PART III -- NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

The Bear Stearns Companies Inc. (the "Company") was not able to timely file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q (the "Form 10-Q") for the quarter ended February 29, 2008 by April 9, 2008, the prescribed due date, because of recent developments related to the matters discussed below that the Company is currently addressing.

The Company experienced a significant liquidity crisis during the end of the week of March 10, 2008 that seriously jeopardized its financial viability. On March 16, 2008, the Company and JPMorgan Chase & Co. ("JPMorgan Chase") entered into an agreement and plan of merger, and on March 24, 2008, the Company and JPMorgan Chase entered into an amendment to the agreement and plan of merger (as amended, the "Merger Agreement"). The liquidity crisis, execution of the Merger Agreement and the events and circumstances surrounding and following them have precipitated some disruption and delay in the normal process of preparation and completion of the Form 10-Q and the certification process attendant thereto.

The reasons causing the inability to file timely could not be eliminated by the Company without unreasonable expense or effort. The Company intends to file the Form 10-Q as promptly as practicable, and expects that such filing will be made by the April 14, 2008 extended deadline.

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

The Company currently believes that it will report earnings for the three months ended February 29, 2008 which are significantly lower than the Company's results of operations for the three months ended February 28, 2007. The continuation of the global liquidity crisis coupled with a further repricing of credit risk and weakness in the Company's fixed income, investment banking and asset management businesses created a difficult operating environment during the Company's quarter ended February 29, 2008. However, for the reasons stated in Part III above, the Company has not completed the process of preparation of the Form 10-Q and, accordingly, the Company is not able to provide a reasonable estimate of its results of operations for the three months ended February 29, 2008.
