the candidate as the Board deems appropriate. The independent directors will consider the candidate's qualifications, the assessment of the individual's background, skills and abilities, and whether such characteristics fulfill the needs of the Board at that time, confer and reach a collective assessment as to the qualifications and suitability of the candidate for Board membership.

If a majority of the independent directors determine that the candidate is suitable and meets the criteria for Board membership, the candidate will be invited to meet with senior management of the Company, both to allow the candidate to obtain further information about the Company and to give management a basis for input to the Board regarding the candidate. On the basis of its assessment, and taking into consideration input from senior management, the Board will formally consider whether to recommend the candidate's nomination for election to the Board of Directors. Approval by a majority of the independent directors will be required to recommend the candidate's nomination.

Salary Continuation Agreements

Since 1978, the Company has entered into salary continuation agreements with eligible employees (the Salary Continuation Agreements) which will remain in effect for 2006, subject to amendment. The Salary Continuation Agreements generally provide for a retirement benefit of 50% of the employee's salary on the date of entering into the agreement. The retirement benefit is payable over 15 years commencing at age 65. The Salary Continuation Agreements also provide that in the event an employee dies while in the employ of the Company after entering into a Salary Continuation Agreement but before retirement, his or her beneficiaries, for a period of one year, will receive 100% of such employee's salary at the time of entering into the Salary Continuation Agreement. Thereafter, for a period of 10 years, or until such time as the employee would have attained age 65, whichever period is longer, the beneficiaries will receive 50% of such salary yearly. In addition, the Salary Continuation Agreements provide scheduled vested benefits which are payable to the employee in a lump sum upon termination of service with the Company for any reason other than death or retirement at age 65. All officers and certain other key employees of the Company with three full years of service are eligible to enter into a Salary Continuation Agreement. Directors of the Company who are not also executive officers or employees are not parties to a Salary Continuation Agreement.

The annual benefits payable upon retirement at age 65 for each of Messrs. Stout and Lewis are currently $138,750 (expected to increase to $175,950 in 2006) and $74,000, respectively. Currently, Mr. Moore would receive $59,900 and Mr. Parkey would receive annual benefits of $63,000 payable upon retirement at age 65. These amounts may be adjusted periodically.

Termination Benefits

Pursuant to severance benefits agreements with the Company, in the event that Mr. Stout or Mr. Lewis is terminated or resigns after a change in responsibilities or a decrease in the level of compensation, then he will receive an amount equal to 18 months' compensation. Based on current levels of compensation, such amounts would be $527,850 for Mr. Stout and $266,400 for Mr. Lewis.

Compensation of Directors

Currently each director who is not an employee of the Company receives a monthly fee of $1,250 plus a fee of $1,500 for each attended meeting of the Board or any Committee of which he or she is a member. These levels of compensation are applicable to 2005 and 2006.

Each director who is not also an employee of the Company is eligible for grants of non-qualified stock options under the 2004 Equity Incentive Plan (the "Equity Incentive Plan"). Generally, directors who are not employees of the Company have been awarded options to purchase 10,000 shares of Common Stock upon joining the Board and options to purchase 1,000 shares of Common Stock for each succeeding year of service, with the exercise price equal to the fair market value of the Common Stock on the date of grant. Pursuant to the terms of the Equity Incentive Plan, no non-employee director is eligible for a grant of incentive stock options under the Equity Incentive Plan.

Compensation Committee Report

Decisions on compensation of the Company's executive officers are made by the Compensation Committee of the Company's Board of Directors. Each member of the Compensation Committee is a non-employee director and is independent as that term is defined in the current rules of the AMEX. It is the responsibility of the Compensation Committee to determine whether in its judgment the Company's executive compensation policies are reasonable and appropriate, meet their stated objectives and effectively serve the best interests of the Company and its shareholders.

