform Commerce regarding BHLB's operations at such times as Commerce may reasonably request. BHLB will promptly notify Commerce of any change in the ordinary course of its business or in the operation of its properties and, to the extent permitted by applicable law, of any governmental complaints, investigations or hearings (or communications indicating that the same may be contemplated), or the institution or the threat of material litigation involving BHLB or any BHLB Subsidiary.

7.11 Access to Properties and Records.

Subject to Section 11.1, BHLB shall permit Commerce access upon reasonable notice and at reasonable times to its properties and those of the BHLB Subsidiaries, and shall disclose and make available to Commerce during normal business hours all of its books and records relating to the assets, properties, operations, obligations and liabilities, including, but not limited to, all books of account (including the general ledger), tax records, minute books of directors' and stockholders' meetings (other than minutes that discuss any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or any other subject matter that BHLB reasonably determines should be kept confidential), organizational documents, bylaws, material contracts and agreements, filings with any regulatory authority, litigation files, plans affecting employees, and any other business activities or prospects in which Commerce may have a reasonable interest; provided, however, that BHLB shall not be required to take any action that would provide access to or to disclose information where such access or disclosure, in BHLB's reasonable judgment, would interfere with the normal conduct of BHLB's business or would violate or prejudice the rights or business interests or confidences of any customer or other Person or entity or would result in the waiver by it of the privilege protecting communications between it and any of its counsel or contravene any applicable law. BHLB shall provide and shall request its auditors to provide Commerce with such historical financial information regarding it (and related audit reports and consents) as Commerce may reasonably request for Securities Law disclosure purposes. Commerce shall use commercially reasonable efforts to minimize any interference with BHLB's regular business operations during any such access to BHLB's property, books and records. BHLB and each BHLB Subsidiary shall permit Commerce, at Commerce's expense, to (i) cause a Phase I environmental assessment to be performed at any physical location owned or occupied by BHLB or any BHLB Subsidiary and (ii) cause an appraisal to be performed in respect of any real property owned by BHLB or any BHLB Subsidiary.

7.12 Financial and Other Statements.

7.12.1 Promptly upon receipt thereof, BHLB will furnish to Commerce copies of each annual, interim or special audit of the books of BHLB and the BHLB Subsidiaries made by its independent registered public accountants and copies of all internal control reports submitted to BHLB by such accountants, or by any other accounting firm rendering internal audit services, in connection with each annual, interim or special audit of the books of BHLB and the BHLB Subsidiaries made by such accountants.

7.12.2 As soon as reasonably available, but in no event later than the date such documents are filed with the MDOB, FRB or FDIC, BHLB will deliver to Commerce the BHLB Regulatory Report filed by BHLB or Berkshire Bank. Within twenty-five (25) days after the end of each month, Berkshire Bank will deliver to Commerce a consolidating balance sheet and a consolidating statement of operations, without related notes, for such month prepared in accordance with current financial reporting practices, as well as a month-end and year to date comparison to budget.

7.12.3 BHLB promptly will advise upon receipt and permit review by Commerce of any inquiry or examination report of any Bank Regulator with respect to the condition or activities of BHLB or Berkshire Bank.

7.13 New Board Members.

Prior to the Closing, each of BHLB and Berkshire Bank shall, to the extent necessary, take all required actions to duly elect the New Board Members as directors of BHLB and Berkshire Bank, effective as of and contingent upon the occurrence of the Effective Time.

REGULATORY AND OTHER MATTERS

8.1 Meetings of Stockholders.

8.1.1. Commerce will (i) take all steps necessary to duly call, give notice of, convene and hold a special meeting of its stockholders as promptly as practicable after the Merger Registration Statement is declared effective by the SEC, for the purpose of approving this Agreement and transactions associated therewith, including shareholder approval of the 280G excess parachute payments (the “Commerce Stockholders Meeting”), or obtain a stockholder consent in lieu of a meeting of stockholders, to the extent permissible, except as otherwise provided in this section, (ii) in connection with the solicitation of proxies with respect to the Commerce Stockholders Meeting, have its Board of Directors recommend approval of this Agreement to the Commerce stockholders; and (iii) cooperate and consult with BHLB with respect to each of the foregoing matters. The Board of Directors of Commerce may fail to make such a recommendation referred to in clause (ii) above, or withdraw, modify or change any such recommendation only if such Board of Directors, after having consulted with and considered the advice of its financial and legal advisors, has determined that such action is required to comply with its fiduciary duties under applicable law (“Commerce Change of Recommendation”).

8.2 Proxy Statement-Prospectus; Merger Registration Statement.

8.2.1 For the purposes (i) of registering BHLB Common Stock and BHLB Preferred Stock to be offered to holders of Commerce Common Stock in connection with the Merger with the SEC under the Securities Act, and (ii) of holding the Commerce Stockholders Meeting, or stockholder consent in lieu of a meeting of stockholders, to the extent permissible, BHLB shall draft and prepare, and Commerce shall cooperate in the preparation of, the Merger Registration Statement, including a proxy statement and prospectus satisfying all applicable requirements of applicable state securities and banking laws, and of the Securities Act and the Exchange Act, and the rules and regulations thereunder (such proxy statement/prospectus in the form mailed by Commerce to the Commerce stockholders, together with any and all amendments or supplements thereto, being herein referred to as the “Proxy Statement-Prospectus”). BHLB shall provide Commerce and its counsel with reasonable opportunity to review and comment on the Proxy Statement-Prospectus, and shall incorporate all appropriate comments thereto, prior to the time it is initially filed with the SEC or any amendments are filed with the SEC. BHLB shall file the Merger Registration Statement, including the Proxy Statement-Prospectus, with the SEC. Each of BHLB and Commerce shall use reasonable best efforts to cause the Merger Registration Statement or Proxy Statement/Prospectus, as the case may be, to comply in all material respects in form and substance with the rules and regulations promulgated by the SEC and to respond promptly to and comments of the SEC or its staff with respect to the Merger Registration Statement or Proxy Statement/Prospectus, as the case may be. Each of BHLB and Commerce shall furnish all information concerning themselves and their Subsidiaries, as applicable, as the other parties may reasonably request in connection with the preparation of the Merger Registration Statement or which may be required under applicable Law. Each party shall promptly notify the other parties upon the receipt of any comments from the SEC or its staff or any request from the SEC or its staff for amendments or supplements to the Merger Registration Statement or Proxy Statement/Prospectus, as the case may be, shall consult with the other parties prior to responding to any such comments or requests or filing any amendment or supplement to the Merger Registration Statement or Proxy Statement/Prospectus, as the case may be, and shall provide the other parties with copies of all correspondence between such party and its Representatives on the one hand and the SEC and its staff of the other hand. Each of BHLB and Commerce shall use its reasonable best efforts to have the Merger Registration Statement declared effective under the Securities Act as promptly as practicable after such filing, and Commerce shall thereafter promptly mail the Proxy Statement-Prospectus to its stockholders. BHLB shall also use its reasonable best efforts to obtain all necessary state securities law or “blue sky” permits and approvals required to carry out the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and Commerce shall furnish all information concerning Commerce and the holders of Commerce Common Stock as may be reasonably requested in connection with any such action. If BHLB or Commerce become aware of any information that, pursuant to the Securities Act or the Exchange Act, should be disclosed in an amendment or supplement to the Merger Registration Statement or Proxy Statement/Prospectus, as the case may be, then such party, as the case maybe, shall promptly inform the other parties thereof and shall cooperate with such other parties in filing such amendment or supplement with the SEC and, if appropriate, in mailing such amendment or supplement to the Stockholders. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary stated above, prior to filing and mailing, as applicable, the Merger Registration Statement or Proxy Statement/Prospectus (or any amendment or supplement thereto) or responding to any comments of the SEC with respect thereto, the party responsible for filing or mailing such document shall provide the other parties a reasonable opportunity to review and comment on such document or response and shall discuss with the other parties and include in such document or response, comments reasonably and promptly proposed by the other parties. BHLB will advise Commerce, promptly after BHLB receives notice thereof, of the time when the Registration Statement has become effective or any supplement or amendment has been filed, of the issuance of any stop order or the suspension of the qualification of BHLB Common Stock for offering or sale in any jurisdiction, of the initiation or threat of any proceeding for any such purpose, or of any request by the SEC for the amendment or supplement of the Registration Statement or for additional information.

8.2.2 BHLB shall file the Merger Registration Statement with the SEC under the Securities Act in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. BHLB will advise Commerce promptly after BHLB receives notice of the time when the Merger Registration Statement has become effective or any supplement or amendment has been filed, of the issuance of any stop order or the suspension of the registration of the shares of BHLB Common Stock issuable pursuant to the Merger Registration Statement, or the initiation or threat of any proceeding for any such purpose, or of any request by the SEC for the amendment or supplement of the Merger Registration Statement, or for additional information, and BHLB will provide Commerce with as many copies of such Merger Registration Statement and all amendments thereto promptly upon the filing thereof as Commerce may reasonably request.

8.2.3 Commerce and BHLB shall promptly notify the other party if at any time it becomes aware that the Proxy Statement-Prospectus or the Merger Registration Statement contains any untrue statement of a material fact or omits to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements contained therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading. In such event, Commerce shall cooperate with BHLB in the preparation of a supplement or amendment to such Proxy Statement-Prospectus that corrects such misstatement or omission, and BHLB shall file an amended Merger Registration Statement with the SEC, and Commerce and BHLB shall mail an amended Proxy Statement-Prospectus to their respective stockholders.

8.3 Regulatory Approvals.

Each of Commerce and BHLB will cooperate with the other and use reasonable efforts to promptly prepare and file all necessary documentation to obtain all necessary permits, consents, waivers, approvals and authorizations of the MDOB, the FDIC, the FRB, the Department of Justice and any other third parties and Governmental Entities or Bank Regulators necessary to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. Commerce and BHLB will furnish each other and each other's counsel with all information concerning themselves, their Subsidiaries, directors, officers and stockholders and such other matters as may be necessary or advisable in connection with any application, petition or other statement made by or on behalf of Commerce or BHLB to any Bank Regulator or Governmental Entity in connection with the Merger, Bank Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement. Commerce shall have the right to review and approve in advance all information relating to Commerce and any Commerce Subsidiary set forth in any filing made in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement with any Governmental Entity. In addition, Commerce and BHLB shall each furnish to the other for review a copy of each such filing made in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement with any Governmental Entity prior to its filing. Each of Commerce and BHLB will cooperate with each other and use their reasonable best efforts to address any conditions in any regulatory approval to allow for the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement; provided, however, that BHLB shall not be required to comply with any such condition that would result in a Materially Burdensome Regulatory Condition.

ARTICLE IX

are inconsistent with the representations and warranties given herein) that individually or in the aggregate has had or reasonably would be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect on BHLB.

9.3.5 Tax Opinion. Commerce shall have received an opinion of Nutter McClennen & Fish LLP, (“Nutter”) counsel to Commerce, dated the Closing Date, to the effect that the Merger will constitute a reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Code. Any Commerce stockholder that will receive BHLB Preferred Stock Consideration shall have received an opinion of Nutter, dated the Closing Date, to the effect that (i) the BHLB Preferred Stock Consideration should be non-qualified preferred stock for purposes of Section 368(a) of the Code; (ii) the BHLB Preferred Stock Consideration should not be characterized as “306 stock” within the meaning of Section 306(c)(1) of the Code; and (iii) dividends on BHLB Preferred Stock, payable when and as paid on BHLB Common Stock, should be “qualified dividends” for purposes of the Code. In rendering those opinions, Nutter may require and rely upon customary representations contained in certificates of officers of BHLB, Commerce and their respective Subsidiaries, and any Commerce stockholder that will receive BHLB Preferred Stock Consideration, reasonably satisfactory in form and substance to Nutter.

