The Company announced today that the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors has approved the amendment of the Company's Master Senior Executive Change-in-Control Plan (the "Plan") to remove the provision in the Plan that provides Plan participants with an additional severance payment, or "gross-up," to cover excise taxes that Plan participants would otherwise be required to pay in the event of a change in control. In connection with removing this provision, the Plan is being amended to provide that to the extent a participant in the Plan would be subject to the
