Item 1.01

On December 22, 2009 Conexant Systems, Inc. (the Company) entered into a receivables purchase program pursuant to a receivables purchase agreement (the Receivables Purchase Agreement) under which it has agreed to sell from time to time certain of the Company s accounts receivable to Conexant CF, LLC (Conexant CF), a special purpose entity that is controlled by the Company. The Receivables Purchase Agreement contains representations, warranties, covenants, and indemnities customary for agreements of this type.

Concurrently with the Receivables Purchase Agreement, Conexant CF entered into a credit agreement with Silicon Valley Bank (the Credit Agreement) providing for a $15 million credit facility secured by the assets of Conexant CF (which may be increased up to $20 million pursuant to certain conditions set forth in the Credit Agreement). Pursuant to a servicing agreement between the Company and Conexant CF, the Company performs collections and administrative functions on behalf of Conexant CF. The program and the related agreements expire December 31, 2010. Conexant CF is a separate corporate entity with its own creditors who, in the event of Conexant CF s liquidation, will be entitled to a claim on Conexant CF s assets prior to any distribution to the Company. The financial results of Conexant CF are included in the consolidated financial statements of the Company for financial reporting purposes. The Credit Agreement provides for a revolving credit facility to finance the cash portion of the purchase price of eligible receivables. The Credit Agreement will be secured by a first-priority security interest in favor of Silicon Valley Bank on all of Conexant CF s assets, including purchased eligible receivables, cash, accounts and proceeds of the insurance policy referenced below. Outstanding borrowings under the Credit Agreement will bear interest at a rate per annum equal to Silicon Valley Bank s prime rate (at a minimum of 4%), plus 1.25% to 2.25%, payable weekly on each settlement date. The outstanding principal amount of all borrowings under the Credit Agreement may not exceed the lesser of 60% of the uncollected value of eligible receivables which are eligible for coverage under an insurance policy (which insures the payment of the eligible receivables over political and credit risks) and $15 million. The Credit Agreement contains certain financial covenants applicable to the Company and its subsidiaries on a consolidated basis, including a minimum stockholders equity requirement and a minimum cash and cash equivalents requirement. Conexant CF has paid Silicon Valley Bank an initial program fee, will pay a final program fee in December 2009 , and will pay a minimum monthly interest amount of $20,000. Conexant CF is also responsible for certain fees and expenses of Silicon Valley Bank.