9.3.6 Legal Opinion. Commerce shall have received an opinion of Luse Gorman, PC, counsel to BHLB, dated the Closing Date, to the effect that as of the Effective Time, the BHLB Common Stock and the BHLB Preferred Stock issued in connection with the Merger will duly registered under the Securities Act, and therefore none of the shares of BHLB Common Stock or and the BHLB Preferred Stock issued as part of the Merger Consideration will be “restricted securities” as such term is defined in Rule 144(a)(3) promulgated under the Securities Act.

9.3.7 No Materially Burdensome Regulatory Condition. No Materially Burdensome Regulatory Condition shall exist with respect to Regulatory Approval required for consummation the Merger and Bank Merger.

9.3.8 Shareholder Agreement. Commerce shall have received a copy of the fully executed Shareholder Agreement.

9.3.9 New Board Members. BLHB and Berkshire Bank shall have taken all action required to duly elect the New Board Members as directors of BHLB and Berkshire Bank effective as of the Effective Time.

ARTICLE X

TERMINATION, AMENDMENT AND WAIVER

10.1 Termination.

This Agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the Closing Date, whether before or after approval of the Merger by the stockholders of Commerce and, if required, the stockholders of BHLB (except as otherwise indicated below):

10.1.1 At any time by the mutual written agreement of BHLB and Commerce;

10.1.2 By either party (provided, that the terminating party is not then in breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement contained herein) if there shall have been a breach of any of the representations or warranties set forth in this Agreement on the part of the other party, which breach by its nature cannot be cured prior to the Closing Date or shall not have been cured within thirty (30) days after written notice of such breach by the terminating party to the other party, conditioned upon the defaulting party promptly commencing to cure the default and thereafter continuing to cure the default; provided, however, that neither party shall have the right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 10.1.2 unless the breach of representation or warranty, together with all other such breaches, would entitle the terminating party not to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby under Section 9.2.1 (in the case of a breach of a representation or warranty by Commerce) or Section 9.3.1 (in the case of a breach of a representation or warranty by BHLB);

10.1.3 By either party (provided, that the terminating party is not then in breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement contained herein) if there shall have been a failure to perform or comply with any of the covenants or agreements set forth in this Agreement on the part of the other party or its Subsidiaries, which failure by its nature cannot be cured prior to the Closing Date or shall not have been cured within thirty (30) days after written notice of such failure by the terminating party to the other party, conditioned upon the defaulting party promptly commencing to cure the default and thereafter continuing to cure; provided, however, that neither party shall have the right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 10.1.3 unless the breach of covenant or agreement, together with all other such breaches, would entitle the terminating party not to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby under Section 9.2.2 (in the case of a breach of covenant by Commerce) or Section 9.3.2 (in the case of a breach of covenant by BHLB);

10.1.4 At the election of either party, if the Closing shall not have occurred by the Termination Date, or such later date as shall have been agreed to in writing by BHLB and Commerce; provided, that no party may terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 10.1.4 if the failure of the Closing to have occurred on or before said date was due to such party's material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement contained in this Agreement;

10.1.5 By either party, if the stockholders of Commerce shall have voted at the Commerce Stockholders Meeting, or Commerce shall have failed to obtain a stockholder consent in lieu of a meeting, on the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and such vote, either through the Commerce Stockholders Meeting or through a consent in lieu of a stockholders meeting, shall not have been sufficient to approve and adopt such transactions.

10.1.6 By either party if (i) final action has been taken by a Bank Regulator whose approval is required in order to satisfy the conditions to the parties' obligations to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby as set forth in Article IX, which final action (x) has become unappealable and (y) does not approve this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby; (ii) the other party has not obtained all Regulatory Approvals required to be obtained by such party to consummate the Merger and Bank Merger prior to the Termination Date, or (iii) any court of competent jurisdiction or other Governmental Entity shall have issued an order, decree, ruling or taken any other action restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the Merger and such order, decree, ruling or other action shall have become final and unappealable; provided, that no party may terminate this Agreement pursuant clause (ii) of this Section 10.1.6 if the failure to obtain all Regulatory Approvals before the Termination Date was due to such party's material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement contained in this Agreement;

10.1.7 By the Board of Directors of BHLB if any of the following conditions are satisfied: (i) Commerce has received a Superior Proposal and the Board of Directors of Commerce has entered into an acquisition agreement with respect to the Superior Proposal in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.11 withdrawn its recommendation of this Agreement, has failed to make such recommendation, or has modified or qualified its recommendation in a manner adverse to BHLB, (ii) either (x) the Board of Directors of Commerce submits this Agreement to its stockholders without a recommendation for approval or (y) a Commerce Change of Recommendation shall have occurred, or (iii) the Commerce stockholders do not approve this Agreement.

10.1.8 By the Board of Directors of Commerce if Commerce has received a Superior Proposal and the Board of Directors of Commerce has made a determination to accept such Superior Proposal; provided that Commerce shall not terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 10.1.8 and enter into a definitive agreement with respect to the Superior Proposal until the expiration of three (3) Business Days following BHLB's receipt of written notice advising BHLB that Commerce has received a Superior Proposal, specifying the material terms and conditions of such Superior Proposal (and including a copy thereof with all accompanying documentation, if in writing) identifying the Person making the Superior Proposal and stating whether Commerce intends to enter into a definitive agreement with respect to the Superior Proposal (a "Notice of Superior Proposal"). After providing such Notice of Superior Proposal, Commerce shall provide a reasonable opportunity to BHLB during the three (3)-day period to make such adjustments in the terms and conditions of this Agreement as would enable Commerce to proceed with the Merger on such adjusted terms. Any material amendment of such Superior Proposal shall require a new Notice of Superior Proposal and Commerce shall be required to comply again with the requirements of this Section 10.1.8; provided, however, that references to the three (3) Business Day period above shall be deemed to be references to a two (2) Business Day period.

10.1.9 By the Board of Directors of Commerce if it so determines by a majority vote of the members of the entire Board of Directors of Commerce, at any time during the five-day period commencing on the Determination Date, such termination to be effective on the 30th day following such Determination Date, if and only if both of the following conditions are satisfied:

- (1) The BHLB Market Value on the Determination Date is less than 0.80 multiplied by the Initial BHLB Market Value; and
- (2) the number obtained by dividing the BHLB Market Value on the Determination Date by the Initial BHLB Market Value shall be less than the number obtained by dividing (x) the Final Index Price by (y) the Initial Index Price minus 0.20; subject, however, to the following three sentences.

If Commerce elects to exercise its termination right pursuant to this Section 10.1.9, it shall give prompt written notice thereof to BHLB. During the five Business Day period commencing with its receipt of such notice, BHLB shall have the option of increasing the consideration to be received by the holders of Commerce Common Stock hereunder, by adjusting the Exchange Ratio (calculated to the nearest one one-thousandth) to equal the lesser of (x) a number (rounded to the nearest one one-thousandth) obtained by dividing (A) the product of the Initial BHLB Market Value, 0.80 and the Exchange Ratio (as then in effect) by (B) the BHLB Market Value as of the Determination Date or (y) a number (rounded to the nearest one one-thousandth) obtained by dividing (A) the product of the Index Ratio and the Exchange Ratio (as then in effect) minus 0.20 by (B) the BHLB Market Value as of the Determination Date divided by the Initial BHLB Market Value. If within such five Business Day period, BHLB delivers written notice to Commerce that it intends to proceed with the Merger by paying such additional consideration as contemplated by the preceding sentence, then no termination shall have occurred pursuant to this Section 10.1.9, and this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect in accordance with its terms (except that the Exchange Ratio shall have been so modified and, thereafter, any reference in this Agreement to “Merger Consideration” shall be deemed to refer to the Merger Consideration reflecting the Exchange Ratio as modified pursuant to this Section 10.1.9).

For purposes of this Section 10.1.9, the following terms shall have the meanings indicated below:

“Acquisition Transaction” means (i) a merger or consolidation, or any similar transaction, involving the relevant companies, (ii) a purchase, lease or other acquisition of all or substantially all of the assets of the relevant companies, (iii) a purchase or other acquisition (including by way of merger, consolidation, share exchange or otherwise) of securities representing 10% or more of the voting power of the relevant companies; or (iv) agree or commit to take any action referenced above.

“Determination Date” means the first date on which Commerce Stockholder Approval and all Requisite Regulatory Approvals (and waivers, if applicable) necessary for consummation of the Merger and the Bank Merger have been received (disregarding any waiting period).

“Initial BHLB Market Value” means $35.55, adjusted as indicated in the last sentence of this Section 10.1.9.

“Initial Index Price” means the sum of the per share closing sales price of the common stock of each company comprising the Index.

“Final Price” with respect to any company belonging to the Index, means the average of the daily closing sales prices of a share of common stock of such company (and if there is no closing sales price on any such day, then the mean between the closing bid and the closing asked prices on that day), as reported on the consolidated transaction reporting system for the market or exchange on which such common stock is principally traded, for the ten consecutive trading days immediately preceding the Determination Date.

“BHLB Market Value” means, as of any specified date, the average of the daily closing sales prices of a share of BHLB Common Stock as reported on the NYSE for the ten consecutive trading days immediately preceding such specified date.

10.2 Effect of Termination.

10.2.1 In the event of termination of this Agreement pursuant to any provision of Section 10.1, this Agreement shall forthwith become void and have no further force, except that (i) the provisions of Sections 10.2, 11.1, 11.2, 11.3, 11.4, 11.5, 11.6, 11.8, 11.9, 11.10, 11.11, and any other section which, by its terms, relates to post-termination rights or obligations, shall survive such termination of this Agreement and remain in full force and effect.

10.2.2 If this Agreement is terminated, expenses and damages of the parties hereto shall be determined as follows:

(A) Except as provided below, whether or not the Merger is consummated, all costs and expenses incurred in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall be paid by the party incurring such expenses.

(B) In the event of a termination of this Agreement because of a breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement contained in this Agreement, the breaching party shall remain liable for any and all damages, costs and expenses, including all reasonable attorneys’ fees, sustained or incurred by the non-breaching party as a result thereof or in connection therewith or with respect to the enforcement of its rights hereunder.

(C) As used in this Agreement, “Termination Fee” shall mean $8.6 million. As a condition of BHLB’s willingness, and in order to induce BHLB to enter into this Agreement, and to reimburse BHLB for incurring the costs and expenses related to entering into this Agreement and consummating the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, Commerce hereby agrees to pay BHLB, and BHLB shall be entitled to payment of, the Termination Fee by wire transfer of same day funds on the earlier of (x) the date of termination or, if such date is not a Business Day, on the next following Business Day or (y) within three (3) Business Days after written demand for payment is made by BHLB, as applicable, following the occurrence of any of the events set forth below:

(i) Commerce terminates this Agreement pursuant to Section 10.1.8 or BHLB terminates this Agreement pursuant to Section 10.1.7; or

(ii) The entering into a definitive agreement by Commerce relating to an Acquisition Proposal or the consummation of an Acquisition Proposal involving Commerce within one (1) year after the occurrence of any of the following: (i) the termination of this Agreement by BHLB pursuant to Section 10.1.2 or 10.1.3 because of a breach by Commerce or any Commerce Subsidiary after the occurrence of a bona fide Acquisition Proposal has been publicly announced or otherwise made known to the senior management or board of directors of Commerce; or (ii) the termination of this Agreement by BHLB or Commerce pursuant to Section 10.1.5 because of the failure of the stockholders of Commerce to approve this Agreement at the Commerce Stockholders Meeting or through a consent of stockholder in lieu of a meeting after the occurrence of an Acquisition Proposal has been publicly announced or otherwise made known to the stockholders of Commerce.

