Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On August 20, 2007 (the Effective Date), Starbucks Corporation (the Company) entered into an underwriting agreement (the Underwriting Agreement) with Goldman, Sachs & Co., Banc of America Securities LLC and Citigroup Global Markets Inc., acting on behalf of themselves and the other underwriters named therein (the Underwriters), for the public offering of $550,000,000 aggregate principal amount of its 6.25% Senior Notes due August 15, 2017 (the Senior Notes). The Senior Notes were issued under a base indenture dated as of August 23, 2007 (the Base Indenture) between the Company and Deutsche Bank Trust Company Americas, as trustee (the Trustee), as amended and supplemented by a supplemental indenture dated as of August 23, 2007 (the Supplemental Indenture and, together with the Base Indenture, the Indenture) between the Company and the Trustee. The issuance and sale of the Senior Notes closed on August 23, 2007. The Company will pay interest on the Senior Notes on February 15 and August 15 of each year, commencing February 15, 2008. The net proceeds to the Company from the sale of the Senior Notes, after deducting expenses and underwriter discounts, are approximately $545.3 million.

The underwriters and their affiliates have, from time to time, performed, and may in the future perform, various financial advisory, commercial and investment banking services for the Company, for which they received or will receive customary fees. In addition, affiliates of Goldman, Sachs & Co., Banc of America Securities LLC and Citigroup Global Markets Inc. are lenders under (i) a 364-day credit facility the Company entered into on August 7, 2007 and (ii) a $1 billion revolving credit facility under a credit agreement dated August 12, 2005, as amended, which serves as a backstop to the Company's commercial paper program. The lender affiliates of the underwriters will receive a portion of the proceeds of this offering in repayment of outstanding indebtedness under the 364-day credit facility.

The Senior Notes were offered and sold by the Company pursuant to its automatic shelf registration statement on Form S-3 ASR (the Registration Statement) (File Number 333-145572), filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on August 20, 2007, as supplemented by the final prospectus supplement filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on August 21, 2007.

The Underwriting Agreement contains customary representations, warranties and agreements of the Company, conditions to closing, indemnification and contribution rights and obligations of the parties and termination provisions. The Indenture contains covenants that, among other things, will limit the ability of the Company to create certain liens to: secure other indebtedness; enter into certain sale and leaseback transactions; and consolidate, merge or transfer all or substantially all of the Company's assets. The Indenture provides for customary events of default. Upon a change of control triggering event (as defined in the Indenture), the Company will be required to make an offer to purchase the Senior Notes at a price equal to 101% of their principal amount plus accrued and unpaid interest to the date of repurchase. In addition, the Company may redeem the Senior Notes in whole or in part prior to their maturity at any time at a price that includes a make-whole premium, plus accrued and unpaid interest to the date of redemption.

The foregoing descriptions of the Underwriting Agreement, the Indenture, the Senior Notes and the Supplemental Indenture do not purport to be complete and are qualified in their entirety by reference to the full text of the Underwriting Agreement, the Indenture, the form of Senior Note and the form of Supplemental Indenture, each of which is filed as an exhibit hereto and is incorporated by reference herein.
