GERBER SCIENTIFIC, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES
NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(Unaudited)

NOTE 1. Basis of Presentation

Edgar Filing: GERBER SCIENTIFIC INC - Form 10-Q

The accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles for interim financial statements and with the instructions to Form 10-Q and Article 10 of Regulation S-X. Accordingly, they do not include all of the information and footnotes required by generally accepted accounting principles for complete financial statements. In the opinion of management, all adjustments (consisting of normal recurring accruals) considered necessary for a fair presentation have been included. Operating results for the three- and six-month periods ended October 31, 2002 are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected for the year ended April 30, 2003. The financial information included herein should be read in conjunction with the financial statements and notes in the Company's Annual Report incorporated by reference in Form 10-K for fiscal year 2002.

The balance sheet at April 30, 2002 has been derived from the audited financial statements at that date but does not include all the information and footnotes required by generally accepted accounting principles for complete financial statements.

NOTE 2. Restatement and Reclassifications

Financial statements for the three and six months ended October 31, 2001 have been restated. The restatements principally reflect results of an internal review conducted under the direction of the Audit and Finance Committee of the Company's Board of Directors. Certain items also have been reclassified.

Adjustments and reclassifications to the consolidated statement of operations for the three months ended October 31, 2001 are summarized below.

Finished goods	24,111	25,057
	$61,248	$59,351

NOTE 4. Restructuring Charges

In fiscal 2002, the Company recorded restructuring charges, consisting of employee separation costs, associated with ongoing efforts to reduce costs. For further information, refer to the consolidated financial statements and footnotes thereto included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended April 30, 2002 filed on August 27, 2002.

As of April 30, 2002, accruals of approximately $2.2 million for severance costs remained, the majority of which represented severance and other amounts payable to the former Chief Executive Officer. In the six months ended October 31, 2002, approximately $0.8 million in cash payments were charged against this accrual, reducing the balance to $1.4 million at October 31, 2002. As of October 31, 2002, 162 of 165 scheduled headcount reductions were implemented with the balance targeted for completion by January 31, 2003.

NOTE 5. Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets

In July 2001, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 142 "Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets," which established financial accounting and reporting standards for acquired goodwill and other intangible assets and superseded APB Opinion No. 17, "Intangible Assets." The Company adopted SFAS No. 142 on May 1, 2001, ceased amortization of goodwill (its only intangible asset with an indefinite useful life), and performed a transitional goodwill impairment evaluation. The Company identified assets and liabilities associated with its business units (including goodwill) as of May 1, 2001. The fair value of each unit was estimated using a combination of present value and earnings multiple valuation techniques. As a result of this review, it was determined that goodwill associated with the Ophthalmic Lens Processing and Sign Making and Specialty Graphics segments was impaired as of May 1, 2001. The amount of impairment was estimated by comparing the implied fair value of the business unit's goodwill to its carrying value. Implied fair value of goodwill was determined by allocating the estimated fair value of each business unit's assets and liabilities in a manner similar to a purchase price allocation. Effective May 1, 2001, an impairment loss of $114.7 million was recognized as the cumulative effect of a change in accounting principle.

Circumstances leading to the goodwill impairment in the Ophthalmic Lens Processing segment of $21.7 million included softness in end sales of prescription optical lenses, consolidation in retail and wholesale segments of the ophthalmic industry, and global economic weakness for that segment's capital equipment products. These negative industry and economic trends had lowered the business' operating profits and cash flows over the last two fiscal years and current earnings expectations do not reflect improvement. Fair value used to measure impairment was based on a strategic review conducted by the Company in the fourth quarter of 2001.

Goodwill impairment for the European business units of the Sign Making and Specialty Graphics segment reflected increased competition in aftermarket supplies and weaker demand for sign making capital equipment consistent with worsening global economic trends. Lower than expected operating profits and cash flows resulted and are evidence that growth expectations assumed when these businesses were acquired have not materialized. Fair value used to determine the impairment loss in the Sign Making and Specialty Graphics segment, which amounted to $93.0 million, was based on a combination of earnings multiples and discounted cash flow valuation techniques.

Other intangible assets include:

Intangible amortization expense was $0.3 million and $0.6 million for the three and six months ended October 31, 2002 and was $0.3 million and $0.6 million for the three and six months ended October 31, 2001, respectively. Intangible amortization expense is estimated to be approximately $0.9 million in fiscal 2003 and approximately $0.5 million annually for fiscal years 2004-2007.

The following table displays the changes in the carrying amount of goodwill by operating segment for the six-months ended October 31, 2002 (in thousands):

NOTE 6. Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities

The Company is exposed to fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates and interest rates. To manage these risks, the Company uses derivative instruments, which include forward exchange contracts and an interest rate swap. Derivative instruments used in hedging activities are viewed as risk management tools, involve little complexity, and are not used for trading or speculative purposes. Counterparties to forward exchange contracts are major international commercial banks. The Company continually monitors its open forward exchange contract position and does not anticipate non-performance by the counterparties.