(D) If (i) this Agreement is terminated by Commerce pursuant to Section 10.1.6, and (ii) a Bank Regulator has issued a final, non-appealable order that does not approve the Merger solely as a result of BHLB’s operations or financial condition, then BHLB shall be liable to Commerce for $4.3 million. As a condition of Commerce’s willingness, and in order to induce Commerce to enter into this Agreement, and, in part, to reimburse Commerce for incurring the costs and expenses related to entering into this Agreement and consummating the transactions contemplated by the Agreement, BHLB hereby agrees to pay Commerce, and Commerce shall be entitled to payment of $4.3 million by wire transfer of same day funds on the earlier of (x) the date of termination or, if such date is not a Business Day, on the next following Business Day or

(y) within three (3) Business Days after written demand for payment is made by Commerce, as applicable, following the termination by Commerce pursuant to Section 10.1.6. The payment of $4.3 million shall constitute an exclusive remedy with respect to Section 10.1.6 and upon delivery of such payment, BHLB shall have no further obligations to Commerce pursuant to Section 10.1.6 of this Agreement.

(E) Commerce and BHLB acknowledge that the agreements contained in this Section 10.2.2 are an integral part of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and that, without these agreements, BHLB would not enter into this Agreement. The amount payable by Commerce pursuant to this Section 10.2.2 constitutes liquidated damages and not a penalty and shall be the sole and exclusive monetary remedy of such party in the event of termination of this Agreement on the bases specified in such section.

10.3 Amendment, Extension and Waiver.

Subject to applicable law, at any time prior to the Effective Time (whether before or after approval thereof by the stockholders of Commerce or BHLB), the parties hereto by action of their respective Boards of Directors, may (a) amend this Agreement, (b) extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or other acts of any other party hereto, (c) waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties contained herein or in any document delivered pursuant hereto, or (d) waive compliance with any of the agreements or conditions contained herein; provided, however, that after any approval of this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby by the stockholders of Commerce, there may not be, without further approval of such stockholders, any amendment of this Agreement which decreases the amount or value, or changes the form of, the Merger Consideration to be delivered to Commerce's stockholders pursuant to this Agreement. This Agreement may not be amended except by an instrument in writing signed on behalf of each of the parties hereto. Any agreement on the part of a party hereto to any extension or waiver shall be valid only if set forth in an instrument in writing signed on behalf of such party, but such waiver or failure to insist on strict compliance with such obligation, covenant, agreement or condition shall not operate as a waiver of, or estoppel with respect to, any subsequent or other failure. Any termination of this Agreement pursuant to this Article XI may only be effected upon a vote of a majority of the entire Board of Directors of the terminating party.

Annex B

[Letterhead of Sandler O'Neill & Partners, L.P.]

Board of Directors

Commerce Bancshares Corp.

386 Main Street

Worcester, MA 01608

Ladies and Gentlemen:

Commerce Bancshares Corp. ("Commerce") and Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Inc. ("BHLB") are proposing to enter into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the "Agreement") pursuant to which Commerce will merge with and into BHLB with BHLB being the surviving corporation (the "Merger"). Pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Agreement, at the Effective Time, each share of common stock, $0.01 par value per share, of Commerce ("Commerce Common Stock") issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time, except for certain shares of Commerce Common Stock as specified in the Agreement, will be converted into the right to receive, subject to certain adjustments set forth in the Agreement, 0.93 shares (the "Exchange Ratio") of BHLB common stock, par value $0.01 per share ("BHLB Common Stock"); provided, however, that no Commerce stockholder shall receive, either individually or in the aggregate with such stockholder's Acting in Concert Group, shares of BHLB Common Stock that would exceed 9.9% of the outstanding BHLB Common Stock as of the Effective Time. The Agreement provides, generally, that in the event that any Commerce stockholder, individually or aggregated with such stockholder's Acting in Concert Group, exceeds the Voting Stock Consideration Limit, such Commerce stockholder, and each member of the Acting in Concert Group, shall receive the BHLB Preferred Stock Consideration. Capitalized terms used herein without definition have the meanings assigned to them in the Agreement. The terms and conditions of the Merger are more fully set forth in the Agreement. You have requested our opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Exchange Ratio to the holders of Commerce Common Stock.

Sandler O'Neill & Partners, L.P. ("Sandler O'Neill", "we" or "our"), as part of its investment banking business, is regularly engaged in the valuation of financial institutions and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions and other corporate transactions. In connection with this opinion, we have reviewed and considered, among other things:

(i) a draft of the Agreement, dated May 17, 2017; (ii) certain publicly available financial statements and other historical financial information of Commerce that we deemed relevant; (iii) certain publicly available financial statements and other historical financial information of BHLB and its banking subsidiary that we deemed relevant; (iv) certain internal financial projections for Commerce for the year ending December 31, 2017, as provided by the senior management of Commerce, as well as an estimated long-term net income growth rate and estimated dividends per share for the years thereafter, as provided by the senior management of Commerce; (v) publicly available consensus mean analyst earnings per share estimates for BHLB for the years ending December 31, 2017 and December 31, 2018, as well as an estimated long-term earnings per share growth rate and dividends per share for the years thereafter, as provided by the senior management of BHLB; (vi) the pro forma financial impact of the Merger on BHLB based on certain assumptions relating to purchase accounting adjustments, cost savings, transaction expenses, regulatory expenses as a result of BHLB crossing the $10 billion in assets threshold at closing of the Merger and for the years ending December 31, 2018 through December 31, 2021, the public offering and sale of a certain amount of BHLB Common Stock prior to closing of the Merger (the "BHLB Common Stock Offering"), as well as estimated net income projections for Commerce for the years ending December 31, 2018 through December 31, 2021, as provided by the senior management of BHLB; (vii) the publicly reported historical price and trading activity for BHLB Common Stock, including a comparison of certain stock market information for BHLB Common Stock and certain stock indices as well as publicly available information for certain other similar companies, the securities of which are publicly traded; (viii) a comparison of certain financial information for Commerce and BHLB with similar financial institutions for which information is publicly available; (ix) the financial terms of certain recent business combinations in the bank and thrift industry (on a regional and nationwide basis), to the extent publicly available; (x) the current market environment generally and the banking environment in particular; and (xi) such other information, financial studies, analyses and investigations and financial, economic and market criteria as we considered relevant. We also discussed with certain members of the senior management of Commerce the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of Commerce and held similar discussions with certain members of the senior management of BHLB regarding the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of BHLB.

In performing our review, we have relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information that was available to and reviewed by us from public sources, that was provided to us by Commerce or BHLB or their respective representatives, or that was otherwise reviewed by us, and we have assumed such accuracy and completeness for purposes of rendering this opinion without any independent verification or investigation. We have relied on the assurances of the respective managements of Commerce and BHLB that they are not aware of any facts or circumstances that would make any of such information inaccurate or misleading. We have not been asked to and have not undertaken an independent verification of any of such information and we do not assume any responsibility or liability for the accuracy or completeness thereof. We did not make an independent evaluation or perform an appraisal of the specific assets, the collateral securing assets or the liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of Commerce or BHLB or any of their respective subsidiaries, nor have we been furnished with any such evaluations or appraisals. We render no opinion or evaluation on the collectability of any assets or the future performance of any loans of Commerce or BHLB. We did not make an independent evaluation of the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses of Commerce or BHLB, or of the combined entity after the Merger, and we have not reviewed any individual credit files relating to Commerce or BHLB. We have assumed, with your consent, that the respective allowances for loan losses for both Commerce and BHLB are adequate to cover such losses and will be adequate on a pro forma basis for the combined entity.

In preparing its analyses, Sandler O'Neill used certain internal financial projections for Commerce for the year ending December 31, 2017, as provided by the senior management of Commerce, as well as an estimated long-term net income growth rate and estimated dividends per share for the years thereafter, as provided by the senior management of Commerce. In addition, Sandler O'Neill used publicly available consensus mean analyst earnings per share estimates for BHLB for the years ending December 31, 2017 and December 31, 2018, as well as an estimated long-term earnings per share growth rate and dividends per share for the years thereafter, as provided by the senior management of BHLB. Sandler O'Neill also received and used in its pro forma analyses certain assumptions relating to purchase accounting adjustments, cost savings, transaction expenses, regulatory expenses as a result of BHLB crossing the $10 billion in assets threshold at closing of the Merger and for the years ending December 31, 2018 through December 31, 2021, the BHLB Common Stock Offering, as well as estimated net income projections for Commerce for the years ending December 31, 2018 through December 31, 2021, as provided by the senior management of BHLB. With respect to the foregoing information, the respective senior managements of Commerce and BHLB confirmed to us that such information reflected (or, in the case of the publicly available consensus mean analyst earnings per share estimates referred to above, were consistent with) the best currently available projections, estimates and judgments of those respective senior managements as to the future financial performance of Commerce and BHLB, respectively, and the other matters covered thereby, and we assumed that the future financial performance reflected in such information would be achieved. We express no opinion as to such information, or the assumptions on which such information is based. We have also assumed that there has been no material change in the respective assets, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects of Commerce or BHLB since the date of the most recent financial statements made available to us. We have assumed in all respects material to our analysis that Commerce and BHLB will remain as going concerns for all periods relevant to our analysis.

We have also assumed, with your consent, that (i) each of the parties to the Agreement will comply in all material respects with all material terms and conditions of the Agreement and all related agreements, that all of the representations and warranties contained in such agreements are true and correct in all material respects, that each of the parties to such agreements will perform in all material respects all of the covenants and other obligations required to be performed by such party under such agreements and that the conditions precedent in such agreements are not and will not be waived, (ii) in the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory or third party approvals, consents and limitation, restriction or condition will be imposed that would have an adverse effect on Commerce, BHLB or the Merger or any related transaction, (iii) the Merger and any related transactions will be consummated in accordance with the terms of the Agreement without any waiver, modification or amendment of any material term, condition or agreement thereof and in compliance with all applicable laws and other requirements, and (iv) the Merger will qualify as a tax-free reorganization for federal income tax purposes. Finally, with your consent, we have relied upon the advice that Commerce has received from its legal, accounting and tax advisors as to all legal, accounting and tax matters relating to the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Agreement. We express no opinion as to any such matters.

Our opinion is necessarily based on financial, economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to us as of, the date hereof. Events occurring after the date hereof could materially affect this opinion. We have not undertaken to update, revise, reaffirm or withdraw this opinion or otherwise comment upon events occurring after the date hereof. We express no opinion as to the trading value of BHLB Common Stock at any time or what the value of BHLB Common Stock will be once it is actually received by the holders of Commerce Common Stock.

We have acted as Commerce's financial advisor in connection with the Merger and will receive a fee for our services, which fee is contingent upon the closing of the Merger. We will also receive a fee for rendering this opinion, which opinion fee will be credited in full towards the transaction fee which will become payable to Sandler O'Neill on the day of closing of the Merger. Commerce has also agreed to indemnify us against certain claims and liabilities arising out of our engagement and to reimburse us for certain of our out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with our engagement. We have not provided any other investment banking services to Commerce in the two years preceding the date of this opinion. As we have previously advised you, in the two years preceding the date hereof, Sandler O'Neill has provided certain investment banking services to, and received fees from, BHLB. Most recently, Sandler O'Neill acted as financial advisor to BHLB in connection with BHLB's acquisition of First Choice Bank, which transaction closed in December 2016. In addition, with your consent, Sandler O'Neill is acting as book-running manager in connection with the BHLB Common Stock Offering. In the ordinary course of our business as a broker-dealer, we may purchase securities from and sell securities to Commerce, BHLB and their respective affiliates. We may also actively trade the equity and debt securities of BHLB and its affiliates for our own account and for the accounts of our customers.

