The general meeting resolves to replace the current text of article 31 of the company's by-laws with the following text, under the suspensive condition of the adoption, the publication in the Belgian Official Gazette and the entry into force of any legislation transposing directive 2007/36/EC of 11 July 2007 on the exercise of certain rights of shareholders in listed companies into Belgian law: ARTICLE 31 - CONVOCATION The Board of Directors or the Auditor(s) convene(s) the General Meeting. These convocations must at least contain the elements set out in article 533bis of the Companies Code. The convocations are issued in the form and within the deadlines prescribed by articles 533 and following of the Companies Code. The agenda must mention the subjects which are to be treated, as well as the proposed resolutions. The proposal of the audit committee with respect to the appointment or re-appointment of the statutory auditor is listed in the agenda. Every year, at least one General Meeting is held whose agenda includes, among other things: discussion of the Management Report and Auditor(s)'(s) Report, the vote on the Remuneration Report, discussion and approval of the Annual Accounts, the appropriation of the results, the discharge to be granted to the directors and to the auditor(s) and, if the case arises, the appointment of director(s) and auditor(s) and prior approval of any agreement entered into with an executive director, a member of the management committee (if applicable) or a member of another committee discussing the general management of the company as defined in article 96 Section 3 of the Companies Code, containing a severance payment exceeding 12 months of remuneration, or, on the reasoned advice of the remuneration and nomination committee, exceeding 18 months of remuneration. Persons who must be invited to a General Meeting pursuant to the Companies Code, and who take part in a meeting or are represented there, are considered to have been validly convened. - on the fourteenth day preceding the General Meeting, at midnight (Belgian time), or by the registration of registered shares in the shareholders' register, or by their registration in the accounts of an authorised custody account holder or clearing institution, regardless of the number of shares held by the shareholder on the day of the General Meeting. The day and hour set out in the first paragraph constitute the record date. The shareholder notifies the company, or the person designated by the company to this end, of his/her/its intention to participate in the General Meeting, at the latest on the sixth calendar day preceding the date of the General Meeting. In order to be admitted to the General Meeting, the shareholder must in addition also be able to prove his/her identity. The representative of a shareholder, who is a legal person, must be able to present the documents proving his/her capacity as company representative or proxy holder, at the latest before the commencement of the General Meeting. Transitional provision The owners of bearer shares must register on the record date by delivering the bearer shares to one or more financial intermediaries designated by the Board of Directors in the convocation, regardless of the number of shares held by the shareholder on the day of the General Meeting. The shareholder notifies the company, or the person designated by the company to this end, of his/her/its intention to participate in the General Meeting, at the latest on the sixth calendar day preceding the date of the General Meeting. In order to be admitted to the General Meeting, the shareholder must in addition also be able to prove his/her identity. The representative of a shareholder, who is a legal person, must be able to present the documents proving his/her capacity as company representative or proxy holder, at the latest before the commencement of the General Meeting
- 27 The general meeting resolves to replace the current text of article 33 of the company's by-laws with the following text, under the suspensive condition of the adoption, the publication in the Belgian Official Gazette and the entry into force of any legislation transposing directive 2007/36/EC of 11 July 2007 on the exercise of certain rights of shareholders in listed companies, into Belgian law. ARTICLE 33 - REPRESENTATION All shareholders having voting rights may vote personally or by proxy. A shareholder may designate, for a given General Meeting, only one person as a proxy holder, without prejudice to the exceptions set out in the Companies Code. The proxy holder must not be a shareholder. The designation of a proxy holder must take place in writing and must be signed by the shareholder. The Board of Directors may determine the form of the proxies in the convocation. The notification of the proxy to the company must be done by letter, fax or e-mail, in accordance with the modalities determined by the Board of Directors in the convocation. The proxy must be received by the company at the latest on the sixth calendar day preceding the date of the General Meeting. Any proxy received by the company before the publication of a revised agenda pursuant to article 533ter of the Companies Code remains valid for the items covered by the proxy. As an exception to the foregoing, with respect to the items on the agenda which are the subject of newly submitted proposed resolutions pursuant to article 533ter of the Companies Code, the proxy holder may, at the general meeting, deviate from potential voting instructions given by his/her/its principal if the accomplishment of these instructions would risk compromising the interests of his/her/its principal. The proxy holder must inform his/her/its principal of this fact