Foreign Currency Risk

The Company's global presence and international sales and purchases expose it to fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates. Foreign currency exposures are identified and managed at the operating unit level. The Company has foreign currency forward contracts that are designated as hedges of the cash flow variability arising from forecasted foreign-currency denominated sales and purchases. Gains and losses on those derivatives are recorded in shareholders' equity to the extent they are effective as hedges and reclassified into earnings in the period in which the hedged transaction impacts earnings.

As of October 31, 2002, the Company was party to approximately $19.8 million in forward exchange contracts providing for the delivery of the various currencies in exchange for others over the succeeding 9 months. The fair value of the contracts outstanding at October 31, 2002 was a $2.1 million net liability.

Interest Rate Risk

In April 1999, the Company entered into a four-year interest rate swap contract with an initial notional amount of $62.0 million that decreases ratably to $32.0 million over the term. The Company designated this swap as a hedge of its exposure to variability in future cash flows attributable to LIBOR based interest payments on the U.S. dollar denominated portion of its multi-currency revolving credit facility. The interest differential paid or received under this contract is recognized as interest expense, reflecting that portion at a fixed rate. The fair value of this swap was a $0.6 million net liability as of October 31, 2002.

Year to Date Activity

At October 31, 2002, the fair value of derivatives held by the Company was a $2.7 million net liability. The non-shareholders' changes in equity associated with hedging activity for the six months ended October 31, 2002 and 2001 were as follows:

	Six Months Ended October 31,

Of the amount recorded in shareholders' equity at October 31, 2002, a $1.7 million loss is expected to be reclassified into earnings in fiscal 2003.

Hedges of the Net Investment in a Foreign Operation

The net amount of losses on foreign currency denominated balances designated and effective as economic hedges of a net investment in a foreign entity were $0.9 million and $0.2 million for the six months ended October 31, 2002 and 2001, respectively. These losses were recorded in the cumulative translation adjustment, which is included in accumulated other comprehensive income (loss).

NOTE 7. Segment Information

The Company's operations are classified into three operating segments: Sign Making and Specialty Graphics, Apparel and Flexible Materials, and Ophthalmic Lens Processing. Those segments are determined based on management's evaluation of the Company's businesses. Financial data for the three- and six-month periods ended October 31, 2002 and 2001 are shown in the following tables.

Segment profit for the six months ended October 31, 2002 and 2001 included reversals of previously established restructuring reserves of $0.1 million and $0.1 million, respectively, for the Apparel and Flexible Material operating segment.

There were no material changes in segment assets, the measure of segment profit, or differences in the basis of segmentation since the Company's last Annual Report on Form 10-K filed on August 27, 2002.

NOTE 8. Comprehensive Income (Loss)

NOTE 10. Discontinued Operations

On July 1, 2002, the Company completed the sale of Stereo Optical Company, Inc. (Stereo Optical), which was included in the Ophthalmic Lens Processing operating segment, for $7.5 million in cash less an amount held in escrow for purchase price adjustments. Stereo Optical was accounted for as a discontinued operation beginning with the fiscal 2003 consolidated financial statements. This accounting recognition was required by the Company's adoption of Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 144, "Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets." Accordingly, the Consolidated Statement of Operations for the three- and six-month periods ended October 31, 2001 have been reclassified to reflect the effects of the discontinued operations. The gain on disposition was $3.5 million before income taxes and $1.2 million after taxes, or $.06 per diluted share. Stereo Optical's revenue and pre-tax income reported in discontinued operations were $0.7 million and $0.3 million, respectively, for the six-month period ended October 31, 2002 and $1.0 million and $0.4 million and $2.0 million and $0.8 million, respectively, for the three- and six-month periods ended October 31, 2001.

NOTE 11. Net Assets Held for Sale

In June and July 2002, the Company completed the sale of two properties previously included in Net Assets Held for Sale for combined net sales proceeds of $2.5 million, which approximated net book value. Proceeds were used to reduce borrowings under the Company's credit agreement.

In September 2002, the Company completed the sale of the final property included in Net Assets Held for Sale for net proceeds of $1.5 million, which approximated net book value. These proceeds were also used to reduce borrowings under the Company's credit agreement.