Our opinion is directed to the Board of Directors of Commerce in connection with its consideration of the Agreement and the Merger and does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder of Commerce as to how any such shareholder should vote at any meeting of shareholders called to consider and vote upon the approval of the Agreement and the Merger. Our opinion is directed only to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Exchange Ratio to the holders of Commerce Common Stock and does not address the underlying business decision of Commerce to engage in the Merger, the form or structure of the Merger or any other transactions contemplated in the Agreement, the relative merits of the Merger as compared to any other alternative transactions or business strategies that might exist for Commerce or the effect of any other transaction in which Commerce might engage. This opinion has been approved by Sandler O'Neill's fairness opinion committee.

We note that the Agreement provides for the receipt of BHLB Preferred Stock Consideration in the event that any Commerce stockholder, individually or aggregated with such stockholder's Acting in Concert Group, exceeds the Voting Stock Consideration Limit. We express no opinion as to the fairness of the BHLB Preferred Stock Consideration to any such Commerce stockholder, individually or aggregated with such stockholder's Acting in Concert Group. We also do not express any opinion as to the fairness of the amount or nature of the compensation to be received in the Merger by any officer, director or employee of Commerce or BHLB, or any class of such persons, if any, relative to the compensation to be received in the Merger by any other shareholder. This opinion shall not be reproduced without Sandler O'Neill's prior written consent; provided, however, Sandler O'Neill will provide its consent for the opinion to be included in regulatory filings to be completed in connection with the Merger.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, it is our opinion that, as of the date hereof, the Exchange Ratio is fair to holders of Commerce Common Stock from a financial point of view.

Very truly yours,

(ii) creates, alters or abolishes a stated right in respect of conversion or redemption, including any provision relating to any sinking fund or purchase, of the shares;

(iii) alters or abolishes a preemptive right of the holder of the shares to acquire shares or other securities;

(iv) excludes or limits the right of the holder of the shares to vote on any matter, or to cumulate votes, except as such right may be limited by voting rights given to new shares then being authorized of an existing or new class; or

(5) an amendment of the articles of organization or of the bylaws or the entering into by the corporation of any agreement to which the shareholder is not a party that adds restrictions on the transfer or registration or any outstanding shares held by the shareholder or amends any pre-existing restrictions on the transfer or registration of his shares in a manner which is materially adverse to the ability of the shareholder to transfer his shares;

(6) any corporate action taken pursuant to a shareholder vote to the extent the articles of organization, bylaws or a resolution of the board of directors provides that voting or nonvoting shareholders are entitled to appraisal;

(7) consummation of a conversion of the corporation to nonprofit status pursuant to subdivision B of PART 9; or

(8) consummation of a conversion of the corporation into a form of other entity pursuant to subdivision D of PART 9.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (a) of section 13.03, in the event of an amendment to the articles of organization specified in clause (4) of subsection (a) or in the event of an amendment of the articles of organization or the bylaws or an agreement to which the shareholder is not a party specified in clause (5) of subsection (a), a shareholder may assert appraisal rights with respect to those shares adversely affected by the amendment or agreement only if he seeks them as to all of such shares and, in the case of an amendment to the articles of organization or the bylaws, has not voted any of his shares of any class or series in favor of the proposed amendment.

(d) The shareholder's right to obtain payment of the fair value of his shares shall terminate upon the occurrence of any of the following events:

(i) the proposed action is abandoned or rescinded; or

(ii) a court having jurisdiction permanently enjoins or sets aside the action; or

(iii) the shareholder's demand for payment is withdrawn with the written consent of the corporation.

Section 13.03. ASSERTION OF RIGHTS BY NOMINEES AND BENEFICIAL OWNERS

(a) A record shareholder may assert appraisal rights as to fewer than all the shares registered in the record shareholder's name but owned by a beneficial shareholder only if the record shareholder objects with respect to all shares of the class or series owned by the beneficial shareholder and notifies the corporation in writing of the name and address of each beneficial shareholder on whose behalf appraisal rights are being asserted. The rights of a record shareholder who asserts appraisal rights for only part of the shares held of record in the record shareholder's name under this subsection shall be determined as if the shares as to which the record shareholder objects and the record shareholder's other shares were registered in the names of different record shareholders.

(b) A beneficial shareholder may assert appraisal rights as to shares of any class or series held on behalf of the shareholder only if such shareholder:

(1) submits to the corporation the record shareholder's written consent to the assertion of such rights no later than the date referred to in subclause (ii) of clause (2) of subsection (b) of section 13.22; and (2) does so with respect to all shares of the class or series that are beneficially owned by the beneficial shareholder.

Section 13.20. NOTICE OF APPRAISAL RIGHTS

(a) If proposed corporate action described in subsection (a) of section 13.02 is to be submitted to a vote at a shareholders' meeting or through the solicitation of written consents, the meeting notice or solicitation of consents shall state that the corporation has concluded that shareholders are, are not or may be entitled to assert appraisal rights under this Part and refer to the necessity of the shareholder delivering, before the vote is taken, written notice of his intent to demand payment and to the requirement that he not vote his shares in favor of the proposed action. If the corporation concludes that appraisal rights are or may be available, a copy of this Part shall accompany the meeting notice sent to those record shareholders entitled to exercise appraisal rights.

(b) In a merger pursuant to section 11.05, the parent corporation shall notify in writing all record shareholders of the subsidiary who are entitled to assert appraisal rights that the corporate action became effective. Such notice shall be sent within 10 days after the corporate action became effective and include the materials described in section 13.22.

Section 13.21. NOTICE OF INTENT TO DEMAND PAYMENT

(a) If proposed corporate action requiring appraisal rights under section 13.02 is submitted to vote at a shareholders' meeting, a shareholder who wishes to assert appraisal rights with respect to any class or series of shares:

(1) shall deliver to the corporation before the vote is taken written notice of the shareholder's intent to demand payment if the proposed action is effectuated; and

(2) shall not vote, or cause or permit to be voted, any shares of such class or series in favor of the proposed action.

(b) A shareholder who does not satisfy the requirements of subsection (a) is not entitled to payment under this chapter.

Section 13.22. APPRAISAL NOTICE AND FORM

(a) If proposed corporate action requiring appraisal rights under subsection (a) of section 13.02 becomes effective, the corporation shall deliver a written appraisal notice and form required by clause (1) of subsection (b) to all shareholders who satisfied the requirements of section 13.21 or, if the action was taken by written consent, did not consent. In the case of a merger under section 11.05, the parent shall deliver a written appraisal notice and form to all record shareholders who may be entitled to assert appraisal rights.

(b) The appraisal notice shall be sent no earlier than the date the corporate action became effective and no later than 10 days after such date and must:

(1) supply a form that specifies the date of the first announcement to shareholders of the principal terms of the proposed corporate action and requires the shareholder asserting appraisal rights to certify (A) whether or not beneficial ownership of those shares for which appraisal rights are asserted was acquired before that date and (B) that the shareholder did not vote for the transaction;

(2) state:

(i) where the form shall be sent and where certificates for certificated shares shall be deposited and the date by which those certificates shall be deposited, which date may not be earlier than the date for receiving the required form under subclause (ii); (ii) a date by which the corporation shall receive the form which date may not be fewer than 40 nor more than 60 days after the date the subsection (a) appraisal notice and form are sent, and state that the shareholder shall have waived the right to demand appraisal with respect to the shares unless the form is received by the corporation by such specified date;

(iii) the corporation's estimate of the fair value of the shares;

(iv) that, if requested in writing, the corporation will provide, to the shareholder so requesting, within 10 days after the date specified in clause (ii) the number of shareholders who return the forms by the specified date and the total number of shares owned by them; and

C-4

(v) the date by which the notice to withdraw under section 13.23 shall be received, which date shall be within 20 days after the date specified in subclause (ii) of this subsection; and

(3) be accompanied by a copy of this chapter.

Section 13.23. PERFECTION OF RIGHTS; RIGHT TO WITHDRAW

(a) A shareholder who receives notice pursuant to section 13.22 and who wishes to exercise appraisal rights shall certify on the form sent by the corporation whether the beneficial owner of the shares acquired beneficial ownership of the shares before the date required to be set forth in the notice pursuant to clause (1) of subsection (b) of section 13.22. If a shareholder fails to make this certification, the corporation may elect to treat the shareholder's shares as after-acquired shares under section 13.25. In addition, a shareholder who wishes to exercise appraisal rights shall execute and return the form and, in the case of certificated shares, deposit the shareholder's certificates in accordance with the terms of the notice by the date referred to in the notice pursuant to subclause (ii) of clause (2) of subsection (b) of section 13.22. Once a shareholder deposits that shareholder's certificates or, in the case of uncertificated shares, returns the executed forms, that shareholder loses all rights as a shareholder, unless the shareholder withdraws pursuant to said subsection (b).

(b) A shareholder who has complied with subsection (a) may nevertheless decline to exercise appraisal rights and withdraw from the appraisal process by so notifying the corporation in writing by the date set forth in the appraisal notice pursuant to subclause (v) of clause (2) of subsection (b) of section 13.22. A shareholder who fails to so withdraw from the appraisal process may not thereafter withdraw without the corporation's written consent.

(c) A shareholder who does not execute and return the form and, in the case of certificated shares, deposit that shareholder's share certificates where required, each by the date set forth in the notice described in subsection (b) of section 13.22, shall not be entitled to payment under this chapter.

Section 13.24. PAYMENT

(a) Except as provided in section 13.25, within 30 days after the form required by subclause (ii) of clause (2) of subsection (b) of section 13.22 is due, the corporation shall pay in cash to those shareholders who complied with subsection (a) of section 13.23 the amount the corporation estimates to be the fair value of their shares, plus interest.

(b) The payment to each shareholder pursuant to subsection (a) shall be accompanied by:

financial statements of the corporation that issued the shares to be appraised, consisting of a balance sheet as of the end of a fiscal year ending not more than 16 months before the date of payment, an income statement for that year, a statement of changes in shareholders' equity for that year, and the latest available interim financial statements, if any;

(2)

a statement of the corporation's estimate of the fair value of the shares, which estimate shall equal or exceed the corporation's estimate given pursuant to subclause (iii) of clause (2) of subsection (b) of section 13.22; and a statement that shareholders described in subsection (a) have the right to demand further payment under section 13.26 and that if any such shareholder does not do so within the time period specified therein, such shareholder shall be deemed to have accepted the payment in full satisfaction of the corporation's obligations under this chapter.

(3)

Section 13.25. AFTER-ACQUIRED SHARES

(a) A corporation may elect to withhold payment required by section 13.24 from any shareholder who did not certify that beneficial ownership of all of the shareholder's shares for which appraisal rights are asserted was acquired before the date set forth in the appraisal notice sent pursuant to clause (1) of subsection (b) of section 13.22.

C-5

TABLE OF CONTENTS

(b) If the corporation elected to withhold payment under subsection (a), it must, within 30 days after the form required by subclause (ii) of clause (2) of subsection (b) of section 13.22 is due, notify all shareholders who are described in subsection (a):

(1) of the information required by clause (1) of subsection (b) of section 13.24;

(2) of the corporation's estimate of fair value pursuant to clause (2) of subsection (b) of said section 13.24;

(3) that they may accept the corporation's estimate of fair value, plus interest, in full satisfaction of their demands or demand appraisal under section 13.26;

(4) that those shareholders who wish to accept the offer shall so notify the corporation of their acceptance of the corporation's offer within 30 days after receiving the offer; and

(5) that those shareholders who do not satisfy the requirements for demanding appraisal under section 13.26 shall be deemed to have accepted the corporation's offer.

