Investors Real Estate Trust (IRET) announced a management reorganization that includes a new executive appointment, effective June 27, 2012.

Thomas A. Wentz, Jr., formerly Senior Vice President and Chief Operating Officer, was appointed Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer, with his job duties revised to include responsibility for capital markets, asset acquisitions and dispositions and property development. Mr. Wentz's previous direct responsibility for property operations and asset management has been transferred to a newly-appointed executive officer, Mark W. Reiling.

Mr. Reiling, 54, who was associated with the Towle Real Estate Company and its successors (now Cassidy Turley) in Minneapolis for approximately 30 years, 18 as its president, joined IRET on June 27, 2012 as Executive Vice President of Asset Management. Mr. Reiling will oversee the operations of the Company's entire real estate portfolio of 265 properties with over 12 million square feet of office, industrial, retail and medical space, and approximately 9,000 apartment units.

Diane Bryantt, formerly Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, was appointed Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer.

Michael Bosh, formerly Senior Vice President and General Counsel, was appointed Executive Vice President and General Counsel.