Compensation Philosophy and Policies for Executive Officers

The Compensation Committee believes that the primary objectives of the Company's executive compensation policies should be:

- to attract and retain talented executives by providing compensation that is, overall, competitive with the compensation provided to executives at companies of comparable size and position in the restaurant industry, while maintaining compensation within levels that are consistent with the Company's overall financial objectives and operating performance;

- to provide the appropriate incentives for executive officers to work towards the achievement of the Company's annual sales, operating and development targets; and

to determine if it is appropriate for the Company to provide long-term incentive compensation to its executive officers in the form of stock options or other stock-based awards in order to align the interests of its executive officers closely with those of its shareholders and the long-term interests of the Company.

The Compensation Committee believes that the Company's executive compensation policies should be reviewed each year following the time when the financial results of the prior year are available. The policies are reviewed in light of their consistency with the Company's financial performance, the success achieved in meeting its sales and operating performance targets, achieving its overall strategic business plan objectives and its position within the restaurant industry. The compensation of individual executive officers is reviewed annually by the Compensation Committee in light of the executive compensation policies established for that year.

The Compensation Committee sets the base compensation of the executive officers at a level that it believes appropriate considering the overall strategic direction of the Company, its position within the relative segment of the food service industry in which it operates and the overall responsibilities of each executive officer. The Compensation Committee believes that in addition to corporate performance, it is appropriate to consider in setting and reviewing executive compensation the personal contributions the particular individual may make to the success of the corporate enterprise. Such qualitative factors as demonstrated leadership skills, planning initiatives, development and morale building skills, and other such related factors have been deemed to be important qualitative factors to take into account when considering levels of compensation.

Compensation of Executive Officers

The Compensation Committee believes that the compensation for each of the Named Officers should consist of a base salary, the potential for an annual bonus and long-term stock-based incentive compensation and has applied the policies described herein to fiscal 2005 compensation for executive officers as described below.

Base Compensation. Base salaries for the Named Officers are at fixed levels generally believed to be between the 25th and 75th percentiles of salaries paid to senior managers with comparable qualifications, experience and responsibility at other corporations engaged in similar businesses as the Company. The Compensation Committee subjectively determined, on the basis of discussions with the Chief Executive Officer and its experience in business generally and with the Company specifically, what it viewed to be appropriate levels of base compensation after taking into consideration each executive's contributions and the level of performance of the Company overall. As a result of this review, increases averaging approximately 4.8% in the base salaries for the Named Officers for fiscal 2005 were made, with specific increases varying from 4.0% to 5.6%, reflecting the Compensation Committee's subjective judgment as to individual contributions towards meeting the Company's overall financial objectives and financial performance. The Compensation Committee did not assign any relative weight to the quantitative and qualitative factors which it applied subjectively in reaching its base compensation decisions. For 2006, base salaries were increased by an average of 3.5%.

Annual Incentive Compensation. In 2005, the Compensation Committee adopted the Cash Incentive Performance Program (CIPP), which provided for annual bonuses to be paid to the Named Officers in cash as a percentage of their base salaries for 2005 if the Company achieved specified adjusted earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation, amortization, pre-opening costs and stock option expense (adjusted EBITDA) for fiscal 2005. The possible bonuses for 2005 ranged from 12.5% to 70% of base salary levels, depending on the Committee's determinations for each Named Officer and the adjusted EBITDA achieved. The Compensation Committee also may consider, and has in the past considered, other factors when awarding annual bonuses, such as the executive's ability to increase same store sales, improve corporate operating profits or maintain them at the appropriate levels for the sales achieved, and meet the Company's overall strategic business plan objectives. Additional considerations may include the executive's contribution to concept development and improvement in financial performance and the impact the executive officers have on programs that enhance shareholder value.

The Compensation Committee generally believes that an annual bonus award in the range of 12.5% to 100% of the executive officer's annual base compensation is appropriate in light of the relatively low to moderate base salary levels. For fiscal 2005, no bonuses were awarded to the executive officers because the Company failed to reach the adjusted EBITDA target set forth in the CIPP.

Long-Term Incentive Compensation. During the Company's fiscal year the Compensation Committee considers the advisability of granting the Company's senior executives long-term incentive compensation in the form of awards under the Company's stock incentive plan. The Compensation Committee believes that its past grants of stock options have successfully focused the Company's management team on building profitability and enhancing shareholder value.