(c) Within 10 days after receiving the shareholder's acceptance pursuant to subsection (b), the corporation shall pay in cash the amount it offered under clause (2) of subsection (b) to each shareholder who agreed to accept the corporation's offer in full satisfaction of the shareholder's demand.

(d) Within 40 days after sending the notice described in subsection (b), the corporation must pay in cash the amount if offered to pay under clause (2) of subsection (b) to each shareholder deserved in clause (5) of subsection (b).

Section 13.26. PROCEDURE IF SHAREHOLDER DISSATISFIED WITH PAYMENT OR OFFER

(a) A shareholder paid pursuant to section 13.24 who is dissatisfied with the amount of the payment shall notify the corporation in writing of that shareholder's estimate of the fair value of the shares and demand payment of that estimate plus interest, less any payment under section 13.24. A shareholder offered payment under section 13.25 who is dissatisfied with that offer shall reject the offer and demand payment of the shareholder's stated estimate of the fair value of the shares plus interest.

(b) A shareholder who fails to notify the corporation in writing of that shareholder's demand to be paid the shareholder's stated estimate of the fair value plus interest under subsection (a) within 30 days after receiving the corporation's payment or offer of payment under section 13.24 or section 13.25, respectively, waives the right to demand payment under this section and shall be entitled only to the payment made or offered pursuant to those respective sections.

Section 13.30. COURT ACTION

(a) If a shareholder makes demand for payment under section 13.26 which remains unsettled, the corporation shall commence an equitable proceeding within 60 days after receiving the payment demand and petition the court to determine the fair value of the shares and accrued interest. If the corporation does not commence the proceeding within the 60-day period, it shall pay in cash to each shareholder the amount the shareholder demanded pursuant to section 13.26 plus interest.

(b) The corporation shall commence the proceeding in the appropriate court of the county where the corporation's principal office, or, if none, its registered office, in the commonwealth is located. If the corporation is a foreign corporation without a registered office in the commonwealth, it shall commence the proceeding in the county in the commonwealth where the principal office or registered office of the domestic corporation merged with the foreign corporation was located at the time of the transaction.

(c) The corporation shall make all shareholders, whether or not residents of the commonwealth, whose demands remain unsettled parties to the proceeding as an action against their shares, and all parties shall be served with a copy of the petition. Nonresidents may be served by registered or certified mail or by publication as provided by law or otherwise as ordered by the court.

(d) The jurisdiction of the court in which the proceeding is commenced under subsection (b) is plenary and exclusive. The court may appoint 1 or more persons as appraisers to receive evidence and recommend a decision on the question of fair value. The appraisers shall have the powers described in the order appointing them, or in any amendment to it. The shareholders demanding appraisal rights are entitled to the same discovery rights as parties in other civil proceedings.

(e) Each shareholder made a party to the proceeding is entitled to judgment (i) for the amount, if any, by which the court finds the fair value of the shareholder's shares, plus interest, exceeds the amount paid by the corporation to the shareholder for such shares or (ii) for the fair value, plus interest, of the shareholder's shares for which the corporation elected to withhold payment under section 13.25.

Section 13.31. COURT COSTS AND COUNSEL FEES

(a) The court in an appraisal proceeding commenced under section 13.30 shall determine all costs of the proceeding, including the reasonable compensation and expenses of appraisers appointed by the court. The court shall assess the costs against the corporation, except that the court may assess cost against all or some of the shareholders demanding appraisal, in amounts the court finds equitable, to the extent the court finds such shareholders acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith with respect to the rights provided by this chapter.

(b) The court in an appraisal proceeding may also assess the fees and expenses of counsel and experts for the respective parties, in amounts the court finds equitable:

(1) against the corporation and in favor of any or all shareholders demanding appraisal if the court finds the corporation did not substantially comply with the requirements of sections 13.20, 13.22, 13.24 or 13.25; or

(2) against either the corporation or a shareholder demanding appraisal, in favor of any other party, if the court finds that the party against whom the fees and expenses are assessed acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith with respect to the rights provided by this chapter.

(c) If the court in an appraisal proceeding finds that the services of counsel for any shareholder were of substantial benefit to other shareholders similarly situated, and that the fees for those services should not be assessed against the corporation, the court may award to such counsel reasonable fees to be paid out of the amounts awarded the shareholders who were benefited.

(d) To the extent the corporation fails to make a required payment pursuant to sections 13.24, 13.25, or 13.26, the shareholder may sue directly for the amount owed and, to the extent successful, shall be entitled to recover from the corporation all costs and expenses of the suit, including counsel fees.

Independent Auditors' Report

To the Audit Committee of Commerce Bancshares Corp. and subsidiary:

Report on the Consolidated Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of Commerce Bancshares Corp. and subsidiary, which comprise the consolidated balance sheets as of December 31, 2016 and December 31, 2015, and the related consolidated statements of income, comprehensive income, changes in stockholders' equity and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the consolidated financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Commerce Bancshares Corp. and subsidiary as of December 31, 2016 and 2015, and the results of their operations and their cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

NOTE A — SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Organization and Basis of Presentation

The consolidated financial statements of Commerce Bancshares Corp. (the Corporation) include the accounts of the Corporation and its wholly-owned subsidiary, Commerce Bank & Trust Company (the Bank) and the Bank's wholly-owned subsidiaries, Commerce Investment Corporation, Commerce Investment Corporation II, Metro Commerce Real Estate, Inc., 88 FEN, LLC, and 1-800-East-West Mortgage Company (the Mortgage Company). The Bank and its subsidiaries provide a variety of financial services to individuals and businesses through its offices in Worcester County and Eastern Massachusetts. The primary deposit products are checking, savings and term certificate accounts and the primary lending products are commercial and residential mortgages, and business and consumer loans. Commerce Investment Corporation and Commerce Investment Corporation II are engaged in the business of buying and selling securities. Metro Commerce Real Estate, Inc. holds real estate acquired for banking purposes. 88 FEN, LLC holds certain repossessed collateral. The Mortgage Company engaged primarily in the origination and sales of residential mortgage loans. In September 2013, the Mortgage Company ceased operations and has been reported as discontinued operations in these consolidated financial statements. The Mortgage Company was dissolved in November of 2015. All significant intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation. The accounting and reporting policies of the Corporation are in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America and conform to general practices within the banking industry.

Use of Estimates

In preparing consolidated financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, management is required to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities as of the date of the balance sheet and reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Material estimates that are particularly susceptible to significant change in the near term relate to the allowance for loan losses, valuation of deferred tax assets, and impairment of intangible assets. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include cash on hand, due from banks and interest bearing deposits in other banks.

Investment Securities

Debt securities that the Corporation has the positive intent and ability to hold to maturity are classified as held to maturity and reported at amortized cost; debt and equity securities that are bought and held principally for the purpose of selling in the near term are classified as trading and reported at fair value, with unrealized gains and losses included in earnings; and debt and equity securities not classified as either held to maturity or trading are classified as available for sale and reported at fair value, with unrealized gains and losses excluded from earnings and reported in accumulated other comprehensive income, net of taxes, as a separate component of stockholders' equity. The Corporation had no securities classified as either trading or held to maturity at December 31, 2016 and 2015. Premiums and discounts on investment securities are amortized or accreted into income using the effective interest method over the term of the securities. Gains and losses on the sale of investment securities are recognized at the time of the sale on a specific identification basis.

NOTE A — SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES — Continued

The Corporation evaluates its investment securities with a decline in fair value below the amortized cost of the investment to determine whether or not the impairment is deemed to be other-than-temporary (“OTTI”). For debt and equity securities, OTTI is required to be recognized if (1) the Corporation intends to sell the security; (2) it is “more likely than not” that the Corporation will be required to sell the security before recovery of its amortized cost basis; or (3) the present value of expected cash flows is not sufficient to recover the entire amortized cost basis. For all impaired debt securities that the Corporation intends to sell, or more likely than not will be required to sell, the full amount of the depreciation is recognized as OTTI through earnings. Credit-related OTTI for all other debt securities is recognized through earnings. Noncredit-related OTTI for such securities is recognized in other comprehensive income, net of applicable taxes.

Federal Home Loan Bank Stock

The Bank, as a member of the Federal Home Loan Bank of Boston (“FHLBB”), is required to maintain an investment in capital stock of the FHLBB. Based on redemption provisions of the FHLBB, the stock has no quoted market value and is carried at cost. At its discretion, the FHLBB may declare dividends on the stock. Management reviews its investment in FHLBB stock for other than temporary impairment based upon an assessment of the ultimate recoverability of the par value. Based upon the most recent review, management concluded that no other than temporary impairment charge was necessary as of December 31, 2016.

Loans

The Corporation grants real estate, commercial and consumer loans. A substantial portion of the loan portfolio includes mortgage loans in Worcester County and Eastern Massachusetts. The ability of the Corporation’s debtors to honor their contracts is dependent upon the real estate and general economic conditions in this area.

Loans originated to hold for the foreseeable future or until maturity or pay-off generally are reported at the unpaid principal balance net of unearned loan fees and the allowance for loan losses. Interest income is accrued on the unpaid principal balance. Loan origination fees, net of certain direct origination costs, are deferred and recognized as an adjustment of the related loan yield using the interest method.

The accrual of interest on loans is discontinued at the time the loan is 90 days past due or sooner unless the credit is well-secured and in process of collection. Personal loans are typically charged off no later than 180 days past due. In all cases, loans are placed on non-accrual or charged-off status at an earlier date if collection of principal or interest is considered doubtful.

All interest accrued but not collected for loans that are placed on non-accrual or charged off status is reversed against interest income. The interest on these loans is accounted for on a cash basis, until qualifying for return to accrual status. Loans are returned to accrual status when all principal and interest amounts contractually due are brought current and future payments are reasonably assured.

A loan is considered impaired when, based on current information and events, it is probable that the Corporation will be unable to collect the scheduled payments of principal or interest when due according to the contractual terms of the loan agreement. Factors considered by management in determining impairment include payment status, collateral value, and the probability of collecting scheduled principal and interest payments when due. Impaired loans are generally maintained on a non-accrual basis. Impairment is measured on a loan by loan basis for commercial loans by either the present value of expected future cash flows discounted at the loan’s effective interest rate or the fair value of the collateral if the loan is collateral dependent. Medallion loans are evaluated for impairment at 60 days past due. Past due status is based on the contractual terms of the loan.

Past due status is based on the contractual terms of the loan.

Large groups of smaller balance homogeneous loans are collectively evaluated for impairment. Accordingly, the Corporation does not separately identify individual consumer and residential loans for impairment disclosures, unless such loans are subject to a troubled debt restructuring agreement.

A loan is classified as a troubled debt restructuring if the Corporation, for economic or legal reasons related to the borrower's financial difficulties, grants a concession to the borrower that it would not otherwise consider. This usually includes a modification of loan terms, such as a reduction of the interest rate to below market terms, capitalizing past due interest or extending the maturity date, or a partial forgiveness of debt. Interest income on restructured loans is accrued after the borrower has demonstrated the ability to pay under the restructured terms through a sustained period of repayment performance, which is generally six months.

Allowance for Loan Losses

The allowance for loan losses is established as losses are estimated to have occurred through a provision for loan losses charged to earnings. Loan losses are charged against the allowance when management believes the uncollectibility of a loan balance is confirmed. Subsequent recoveries, if any, are credited to the allowance.