NOTE 12. Commitments and Contingencies

There were no material changes to the Company's commitments and contingencies in the first six months of fiscal 2003. Summarized below, however, are matters previously described in Note 17 of the Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K filed on August 27, 2002:

Purported Class Action Litigation

The Company and several current and former officers and directors thereof have been named as defendants in eight lawsuits filed in the United States District Court for the District of Connecticut, all of which have been consolidated before the Honorable Janet C. Hall. These lawsuits are putative class actions brought by shareholders of the Company alleging both direct and control person liability under the Federal Securities Laws. The first of these lawsuits was filed on April 18, 2002, on behalf of a proposed class of purchasers of the securities of the Company between May 27, 1999 and April 12, 2002 (the "Class Period") seeking to pursue remedies under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. The first lawsuit was filed shortly after the Company announced, on April 15, 2002, that it expected to take a $12.0 million pre-tax charge in its fiscal fourth quarter, the period ending April 30, 2002, and that the Company was conducting an internal review of its financial reporting for the period January 1, 1998 through April 30, 2002 in response to an investigation by the Securities and Exchange Commission into its inventory and reserve accounting practices. In this announcement, the Company stated that once its investigation had been completed, the Company would likely restate its financial results for the appropriate periods. By order dated July 12, 2002, the Court established as the consolidated putative class action, Louisiana Municipal Employees' Retirement System v. Gerber Scientific, Inc., et al, appointed the Louisiana Municipal Employees' Retirement System as lead plaintiff, and appointed the law firm of Bernstein Litowitz Berger & Grossman as lead counsel. The lead plaintiff was ordered to file a consolidated Amended Complaint on or before December 13, 2002 and, thereafter, the Company expects to be responding to the consolidated Amended Complaint. The Company has notified its directors and officers liability insurance carrier, National Union Fire Insurance Company of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, of the lawsuits and has requested both defense of the suits and coverage and indemnification up to the policy limits with respect to the litigation or settlement of the lawsuits. Presently, the litigation is in its very early stages and the Company intends to defend vigorously the suits. Given the current status of the litigation, the Company cannot predict the outcome of the lawsuits nor reasonably estimate a range of loss.

Claims Which May Be Asserted Under the Company's 401(k) Plan

In December 1997, the Company registered 350,000 shares of the Company's common stock to be purchased by an independent trustee in the open market for the benefit and at the direction of Company employees pursuant to the Gerber Scientific, Inc. and participating Subsidiaries 401(k) Maximum Advantage Program and Trust (the "Plan"). Approximately 1,100,000 shares were acquired by Plan participants before this option was discontinued on July 15, 2002.

The purchase of shares under the Plan in excess of the number of shares registered may have been exempt from registration under the Securities Act of 1933. The Company understands, however, that the staff of the Securities and Exchange Commission takes the position that one possible exemption, under Section 3(a)(2) of the Securities Act, would not apply to shares of an employer-sponsored plan acquired in the open market by an independent trustee at the direction and for the benefit of employee participants pursuant to plans of this type (i.e., plans in which employee contributions can be directed toward the purchase of a company's stock and the company's matching contributions may be less than 1-for-1).

If the acquisitions of these shares are found not to have been exempt from registration, the Company could be liable under Section 12(a)(1) of the Securities Act for rescission or damages to the employees who purchased these shares. Under Section 13 of the Securities Act, a rescission right, which is the effective equivalent to a "put" right, can be maintained to enforce liability under Section 12(a)(1) at any time within one year after the violation on which it is based but not more than three years after the relevant securities were first offered to the public. A rescission right would entitle the employee purchasers of these shares to receive the return of the amounts paid for these shares, together with interest from the date of purchase.

The current members of the Plan's administrative committee, on the advice of counsel, requested the Company to toll (effective July 25, 2002) to January 25, 2003 any statutes of limitations with respect to claims which might be made by or on behalf of Plan participants alleging that the Company should have registered these shares. The Company has acceded to this request and a Tolling Agreement in accordance with the foregoing terms has been agreed. The prices paid for shares acquired during the one year prior to July 25, 2002 aggregated approximately $2.1 million. The prices paid for all of the unregistered shares which were acquired under the Plan aggregated approximately $7.3 million.

In addition to any claims that may be asserted under the Securities Act, claims may also be asserted under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 for recovery of losses incurred with respect to the purchase of the unregistered shares.

The Company does not currently intend to offer rescission to the purchasers of these shares and intends to defend against any claim for either rescission or damages. However, the possibility of such a claim gives rise to a contingent liability that, if realized, could adversely affect the financial condition of the Company. Given the current status of this unasserted claim, the Company cannot reasonably estimate a loss.

GERBER SCIENTIFIC, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES

With respect to the unaudited consolidated financial statements of Gerber Scientific, Inc. and subsidiaries at October 31, 2002 and for the three- and six-month periods ended October 31, 2002 and 2001, KPMG LLP has made a review (based on procedures adopted by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants) and not an audit, as set forth in their separate report dated December 5, 2002 appearing on page 21. That report does not express an opinion on the interim unaudited consolidated financial information. KPMG LLP has not carried out any significant or additional audit tests beyond those which would have been necessary if their report had not been included. Accordingly, such report is not a "report" or "part of the Registration Statement" within the meaning of Sections 7 and 11 of the Securities Act of 1933 and the liability provisions of Section 11 of such Act do not apply.

INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTANTS' REPORT

To the Board of Directors and Shareholders of Gerber Scientific, Inc.:

We have reviewed the consolidated balance sheet of Gerber Scientific, Inc. and subsidiaries as of October 31, 2002, the related consolidated statements of operations for the three- and six-month periods ended October 31, 2002 and 2001, and the related consolidated statements of cash flows for the six-month periods ended October 31, 2002 and 2001. These consolidated financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management.

We conducted our review in accordance with standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. A review of interim financial information consists principally of applying analytical review procedures to financial data and making inquiries of persons responsible for financial and accounting matters. It is substantially less in scope than an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion regarding the financial statements taken as a whole. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to the consolidated financial statements referred to above for them to be in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

We have previously audited, in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, the consolidated balance sheet of Gerber Scientific, Inc. and subsidiaries as of April 30, 2002, and the related consolidated statements of operations, changes in shareholders' equity, and cash flows for the year then ended (not presented herein); and in our report dated August 13, 2002, we expressed an unqualified opinion on those consolidated financial statements. In our opinion, the information set forth in the accompanying consolidated balance sheet as of April 30, 2002, is fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the consolidated balance sheet from which it has been derived.

As discussed in Note 2, the accompanying consolidated financial statements as of and for the three- and six-month periods ended October 31, 2001 have been restated.

ITEM 2. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

OVERVIEW

For the three months ended October 31, 2002, the Company reported net earnings of $3.1 million, or $0.14 per diluted share, on revenues of $128.8 million compared with a restated net income of $2.1 million, or $0.09 per diluted share, during the comparable prior year period. The comparable prior year period included income from the operations of a disposed business of $0.01 per diluted share.

For the six months ended October 31, 2002, the Company reported net earnings of $6.7 million, or $0.30 per diluted share, on revenues of $254.7 million compared with a restated net loss of $111.7 million, or $5.04 per diluted share, during the comparable prior year period. Excluding the income and gain from the sale of a disposed business affecting both the current and prior year periods of $0.06 and $0.02 per diluted share, respectively, and year-ago goodwill impairment charges of $5.17 per diluted share, six month earnings were $5.3 million, or $0.24 per diluted share, compared with earnings of $0.11 per diluted share in the prior year.

Global economic uncertainty and weak demand for the Company's capital equipment products continued in the first half of fiscal 2003. Current conditions in the apparel, furniture, sign making, and ophthalmic lens processing industries had a negative impact on the Company's consolidated results and are expected to continue to present challenges to the Company's businesses operating in these markets. The Apparel and Flexible Materials segment continues to be affected by the migration of apparel and furniture production from the United States and Europe to lower cost markets where the adoption of factory automation is nascent. Weak global economic conditions also continued to affect the Sign Making and Specialty Graphics segment, particularly in North America. In addition to lower demand for capital equipment products, the soft economic conditions have resulted in a sales shift from proprietary aftermarket supplies to lower priced, more competitive supplies. Lower industry prescription volumes for spectacle lens eyewear affected the Ophthalmic Lens Processing segment's sales of capital equipment to wholesale lens production laboratories and overall sales of aftermarket supplies. During the first six months of fiscal 2002, foreign currencies had a favorable impact on the Company's consolidated results due primarily to the strengthening of the Euro in relation to the U.S. dollar during the first and second quarters. As a result of these conditions and lack of customer capital spending, the Company's revenue is down from the prior year.

The restructuring activities implemented over the course of the last two years have resulted in higher operating income despite the weak demand for the Company's capital equipment products. The Company is currently implementing a shared services initiative to optimize its supply chain and improve the efficiency of its support functions, which should further reduce costs. The Company is also reviewing a number of actions to increase liquidity and enhance cash flow. These actions include refinancing its existing credit agreement, potential sale of some non-core businesses or assets, and further working capital reductions.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

Revenues.

The Company's consolidated revenue in the second quarter of fiscal 2003 was $128.8 million, a decrease of $2.8 million, or 2.2 percent, from $131.6 million in 2002. The decrease reflected lower product sales partially offset by higher service revenue. Revenues in the Sign Making and Specialty Graphics segment in the second quarter of fiscal 2003 were $68.9 million, which were unchanged compared to the prior year comparable period. In the Apparel and Flexible Materials segment, second quarter revenues were $37.8 million, compared to $42.2 million in the prior year comparable period. In the Ophthalmic Lens Processing segment, second quarter revenues were $22.1 million, compared to $20.4 million in the prior year comparable period.

