SUMMARY

This summary highlights information about Laureate Education, Inc. Because this is a summary, it may not contain all the information you should consider before investing in our common stock. You should read this entire prospectus carefully.

Laureate Education, Inc.

Laureate Education, Inc. is focused exclusively on providing a superior higher education experience to over 131,000 students through the leading global network of accredited campus-based and online higher education institutions. Our educational services are offered through two separate business segments, which are the Campus Based segment and the Online Higher Education segment. These segments are business units that offer distinct services and are managed separately as they have different customer bases and delivery channels.

The Campus Based segment has five higher education institutions with a broad curriculum in Mexico, Chile, Spain and Central America, a highly specialized international business school in France and hospitality schools with operations in Switzerland, Spain and China. Campus Based higher education institutions currently enroll approximately 113,000 full-time students and offer more than 100 degree programs through 38 campuses. The higher education institutions primarily serve 18- to 24-year-old students and offer an education that emphasizes career-oriented fields of study with undergraduate and graduate degrees in a wide range of disciplines, including international business, hotel management, health sciences, information technology and engineering. We believe that the higher education institutions benefit from strong academic reputations and brand awareness and established operating histories. Each higher education institution also has flexible, non-tenured, teaching-focused faculty and is led by an experienced local management team.

The Online Higher Education segment offers undergraduate and graduate degree programs to working professionals through distance learning. The Online Higher Education segment includes Canter and Associates, Walden e-Learning, Inc., National Technological University and KIT eLearning BV, which collectively offer degree programs including education, psychology, health and human services, management, engineering and information technology. Online Higher Education institutions currently enroll approximately 18,000 students.

Our executive offices are located at 1001 Fleet Street, Baltimore, Maryland 21202. Our telephone number is (410) 843-6100 and our Web site address is www.laureate-inc.com. The information contained on our Web site does not constitute part of this prospectus. The terms Laureate , we , us and our as used in this prospectus refer to Laureate Education, Inc. and its subsidiaries as a combined entity, except where it is made clear that such terms mean only Laureate Education, Inc.

RISK FACTORS AFFECTING OUR BUSINESS AND FUTURE RESULTS

This prospectus and the documents we incorporate by reference include forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements include information we provide about our possible or assumed results of operations, business strategies, financing plans, competitive position and potential growth opportunities. Forward-looking statements include all statements that are not historical fact and are generally accompanied by words such as may, will, intend, anticipate, believe, estimate, except, should or similar exceptions.

Forward-looking statements involve various risks, uncertainties and assumptions. Our actual results may differ materially from those expressed in these forward-looking statements. You should not put undue reliance on any forward-looking statements. Also, you should not assume that we will update any of these forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, after we distribute this prospectus.

You should understand that many important factors, in addition to those discussed in the documents we incorporate by reference, could cause our results to differ materially from those expressed in these forward-looking statements. These factors include:

our ability to continue to make acquisitions and to successfully integrate and operate acquired businesses;

the fluctuations in revenues from our business segments;

market acceptance of new service offerings by us or our competitors and our ability to predict and respond to changes in the markets for our educational services;

the development and expansion of our franchise system and the effect of new technology applications in the educational services industry;

our ability to attract and retain key personnel in our business segments;

the effect of existing regulations governing our business or changes in those regulations;

our ability to effectively manage the growth of our business;

possible increased competition from other educational service providers;

the effect on our business and results of operations from fluctuations in the value of foreign currencies;

the many risks associated with our operation of an increasingly global business, including complex management, foreign currency, legal, tax and economic risks;

changes in the political, economic and business climate in the United States or the international markets where we operate; risks of downturns in general economic conditions, and in the educational services and education technology industries specifically; and the other risks that we describe from time to time in our filings with the SEC.

USE OF PROCEEDS

We will not receive any proceeds from the sale of the shares of common stock offered by the selling stockholders. We will pay all expenses of the registration and sale of the shares of common stock, other than selling commissions and fees and stock transfer taxes.