The methodology for determining the allowance consists of a formula allowance for the various loan portfolio classifications, a valuation allowance for loans identified as impaired, and an unallocated allowance. The formula allowance is based on historical loss experience, loan classification, and outstanding loan balances; the historical loss experience is adjusted for economic conditions, loan volumes and concentrations, credit quality trends, and other factors. The Corporation evaluates the levels and trends in delinquencies and nonaccrual loans as part of the qualitative factors with the allowance for loan loss framework. The qualitative factors are determined based on the various risk characteristics of each loan type. Relevant risk characteristics are as follows:

Commercial real estate: Loans in this segment include income-producing investment properties and owner-occupied real estate used for business purposes. The cash flows of the income-producing investment properties may be adversely impacted by a downturn in the economy as vacancy rates may increase, which in turn will have an effect on credit quality. Generally, management obtains annual financial statements for borrowers with loans in excess of $250. In the case of owner-occupied real estate used for business purposes, a weakened economy and resultant decreased consumer and/or business spending may have an adverse effect on credit quality. The overall health of the economy, including property values, may also have an adverse effect on the credit quality of loans in this segment.

Commercial and industrial loans, including aircraft loans: Loans in this segment are made to businesses. Generally, these loans are secured by the assets of the business and repayment is expected from the cash flows of the business. A weakened economy, and resultant decreased business spending may have an effect on the credit quality in loans of this type.

Medallion loans: Loans in this segment are made to finance the purchase of medallions, which are licenses to operate a taxicab. The medallions financed by the Bank are issued by the Cities of Boston and Cambridge, Massachusetts, both well-regulated markets. The medallions secure these loans and repayment is expected from the cash flow generated by the operation of the medallions. Competition from transportation network companies has had a negative impact on the credit quality of these loans and the value of medallions.

Residential real estate loans, including home equity loans: Loans in this segment are made to individuals and are secured by one-to-four-family residential real estate. Repayment is dependent on the credit quality of the individual borrower. The overall health of the economy, including unemployment rates and housing prices, may have an effect on the credit quality of loans in this segment. The Corporation generally does not originate loans with a loan-to-value ratio greater than 80 percent and does not grant sub-prime loans.

Consumer loans: Loans in this segment may be secured or unsecured and repayment of the loan is dependent on the credit worthiness of the individual borrower and, if applicable, sale of the collateral securing the loan. The overall health of the economy, including unemployment rates and housing prices, may have an effect on the credit quality of loans in this segment.

The formula allowance uses a risk-rating model that grades loans based on general characteristics of credit quality and relative risk. As credit quality deteriorates (watch list loans), the risk rating and allocation percentage increase.

The Corporation utilizes a loan risk rating system for commercial real estate, commercial & industrial, aircraft and medallion loans. The Corporation does not assign risk ratings to residential or home equity loans unless they are contractually past due 90 days or more or when circumstances warrant concerns due to increased risk. All other consumer loans are charged off no later than when they become contractually past due 180 days. Those loans not risk rated are assigned a rating of “Pass”.

Pass: Loans in this category are considered to have low to average risk. Unrated loans are also reported in this category.

Special Mention: Loans in this category portray one or more weaknesses. The loans are currently protected but are potentially weak and are being closely monitored by management.

Substandard: Loans in this category are inadequately protected by the current sound worth and paying capacity of the obligor or the collateral pledged. There exists a positive and well-defined weakness which jeopardizes full collection of the debt.

Doubtful: Loans in this category have all the weaknesses inherent in those classified as substandard with the added characteristic of weakness that based upon current information, conditions and values make the full collection highly improbable.

Loss: Loans in this category are considered uncollectible and do not warrant classification as an active asset.

On an annual basis, or more often if needed, the Corporation reviews the ratings on all commercial real estate, commercial and industrial, medallion and aircraft loans at various exposure levels. Also, the Corporation, annually at a minimum, engages an independent third party to review a significant portion of the loans in the commercial real estate and commercial and industrial segments. Management uses the results of these reviews as part of its annual review process.

The sum of the historical loss experience as adjusted for qualitative factors including loan risk characteristics and individual loan risk ratings comprise the Corporation’s formula allowance.

The Corporation also has a valuation allowance for impaired loans. Based on the individual evaluation of impaired loans, any difference between the net present value of the impaired loan (or fair value of the collateral if the loan is collateral-dependent), and the recorded investment of the loan, is reflected in the valuation allowance.

In addition to the formula and valuation components, there is an unallocated allowance component that takes into consideration the judgmental nature of the loan loss estimation process and various other factors as discussed below.

There are inherent uncertainties with respect to the final outcome of loans and nonperforming loans. Because of these inherent uncertainties, actual losses may differ from the amounts reflected in these consolidated financial statements. Factors considered in evaluating the adequacy of the allowance include previous loss experience, current economic conditions and their effect on borrowers, the performance of individual loans in relation to contract terms, and the estimated fair values of underlying collateral. Losses are charged against the allowance when management believes the collectability of principal is doubtful.

Key elements of the above estimates, including assumptions used in independent appraisals, are dependent upon the economic conditions prevailing at the time of the estimates. Accordingly, uncertainty exists as to the final outcome of certain of the valuation judgments as a result of economic conditions in the region. The inherent uncertainties in the assumptions relative to projected sales prices or rental rates may result in the ultimate realization of amounts on certain loans that are significantly different from the amounts reflected in these consolidated financial statements. In addition, various regulatory agencies, as an integral part of their examination process, periodically review the allowance for loan losses. Such agencies may require the Corporation to recognize additional provisions to the allowance for loan losses based on their judgments about information at the time of their examination.

Premises and Equipment

Premises and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation. Land is carried at cost. Depreciation is determined for financial reporting purposes on the straight-line method over the estimated useful life of each type of asset. Leasehold improvements are amortized on the straight-line method over the shorter of the lease term, including consideration of renewal options, or the estimated useful life of the asset. The cost of maintenance and repairs is charged against income as incurred.

Asset retirement obligations are recognized at fair value when incurred. The Corporation recognizes a liability when the obligation is incurred — generally upon acquisition, construction, or development and (or) through the normal operation of the asset. In periods subsequent to initial measurement, the Corporation recognizes changes in the liability for an asset retirement obligation resulting from (a) the passage of time and (b) revisions to either the timing or the amount of the original estimate of undiscounted cash flows.

Other Real Estate Owned and Repossessed Collateral

Other real estate owned is comprised of real estate acquired through foreclosure proceedings or acceptance of a deed in lieu of foreclosure. Repossessed collateral is primarily comprised of aircraft, motor vehicles, and taxi medallions. Both other real estate owned and repossessed collateral are held for sale and are recorded at fair value (based on an appraisal of the underlying collateral), less estimated costs to sell, at the time of acquisition. The excess, if any, of the loan balance over the fair value of the property or collateral at the time of transfer from loans to other real estate owned or repossessed collateral is charged to the allowance for loan losses. Subsequent impairments in the fair value of other real estate owned and repossessed collateral are charged to expense in the period incurred. Net operating income or expense related to other real estate owned and repossessed collateral is included in operating expenses in the accompanying consolidated statements of income. Because of changing market conditions, there are inherent uncertainties in the assumptions with respect to the estimated fair value of other real estate owned and repossessed collateral. Because of these inherent uncertainties, the amount ultimately realized on other real estate owned and repossessed collateral may differ from the amounts reflected in the consolidated financial statements.

Transfers of Financial Assets

Transfers of financial assets are accounted for as sales when control over the assets has been surrendered. Control over transferred assets is deemed to be surrendered when (1) the assets have been isolated from the Corporation (put presumptively beyond the reach of the transferor and its creditors, even in bankruptcy or other receivership), (2) the transferee obtains the right (free of conditions that constrain it from taking advantage of that right) to pledge or exchange the transferred assets, and (3) the Corporation does not maintain effective control over the transferred assets through an agreement to repurchase them before their maturity, or have an ability to unilaterally cause the holder to return specific assets.

During the normal course of business, the Corporation may transfer a portion of a financial asset, for example, a participation loan. In order to be eligible for sales treatment, the transfer of the portion of the loan must meet the criteria of a participating interest. If it does not meet the criteria of a participating interest, the transfer must be accounted for as a secured borrowing. In order to meet the criteria of a participating interest, all cash flows from the loan must be divided proportionately, the rights of each loan holder must have the same priority, the loan holders must have no recourse to the transferor other than standard representations and warranties and no loan holder has the right to pledge or exchange the entire loan. At December 31, 2016 and 2015, there were no transfers of financial assets that were accounted for as secured borrowings.

Goodwill

Goodwill represents the excess of consideration transferred in business combinations over the fair value of net tangible and identifiable intangible assets acquired. Goodwill is not amortized, but is tested for impairment annually on July 1 or more frequently if events or circumstances indicate that impairment may have occurred. Examples of such events or circumstances include adverse changes in legal factors, business climate, unanticipated competition, change in regulatory environment or loss of key personnel. The evaluation of goodwill, at the reporting unit level, (the Corporation is considered one reporting unit), is based on a variety of factors, including common stock trading multiples, discounted cash flows and data from comparable acquisitions. Potential impairment of goodwill exists when the carrying amount of a reporting unit (the consolidated Corporation, in our case) exceeds its fair value.

To the extent a reporting unit's carrying amount exceeds its fair value, an indication exists that the reporting unit's goodwill may be impaired, and a second step of impairment testing will be performed. In the second step, the implied fair value of the reporting unit's goodwill is determined by allocating the reporting unit's fair value to all of its assets (recognized and unrecognized) and liabilities as if the reporting unit had been acquired in a business combination at the date of the impairment test. If the implied fair value of the reporting unit's goodwill is lower than its carrying amount, goodwill is impaired and is written down to the implied fair value. The loss recognized is limited to the carrying amount of goodwill. Once an impairment loss is recognized, future increases in fair value will not result in the reversal of previously recognized losses. For the year ended December 31, 2016, management determined that it was not more likely than not that the fair value of the reporting unit (the consolidated corporation) was less than its carrying amount.

Income Taxes

The Corporation recognizes income taxes under the asset and liability method. Under this method, deferred tax assets and liabilities are established for the tax consequences attributable to the temporary differences between the financial statement carrying amounts and the tax bases of the Corporation's assets and liabilities and certain tax carryforwards at enacted tax rates.

The provision for deferred taxes is the result of changes in deferred tax assets and liabilities. A valuation allowance is established against deferred tax assets when, based upon available evidence including historical and projected taxable income, it is more likely than not that some or all of the deferred tax assets will not be realizable. The valuation allowance is reviewed and adjustments are made to the valuation allowance based upon management's judgment relating to the realizability of the deferred tax asset. Accordingly, management believes it is more likely than not that the deferred tax assets will be realized and no valuation allowance is necessary at December 31, 2016 and 2015.

The Corporation recognizes the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by the taxing authorities, based on the technical merits of the position. The tax benefits recognized in the financial statements from such a position are measured based on the largest benefit that has a greater than fifty percent likelihood of being realized upon ultimate resolution. As a result of the Corporation's assessment of its tax positions, the Corporation does not have any uncertain tax positions at December 31, 2016 and 2015. Federal and various state tax returns are subject to audit by the Federal and state taxing authorities for the tax years December 31, 2013 through December 31, 2016.

It is the Corporation's policy to recognize interest and penalties related to tax matters as an expense when paid. For the years ended December 31, 2016 and 2015, the Corporation recorded interest and penalties totaling $72 and $0, respectively, in the consolidated financial statements.

Advertising

Advertising costs, including related production costs, are expensed as incurred.

Off-Balance Sheet Financial Instruments

In the ordinary course of business, the Corporation enters into off-balance sheet financial instruments, consisting primarily of credit-related financial instruments. These financial instruments are recorded in the consolidated financial statements when they are funded or related fees are incurred or received.

The Corporation maintains an allowance for losses on unadvanced construction lending commitments, standby letters of credit and bankers' acceptances when it is probable that the commitments will be exercised and funded. In estimating the allowance, management applies a formula allowance based upon the underlying risk characteristics of the commitment. The allowance for these loan commitments is included in other liabilities in the consolidated balance sheet. Additions to the allowance are charged to operating expenses.