The Company's consolidated revenue in the first six months of fiscal 2003 was $254.7 million, a decrease of $1.9 million, or 0.7 percent, from $256.5 million in 2002. The decrease reflected lower product sales partially offset by higher service revenue. Revenues in the Sign Making and Specialty Graphics segment in the first six months of fiscal 2003 were $135.3 million, compared to $133.0 million in the prior year comparable period. In the Apparel and Flexible Materials segment, revenues in the first six months were $76.5 million, compared to $83.7 million in the prior year comparable period. In the Ophthalmic Lens Processing segment, revenues in the first six months were $42.9 million, compared to $39.8 million in the prior year comparable period.

Capital spending in the Sign Making, Apparel, and Ophthalmic industries continued to be weak in the first half of fiscal 2003. Sales of the Company's capital equipment products were lower in the fiscal year 2003 first half and second quarter than the prior year comparable periods in both the Apparel and Flexible Materials and Sign Making and Specialty Graphics operating segments. Equipment sales were, however, higher in the fiscal 2003 first half and second quarter versus the prior year comparable periods in the Ophthalmic Lens Processing segment as it benefited from shipments of automated lens processing equipment to large U.S. retail and discount chains that manufacture eyewear.

Aftermarket supplies and service revenues continued to be steady in the first half and second quarter of fiscal 2003 and partially offset the impact of the lower capital equipment sales. Year-over-year sales increases occurred in both the Sign Making and Specialty Graphics and Apparel and Flexible Materials operating segments and decreased slightly in the Ophthalmic Lens Processing segment.

The proportion of equipment sales to total revenues and aftermarket supplies and service revenues to total revenues was approximately 34 percent and 66 percent in the first half and second quarter of fiscal 2003, which is substantially the same as a year ago.

Stronger foreign currency translation rates increased revenue approximately $5.2 million (4.2 percent) in the fiscal 2003 second quarter and approximately $11.5 million (4.7 percent) in the first six months of fiscal 2003 compared to the prior year comparable periods. These stronger currency translation rates primarily benefited the Sign Making and Specialty Graphics and Apparel and Flexible Materials operating segments.

On a geographic basis, the Company's volume of business in the first half and second quarter of fiscal 2003 compared to the prior year was lower in the U.S. market and higher in European and the rest of the world markets. The lower U.S. volume was primarily in the Sign Making and Specialty Graphics segment, which continues to struggle with low customer capital spending, and was partially offset by the higher volume in the Ophthalmic Lens Processing segment. Sales to European customers benefited from the effect of the stronger foreign currency translation rates, although weak market and industry conditions were a significant offset, particularly in the Apparel and Flexible Materials operating segment. The increase in the rest of world markets occurred primarily in the Apparel and Flexible Materials segment due to the continued migration of the apparel industry to developing countries. Overall, the geographic distribution of the Company's business was similar to a year ago; U.S. and Europe each represented approximately 42 percent of business with the rest of the world accounting for the remainder.

Gross Profit Margins.

The overall gross profit margins in the fiscal 2003 second quarter and first six months were 35.6 percent and 35.2 percent, respectively, which was higher than the prior year comparable margins of 34.9 percent and 34.6 percent. Margins on product sales were roughly the same and on service revenue were higher. Increases in the product gross profit margin occurred largely in the Apparel and Flexible Materials segment and were the result of less price discounting; product mix favoring higher margin software and service products; and lower factory costs due to the restructuring initiatives implemented. Gross margin increases also occurred in the Ophthalmic Lens Processing segment due to favorable price effects and lower factory costs. These favorable effects were offset by the overall lower equipment volume; a Sign Making and Specialty Graphics segment current year product mix favoring lower margin vinyl material products; and continued aggressive discounting programs to address competitive market forces. The increase in service margins in the fiscal 2003 second quarter and first six months resulted from lower costs associated with the fiscal 2002 and 2001 restructuring initiatives, principally in the Apparel and Flexible Materials segment.

Selling, General & Administrative Expenses.

Selling, general and administrative (SG&A) expenses were 25.2 percent of revenue in the fiscal 2003 second quarter and first six months, which is slightly higher than the comparable prior year percentages of 24.9 percent and 25.0

percent, respectively. Cost reductions associated with prior year restructuring initiatives were more than offset by incremental legal and other professional services costs associated with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission's investigation of approximately $1.0 million and $2.8 million in the fiscal 2003 second quarter and first six months, respectively.

Research and development (R&D) expense in the second quarter and first six months of fiscal 2003 was $6.5 million and $12.8 million, respectively, compared to $7.0 million and $14.2 million in the comparable prior year periods. R&D expense was 5.1 percent and 5.0 percent of revenue in the second quarter and first six months of fiscal 2003, compared with 5.3 percent and 5.5 percent in the prior year comparable periods.

Restructuring Charges.

In the fiscal 2003 first quarter, the Company reversed previously established restructuring reserves totaling $0.1 million before taxes. The reversal of these reserves was recorded in the Consolidated Statement of Operations as restructuring charges, which is where the reserves were originally recorded. See Note 4 of the "Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements" contained in this Quarterly Report and the Company's fiscal 2002 Form 10-K filed on August 27, 2002 for further discussion of the restructuring charges.