The Company currently has no set policy as to when stock options should be awarded. The Compensation Committee believes that the Company should make it a part of its regular executive compensation policies to consider granting annual awards of stock options to executive officers to provide long-term incentives as part of each executive's annual compensation package. The Compensation Committee also believes that any grant should be made on terms established at the time of the annual review, and that the exercise price of stock options should generally be the fair market value of the Company's Common Stock on the date of grant. Generally, the Compensation Committee's policy is that stock options should vest in increments over a period of three or more years.

The Compensation Committee believes that long-term stock-based incentive compensation should be structured so as to closely align the interests of the executives with those of the Company's shareholders. The Compensation Committee determines the award of stock option grants to the executive officers and takes into account the recommendations of the Chief Executive Officer prior to approving annual awards of long-term stock-based incentive compensation to the other executive officers.

In 2005, the Compensation Committee approved grants of stock options to each of the Named Officers after considering that the only grants received by those persons in recent years were grants for the purchase of 5,000 shares received by each of Messrs. Moore and Parkey in 2003 and that granting additional equity incentives would better align the interests of the Named Officers with those of the shareholders. Each Named Officer received an option to purchase a specified number of shares at an exercise price of $8.22 per share, which was the closing sale price of the Common Stock on the American Stock Exchange on the date of grant, as well as an option to purchase a specified number of shares at an exercise price of $9.50 per share, a 15.6% premium to the then-current market price. The share amounts granted are those set forth above, under Option Grants in Last Fiscal Year. The options were granted pursuant to the Company's 2004 Equity Incentive Plan. The options have a term of ten years and are intended to be incentive stock options to the extent permitted under the Internal Revenue Code. The options are immediately exercisable, but any shares of Common Stock that are purchased are subject to restrictions on resale and may not be sold or disposed of prior to December 21, 2007. The resale restrictions lapse upon termination of the optionee's employment for any reason. The Compensation Committee also considered that the Company would not be required to recognize compensation expense with respect to options that were granted in 2005 and were fully vested at the time of grant.

Loan Program

In 1999, the Company's Board of Directors established a loan program designed to enable eligible employees to purchase shares of the Company's Common Stock. Under the program eligible participants were permitted to borrow an amount equal to the full price of Common Stock purchased. The program authorized $1 million in loans to employees. The employee loans are payable on December 31, 2006, unless repaid sooner pursuant to terms of the loan program. Pursuant to the terms of the loan program, participants received one share of Common Stock and one share of restricted stock under the Company's 1994 Employee Stock Incentive Plan for every 20 shares purchased pursuant to the loan program. The restricted stock vested in 20% increments on the second through sixth anniversaries of the date of issuance. The Compensation Committee believes that the loan program, which facilitated employee purchases of Common Stock, more closely aligns employee interests with shareholder interests.

Compensation of Chief Executive Officer

The Compensation Committee believes that the Chief Executive Officer's compensation is consistent with its general policies concerning executive compensation and is appropriate in light of the Company's financial objectives and performance. Awards of long-term incentive compensation to the Chief Executive Officer are considered concurrently with awards to other executive officers and follow the same general policies as such other long-term incentive awards. The Compensation Committee granted a stock option award to the Chief Executive Officer in 2005, with a significant portion exercisable at a price per share in excess of the fair market value of the Common Stock on the date of grant, in order to more closely link compensation to stockholders' interests.

Compliance with Internal Revenue Code Section 162(m).

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code), enacted in 1993, generally prohibits public companies from deducting the Chief Executive Officer's and four other most highly compensated executive officers' compensation, to the extent such compensation exceeds $1 million for any individual officer. Performance-based compensation is not subject to the deduction limit if certain requirements are met. Since the compensation of each of the Company's executive officers is significantly less than $1 million, the Company has not addressed the steps that it would take to structure the performance-based portion of the compensation of its executive officers in a manner that would comply with the statute.

AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors is comprised of three non-employee directors and operates under a written charter. The Restated Audit Committee Charter is posted on the Company's website at www.jalexanders.com. The Audit Committee is comprised of Joseph N. Steakley (Chairman), Brenda B. Rector and Garland G. Fritts, each of whom is independent under the rules of the American Stock Exchange and applicable Securities and Exchange Commission regulations. The Board of Directors has determined that each of Joseph N. Steakley and Brenda B. Rector is an audit committee financial expert as defined by the Securities and Exchange Commission, and that each of them is independent as that term is used in item 7(d)(3)(iv) of Schedule 14A of the Securities Exchange Act. During 2005, the Audit Committee met nine times.

The primary purpose of the Audit Committee is to assist the Board of Directors in fulfilling its responsibility to oversee (i) the integrity of the financial statements of the Company, (ii) the Company's compliance with legal and regulatory requirements, (iii) the independent registered public accounting firm's qualifications and independence, and (iv) the performance of the Company's independent registered public accounting firm. The Audit Committee is directly responsible for the appointment, compensation and oversight of the work of the independent registered public accounting firm. The independent registered public accounting firm reports directly to the Audit Committee. Management has the primary responsibility for the financial statements and the reporting process, including internal control over financial reporting. The Company's independent registered public accounting firm is responsible for planning and carrying out proper annual audits and quarterly reviews of the Company's financial statements in accordance with standards established by the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and expressing an opinion on the conformity of the Company's audited financial statements with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

In the performance of its oversight function, the Audit Committee has reviewed and discussed the audited financial statements with management and the independent registered public accounting firm. The Audit Committee has discussed with the independent registered public accounting firm the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 (Communication with Audit Committees), as amended by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 90 (Audit Committee Communications). In addition, the Audit Committee has received from the independent registered public accounting firm the written disclosures required by Independence Standards Board No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees) and discussed with them its independence from the Company and its management. The Audit Committee has considered whether the independent registered public accounting firm's provision of non-audit services to the Company is compatible with the independent registered public accounting firm's independence.

The Audit Committee discussed with the Company's independent registered public accounting firm the overall scope and plans for its audit. The Audit Committee meets with the independent registered public accounting firm, with and without management present, to discuss the results of its audit and the evaluations of the Company's internal control over financial reporting.

In reliance on the reviews and discussions referred to above, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited financial statements be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended January 1, 2006, for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Respectfully submitted,
Joseph N. Steakley (Chair)

The foregoing report of the Audit Committee shall not be deemed incorporated by reference by any general statement incorporating by reference the Proxy Statement into any filing under the Securities Act of 1933 or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, except to the extent that the Company specifically incorporates this information by reference, and shall not otherwise be deemed filed under such acts.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

E. Townes Duncan, a director of the Company, is a minority owner of and manages the investments of Solidus Company, the Company's largest shareholder. Pursuant to a Stock Purchase and Standstill Agreement between Solidus, LLC (the predecessor to Solidus) and the Company dated March 22, 1999, Solidus purchased 1,086,266 shares of Common Stock for $3.75 per share, for an aggregate purchase price of $4,073,497.50 and agreed to certain restrictions on its ownership for seven years, including restrictions on its ability to sell Common Stock or hold more than 33% of the Common Stock. Solidus also agreed it would not exercise rights attributable to the 1,086,266 shares of Common Stock purchased on March 22, 1999, during the Company's rights offering in 1999.

The Stock Purchase and Standstill Agreement was scheduled to expire on March 22, 2006. The Company and Solidus entered into an Amended and Restated Standstill Agreement dated July 31, 2005 (Standstill Agreement) which replaces the former Stock Purchase and Standstill Agreement. In the Standstill Agreement, the former restrictions were continued and Solidus agreed that (i) Solidus and its affiliates would not acquire or hold more than 33% of the Company's Common Stock; (ii) Solidus and its affiliates would not solicit proxies for a vote of the shareholders of the Company; (iii) Solidus and Solidus, L.P., a partnership in which Solidus is the general partner, any successor investment partnerships and owners of those entities receiving distributions of shares of Common Stock, would not sell the Company's Common Stock, except to the Company, a person, entity or group approved by the Company or to an affiliate of Solidus, or as otherwise noted below; and (iv) the above restrictions on ownership and ability to solicit proxies would terminate in the event of certain tender offers or exchange offers, a notice filing with the Department of Justice relating to the acquisition by a third party of more than 15% of the outstanding Common Stock or with the Commission relating to the acquisition by a third party of more than 10% of the outstanding Common Stock, the Company's proposing or approving a merger or other business combination, or a change to a majority of the Company's Board of Directors over a two-year period.