Derivative Financial Instruments

As part of its commercial lending activities, the Corporation has entered into interest rate swap agreements with certain of its commercial customers. These agreements allow the Corporation to retain variable rate commercial loans while allowing the customer to synthetically fix the loan rate. In order to minimize risk to the Corporation, these derivatives have been offset with essentially matching interest rate swap agreements with other correspondent banks. These agreements are considered derivative financial instruments and are recognized as assets and liabilities in the accompanying balance sheets and measured at fair value, with changes in fair value recorded in other income.

Bank-Owned Life Insurance

Bank-owned life insurance policies are recorded in the consolidated balance sheets at cash surrender value. Changes in the net cash surrender value of the policies, as well as insurance proceeds received, are recorded in non-interest income and are not subject to income taxes.

Comprehensive Income

Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States require that recognized revenue, expenses, gains and losses be included in net income. Although certain changes in assets and liabilities, such as unrealized gains and losses on available-for-sale securities, are reported in a separate component of the equity section of the accompanying consolidated balance sheets, such items, along with net income, are components of comprehensive income.

Fair Value Measurements

The Corporation groups its assets and liabilities measured at fair value in three levels, based on the markets in which the assets and liabilities are traded and the reliability of the assumptions used to determine fair value, as follows:

Level 1 — Quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.

Level 2 — Valuation for assets and liabilities in less active dealer or broker markets or models using inputs that are observable or can be corroborated by observable market data for substantially the full term of the assets or liabilities. Valuations are obtained from third party pricing services for identical or comparable assets or liabilities.

Level 3 — Valuations for assets and liabilities that are derived from other valuation methodologies, including option pricing models, discounted cash flow models and similar techniques, and not based on market exchange, dealer, or broker-traded transactions. Level 3 valuations incorporate certain assumptions and projections in determining the fair value assigned to such assets and liabilities.

The Corporation has no non-financial assets or non-financial liabilities that are recognized at fair value on a recurring basis. Transfers between levels are recognized at the end of a reporting period, if applicable.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

Financial Accounting Standards Board (“FASB”) Accounting Standards Update (“ASU”) 2014-09, “Revenue from Contracts with Customers”

ASU 2014-09 affects any entity using U.S. GAAP that either enters into contracts with customers to transfer goods or services or enters into contracts for the transfer of nonfinancial assets unless those contracts are within the scope of other standards. This ASU will supersede the revenue recognition requirements in Topic 605, Revenue Recognition, and most industry-specific guidance. In addition, the existing requirements for the recognition of a gain or loss on the transfer of nonfinancial assets that are not in a contract with a customer are amended to be consistent with the guidance on recognition and measurement (including the constraint on revenue) in the ASU. For non-public entities, the amendments in this ASU are effective for annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2018, and interim periods within annual periods beginning after December 15, 2019. For commercial banks, the new guidance will primarily affect the accounting for non-interest income and sales of foreclosed assets. The Corporation does not expect adoption of ASU 2014-09 to materially impact the Corporation’s consolidated financial statements.

FASB ASU 2016-01, “Recognition and Measurement of Financial Assets and Financial Liabilities”

This ASU amends certain measurement, presentation, and disclosure requirements for financial instruments. Targeted improvements to generally accepted accounting principles include the requirement for equity investments (except those accounted for under the equity method of accounting or those that result in consolidation of the investee) to be measured at fair value with changes in fair value recognized in net income and the elimination of the requirement to disclose the fair value of financial instruments measured at amortized cost, which provision was early adopted at December 31, 2015 as permitted by the ASU. For non-public entities such as the Corporation, this standard is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2018, and for interim periods within fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2019, with early adoption permitted beginning in fiscal years after December 15, 2017, including interim periods within those fiscal years. Management is currently evaluating the impact of adopting the remaining provisions of this ASU.

FASB ASU 2016-02, “Leases”

The core principle of this ASU is that, for leases with a term in excess of twelve months, a lessee should recognize on the balance sheet a right-of-use asset and a liability to make lease payments. The recognition, measurement and presentation by a lessee of expenses and cash flows arising from a lease have not significantly changed from previous GAAP. Qualitative and quantitative disclosures will be required to enable users of financial statements to assess the amount, timing, and uncertainty of cash flows arising from leases. The ASU will be effective for non-public business entities for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2019, and interim periods within fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2020. Management is currently evaluating the impact to the consolidated financial statements of adopting this ASU.

FASB ASU 2016-13, “Financial Instruments — Credit Losses”

This ASU requires the measurement of all expected credit losses for financial assets held at the reporting date be based upon historical experience, current conditions, and reasonable and supportable forecasts. This ASU is effective for the Corporation for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2020, and for interim periods within fiscal years beginning after December 21, 2021. Early application will be permitted for all organizations for fiscal years, and interim periods within those fiscal years, beginning after December 15, 2018. The Corporation is currently evaluating the impact this ASU will have on its consolidated financial statements.

FASB ASU 2016-15, “Statement of Cash Flows — Clarification of Certain Cash Receipts and Cash Payments”

The amendments in this ASU provide cash flow statement classification guidance for certain areas where diversification existed in practice. This ASU is effective for the Company for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2018, and interim periods within fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2019. Early application is permitted, including adoption in an interim period.

FASB ASU 2017-04, “Intangibles — Goodwill and Other”

The amendments in this ASU simplify the goodwill impairment model by eliminating step 2. The impairment test will compare the fair value of a reporting unit with its carrying amount, including goodwill. If the carrying amount exceeds the reporting unit’s fair value, an impairment charge would be recognized for the difference. However, that amount should not exceed the carrying amount of goodwill allocated to that reporting unit. If goodwill is tax deductible, a company must gross up the impairment charge for the effect of the deferred tax benefit on the carrying amount of the reporting unit. The amendments should be applied on a prospective basis. For non-public business entities, the amendments are effective for annual or any interim goodwill impairment tests in fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2021. Early adoption is permitted for interim or annual goodwill impairment tests performed on testing dates after January 1, 2017. Management does not currently expect this ASU to have a significant impact on the consolidated financial statements.

Reclassification

Certain amounts in the 2015 consolidated financial statements have been reclassified to conform to the 2016 presentation.

December 31, 2016, 10 debt securities have unrealized losses with aggregate depreciation of less than 1% and one mutual fund has unrealized losses with aggregate depreciation of 5% from the Corporation's amortized cost basis. In its evaluation, management considers the types of securities, including if the securities were U.S. Government issued, the credit ratings on the securities, credit outlook, payment status and financial condition, the length of time the security has been in a loss position, the size of the loss position, and other meaningful information. Management believes the current unrealized loss position is related to the current economic environment. The Corporation does not have the intention to sell these securities and does not believe it will be required to sell these securities until the earlier of maturity or a market price recovery.

As these borrowings mature daily and due to the types of securities pledged to secure these borrowings, there is minimal risk of a significant decline in collateral. The weighted average interest rate on these repurchase agreements was .25% at December 31, 2016 and 2015. Interest expense on securities sold under agreements to repurchase amounted to $48 for each of the years ended December 31, 2016 and 2015, respectively.

The Bank's unused borrowing capacity with the FHLBB was approximately $91,387 and $71,442 at December 31, 2016 and 2015, respectively. Interest expense for the FHLBB advances amounted to $10 and $24 for the years ended December 31, 2016 and 2015, respectively.

NOTE J — OTHER SHORT-TERM BORROWINGS

Other short-term borrowings consist of borrowings from the Federal Reserve Bank ("FRB") and unsecured lines of credit.

At December 31, 2016 and 2015, the Bank had pledged certain of its aircraft and commercial real estate loans to secure borrowings from the FRB. The Bank's maximum borrowing capacity with the FRB was approximately $97,661 and $92,100 at December 31, 2016 and 2015, respectively. NOTE N —OFF-BALANCE-SHEET FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS, COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES*Credit-Related Financial Instruments

The Corporation is a party to financial instruments with off-balance-sheet risk in the normal course of business to meet the financing needs of customers. These financial instruments include commitments to extend credit, standby letters of credit and bankers' acceptances. Such commitments involve, to varying degrees, elements of credit and interest rate risk in excess of the amount recognized in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets.

The Corporation's exposure to credit loss is represented by the contractual amount of these commitments. The Corporation uses the same credit policies in making commitments as it does for on-balance-sheet instruments. At December 31, 2016 and 2015, the following financial instruments were outstanding whose contractual amounts represent credit risk:

Commitments to grant loans	$ 48,984	$ 39,264
Unadvanced lines of credit	273,814	209,782
Standby letters of credit and bankers' acceptances	5,593	4,717

Commitments to extend credit are agreements to lend to a customer as long as there is no violation of any condition established in the contract. Commitments generally have fixed expiration dates or other termination clauses and may require payment of a fee. The commitments for unadvanced funds on lines of credit may expire without being drawn upon. Therefore, the total commitment amounts do not necessarily represent future cash requirements. The Corporation evaluates each customer's creditworthiness on a case-by-case basis.

Commitments to grant loans are primarily collateralized by real estate. Lines of credit are generally secured by business assets, including real estate, except for overdraft protection agreements which are generally unsecured.

NOTE N —OFF-BALANCE-SHEET FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS, COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES — Concluded

Standby letters of credit and bankers' acceptances are conditional commitments issued by the Corporation to guarantee the performance of a customer to a third party and are primarily issued to support borrowing arrangements. Essentially all letters of credit and bankers' acceptances outstanding as of December 31, 2016 have expiration dates within one year. The credit risk involved in issuing letters of credit and bankers' acceptances is essentially the same as that involved in extending loans to customers.

Commitments — Operating Leases

Pursuant to the terms of noncancelable lease agreements (as both lessor and lessee) in effect at December 31, 2016, future minimum rental expense and lease income are as follows:

Years ending December 31,	Rental Expense	Lease Income

2018	615	232
2019	402	78
2020	315	—
2021	199	—
Thereafter	248	—
	$ 2,445	$ 582

Certain leases contain renewal provisions which could extend terms between five and ten years. Total rent expense for the years ended December 31, 2016 and 2015 amounted to $1,006 and $978, respectively. Total rental income amounted to $891 and $907 for the years ended December 31, 2016 and 2015, respectively.

Contingencies

The Corporation has various legal claims (normal course of business) the final outcome of which, in the opinion of management, will have no material effect on the Corporation's consolidated financial statements.

NOTE O — EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENTS AND BENEFIT PLANSEmployment Agreements

The Corporation has entered into employment agreements with certain executive officers. These agreements provide for certain compensation and benefits to be paid throughout the terms of the agreements and lump sum payments at the conclusion of the terms of the agreements or in the event of a change in control.

401(k) Plan

The Corporation maintains a defined contribution 401(k) plan (the "Plan") for eligible employees. Each employee becomes eligible to participate in the Plan during the next quarterly enrollment period after completion of 30 days of employment. Participating employees may contribute up to 100% of their salary to the Plan up to the maximum amount allowable under federal regulations. The Corporation, at its discretion, contributes a matching contribution equal to a percentage of the employee's elective deferrals. For each of the years ended December 31, 2016 and 2015, the expense attributable to the Plan amounted to $342.