Other Income (Expense).

The second quarter and first six months of fiscal 2003 included approximately $0.2 million and $1.1 million of foreign currency losses caused by translating foreign currency denominated transactions, compared with $0.5 million and $0.6 million in the prior year comparable periods.

Interest Expense.

Interest expense in the second quarter and first half of fiscal 2003 of $2.1 million and $4.4 million was $1.0 million and $2.2 million lower, respectively, than the prior year comparable balances due to both lower average debt balances and lower interest rates. The lower debt balances were the result of using proceeds from sale and leaseback transactions, anticipated asset sales, the sale of a discontinued operation, and operating cash flow to reduce borrowings under the Company's credit facility. The lower interest rate was caused both by reductions in LIBOR over the past year and the favorable impact of the Company's lower leverage ratio, defined in the Credit Agreement as debt outstanding divided by earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation, and amortization (EBITDA). The Company's interest rate on borrowings increases or decreases based on increases or decreases in its leverage ratio.

Income Tax Expense.

The rates for taxes on income from continuing operations in the second quarter and first six months of fiscal 2003 were 29.4 percent and 26.9 percent, respectively, compared with 26.8 percent and 23.0 percent in the prior year comparable periods. The difference in rates was principally caused by an increase in the valuation allowance on certain foreign deferred tax assets in fiscal 2003. The difference between this year's tax rate and the U.S. statutory rate of 35.0 percent was the result of tax benefits associated with foreign sales, R&D tax credits, and tax reduction strategies involving the Company's wholly-owned foreign subsidiaries.

Discontinued Operations.

On July 1, 2002, the Company completed the sale of Stereo Optical Company, Inc. (Stereo Optical) which was included in the Ophthalmic Lens Processing operating segment, for $7.5 million in cash less an amount held in escrow for purchase price adjustments. Stereo Optical was accounted for as a discontinued operation beginning with the fiscal 2003 consolidated financial statements. This accounting recognition was required by the Company's adoption of Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 144, "Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets." Accordingly, the Consolidated Statement of Operations for the three- and six-month periods ended October 31, 2001 have been reclassified to reflect the effects of the discontinued operations. The gain on disposition was $3.5 million before taxes and $1.2 million after taxes, or $.06 per diluted share. Stereo Optical's revenue and pre-tax income reported in discontinued operations were $0.7 million and $0.3 million, respectively, for the six-month period ended October 31, 2002 and $1.0 million and $0.4 million and $2.0 million and $0.8 million, respectively, for the three- and six-month periods ended October 31, 2001.

Net earnings (loss).

As a result of the above, net earnings in the second quarter and first six months of fiscal 2003 first quarter were $3.1 million ($0.14 per diluted share) and $6.7 million ($.30 per diluted share), respectively, compared to net earnings of $2.1 million ($0.09 per diluted share) and net loss of $111.7 million ($5.04 per diluted share), respectively, in the prior year comparable periods. Excluding the income and a gain from discontinued operations in the three-and six-month periods ended October 31, 2002 and 2001 and the cumulative effect of an accounting change for goodwill in last year's first quarter, diluted earnings per share for the second quarter and first six months of fiscal 2003 were $0.14 and $0.24, respectively, compared with $0.08 and $0.11 in the prior year comparable periods.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

The Company assesses its liquidity in terms of its ability to generate cash to fund its operating and investing activities. Significant factors affecting the management of liquidity are: cash flows generated from operating activities, capital expenditures, adequacy of available bank lines of credit, and the ability to attract long-term capital with satisfactory terms. The Company's short-term liquidity at October 31, 2002 was adequate for its requirements and the Company expects that available cash and its existing credit facility will be sufficient to meet normal operating requirements over the near term.

Longer term, the Company believes that existing cash balances, anticipated cash flows, borrowings against its credit facility, and possible sales of non-strategic assets will be sufficient to meet operating requirements through August 15, 2003, subject to the terms of the Company's credit facility. However, there is no assurance that the Company will not need to raise additional equity or debt financing within this time frame. Further, the impact on the Company's cash flow could be significant if it were unable to meet required covenants in its credit facility. This might be caused by a continued deterioration in worldwide economic conditions that would affect demand for the Company's products; additional charges that may be required because of weak economic conditions, market changes, or delayed product introductions; and the Company's ability to complete its ongoing efforts to improve operational efficiencies. Accordingly, additional financing may not be available on favorable terms, or at all, and may be dilutive to then-current shareholders. The Company may also require additional capital for other purposes not presently contemplated. If the Company were unable to obtain sufficient capital, it would be required to further curtail capital equipment purchases and research and development expenditures, further reduce employee headcount, and consider further asset and business sales, which could harm business.