The restrictions will be extended quarterly or annually up to December, 2009, at the election of the Company, as long as the Company on a quarterly basis, declares and pays beginning before January 15, 2006, minimum cash dividends on its Common Stock, payable to all shareholders of the Company, of at least $0.025 per share, per quarter or, at its election, on an annual basis pays aggregate dividends of $0.10 per share per twelve-month period. The minimum dividend payable to effect an extension of the restrictions will be adjusted proportionately in the event of a stock split or stock dividend or certain other corporate transactions. On January 13, 2006, the Company paid a cash dividend of $0.10 per share to all shareholders of the Company which was sufficient to extend the standstill restrictions until January 15, 2007.

In addition, the Company agreed, beginning December 1, 2006, to allow Solidus to sell, free of restrictions in the Standstill Agreement, up to 100,000 shares of Common Stock each year, and to allow Solidus, L.P. to sell up to 6,000 shares each year, and, if all such shares are not sold by November 30 of the following year, they may sell those shares during the remaining term of the Standstill Agreement. The Standstill Agreement also extended a 2003 arrangement whereby the Company authorized Solidus to pledge the Common Stock of the Company owned by it as collateral security for the payment and performance of Solidus' obligations under a credit agreement with a bank. In the event that Solidus defaults on its obligations to the bank, and such default results in the need to liquidate the related collateral, the bank is required to give the Company written notice of the number of shares it intends to sell and the price at which such shares are to be sold. The Company has the exclusive right within the first 30 days subsequent to receipt of such written notice to purchase all or any portion of the shares subject to sale and, should the Company decline to purchase any of the applicable shares, the bank may sell such shares over the ensuing 50 days on terms no more favorable than the terms stated in the written notice referred to above.

The Standstill Agreement was unanimously approved on behalf of the Company by the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors, which is composed of three members, all of whom are independent directors for purposes of considering a conflict of interest transaction under Tennessee corporate law and approving the transaction on behalf of the Board of Directors. For this purpose, the Audit Committee also was advised by special counsel. Negotiations with Solidus were conducted by the Audit Committee Chair on behalf of the Company. In determining to approve the transaction, the Audit Committee considered the following factors in support of the standstill and the payment of a cash dividend to all shareholders:

Extending the restrictions on Solidus for an additional period may allow the Company to continue to pursue its business plan without the uncertainty associated with the possibility of a significant percentage of the Company's Common Stock being available for sale upon expiration of the original standstill.

The Audit Committee concluded it was to the Company's potential advantage to evaluate and negotiate an agreement to extend the standstill prior to the year in which the standstill was expected to expire.

The structure of the transaction, including a cash dividend to all shareholders payable on a per-share basis, provides the opportunity for the same value to all shareholders of the Company, rather than only to Solidus, although only Solidus must abide by the standstill restrictions.

The Company's current financial and cash flow projections support the board's expectation that cash will be available to pay the minimum dividend necessary to extend the standstill and the board confirmed its intention to declare a dividend sufficient to effect an initial extension of the standstill.

The Company will have the opportunity to consider, on a periodic basis, whether it is to the Company's advantage and in the best interest of shareholders to continue to use cash to make the dividend payment and extend the standstill for an additional quarter or year, or to use the cash for other corporate purposes, which might include development activities, including new restaurant openings, reducing debt, capital expenditures or other uses.

Shareholders may benefit from a favorable tax treatment for qualified cash dividends, which are generally taxed at a 15 % rate for U.S. taxpayers.

The Company will have the opportunity to consider in the future adopting a dividend reinvestment plan whereby shareholders could elect to purchase additional shares of the Company's Common Stock with their cash dividends.