Phantom Stock

In 2003, the Bank granted 1,500 shares of phantom stock of the Bank to a director as compensation for work performed on the acquisition of the Mortgage Company. The phantom stock is adjusted to the Bank's net book value

Compensation cost is recognized over the requisite service period of the participants using the intrinsic value method. Vesting periods range from immediate to four years from the date of the grant. As of December 31, 2016 and 2015, the phantom stock compensation payable amounted to $6,176 and $5,271, respectively. NOTE P — STOCKHOLDERS' EQUITYMinimum Regulatory Capital Requirements

The Corporation (on a consolidated basis) and the Bank are subject to various regulatory capital requirements administered by the federal banking agencies. Failure to meet minimum capital requirements can initiate certain mandatory and possibly additional discretionary actions by regulators that, if undertaken, could have a direct material effect on the Corporation's and the Bank's financial statements. Under capital adequacy guidelines and the regulatory framework for prompt corrective action, the Corporation and the Bank must meet specific capital guidelines that involve quantitative measures of their assets, liabilities and certain off-balance-sheet items as calculated under regulatory accounting practices. The capital amounts and classification are also subject to qualitative judgments by the regulators about components, risk weightings, and other factors. Prompt corrective action provisions are not applicable to bank holding companies.

Federal banking regulations require minimum capital ratios as set forth in the following table. Additionally, community banking institutions must maintain a capital conservation buffer of common equity Tier 1 capital, Tier 1 capital or total capital in an amount greater than 2.5% of total risk-weighted assets to avoid being subject to limitations on capital distributions and discretionary bonuses. The capital conservation buffer is being phased in over three years, beginning on January 1, 2016, with an initial phase-in amount of .625%. Also, certain new deductions from and adjustments to regulatory capital and risk-weighted assets are being phased in over several years. Management believes that the Bank's capital levels will remain characterized as "well-capitalized" throughout the phase-in periods.

As of December 31, 2016, the most recent notification from the FDIC categorized the Bank as well-capitalized under the regulatory framework for prompt corrective action. To be categorized as well-capitalized, an institution must maintain minimum total risk-based, common equity Tier 1 risk-based, Tier 1 risk-based and Tier 1 leverage ratios as set forth in the following tables. There are no conditions or events since the notification that management believes have changed the Bank's category. Management believes, as of December 31, 2016 and 2015, that the Corporation and the Bank meet all capital adequacy requirements to which they are subject. At December 31, 2016, the Bank exceeded the required capital conservation buffer of .625% of total risk-weighted assets.

The Corporation's and the Bank's actual capital amounts and ratios as of December 31, 2016 and 2015 are presented in the tables below:

NOTE Q — RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The Corporation has entered into lease agreements with directors of the Corporation on substantially the same terms as those prevailing at the time for comparable transactions with unrelated parties. Rent expense under related party leases totaled $93 and $96 for the years ended December 31, 2016 and 2015, respectively.

NOTE R — FAIR VALUEFinancial Instruments

The Corporation uses fair value measurements to record fair value adjustments to certain assets and liabilities. The fair value of a financial instrument is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. Fair value is best determined based upon quoted market prices; however, in many instances, there are no quoted market prices for the Corporation's various financial instruments. In cases where quoted market prices are not available, fair values are based on estimates using present value or other valuation techniques. Those techniques are significantly affected by the assumptions used, including the discount rate and estimates of future cash flows.

The following methods and assumptions were used by the Corporation in estimating fair value disclosures for financial instruments:

Investment securities: The securities measured at fair value in Level 1 are based on quoted prices in active markets. These securities include U.S. Government and federal agency securities and mutual funds. Securities measured at fair value in Level 2 are based on valuations obtained from third party pricing services for identical or comparable assets and liabilities. These securities include government-sponsored and government guaranteed mortgage-backed securities, corporate, municipal, private label mortgage-backed securities and other securities. There are no securities measured at fair value in Level 3.

Derivative financial instruments: The fair values of interest rate swap agreements are determined using discounted cash flow analysis on the expected cash flows of the underlying agreements. This analysis reflects the contractual terms of the agreements, including the period to maturity, and uses observable market-based inputs, including interest rate curves and implied volatilities. In addition, the analysis reflects a credit valuation adjustment to reflect its own nonperformance risk and the respective counterparty's nonperformance risk in the fair value measurements, if deemed necessary. The majority of inputs used to value interest rate swaps fall within Level 2 of the fair value hierarchy, but the credit valuation adjustments associated with the agreements utilize Level 3 inputs, such as estimates of current credit spreads to evaluate the likelihood of default by the Corporation and its counterparties. As a result, the interest rate swap agreements are categorized as Level 3 within the fair value hierarchy.

Other Assets

The Corporation may be required, from time to time, to measure certain other assets on a nonrecurring basis in accordance with GAAP. These adjustments to fair value usually result from the application of lower-of-cost or fair value accounting or write downs of individual assets. The following table summarizes the fair value hierarchy used to determine the adjustment and the carrying value of the related assets:

	December 31, 2016
	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Gain (Loss)
Assets:
Impaired loans	$ —	$ —	$ 11,197	$ (522)
Other real estate owned and repossessed collateral	—	—	995	(179)
	$ —	$ —	$ 12,192	$ (701)
	December 31, 2015
	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Gain (Loss)
Assets:
Impaired loans	$ —	$ —	$ 11,902	$ (1,982)
Other real estate owned and repossessed collateral	—	—	1,152	(142)
Other assets	—	—	37	(16)
	$ —	$ —	$ 13,091	$ (2,140)

Impaired loans are evaluated and valued at the time the loan is identified as impaired, at the lower of cost or market value. Individually impaired loans are measured based on the fair value of the collateral for collateral dependent loans.

The value of the collateral is determined based on an appraisal or other observable market data. The fair value of medallions is determined based on internal discounted cash flow analysis. Impaired loans are reviewed and evaluated periodically for additional impairment and adjusted accordingly.

Other real estate owned and repossessed collateral represent the carrying value for which adjustments are based on the estimated fair value of the property, less estimated costs to sell.

INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED IN PROSPECTUS

Item 20. Indemnification of Directors and Officers

Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Inc. is a Delaware corporation subject to the applicable indemnification provisions of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware (the “Delaware Corporation Law”). Section 145 of the Delaware Corporation Law provides for the indemnification, under certain circumstances, of persons who are or were directors, officers, employees or agents of Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Inc., or are or were serving at the request of Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Inc. in such a capacity with another business organization or entity, against expenses, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement in actions, suits or proceedings, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative, brought or threatened against or involving such persons because of such person’s service in any such capacity. In the case of actions brought by or in the right of Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Inc., Section 145 provides for indemnification only of expenses, and only upon a determination by the Court of Chancery or the court in which such action or suit was brought that, in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses.

The Tenth and Eleventh articles of Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Inc.’s certificate of incorporation provide as follows:
TENTH:

A. Each person who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (hereinafter a “proceeding”), by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a Director or an Officer of the Corporation or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a Director, Officer, employee or agent of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to an employee benefit plan (hereinafter an “indemnitee”), whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a Director, Officer, employee or agent or in any other capacity while serving as a Director, Officer, employee or agent, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the Delaware General Corporation Law, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the Corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than such law permitted the Corporation to provide prior to such amendment), against all expense, liability and loss (including attorneys’ fees, judgments, fines, ERISA excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid in settlement) reasonably incurred or suffered by such indemnitee in connection therewith; provided, however, that, except as provided in Section C hereof with respect to proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification, the Corporation shall indemnify any such indemnitee in connection with a proceeding (or part thereof) initiated by such indemnitee only if such proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized by the Board of Directors of the Corporation.

B. The right to indemnification conferred in Section A of this Article TENTH shall include the right to be paid by the Corporation the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an “advancement of expenses”); provided, however, that, if the Delaware General Corporation Law requires, an advancement of expenses incurred by an indemnitee in his or her capacity as a Director or Officer (and not in any other capacity in which service was or is rendered by such indemnitee, including, without limitation, services to an employee benefit plan) shall be made only upon delivery to the Corporation of an undertaking (hereinafter an “undertaking”), by or on behalf of such indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal (hereinafter a “final adjudication”) that such indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this Section or otherwise. The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in Sections A and B of this Article TENTH shall be contract rights and such rights shall continue as to an indemnitee who has ceased to be a Director, Officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the indemnitee’s heirs, executors and administrators.

C. If a claim under Section A or B of this Article TENTH is not paid in full by the Corporation within sixty days after a written claim has been received by the Corporation, except in the case of a claim for an advancement of expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be twenty days, the indemnitee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the Corporation to recover the unpaid amount of the claim. If successful in whole or in part in any such suit, or in a suit brought by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the indemnitee shall be entitled to be paid also the expenses of prosecuting or defending such suit. In (i) any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not in a suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to an advancement of expenses) it shall be a defense that, and (ii) in any suit by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking the Corporation shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication that, the indemnitee has not met any applicable standard for indemnification set forth in the Delaware General Corporation Law. Neither the failure of the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the indemnitee is proper in the circumstances because the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Delaware General Corporation Law, nor an actual determination by the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) that the indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct, shall create a presumption that the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct or, in the case of such a suit brought by the indemnitee, be a defense to such suit. In any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder, or by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, under this Article TENTH or otherwise shall be on the Corporation.

D. The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this Article TENTH shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, the Corporation's Certificate of Incorporation, Bylaws, agreement, vote of shareholders or Disinterested Directors or otherwise.

E. The Corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any Director, Officer, employee or agent of the Corporation or subsidiary or Affiliate or another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the Delaware General Corporation Law.

F. The Corporation may, to the extent authorized from time to time by the Board of Directors, grant rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses to any employee or agent of the Corporation to the fullest extent of the provisions of this Article TENTH with respect to the indemnification and advancement of expenses of Directors and Officers of the Corporation.

ELEVENTH: A Director of this Corporation shall not be personally liable to the Corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a Director, except for liability: (i) for any breach of the Director's duty of loyalty to the Corporation or its shareholders; (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law; (iii) under Section 174 of the Delaware General Corporation Law; or (iv) for any transaction from which the Director derived an improper personal benefit. If the Delaware General Corporation Law is amended to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the personal liability of Directors, then the liability of a Director of the Corporation shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the Delaware General Corporation Law, as so amended.

Any repeal or modification of the foregoing paragraph by the shareholders of the Corporation shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a Director of the Corporation existing at the time of such repeal or modification. The foregoing indemnity and insurance provisions have the effect of reducing directors' and officers' exposure to personal liability for actions taken in connection with their respective positions.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of Berkshire pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, Berkshire has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by Berkshire of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of Berkshire in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, Berkshire will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Item 22. Undertakings.

(1)

To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement: (i) to include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933; (ii) to reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement (notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in the volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the SEC pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective registration statement); and (iii) to include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement.

(2)

That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3)

To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(4)

That, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in this registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(5)

That prior to any public reoffering of the securities registered hereunder through use of a prospectus which is a part of this registration statement, by any person or party who is deemed to be an underwriter within the meaning of Rule 145(c), the registrant undertakes that such reoffering prospectus will contain the information called for by the applicable registration form with respect to reofferings by persons who may be deemed underwriters, in addition to the information called for by the other items of the applicable form.

That every prospectus (i) that is filed pursuant to paragraph (5) above, or (ii) that purports to meet the requirements of Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act and is used in connection with an offering of securities subject to Rule 415, will be filed as a part of an amendment to the registration statement and will not be used until such amendment has become effective, and that for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(7)

To respond to requests for information that is incorporated by reference into the prospectus pursuant to Items 4, 10(b), 11 or 13 of this Form, within one business day of receipt of such request, and to send the incorporated documents by first class mail or other equally prompt means. This includes information contained in documents filed subsequent to the effective date of the registration statement through the date of responding to the request.

To supply by means of a post-effective amendment all information concerning a transaction, and the company being acquired involved therein, that was not the subject of, and included in, this registration statement when it became effective.

(9)

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers, and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission, such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer, or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit, or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer, or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
