Dividend Dates and Distribution Amount Announced for BlackRock Enhanced Equity Yield Fund, Inc.

New York, September 15, 2008 The Board of Directors of BlackRock Enhanced Equity Yield Fund, Inc. (NYSE:EEF) (the Fund) today announced dividend dates and a distribution rate for the Fund. It is currently expected that this distribution will represent the Fund's final quarterly distribution prior to the reorganizations of EEF and BlackRock Enhanced Equity Yield & Premium Fund, Inc. (NYSE:ECV) into BlackRock Enhanced Capital & Income Fund, Inc. (NYSE:CII), which were approved by stockholders of each fund on August 29, 2008.

Details of the Fund's dividend dates and distribution amount are as follows:

Declaration	9/15/08	Ex-Date	9/18/08	Record Date	9/22/08	Payable Date	9/30/08
Fund				Ticker		Dividend
BlackRock Enhanced Equity Yield Fund, Inc.*				EEF		$0.500000

It is currently expected that the reorganizations described above will conclude on or about November 3, 2008, subject to all regulatory requirements and customary closing conditions being satisfied. In the reorganizations, CII would acquire substantially all of the assets and liabilities of EEF and ECV in a tax free transaction for shares of common stock of CII. Each transaction would occur based on the relative net asset values of CII, EEF and ECV.

CII's investment objective is to provide investors with a combination of current income and capital appreciation. CII primarily invests in equity securities and utilizes an option writing strategy to enhance current gains.

*In order to comply with the requirements of Section 19 of the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, the Fund noted above posted to the DTC bulletin board and sent to their shareholders as of the applicable record date a Section 19 notice with the previous dividend payment. The Section 19 notice was provided not for tax reporting purposes but for informational purposes only. This information can be found in the Closed-End Funds section of www.blackrock.com.