The board also considered the following factors that it deemed potentially unfavorable consequences of an agreement requiring the Company to pay the cash dividend in consideration for the extension of the standstill:

Extension of the standstill might discourage third party offers to acquire the Company.

Using cash to pay a dividend to all shareholders may divert cash from corporate purposes that would have been more beneficial to shareholders.

In 1999, the Company's Board of Directors established a loan program designed to enable eligible employees to purchase shares of the Company's Common Stock. Under the terms of the loan program, all full-time employees as well as part-time employees who had at least five years of employment with the Company were eligible to borrow amounts ranging from a minimum of $10,000 to a maximum of 100% of their annual salary. Borrowings in excess of the maximum were allowed upon approval by the Compensation Committee or the officers of the Company, as applicable. The aggregate amount of loans authorized was $1 million.

Pursuant to the terms of the loan program, participants received one share of bonus Common Stock and one share of restricted stock issued pursuant to the Company's 1994 Employee Stock Incentive Plan for every 20 shares purchased pursuant to the loan program. The shares of restricted stock vested at a rate of 20% on each of the second through the sixth anniversaries of February 18, 2000, vesting in full in 2006.

The following officers borrowed amounts under the 1999 loan program in excess of $60,000. Mr. Stout borrowed $424,005 to purchase 128,971 shares of Common Stock. He received 6,449 shares of bonus stock and 6,449 shares of restricted stock. Mr. Moore borrowed $76,397 to purchase 23,238 shares. He received 1,162 shares of bonus stock and 1,162 shares of restricted stock. In addition, Mr. Moore received an additional loan in the amount of $1,283. The market price of the Common Stock was $3.625 per share at the time of the award of the shares of the bonus stock and the shares of restricted stock. Currently, Mr. Stout owes $373,849 to the Company.

All loans made under the loan program bear interest at an annual rate of 3%, payable quarterly, and are due and payable on December 31, 2006. In the event a participant receives from the Company bonus compensation, 30% of any such bonus is to be applied to the outstanding principal balance of the loan. Further, a participant's loan may become due and payable upon termination of a participant's employment or failure to make any payment when due, as well as under other circumstances set forth in the loan program documents. The interest rate and payment terms are adjusted to higher rates in the event a participant sells or pledges the shares purchased pursuant to the loan program (including shares of bonus stock and restricted stock awarded in connection with the program) without the Company's prior consent.

Mr. Reed is a member of the law firm of Bass, Berry & Sims PLC. This law firm has served as the Company's outside legal counsel since the Company's inception in 1971.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE INTERLOCKS AND INSIDER PARTICIPATION

The Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors is composed of Brenda B. Rector, Chair, E. Townes Duncan and Garland G. Fritts. None of these persons has at any time been an officer or employee of the Company or any of its subsidiaries. In addition, there are no relationships among the Company's executive officers, members of the Compensation Committee or entities whose executives serve on the Board of Directors that require disclosure under applicable Commission regulations.

SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act requires the Company's executive officers and directors, and persons who own more than 10% of a registered class of the Company's equity securities, to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership with the Commission and AMEX. Executive officers, directors and greater than 10% shareholders are required by regulation of the Commission to furnish the Company with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file.

Based solely on a review of the Forms 3, 4 and 5 and amendments thereto and certain written representations furnished to the Company, the Company believes that during the fiscal year ended January 1, 2006, its executive officers and directors complied with all applicable filing requirements, except E. Townes Duncan filed a late report on Form 4 with respect to the sale of 1,400 shares of Common Stock on November 16, 2005.

RELATIONSHIP WITH INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

KPMG LLP (KPMG) has been appointed to serve as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for fiscal 2006 and served as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for the year ended January 1, 2006. ended January 2, 2005 and Ernst & Young LLP (Ernst & Young) was dismissed as the Company s independent registered public accounting firm. The decision to change independent registered public accounting firm was made by the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee expressed its satisfaction with the services of Ernst & Young, which had served as the Company s independent registered public accounting firm since the Company s inception.

Ernst & Young s reports on the Company s consolidated financial statements for the fiscal years ended December 28, 2003 and December 29, 2002 did not contain an adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion, nor were they qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles.

