To Our Electric and Natural Gas Customers:

Today, we announced that Integrys Energy Group will join forces with Wisconsin Energy Corporation, creating a larger, more diverse electric and natural gas company that has the operational expertise, size and financial resources to better serve you – our valued customer. Please visit <http://www.integrysgroup.com/transaction/> for more information about this announcement.

Like us, Wisconsin Energy is a Midwest-based utility company that shares our commitment to deliver safe, reliable service and provide high value customer service. Wisconsin Energy is Wisconsin’s largest electric and gas distribution company and is consistently ranked as one of the best companies in the nation for reliability and customer satisfaction.

This is a unique opportunity to bring together two well-regarded utility operators that can combine their operational expertise to deliver additional benefits for customers. Through the sharing of best practices around outage response, energy efficiency and call centers across a larger organization, we will be able to deliver even better, more efficient service.

We want this transaction to be seamless for our customers, meaning that you will continue to receive safe and reliable service from our company. The way you interact with us will not change – the same neighbors and friends that you have relied on over the years will continue to serve you.

For many in our community, we are more than the local energy company, we are philanthropic partner and I want to assure our partners that our corporate giving programs will not change. We will remain an active supporter of local organization and events – giving back to our communities is core to who we are.

We expect to complete the transaction with Wisconsin Energy in the summer of 2015, and until then, we will continue to operate as a separate company. I want to assure you that it will be business as usual for our employees now – and after we become a part of Wisconsin Energy. Even though our ownership structure will change, our commitment to serve remains as steadfast as ever.