SELLING STOCKHOLDERS

We issued the shares of common stock offered by this prospectus to the selling stockholders as part of the consideration for our acquisition of shares of common stock of Walden e-Learning, Inc. held by the stockholders in a transaction exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act. The selling stockholders, including their donees, pledgees, transferees or their successors, may from time to time offer and sell any or all of these shares. Our registration of the shares of common stock does not necessarily mean that the selling stockholders will sell all or any of the shares.

The selling stockholders have represented to us that they purchased the shares of common stock for their own account for investment only and not with a view toward selling or distributing them, except through sales registered under the Securities Act or exemptions. We agreed with the selling stockholders to file this registration statement to register the resale of the shares of common stock. We agreed to prepare and file all necessary amendments and supplements to the registration statement to keep it effective until the date on which all the shares offered hereby are sold or are eligible to be sold without the volume or other restrictions imposed by Rule 144 under the Securities Act.

The following table shows, as of September 15, 2004, the beneficial ownership of the shares of our common stock by each of the selling stockholders. The information in the table below with respect to each selling stockholder is based on information provided by or on behalf of that selling stockholder. None of the selling stockholders has, or within the past three years has had, any position, office or other material relationship with us, other than as a result of their ownership of our securities or as officers, directors, employees or stockholders of Walden e-Learning, Inc.

Because the selling stockholders may sell all or some of the shares of common stock beneficially owned by them, we cannot estimate the number of shares of our common stock that will be beneficially owned by the selling stockholders after this offering. Also, the selling stockholders may sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of, at any time or from time to time after the date on which they provide the information, all or a portion of the shares of our common stock beneficially owned by them in transactions exempt from registration under the Securities Act.

Beneficial ownership is determined in accordance with Rule 13d-3(d) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. Unless otherwise noted, each person identified possesses sole voting and investment power with respect to shares of our common stock. None of the share amounts set forth below represents more than 1% of our outstanding stock as of September 15, 2004, adjusted as required by the SEC's rules, except that Ackerman-Walden Limited Partnership beneficially owns 5.2% of our outstanding stock before the offering and will own no shares of our common stock after the offering.

Name	Shares of Common Stock Owned Prior to Offering	Shares of Common Stock Offered
Ackerman-Walden Limited Partnership	2,487,245	2,487,245
Virginia Jean Ackerman	12,755	12,755
Total	2,500,000	2,500,000

The selling stockholders may offer their shares in one or more of the following transactions:

through a combination of any of the above, which may involve cross or block transactions.

In connection with the sale of the shares of our common stock, the selling stockholders may engage in short sales and may enter into hedging transactions with broker-dealers or other financial institutions which may in turn engage in short sales of the shares and deliver these securities to close out such short positions, or loan or pledge the shares to broker-dealers that in turn may sell these securities.

The aggregate proceeds to the selling stockholders from the sale of the shares will be the purchase price of the shares less any discounts and commissions. Each of the selling stockholders reserves the right to accept and, together with their agents from time to time, to reject, in whole or in part, any proposed purchase of shares to be made directly or through agents.

Our outstanding shares of common stock are listed for trading on the Nasdaq National Market under the symbol LAUR.

In order to comply with the securities laws of some states, if applicable, the shares may be sold in these jurisdictions only through registered or licensed broker-dealers. In addition, in some states the shares may not be sold unless they have been registered or qualified for sale or an exemption from registration or requirements is available and is complied with.

ITEM 17. UNDERTAKINGS.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement: (i) to include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended; (ii) to reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of this registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in this registration statement; (iii) to include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in this registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement; provided, however, that the undertakings set forth in paragraphs (i) and (ii) above do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed by the Registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, that are incorporated by reference in the registration statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered herein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered hereby which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(4) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, each filing of the Registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer, or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

SIGNATURES

Pursuant to the requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, the Registrant certifies that it has reasonable grounds to believe that it meets all of the requirements for filing on Form S-3 and has duly caused this registration statement to be signed on its behalf by the undersigned, thereunto duly authorized, in the City of Baltimore, State of Maryland, on September 17, 2004.