At October 31, 2002, the majority of the Company's debt was classified as short-term borrowings since it was due within one year's time (August 15, 2003). The Company is currently in discussions to refinance its existing credit facility. If and when an agreement is finalized, it is the Company's expectation that these short-term borrowings will be reclassified back to long-term debt. The Company expects that its financing requirements will be met for the next twelve months and beyond.

A significant risk to the Company is that it will not be able to secure alternative financing by the time the current credit facility becomes due in August 2003. The Company's existing credit facility provides that the Company reduce its commitment to $119.4 million on January 31, 2003, and to $80.0 million on April 30, 2003. The risk that the Company will not be able to repay amounts needed pursuant to these lower commitment levels, particularly at April 30, 2003, is also significant. Should the Company not be able to refinance its current credit facility in time for scheduled commitment reductions or its maturity, the Company would have to consider selling one or more of its businesses.

Financial Condition.

The ratio of current assets to current liabilities was 0.9 to 1 at October 31, 2002 and 1.4 to 1 at April 30, 2002. Net working capital at October 31, 2002 was negative $10.4 million, a decrease of $60.6 million from the beginning of the fiscal year. The decrease in working capital and the ratio of current assets to current liabilities was primarily due to the classification of the Company's credit facility as a current liability, as well as the sales of three properties held for sale as of April 30, 2002 (see below). This was partially offset by higher cash balances and increased inventory purchased in anticipation of higher customer shipments.

Net working capital included $4.0 million of assets held for sale at April 30, 2002. In the first six months of the fiscal 2003, the Company completed the sale of three properties previously included in Net Assets Held for Sale for combined net proceeds of $3.9 million, which approximated net book value.

Cash Flows.

For the six months ended October 31, 2002, operations provided $12.7 million of cash, which was essentially the same as the prior year comparable period.

Cash provided by investing activities was $9.2 million in the first six months of fiscal 2003, reflecting primarily the proceeds from sales of assets previously held for sale of $3.9 million and from the sale of a discontinued operation of $6.6 million. This compares to a source of cash totaling $13.5 million in the same period of fiscal 2002 resulting primarily from the sale and leaseback of three facilities including its headquarters in South Windsor, CT. Capital expenditures in the first six months of fiscal 2003 were $0.9 million and are anticipated to be approximately $3.0 to $4.0 million for the full fiscal year. Funding for these capital expenditures is expected to come from cash on hand and cash from operations.

Cash used for financing activities of $14.2 million was primarily for net repayments of the Company's credit facility.

At October 31, 2002, the Company had credit commitments from banks totaling $132.9 million under an amended multi-currency revolving credit facility, which will be further reduced as indicated above. At October 31, 2002, borrowings under that facility amounted to $109.2 million. The Company's total debt at October 31, 2002 was $115.2 million, down $12.7 million from the April 30, 2002 balance of $127.9 million. Net debt (total debt less cash and short-term cash investments) was $90.4 million at October 31, 2002, compared with $111.9 million at April 30, 2002 and the ratio of net debt to total capital reduced to 48.2 percent at October 31, 2002 from 57.0 percent at April 30, 2002.

Credit Facility.

The Company's credit facility requires it to maintain certain financial covenants including:

- Maximum Leverage (total adjusted debt divided by EBITDA, as defined)
- Minimum Consolidated Net Worth (quarterly test, as defined)
- Minimum Fixed Charge Coverage (quarterly test, as defined)
- Maximum Capital Expenditures (annual test)
- Maximum Cash Balances (daily test)
- Minimum Net Revenue (rolling six months, as defined)

The credit facility also has covenants that limit the Company's ability to pay dividends and make investments while the Company's leverage ratio is greater than 2 to 1 and provisions that limit subsidiary indebtedness. At October 31, 2002, the Company was in compliance with the covenants and its leverage ratio was greater than 2 to 1.

Failure to be in compliance with any material provision of the credit facility could have a material adverse effect on the Company's liquidity, financial position, and results of operations. At a minimum, such noncompliance could result in higher borrowing costs caused by further amendments that would be required to the Company's current credit facility or from a complete refinancing of its debt.

OBLIGATIONS, COMMITMENTS, AND CONTINGENCIES

There were no material changes to the Company's cash obligations or commercial commitments from those disclosed in its Form 10-K filed on August 27, 2002.

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The preparation of financial statements requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect amounts reported. The Company described the critical accounting policies that require management's most difficult, subjective, or complex judgments in its Form 10-K filed on August 27, 2002. This disclosure continues to be relevant to the current year.