- 28 The general meeting resolves to replace the current text of article 35 of the company's by-laws with the following text, under the suspensive condition of the adoption, the publication in the Belgian Official Gazette and the entry into force of any legislation transposing directive 2007/36/EC of 11 July 2007 on the exercise of certain rights of shareholders in listed companies into Belgian law: ARTICLE 35 ADJOURNMENT The Board of Directors has the right, during the meeting, to postpone the decision in relation to the approval of the annual accounts of the company by five weeks. This postponement has no effect on the other resolutions taken, except if the General Meeting resolves otherwise. The Board of Directors must re-convene the General Meeting within the five-week period in order to resolve the adjourned items on the agenda. Formalities fulfilled in order to attend the first General Meeting, including the registration of securities or the potential notification of proxies or forms used to vote by correspondence, remain valid for the second Meeting. New notifications of proxies or of forms used to vote by correspondence will be authorised, within the deadlines and under the conditions contained in the current by-laws. The General Meeting may only be postponed once. The second General Meeting makes final resolutions on the adjourned items on the agenda

29 The general meeting resolves to replace the current text of article 36, 2nd paragraph of the company's by-laws with the following text, under the suspensive condition of the adoption, the publication in the Belgian Official Gazette and the entry into force of any legislation transposing directive 2007/36/EC of 11 July 2007 on the exercise of certain rights of shareholders in listed companies into Belgian law: Holders of bonds, warrants and certificates issued with the cooperation of the company may attend the General Meeting, but only with an advisory vote. The right to attend the General Meeting is subject to the same formalities as those which are applicable in accordance with the provisions of the present by-laws, to the shareholders, depending on the nature of the securities concerned

The shareholders have the right to ask questions during the meeting or in writing. The written questions may be addressed to the company by electronic means to the address mentioned in the convocation to the General Meeting. The written questions must be received by the company at the latest on the sixth calendar day preceding the date of the General Meeting. Unless otherwise provided by the law and the by-laws, the resolutions must be taken by a simple majority of votes cast, regardless of the number of shares represented at the meeting. Blank and invalid votes are not added to the votes cast. The votes must be taken by a show of hands or by roll call, unless the General Meeting resolves otherwise by a simple majority of votes cast. The foregoing does not affect the right of each shareholder to vote by correspondence, by means of a form made available by the company and containing at least the elements set out in article 550 Section 2 of the Companies Code. The form used to vote by correspondence must be received by the company at the latest on the sixth calendar day preceding the General Meeting. The form used to vote by correspondence addressed to the company for a General Meeting is valid for the successive General Meetings convened with the same agenda. Any form used to vote by correspondence received by the company before the publication of a revised agenda pursuant to article 533ter of the Companies Code remains valid for the items on the agenda which are covered by it. By means of an exception to the foregoing, the vote exercised with respect to an item on the agenda which is the object of a newly proposed resolution in application of article 533ter of the Companies Code, is null and void
- 31 The general meeting resolves to add a 3rd paragraph to article 38 of the company's by-laws by adding the following text, under the suspensive condition of the adoption, the publication in the Belgian Official Gazette and the entry into force of any legislation transposing directive 2007/36/EC of 11 July 2007 on the exercise of certain rights of shareholders in listed companies into Belgian law: The minutes must at least contain the elements set out in article 546 of the Companies Code and are published on the website of the company within fifteen calendar days after the General Meeting Management No
- 32 The general meeting confers on Mr. Johan VAN DEN CRUIJCE, with the right of substitution, all powers necessary to immediately proceed with the coordination of the text of the company's by-laws in accordance with the resolutions taken following the proposed resolutions nos. 19 to 24, to sign it and to file it with the clerk of the relevant Commercial Court, in accordance with the applicable legal provisions. The general meeting also confers on Mr. Johan VAN DEN CRUIJCE, with the right of substitution, all powers necessary to proceed with the coordination of the text of the company's by-laws in accordance with the resolutions taken following the proposed resolutions nos. 25 to 31, to sign it and to file it with the clerk of the relevant Commercial Court, in accordance with the applicable legal provisions, as soon as the suspensive condition set out in the proposed resolutions is realised Management No
- 33 Pursuant to article 556 of the Companies Code, the general meeting approves and, to the extent necessary, ratifies article 10.1 (i) of the "Revolving Credit Facility Agreement" entered into on 22 December 2010 between the company and Atlas Services Belgium SA Management No
