Item 8.01 Other Events

Expiration of the “Go Shop” Period

As previously disclosed, on June 10, 2011, Gerber Scientific, Inc., a Connecticut corporation (the “Company”), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “Merger Agreement”) with Vector Knife Holdings (Cayman), Ltd., a newly formed Cayman company (“Parent”) and Knife Merger Sub, Inc., a newly formed Connecticut corporation and wholly owned subsidiary of Parent (“Merger Sub”), which provided for a “go shop” period beginning on the date of the Merger Agreement and continuing through July 25, 2011 (the “Go Shop Period”).

The Merger Agreement provides that, during the Go Shop Period, the Company was permitted to initiate, solicit and encourage alternative acquisition proposals from third parties and provide non-public information to and enter into discussions or negotiations with third parties with respect to alternative acquisition proposals.

At the direction and under the supervision of the Company’s board of directors, RA Capital Advisors, LLC, financial advisor to the Company’s board of directors (“RA Capital”), conducted the “go shop” process on behalf of the Company. Representatives of RA Capital contacted parties that RA Capital advised the Company, based on size and business interests, might be capable of, and might be interested in, pursuing a transaction with the Company. During the Go Shop Period, representatives of RA Capital contacted a total of 31 parties, comprised of 12 strategic parties and 19 private equity firms, to solicit their interest in a possible alternative transaction. In addition, five private equity firms contacted RA Capital regarding a potential interest in acquiring the Company.

Of the 31 parties contacted by RA Capital and the five private equity firms that contacted RA Capital, three private equity firms executed a confidentiality agreement and were granted access to certain non-public information regarding the Company. Ultimately, all three of these private equity firms affirmatively indicated to RA Capital that they were not interested in pursuing a transaction with Company. Despite an active and extensive solicitation of potentially interested parties in connection with the “go shop” process since the announcement of the Merger Agreement, none of the 36 parties, nor any other party, submitted an alternative acquisition proposal to the Company prior to the expiration of the Go Shop Period.

On July 26, 2011, the Company issued a news release announcing the expiration of the Go Shop Period and the absence of any alternative acquisition proposals made to the Company during such period, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and incorporated herein by reference.

Important Information

The Company has filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) and mailed to its shareholders a definitive proxy statement regarding the proposed acquisition of the Company by Vector Capital Corporation (“Vector”). Investors and security holders are urged to read the definitive proxy statement relating to such acquisition and any other relevant documents filed with the SEC because they contain important information. Investors and security holders may obtain a free copy of the definitive proxy statement and other documents that the Company files with the SEC from the SEC’s website at www.sec.gov and the Company’s website at www.gerberscientific.com. Forward-looking Statements

Certain statements herein are “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Words such as “anticipates,” “will,” “could,” “should,” “believes,” “expects,” “estimates,” “intends,” “plans,” “projects,” and similar expressions, may identify such forward-looking statements. Such forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties regarding the Company's expected financial condition, results of operations and cash flows. For information identifying other important economic, political, regulatory, legal, technological, competitive and other uncertainties, readers are referred to the Company's filings with the SEC, including but not limited to, the information included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended April 30, 2011, which outlines certain important risks regarding the Company's forward-looking statements, as well as information included in subsequently filed Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q and Current Reports on Form 8-K. These risks include, but are not limited to, delays in the Company's new product development and commercialization, intense competition in markets for each of the Company's operating segments, rapid technological advances, availability and cost of raw materials, adverse economic and credit market conditions, volatility in foreign currency exchange rates, fluctuations in interest rates and the parties' ability to consummate the proposed acquisition of the Company by Vector. Actual future results or events may differ materially from these forward-looking statements. The forward-looking statements contained herein are made as of the date of this filing and the Company expressly disclaims any obligation to update any of these forward-looking statements, except as required by law.