NEW ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS

In June 2002, Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 146, "Accounting for Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities" was issued. This statement provides guidance on the recognition and measurement of liabilities associated with exit or disposal activities and requires that such liabilities be recognized when incurred. This statement is effective for exit or disposal activities initiated on or after January 1, 2003 and does not impact the recognition of costs under the Company's existing programs. Adoption of this standard is expected to impact the timing of recognition of costs associated with future exit and disposal activities.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This quarterly report on Form 10-Q contains statements which, to the extent they are not statements of historical or present fact, constitute "forward-looking statements" under the securities laws. From time to time, oral or written forward-looking statements may also be included in other materials the Company releases to the public. These forward-looking statements are intended to provide management's current expectations or plans for the future operating and financial performance of the Company, based on assumptions currently believed to be valid. Forward-looking statements can be identified by the use of words such as "believes," "expects," "plans," "strategy," "prospects," "estimate," "project," "anticipates," and other words of similar meaning in connection with a discussion of future operating or financial performance. These include statements relating to:

28

- future earnings and other measurements of financial performance,
- future cash flow and uses of cash,
- future capital spending,
- future levels of indebtedness,
- the effect of economic downturns or growth in particular regions,
- the effect of changes in the level of activity in particular industries or markets,
- the effect of currency fluctuations,
- product demand,
- competitive products and pricing,
- fluctuations in capital spending by customers,
- changes in the sales mix of products,
- the scope or nature of acquisition activity,
- prospective product developments and new business opportunities,
- restructuring and cost savings,
- the outcome of contingencies including outstanding litigation and regulatory developments, and
- other risks detailed in the Company's SEC filings.

All forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties that may cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed or implied in the forward-looking statements. Certain risk factors that could cause actual results to differ from expectations are set forth in this quarterly report on Form 10-Q. The Company cannot assure you that its results of operations or financial condition will not be adversely affected by one or more of these factors.

For additional information identifying factors that may cause actual results to vary materially from those stated in the forward-looking statements, see the Company's reports on Forms 10-K, 10-Q, and 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission from time to time. Form 10-K for fiscal 2002 filed on August 27, 2002 includes important information as to risk factors in the "Business" section under the heading "Risk Factors."

ITEM 3. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

No material changes have occurred in the quantitative and qualitative market risk disclosures for the Company during the first six months of fiscal 2003. For discussion of the Company's exposure to market risk, refer to Item 7a, Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures about Market Risk, presented in the Company's annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended April 30, 2002 filed on August 27, 2002.

ITEM 4. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

During the 90-day period prior to the filing date of this report, management, including the Company's Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, evaluated the effectiveness of the design and operation of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures. Based upon, and as of the date of that evaluation, the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer concluded that the disclosure controls and procedures were effective, in all material respects, to ensure that information required to be disclosed in the reports the Company files and submits under the Exchange Act is recorded, processed, summarized, and reported as and when required.

There have been no significant changes in the Company's internal controls or in other factors which could significantly affect internal controls subsequent to the date the Company carried out its evaluation. There were no significant deficiencies or material weaknesses identified in the evaluation and therefore, no corrective actions were taken.

PART II - OTHER INFORMATION

ITEM 2. CHANGES IN SECURITIES AND USE OF PROCEEDS

Recent Sales of Unregistered Securities

Non-employee Directors Stock Grant Plan

From August 1, 2002 to October 31, 2002, the Company issued or committed to issue shares of its common stock to non-employee members of the Company's Board of Directors as follows:

1. On September 30, 2002, committed to issue 6,818 shares pursuant to the Company's Non-Employee Director's Stock Grant Plan (the "Director's Stock Grant Plan").

These grants were made as partial compensation for the recipients' services as Directors in accordance with the terms of the Director's Stock Grant Plan.

The issuances of these securities are exempt from registration under Section 4(2) of the Securities Act of 1933 (the "Securities Act"), as transactions by an issuer not involving any public offering.

ITEM 4. SUBMISSION OF MATTERS TO A VOTE OF SECURITY HOLDERS

On October 3, 2002, the Company held its annual meeting of shareholders. The holders of 88% of the shares of common stock entitled to vote at this meeting were present either in person or by proxy. The following were the voting results for the meeting:

- ◆ The shareholders elected Directors to hold office until the annual meeting to be held in the year 2005 with the following votes:

	For	Withheld
A. Robert Towbin	17,046,449	2,381,012
David J. Logan	16,465,939	2,961,522
Carole F. St. Mark	16,012,162	3,415,299

The terms of office of the other Directors, Edward E. Hood, Jr., William J. Vereen, George M. Gentile, Donald P. Aiken, David J. Gerber, and Marc T. Giles continued after the meeting.

- ◆ The shareholders voted on a proposal presented by a shareholder requesting the Board of Directors to take necessary steps to declassify the Board. The votes on this proposal were as follows:

31

Shares For:	10,203,208
Shares Against:	3,980,437
Shares Abstained:	89,570
No Vote:	5,154,246

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee has taken this matter under advisement and will submit a recommendation to the Board of Directors at a future date.