During the fiscal years ended December 28, 2003 and December 29, 2002 and through the date of Ernst & Young s dismissal, there were no disagreements with Ernst & Young on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure or auditing scope or procedure which, if not resolved to Ernst & Young s satisfaction, would have caused them to make reference to the subject matter in connection with their report on the Company s consolidated financial statements for such years; and there were no reportable events as listed in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K.

During the years ended December 28, 2003 and December 29, 2002 and through the date of Ernst & Young s dismissal, the Company did not consult KPMG regarding any of the matters or events set forth in Items 304(a)(2)(i) and (ii) of Regulation S-K.

The Company has been informed that representatives of KPMG plan to attend the Annual Meeting. Such representatives will have the opportunity to make a statement if they desire to do so and will be available to respond to shareholders questions.

Audit Fees. The aggregate fees billed to the Company by KPMG during 2005 for professional services rendered for the audit of the Company s annual financial statements, for the reviews of the financial statements included in the quarterly reports on Form 10-Q and services that are normally provided by the independent registered public accounting firm in connection with statutory and regulatory filings totaled $160,000. The aggregate fees billed to the Company by KPMG during 2004 for professional services rendered for the audit of the Company s annual financial statements, for the reviews of the financial statements included in the quarterly reports on Form 10-Q and services that are normally provided by the independent registered public accounting firm in connection with statutory and regulatory filings totaled $202,500.

Audit-Related Fees. The aggregate fees billed to the Company by KPMG for professional services related to employee benefit plans totaled $18,000 in 2004 and no such services were provided by KPMG in 2005.

Tax Fees. No tax-related services were provided to the Company by KPMG in 2004 or 2005.

All Other Fees. No other services were provided to the Company by KPMG in 2004 or 2005.

All audit related services, tax services and other services for 2004 and 2005 were pre-approved by the Audit Committee, except for de minimis fees approved in advance by the Audit Committee chair and disclosed to and ratified by the Audit Committee pursuant to the Committee s pre-approval policy for non-audit services. The Audit Committee concluded that the provision of such services by KPMG was compatible with the maintenance of such firm s independence in the conduct of its auditing function.

DEADLINE FOR SUBMISSION OF SHAREHOLDER PROPOSALS TO BE PRESENTED AT THE 2007 ANNUAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

Any proposal intended to be presented for action at the 2007 Annual Meeting of Shareholders by any shareholder of the Company must be received by the Secretary of the Company not later than December 20, 2006, in order for such proposal to be considered for inclusion in the Company's Proxy Statement and proxy relating to its 2007 Annual Meeting of Shareholders. Nothing in this paragraph shall be deemed to require the Company to include any shareholder proposal that does not meet all the Commission's requirements for inclusion in effect at the time.

For other shareholder proposals to be timely (but not considered for inclusion in the Company's Proxy Statement), a shareholder's notice must be received by the Secretary of the Company not less than 75 days nor more than 90 days prior to April 19, 2007. For proposals that are not timely filed, the Company retains discretion to vote proxies it receives. For proposals that are timely filed, the Company retains discretion to vote proxies it receives provided (1) it includes in the Proxy Statement advice on the nature of the proposal and how the Company intends to exercise its voting discretion and (2) the proponent does not issue a proxy statement.

METHOD OF COUNTING VOTES

Unless a contrary choice is indicated, all duly executed proxies will be voted in accordance with the instructions set forth on the proxy card. A broker non-vote occurs when a broker holding shares registered in street name is permitted to vote, in the broker's discretion, on routine matters without receiving instructions from the client, but is not permitted to vote without instructions on non-routine matters, and the broker returns a proxy card with no vote (the non-vote) on the non-routine matter. Under the rules and regulations of the primary trading markets applicable to most brokers, the election of directors is a routine matter on which a broker has the discretion to vote if instructions are not received from the client in a timely manner. Abstentions and broker non-votes will be counted as present for purposes of determining the existence of a quorum. Directors will be elected by a plurality of the votes cast in the election by the holders of the Common Stock represented and entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting. Abstentions and broker non-votes will not be counted as votes for or against any director nominee.
